Homicide at Shelmerdine.

On Christmas day there was a shooting match at Shelmerdine for chickens. Charlie Boykin and Jesse Haddock, both white, got into a dispute over a 5 cent shot. While Boykin had his back turned toward Haddock the latter shot him with a pistol. As Boykin turned around to face his assailant, Haddock fired on him again with a shot gun, the lead taking effect in the bowels. Boykin lived about two hours after the shooting. He was formerly of Wilson county but had been at Shelmerdine about two years.

Coroner Laughinghouse went down Saturday evening to hold an inquest and the verdict of the jury was that Boykin came to his death from a gun shot wound in the hands of Jesse Haddock. The coroner ordered Haddock taken in custody and placed a jail commitment in the hands of the officer who had him in charge. Later the officer took Haddock before a magistrate and the latter released him from custody under a $1,000 verified bond.

Enough to Make One Man Happy.

The editor's Christmas presents consisted of three turkeys, a bunch of bananas, four cravats, one pair of gloves, a cravat case, an elegant gold mounted merschaum pipe, twelve sacks of smocking tobacco, a $5 gold coin and two $1 bills. Pretty nice Christmas, thank you.

Possum on Wall Street.

Sunday's express carried a big fat live possum from Col. I. A. Sugg, one of the Greenville bulls, to a Wall street firm, D. J. Sully & Co. That possum will fare but common on the exchange.

All Prisoners Escaped.

When the jailor went to the jail to feed the prisoners this morning he found none to feed. All of them, six in number and all colored, had made their escape during the night. To save fuel by running only one fire all the prisoners had been put together in one cell on the lower floor. They fled off the lock to the cell door and then dug out a portion of the brick wall through which they crawled to liberty.

B. McDowell. Secretary—J. O. Tyson, assistant, Hugh Bagsdale. Treasurer—J. J. Cherry. Librarian—Z. P. Vandyke, assistant, Hugh Sheppard. Upside down or right corner—Write no more. In middle at top—Yes. In middle at bottom—No. In right hand corner at right angle—Do you love me? In left hand corner at right angle—I hate you. Top corner at right—I wish your friendship. On line with surname—Accept my love. Same upside down—I am engaged. Same at right angle—I long to see you.—American Times-Recorder.

Head Badly Cut.

The afternoon before Christmas a turkey escaped from a cart on Evans street. In a desperate effort to save its neck from the hatchet, the bird flew through the glass panel of the door of Zeno Moore & Bros. store. Lonnie Fleming, a clerk in the store, happened to be crossing the door at the time and fragments of the shattered glass flew all over him. His head was badly cut in several places and he has since been laid up from the wounds.

Sermon by Young Minister.

Mr. Robert Fleming, Jr., of Pactolus, who is a ministerial student at Wake Forest College, preached in the Baptist church here Sunday morning. His subject was "Draw Near to God," and his sermon contained many good thoughts and practical illustrations. His delivery was good and he bids fair to much usefulness in his calling.

Married.

At the home of the bride, in South Greenville, on Christmas eve, Mr. Samuel Flake and Miss Lizzie Fleming were married by Rev. James Corbitt. Only a few relatives and friends were present.

Union Sunday School Meeting.

The union Sunday school mass meeting for the last quarter was held Sunday afternoon in the Baptist church, the devotional exercises being conducted by Rev. F. G. Hartman.

Rev. W. E. Powell delivered a strong address on the subject of whether the schools should be called Sunday schools or Bible schools. His argument favored the latter, as he said names should have a significance and stand for something.

There were interesting recitations by Miss Mary Lucy Dupree of the Presbyterian school, and Miss Annie Leonard Tyson of the Baptist school.

The statistical reports of the several schools was not so good as at the previous meeting, the falling off being due to the cold weather.

The next union will be held in the Presbyterian church the last Sunday in March, and a request was made of the different superintendents to assemble their schools and attend the union in a body.

Tar Heel Girl Calls Him Down.

"A young North Carolina girl gave me a center shot the other day as a token of locality which is more pronounced in the South than elsewhere," said Mr. Henry O. Connors, of Baltimore, at the Ed-bitt.

"It was quite a small place, but it boasted one very fine hotel, at which I stopped all night. After a good breakfast I paid my bill to the grown daughter of the lady who ran the tavern and who was quite up in the duties of a cashier.

"You have a nice little town here, m's', said I, trying to make friends with the good-looking clerk, but I must say that I never knew there was such a town on the map till the Southern railway landed me here yesterday.

"Eyeing me coolly and looking me square in the eye, the Tar Heel maiden said: "Where are you from, mister?" I owned up to Baltimore, and this is what she handed me: "Well, I reckon there's lots of folks in Baltimore that are just as ignorant as you."

All this war talk between Russia and Japan and between Columbia and the United States, looks like there will be warm times early in the new year.

Charlotte's recent heavy winnings at cotton futures had an effect on Christmas trade. The Observer says the amount of money spent there this Christmas was far ahead of any former year. Money just flowed.

The Durham depot has got near enough for the selection of a site to be talked about. If the building progresses at the same rate as the preliminaries it may be completed by the time another century rolls around.

That was a big undertaking Josephus Daniels asked his brethren of the Press to perform, publish his nine column reply to Josiah Bailey—that is those who published Bailey's article were asked to do so. Mighty glad THE REFLECTOR can skip the task.

The Raleigh Post of Sunday was a big editorial of 24 pages devoted largely to the city of Durham. Among other features was a picture of the Durham union depot that is to be. It looks well on paper and may be some consolation to the folks of the bull city to see that much of it.

But put it in the hands of church members and make it respectable and a source of revenue whereby to "decrease our taxes," and like the poor, we will have it with us always.
—Henderson Gold Leaf.

There are at various places in the United States the graves of some 30,000 Confederate prisoners of war who died while in prison. Many are on land not owned, but leased by the government. Others are on land owned by the United States, but the graves are in large part imperfectly marked, and the ground is not properly inclosed. A bill is pending in the Senate and has been favorably reported making a modest appropriation to acquire possession of leased land to inclose all lands containing graves, and to mark each grave with a stone like those in the Confederate section at Arlington, giving the name, with company, regiment, and State of the dead. This bill, The New York Times declares, is for the performance of a duty to which the attention of Congress was first called twenty five years ago. "and," it adds "there should be no question of its passage.—Charlotte Chronicle.

Putting Papa Up a Tree.

"Pop," said little Willie, do you know anything of science?"
"Well, my boy," replied his father, modestly, "although I am no scientist, yet I may safely say that I have given some attention to matters scientific. Why?"
"Oh, nothing. Only I thought I'd like to ask you a question."
"My boy," said his father, confidently, "put your question and I'll answer it. Never hesitate in the pursuit of knowledge."
"Well, pop, it's this: When you look into a mirror the left side of your face appears to be the right side and the right side appears to be the left side, doesn't it?"
"Yes, my boy." The mirror reverses things."
"That's what I thought. Well pop, what I want to know is, if the mirror reverses the right and left sides of the face, why doesn't it reverse the top and bottom of your face the same way?"
"H'm!" said his father. "If you haven't anything better to do than think up fool questions you'd better go to bed."

FROM SOUTH AFRICA.

New Way of Using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. Arthur Chapman writing from Durban, Natal, South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a cure suitable for old and young, I pen you the following: A neighbor of mine had a child just over two months old. It had a very bad cough and the parents did not know what to give it. I suggested that if they would get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and put some upon the dummy teat the baby was sucking it would no doubt cure the child. This they did and brought about a quick relief and cured the baby." This remedy is for sale by Wooten's Drug Store Greenville and R. L. Davis Farmville.

The Best Liniment.

"Chamberlain's Pain Balm is considered the best liniment on the market," writes Post & Bliss of Georgia, Vt. No other liniment will heal a cut or bruise so promptly. No other affords such quick relief from rheumatic pains. No other is so valuable for deep seated pains like lame back and pains in the chest. Give this liniment a trial and you will never wish to be without it. Sold by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is Pleasant to Take.

The finest quality of granulated loaf sugar is used in the manufacture of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and the roots used in its preparation give it a flavor similar to maple syrup, making it quite pleasant to take. Mr. W. L. Roderick, of Polesville, Md., in speaking of this remedy, says: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with my children for several years and can truthfully say it is the best preparation of the kind I know of. The children like to take it and it has no injurious after effect. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

Only Makes a Bad Matter Worse.

Perhaps you have never thought of it but the fact must be apparent to every one that constipation caused by a lack of water in the system, and the use of drastic cathartics like the old fashioned pills only makes a bad matter worse. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are much more mild and gentle in their effect, and when the proper dose is taken their action is so natural that one can hardly realize it is the effect of a medicine. Try a 5 cent bottle of them. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

A GOOD NAME.

From personal experience I testify that Dr. Witt's Little Early Risers are unequalled as a liver pill. They are rightly named because they give strength and energy and to their work with ease.—W. T. Easton, Berne, Tex. Thousands of people are using these tiny little pills in preference to all others, because they are so pleasant and effectual. They cure biliousness, torpid liver jaundice, sick headache, constipation, etc. They do not purge and weaken, but cleanse and strengthen. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

DOESN'T RESPECT OLD AGE.

It's shameful when youth fails to show proper respect for old age, but just the contrary in the case of Dr. King's New Life Pills. They cut off maladies no matter how severe and irrespective of old age, Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Fever, Constipation all yield to this perfect Pill. 25c. at Wooten Drug Store.

A SCIENTIFIC DISCOVERY.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does for the stomach that which it is unable to do for itself, even when but slightly disordered or over-loaded. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure supplies the natural juices of digestion and does the work of the stomach, relaxing the nervous tension, while the inflamed muscles of that organ are allowed to rest and heal. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and enables the stomach and digestive organs to transform all food into rich, red blood. Sold by John L. Wooten.

A REMARKABLE CASE.

One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep seated on the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold by John L. Wooten.

WREED OFFILES AFTER 40 YEARS.

Invaluable for cuts, burns, bruises, sprains, laceration, eczema, tetter, salt rheum, and all other skin diseases. Look for the name DeWitt on the package—all others are cheap, worthless counterfeits. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

To the Tobacco Planters of Eastern North Carolina.

We want every tobacco farmer who has not taken stock in the Farmers' Consolidated Tobacco Company to come to see us at the Farmers Warehouse, Greenville N. C., whether you bring tobacco or not.

We want to explain to you the plan of the organization. This is a matter in which every tobacco grower, and every citizen of the county who is interested in the well being of the tobacco farmers, should feel a personal interest. If it is a good thing for the tobacco farmers it should and will be supported and patronized. If it is no good thing, then the tobacco farmers should condemn it.

We ask you, however, to look into it yourself and be your own judge. Do not listen to what any one says about it, but as a free man draw your own conclusions and we will abide by your decision.

We a ready have enough farmers in it to make it a grand success in the warehouse business, but that is not all we want. We want every farmer in Eastern North Carolina who feels the necessity of united effort on the part of the tobacco farmers to become interested, and if you will examine our plans in a cool business way we are satisfied you will join us.

THE AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEW OF REVIEWS

THE NECESSARY MAGAZINE IN THE PRESIDENTIAL YEAR.

The Review of Reviews is often called a necessity, in recognition of its usefulness in keeping readers "up with the times."

In Presidential election years the REVIEW OF REVIEWS is more than ever "the necessary magazine." Everybody wants to be truly and quickly informed about this or that public question that has forged to the front; to know about the new candidates and personal factors in politics, to have a complete picture at hand of the current movement of history.

In Dr. Shaw's editorials, in its authentic and timely contributions, in its brilliant character sketches, in its condensations and reviews of all the important articles of other magazines, and in its hundred a month of valuable portraits, witty cartoons, and interesting views, the REVIEW OF REVIEWS gives the much desired news of the world's and our own progress. "The World under a Field-glass" is the way one subscriber describes it.

Men in public life, like President Theodore Roosevelt, the members of Congress, and the great captains of industry, who must keep "up with the times," intelligent men and women all over America, have decided it is "indispensable."

Tallest Building on Earth.
New York, Dec. 26.—The tallest building on earth is to be erected in lower Broadway if present plans are carried out. With five stories below the street level, forty stories high from the entrance to the top floor and surmounted by a 60-foot tower, the gigantic new building will have a total height of 615 feet making it over twice as high as the Flat iron building, and almost as tall again as the Park Row building, which at present holds the record.
This building would extend one full block on Broadway and its east, including the site, will reach $10,000,000.
The land is said to have been secured, and the completion of the building within one year is promised.

Pistols With Fireworks.
The greatest danger arising from the shooting of fireworks Christmas was the reckless way in which pistols were discharged on the streets to increase the noise. A pistol ball crashing through a plate glass store window, Thursday night, shows the danger of this. It is better to suppress the whole fire works shooting hereafter than to have such as this going on.

Letters from Women

Cured by the use of Kodol are received daily. Their troubles nearly all begin with indigestion or other stomach disorder.
If the food you eat fails to give strength to your body, it is because the juices secreted by the stomach and digestive organs are inadequate to transform the nutrient properties of the food into blood. That is indigestion. The system is deprived of the amount of nourishment required to keep up the strength, and the result is that one or more of the delicate organs gradually grows weak, and then weaker, until finally it is diseased. Here a great mistake is made. That of treating the diseased organ. The best doctors in the land make this very mistake. Why should they? It is so easy to see that the trouble is not there.

Kodol Cures

This famous remedy puts the stomach and digestive organs in a healthy condition so that rich, red blood is sent coursing through the veins and arteries of every muscle, tissue and fiber throughout every organ of the entire body, and by Nature's law of health, full strength and vigor is soon restored to each.
Kodol cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach disorders.
I have taken Kodol for nearly two months after each meal and it is the only remedy that gave relief from the terrible pains I endured. After a time I would take it but once a day, and now while I keep a bottle handy, I seldom need it, as it has cured me.
