Sad End of Long Journey.

McKeesport, Pa., Dec. 27.—After a journey of nearly 4,000 miles, which was to have had its termination at the nuptial altar, Miss Lillian Bennett, of Wednesday, England, today stood in the presence of the remains of her betrothed, Ambrose Good, who was killed in the wreck of the Duquesne limited last Wednesday evening. The scene in the little darkened parlor of the home of Thomas B. Good, a brother of Ambrose, was pathetic.

Just across the street from the home of Thomas Good stands the cottage which Miss Bennett's intended husband had purchased and furnished for her. Tomorrow, which was to have been the last before the wedding, will witness the funeral.

Thousands of Sheep Burned.

Buffalo, Dec. 28.—A fire at the stock yards in east Buffalo tonight destroyed two big sheep pens and seven thousand sheep intended for export. The loss is about $75,000. The superintendent of the yards says the fire will not interfere with the handling of stock.

Supply Unlimited.

With coffee, cotton, kerosene, eggs and beef soaring skyward, about the only cheap thing left is good advice, of which the supply continues to be unlimited.—Savannah Morning News.

Great Lumber Fire.

Suffolk, Va. Dec. 28.—Fire at Franklin, Va. today destroyed the planing mill and appurtenances, the electric light plant and all the dressed lumber of the Camp Manufacturing Company. The saw mill and rough lumber were saved, the blaze being checked about sixty feet from the saw mill. The company estimates the loss at $90,000, insurance $63,500. The company has mills at several points and is one of the largest lumber manufacturers in the South.

Correcting a Blunder.

He was given two very important letters to mail, one addressed to Cleveland, O., and the other to Liverpool, Eng. As he was about to place them in the receptacles in the post office the clerk's eagle eye detected that his employer had made a slight mistake. He had placed the 5 cent stamp required for foreign postage on the Cleveland letter and the 2 cent one on the Liverpool message. The alert clerk, was of course, equal to the emergency, and soon had the matter adjusted all right. Then he fairly flew down Market street to report the mistake that had been made by his employer.

"You're a brick, my boy," said the busy man, "and you don't know how much I appreciate you. How did you fix it?"

"Oh, easily," he replied; I just changed the addresses—Philadelphia Telegraph.

MAYE-HARRISS

A Pretty Home Wedding.

The parlor of the elegant home of Mrs. Mellie Harriss, on Dickinson avenue, was the scene of a very beautiful and brilliant marriage at 8 o'clock this morning, when Mr. Robert Strange Maye led to the hymenial altar Miss Mary James Harriss.

The darkened rooms and hallway were tastefully decorated with holly, while from the numerous candelara candles furnished sufficient soft light.

Miss Nina James rendered sweet music on the piano before and during the ceremony, it being impressively performed by Rev. J. A. Hornaday, of the Methodist church.

The bride wore a handsome blue going-away gown, with hat to match, and carried bride roses.

The numerous presents of quality showed the high esteem in which the contracting parties are held.

Mr. and Mrs. Maye left on the morning train for a trip north.

The bride is the accomplished and charming daughter of Mrs. Mellie Harriss. The groom is a popular business man of Greenville. Both have a large circle of friends who wish them much solid joy and happiness in their wedded life.

Can't Deliver the Cotton.

Recent failures of Southern cotton dealers have had a depressing effect on the mill and brokerage business in this city. Brokers here who bought for December and January delivery at last summer's prices now hear that the Southern men cannot deliver the goods. The brokers who sold this prospective cotton to local mills upon a guarantee of delivery are left high and dry, and are entirely at the mercy of the mills.

The rapid rise in the price of cotton has made it impossible for any local broker to replace defaulted contracts involving large amounts, so that it forces the issue to a basis of dollars and cents representing the difference between the price at which the sales were made to the mills and the present price of cotton, which is practically 14 cents a pound. One large transaction is said to have been settled by compromise already. The loss sustained by mill men and brokers to date will aggregate $100,000.

Another effect of the inability of the mills to get cotton for less than 14 cents will be an earlier and more extensive curtailment of the production. Local cotton brokers almost without exception say they have been victimized by ginnery men of the South, who have been sending light bales here.

BETHEL ITEMS.

BETHEL, N. C., Dec. 28, 1903.

Along with Christmas many old friends came to spend with us a few days of refreshing.

Miss Blanche Mayo is home from Greensboro to spend the vacation with her parents and friends.

John Slaton is so happy that Chapel Hill has no charms nor troubles to claim any of his attention during vacation.

Reuben Taylor and Nathan Beverly are home from Mt. Olive. Misses Nina Grimes and Addie Lee Long have returned from Mt. Olive.

Miss Alice Carson is home from Fremont.

Tom Britton came in from Houston, Texas, to visit his parents.

W. I. Peel is home from Greenville.

Lawrence Rouse returned from Whaley, Va.

John Tyson stopped to see us as he was returning from Chape Hill.

While many old friends returned home, there are also several visitors with us for the holidays.

Miss Mabel Carnegie is visiting the Misses Grimes.

Misses Ethel Peal and Maud Brown, of Robersonville, are spending a few days with friends.

Miss Farr, of Wilmington, is visiting Mrs. John Floyd.

Robert Howard, of Conecote, was with us one day.

Miss Alice Briley, of House, is visiting friends in town.

E. J. Hines came up from Fountain, to see his best girl.

Some are coming; others are going.

Miss Lucy Manning, a teacher in Wilson and Miss Barbara Manning have gone to Plymouth to witness the marriage of friends.

Miss Mann, the music teacher in the Bethel graded school, is visiting her mother at Whitakers during the vacation. She will return to her work Jan. 4, 1904.

There was an entertainment at the academy Wednesday evening. The large crowd gave almost rapt attention to every part of the program. The elocution pupils, under Miss Creef, and the music pupils, under Miss Mann, demonstrated what persistent application can do for the voice and hand in four short months.

On Thursday evening the little folks gathered at the academy to receive their many presents off the Christmas tree. Many a little heart swells with pride as it witnesses its vast possessions. It is lord of all it surveys and it surveys a plenty for one time.

Hope you all, Mr. editor, and your host of readers had a happy Christmas.

Or Any Other Town.

A telegram from Columbus, Ohio, says. "Of more than 2,000 prisoners received in the Ohio State Prison last year not one could repeat the Ten Commandments, though many professed to be sons of church members." This is pretty bad. But suppose a canvass of Wilmington were made to ascertain what proportion of the population could repeat the Ten Commandments, the canvass to be confined to persons over eighteen years of age? Would not the percentage that could stand the test be painfully small? Try the first ten men you meet on the streets today and report the result.

"Same to You"

TUESDAY AFTERNOON, DECEMBER 29, 1903.

Hashed turkey is over by now.
Canal or no canal is the question.
Christmas bills will soon be presented.
The year is on the home stretch and moving the finishing line.
And now appeareth Daniel Russell who deposeth and sayeth "I didn't say it."
Those escaped prisoners might stop running long enough to send back a happy new year greeting to the jailor.

James Gordon Bennett will establish a large public park in New York in memory of his father, the founder of the Herald.

The people of Pineapple, Ala., want to prosecute some lynchers. Perhaps they will find out catching comes before hanging to a pineapple tree.

After all we believe the readers of both their papers feel but little interest in the war of words between Josiah and Josephus. Newspaper controversies consume space that ought to be devoted to other kinds of reading matter.

Another horrible railroad wreck with great loss of life is reported. Two fast passenger trains in Michigan collided and the deaths numbered more than a score. Surely the old year looks like its appalling record of casualties will continue to the end.

No, don't think the next criminal court will have no business to transact because the jail is empty at present. There will be more commitments between now and court unless the magistrates do too much bailing. And, too, the carrying concealed weapon cases will be no small business.

A New One on Us.

Mr. Lawrence Holt, one of the leading citizens of North Carolina, and one of the most substantial of Southern cotton manufacturers, left Washington for his home at Burlington, N. C., last evening.

Mr. Holt, in a brief chat with a Post reporter at the Ebbitt, said: "It is a fact that a great many of our Southern mill men are scarce of raw material. Very few of us have as much cotton on hand as we would like, but still I do not take a gloomy view of the situation. Somehow we have always before this managed to get a supply, and so we will not suffer. I do not look to see any shutting down of factories in my section."

"The high price of the product and the sharp demand have brought about some unusual conditions. In the past only the cotton that has opened in the boll by natural processes has been thought of any account."

"This season in some of the States the farmers have even gathered the unopened bolls, those that never would have burst apart, owing to the lateness of the season, and placing them in a threshing machine have extracted from them an inferior grade of cotton, which, in spite of its off-color and short fiber, commanded a fair price, and was a considerable addition to the regular crop."

A man whose cardinal goal in life is to make money will steal. To such a man stealing is a fine art, upon the possession of which talent he congratulates himself. Getting more than belongs to him he considers thrift; causing one man to fail that he may rise he considers self preservation. He can not be counted exactly a highwayman—no, he lacks the criminal chivalry and physical daring of the class of robbers. He prefers to be a self-conceited genteel scoundrel in every way, and so works the schemes of his egotism into a being whom he esteems exempt from the Ten Commandments and immune from criticism. He is encouraged in this hallucination by his fellow townsmen, and as his wrath expands he rises to a loftier flame in society, in commerce, in politics and even in religion.

Curtailment of the production of cotton goods will very likely pan out like reduction of the acreage in cotton. The mills that have a sufficient stock of the raw material on hand to run several weeks or months will decline to be curtailers and will make money.—Wilmington Star.

New York city proposes to put in a bid for the next National Democratic Convention. New York is a nice town and we are all proud of it, but the Post still thinks, considering all things, Indianapolis, Indiana, would be the best place for this convention. Very many strong reasons favorable to this city naturally suggest themselves.—Raleigh Post.

General Reyes, the Colombian emissary at Washington, has presented his note to Secretary Hay, protesting against the action of the United States in recognizing Panama and is now awaiting his answer before returning to Colombia to take personal command of the army. "Be patient" and remember that "war with Panama means war with the United States" is the substance of the cablegrams which he has sent to his countrymen, advising them strongly against a warlike course. The General sees the hopelessness of a struggle in which Colombia opposes the United States, and he is inclined to recognize Panama, and strive to save what he can by having the question of the division of Colombia's debt referred to the Hague Tribunal. At the same time he is by no means certain that his people will accept his advice, in spite of the fact that he is their president and commander-in-chief of the army.

Rear Admiral Evans, commanding the Asiatic fleet, has been ordered by the Navy Department to proceed at once from Honolulu to Chinese waters. This order has caused much comment. The commercial treaty between this country and China has yet to be ratified at Peking by receiving the Imperial Seal and State Department officers believe that Russia is secretly opposing such ratification, as the treaty opens to the United States the Manchurian ports of Antung and Mukden. The Russians are said to fear that if the United States acquires such an interest in Manchuria, it will oppose the permanent occupation of the country by Russia and will perhaps become involved in the Russian-Japanese dispute. War between Japan and Russia is regarded as almost certain by the State Department, and it is thought advisable to have a strong American fleet in Chinese waters to protect American interests.

FROM SOUTH AFRICA.

New Way of Using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. Arthur Chapman writing from Durban, Natal, South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a cure suitable for old and young, I pen you the following: A neighbor of mine had a child just over two months old. It had a very bad cough and the parents did not know what to give it. I suggested that if they would get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and put some upon the dummy teat the baby was sucking it would no doubt cure the child. This they did and brought about a quick relief and cured the baby." This remedy is for sale by Wooten's Drug Store Greenville and R. L. Davis Farmville.

The Best Liniment.

"Chamberlain's Pain Balm is considered the best liniment on the market," write Post & Bliss of Georgia, Vt. No other liniment will heal a cut or bruise so promptly. No other affords such quick relief from rheumatic pains. No other is so valuable for deep seated pains like lame back and pains in the chest. Give this liniment a trial and you will never wish to be without it. Sold by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is Pleasant to Take.

The finest quality of granulated loaf sugar is used in the manufacture of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and the roots used in its preparation give it a flavor similar to maple syrup, making it quite pleasant to take. Mr. W. L. Roderick, of Poolesville, Md., in speaking of this remedy, says: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with my children for several years and can truthfully say it is the best preparation of the kind I know of. The children like to take it and it has no injurious after effect. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

Only Makes a Bad Matter Worse.

Perhaps you have never thought of it but the fact must be apparent to every one that constipation caused by a lack of water in the system, and the use of drastic cathartics like the old fashioned pills only makes a bad matter worse. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are much more mild and gentle in their effect, and when the proper dose is taken their action is so natural that one can hardly realize it is the effect of a medicine. Try a 25 cent bottle of them. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

A GOOD NAME.

From personal experience I testify that DeWitt's Little Early Risers are unequalled as a liver pill. They are rightly named because they give strength and energy and do their work with ease.—W. T. Easton, Boerne, Tex. Thousands of people are using these tiny little pills in preference to all others, because they are so pleasant and effective. They cure biliousness, torpid liver jaundice, sick headache, constipation, etc. They do not purge and weaken, but cleanse and strengthen. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

VED OFFICES AFTER 40 YEARS.

Mr. C. Haney, of Geneva, O., had the piles for 40 years. Doctors and dollars could do him no lasting good. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured him permanently. Invaluable for cuts, burns, bruises, sprains, laceration, eczema, tetter, salt rheum, and all other skin diseases. Look for the name DeWitt on the package—all others are cheap, worthless counterfeits. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

EVENTS IN 1903

A Year's Record From January to December.

DAILY HAPPENINGS.

Enormous Treasure Lost by Storm and Flood.

A NOTABLE OBITUARY ROLL.

Personal and Political Items—Miscellaneous Affairs Throughout the World—The Field of Sports—Loss of Life by Accident, Shipwreck, Explosion and Fire—A Chronological Review.

The year 1903 has been memorable for the prolonged drought early in the season for production, followed by phenomenal rainfall and destructive floods. During the first week of June the state of Kansas suffered losses by floods aggregating $17,000,000 in miscellaneous property and $5,000,000 on crops destroyed. Hundreds of lives were lost by flood disasters on the Missouri and Mississippi rivers. In South Carolina the June floods swept away two towns on the river Pacolet, causing loss of life and damage amounting to $3,000,000.

Following closely the flood disasters in America the world was startled by the cold blooded massacre of King Alexander and Queen Draga of Serbia, together with the Servian cabinet. The deed was perpetrated by a band of military revolutionists, who suffered only nominal punishment for their crime.

The burning of a passenger train in the Paris subway, resulting in the horrible death of scores of imprisoned people, gave warning of the new danger which the march of progress makes possible in crowded cities. The long impending and vexing question of the succession to the papal throne made vacant in July by the demise of Pope Leo XIII., who lived one score and three years beyond the allotted age of man, was happily solved by the choice of Giuseppe Sarato, patriarch of Venice, a devoted, yet liberal minded, churchman. Earlier in the year Cardinal Parrochi, chief candidate for succession to the papacy when it should become vacant, had been removed from the field by death.

Death also removed from the world's stage during the year many men of advanced age whose activities lent brilliancy to the era which produced them, notably Alexander Bain, the master of logic; Lecky, the English historian; Herbert Spencer, the philosopher, and Professor Theodor Mommsen, whose achievements in the domain of history earned for him the unique title, "the grand old man of Germany." Other noted deaths abroad were Sagasta, the prime minister of Spain during the Spanish-American war; Du Challu, the astute and explorer; Whistler, the eccentric but talented artist, and Archdeacon Farrar, a distinguished English churchman and author.

Three conspicuous literary lights of the past died during the year—Richard Henry Stoddard, the poet and critic; Charles Godfrey Leland (Hans Breitmann) and B. L. Farjeon, the novelist. To say that the creator of "John Inglesant" died during the year suggests to few readers of that classic romance the name of its author, Joseph Henry Shorthouse.

The defeat of Shamrock III. by the Reliance in the race for the America's cup added one more to the half score of victories already won by American defenders. On the turf the world's light harness records were materially reduced by American horses. The trotting record of 2:02 1/4 was brought down to 2:00 with a thud by Lou Dillon, soon, however, to be equaled by Major Delmar. Cresceus quickly beat the record down to 1:59 3/4, when Lou Dillon once more lowered it to 1:58 1/4.

Grave financial troubles have been experienced during the year. In mid-summer stocks fell and have remained down, involving several large brokerage firms. Subsequently several banking and trust companies succumbed.

The long looked for Panama canal received a serious setback by the rejection on the part of the Colombian senate of the Hay-Herran treaty. Incensed over the prospect of losing the rich treasure which the canal would bring to the isthmus, the state of Panama seceded from Colombia and set up an independent republic under the protection of the United States navy. The United States immediately recognized the new government and negotiated a treaty for the construction of the canal.

DOESN'T RESPECT OLD AGE.

It's shameful when youth fails to show proper respect for old age, but just the contrary in the case of Dr. King's New Life Pills. They cut off maladies no matter how severe and irrespective of old age, Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Fever, Constipation all yield so this perfect Pill, 25c, at Wooten Drug Store.

A REMARKABLE CASE.

One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep seated on the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold by John L. Wooten.

THE AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEW OF REVIEWS

THE NECESSARY MAGAZINE IN THE PRESIDENTIAL YEAR

The Review of Reviews is often called a necessity, in recognition of its usefulness in keeping readers "up with the times."

In Presidential election years the REVIEW OF REVIEWS is more than ever "the necessary magazine." Everybody wants to be truly and quickly informed about this or that public question that has forged to the front; to know about the new candidates and personal factors in politics, to have a complete picture at hand of the current movement of history.

In Dr. Shaw's editorials, in its authentic and timely contributed articles, in its brilliant character sketches, in its condensations and reviews of all the important articles of other magazines, and in its hundred a month of valuable portraits, witty cartoons, and interesting views, the REVIEW OF REVIEWS gives the much desired news of the world's and our own progress. "The World under a Field-glass" is the way one subscriber describes it.

More in public life, like President Theodore Roosevelt, the members of Congress, and the great captains of industry, who must keep "up with the times," intelligent men and women all over America, have decided it is "indispensable."

He Wants to Trade.

Some one, no matter who, sent Mr. Andrew Joyner a turkey the other day and it was a whopper, weighing 48 pounds. He was delighted and his mouth watered in anticipation, but looking over the markets in the Washington Post, he saw that the ruling price for common, every-day turkey was 30 cents a pound, and he did not eat turkey yesterday, but has sent it to Washington and sold it and with the proceeds is on the market for a horse and buggy. Here is a case where a man had rather go hungry than to walk. Mr. Joyner would not make a good tramp.—Greensboro Record.

Not all of Them.

The employees of the Southern Express Company all over the system received substantial Christmas presents yesterday in the shape of a piece of gold money. The company gave away several thousands of dollars.—Greensboro Record.

This did not apply "all over the system." On the contrary some employes not only did not receive the piece of gold money, but the money due them at the first of the month was not paid until after Christmas had gone by. And they would have appreciated even having their own money to spend at Christmas.

Letters from Women

Cured by the use of Kodol are received daily. Their troubles nearly all begin with indigestion or other stomach disorder. If the food you eat fails to give strength to your body, it is because the juices secreted by the stomach and digestive organs are inadequate to transform the nutrient properties of the food into blood. That is indigestion. The system is deprived of the amount of nourishment required to keep up the strength, and the result is that one or more of the delicate organs gradually grows weak, and then weaker, until finally it is diseased. Here a great mistake is made. That of treating the diseased organ. The best doctors in the land make this very mistake. Why should they? It is so easy to see that the trouble is not there.

Kodol Cures

This famous remedy puts the stomach and digestive organs in a healthy condition so that rich, red blood is sent coursing through the veins and arteries of every muscle, tissue and fiber throughout every organ of the entire body, and by Nature's law of health, full strength and vigor is soon restored to each. Kodol cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach disorders. I have taken Kodol for nearly two months after each meal and it is the only remedy that gave relief from the terrible pains I endured. After a time I would take it but once a day, and now, while I keep a bottle handy, I seldom need it, as it has cured me. Mrs. J. W. COOLBAUGH, Milo Center, N. Y.
