Held for Manslaughter.

Chicago, Jan. 2.—Formally charged with manslaughter, Managers Will J. Davis and Harry J. Powers of the Iroquois Theatre, with City Building Commissioner Williams, were today held under bonds of $10,000 each. Col. William Pinkerton and Charles H. Plamondon furnished bonds for Davis and Powers. Andrew J. Graham, a banker, furnished bond for Commissioner Williams.

Arthur E. Hull, whose family perished in the theatre fire and who was the complainant, was present when the two theatre managers and the city official underwent the ordeal of facing the charges. The hearing of the case was set for January 12.

Miss Elba Cotten Hurt.

Miss Elba Cotten, who has been spending the holidays at home at Cottdale, was about to come to Greenville, Monday afternoon, to take the train here to return to school. Hardly had she and a friend got in the buggy before the horse tried to run away. Miss Cotten jumped out of the buggy and as she was trying to get out of the way the horse fell over on her, forcing her against a barbed wire fence. Her face was cut quite severely and she was badly bruised about the body.

A Hamlet Man in Charlotte Commits Suicide.

Charlotte, N. C., Jan. 2.—Mr. George Windle of Hamlet committed suicide at the home of his father-in-law, Mr. E. A. Alley, at 1315 South Tryon street, this afternoon, by shooting himself through the right temple with a 38 calibre revolver. He shot himself at two o'clock and lived an hour. Mr. Windle came to Charlotte from Hamlet last night to visit his wife and three children, who were here for the holidays. He appeared in his usual health and spirits, and no one dreamed that anything was wrong with him. After dinner today Mr. Windle spent sometime in the sitting room talking with his mother in law and other members of the family. About two o'clock he arose and walked into an adjoining room, closing the door behind him. Five minutes later a member of the family had occasion to pass through the room and was startled to find Mr. Windle lying across the bed, the blood pouring from a wound in his head and a revolver lying by his side. No one heard the report of the pistol. The man was 28 years old. He is survived by a widow and three children. His mother resides in this county. He is also survived by two brothers, one of whom lives in New York and the other in Fort Mills, S. C.

What Constitutes a Hog.

A Kansas man was on trial before justice of the peace on a charge of stealing hogs. The defendant's attorney asked that his client be discharged on the ground that pigs, not hogs, had been stolen. The justice took down Webster's dictionary and found warrant there for nondiscrimination as to age, and the defendant was convicted.

A wise judge. He might have gone a great deal further, if the necessities of the case had demanded it, as to the comprehensiveness of the word "hog." It has had a wide extension in meaning ever since the revered Colonel Noah Webster gave it a broad enough range to enable the Kansas judge to hang the scales of justice aloft unjarred.

A hog is a person who sticks to the end seat in a summer car, though he may be going to the end of the long route and knows dozens of people may have to climb in and out past him with bundles.

A hog is a person who jams his suit case in front of you at the railway station so as to get your place in the line to the gate.

A hog is a person who opens his window in a railway car and allows dust and cinders to fly in the face of the passengers behind, though he would not tolerate an open window at the seat next in front.

A hog is a person who "breaks in" while you are negotiating in a store and takes the attention of the salesman or saleswoman away from you.

A hog is a person who sits sideways in a car where other passengers are standing!

A hog is a person who insists on discussing "the mutability of human affairs" with the ticket seller at the theater when the curtain is about to be rung up on the performance.

A hog is a person who hangs round the supper room all evening at a reception, omitting to retire so that other hungry people may have a chance.

A hog is a person who, if allowed to, occupies two whole seats with his bristly carcass and his "traps," though weary men, women and children may be racing through the aisles looking for a place to sit down.

A hog is a person who tries to monopolize all the waiters at a station restaurant and assumes a bullying, masterful air when other people will submit and go back to the train starved simply because they cannot do the subject justice without transcending the manners of ladies and gentlemen. Indeed, the vicissitudes of travel hardly ever fail to lead the hog into "giving himself away."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

A Virginia Bachelor Buried His Money in the Smoke House.

Richmond, Va., Jan. 2. Benjamin A. Worcell of Southampton county died three weeks ago, leaving a will disposing of his estate. He was a wealthy bachelor, had no confidence in banks and refused to have any dealings with them. He was an upright man and good citizen. On the margin of his will was traced directions, to "dig in the southeast corner of the smoke house and find buried treasure." The directions were followed by the legates and a tin box containing shot bags was found. The bags were filled with gold coin to the amount of $8,500.

Cotton Jumps.

The bureau report issued today placed the number of bales at 8,526,244. In consequence of this bullish report cotton took a jump up of half a cent.

Fire in Wilson.

The town of Wilson had a hundred thousand dollar fire Sunday morning. Tobacco warehouses, livery stables and small stores were the principal buildings burned. Two tobacco warehouses were destroyed and with them about a quarter million pounds of tobacco.

Americans in Porto Rico.

The question is, how many Americans are there in Porto Rico? The number has been variously estimated from 600 to 5,000, but all estimates are mere guesses.

A census was taken in 1899 at the close of the year, and at that time according to the enumeration, there were 1,069 persons on the island who were born in the United States. This was one year after the occupation, and conditions since then have changed so that the figure is scarcely of any assistance at all in estimating the number now here. Of the total of 1,069 on the island born in the United States, 680 resided in the department of Bayamon, which is the district where the capital is located. Of those in this district nearly all resided in San Juan, the capital being the residence of 631 of the 680. Of the 1,069 born in the United States and residing here, only 261 were women.

Of course, these figures do not include the soldiers who were here, and excluding that element in the population, we believe that most observers will admit that the number of Americans on the island has increased since that date, and also that for a year or so the number has been decreasing.

Perhaps the year 1902 was the year of the largest number of Americans on the island. The population is so restless and so constantly changing it is difficult to get any accurate estimate.—San Juan News.

Mayor's Court.

Mayor H. W. Whedbee has disposed of the following cases in his court from Dec. 30th to Jan. 5th, inclusive.

Whitman Price and Louis Smith, affray, fined $1 each and costs, $6.40.

Allen Kittrell, reckless driving on streets, fined $2 and costs, $3.95.

Will Edwards and Bob Johnson, affray with deadly weapons, bound over to Superior court.

James Allen Sutton, drunk, fined $5 and cost, $7.30.

The Building & Lumber Company.

A new enterprise for Greenville is The Building & Lumber Co. This company is composed of R. J. Cobb, C. V. York and L. H. Pender. They have erected a good building for their plant near the railroad and equipped it with modern machinery for doing all kinds of work in their line. The plant begins work this week and is prepared to fill orders promptly. Attention is called to the advertisement of the company in this paper.

ORMANDSVILLE ITEMS.

ORMANDSVILLE, N. C. JAN. 4. 1904

Mr and Mrs. M. H. Tucker, of Norfolk, are visiting Mrs. Tucker's mother, Mrs. L. Cetta Hardy.

Rev. Mr. Pate, our new pastor, filled his first regular appointment here Sunday. At the last conference the Snow Hill circuit was divided, there by giving us two services instead of one as before. Mr. Pate comes well recommended from the conference, and we are sure he will make us a good pastor. Our old pastor, Mr. Pope, was sent to the Jonesboro circuit. Rev. A. L. Ormand and family, of Kittrell, who have been visiting relatives here for several weeks, have returned home.

M. T. Frizzelle, who has been home during the holidays from the Richmond Medical college, returned to school this morning.

J. P. Frizzell, of Trinity, returned this morning. Mr. Frizzelle graduates this year. He was one of Trinity's speakers in the Emory-Trinity debate which was held last Easter.

H. B. Tunstall and Gug Taylor left this morning to enter the A. & M. college. J. B. Frizzelle and Leslie Turnage left yesterday for Trinity. These young men have the best wishes of us all for a most prosperous year.

Prof. B. W. Stephen, Misses Carves and Waters returned Saturday morning from their respective homes to resume their work at school. We gladly welcome them back, and hope for them a pleasant year's work.

B. D. Forrest, who has been clerking for Tunnage & Ormand, left this morning for his home in Ayden accompanied by R. O. Davis. R. M. Dean from Person county succeeds Mr. Forrest. The latter made many friends while in this neighborhood.

Short In Accounts.

Washington, Jan. 2.—Charges have been filed with the interstate commerce commission against Edward A. Moseley, secretary and disbursing officer of the commission, alleging shortage and irregularities in his accounts. The charges were brought to the attention of Mr. Moseley by Commissioner Clements today, and after a brief discussion of the case the secretary was given leave of absence until after an investigation of his accounts has been completed.

Shortly afterwards a number of expert accountants from the treasury department went to work overhauling the books of the commission. The amount alleged to be involved is small.

Second Service.

The second service of the week of prayer was held Monday night in the Presbyterian church. The weather prevented the congregation being as large as it otherwise would have been. Rev. W. E. Powell delivered an excellent discourse on the subject "The Warrant, the Privilege, the Power of Prayer."

The service tonight will be held in the Christian church. All are invited to be present.

Four Inch Snow.

Though the weather reports gave no warning about its coming, this section finds itself wrapped in four inches of snow. Snow began falling early Monday night and continued until past midnight. It came thick and fast while it was falling and as the ground was already frozen every flake seemed to stick and help increase the depth.

Entered at the post office at Greenville, N. C., as second class matter. Subscription rates: One Year, $3.00; One Month, 25 cents; One Week, 10 cents. TUESDAY AFTERNOON, JANUARY 5, 1904.

While the blizzard is on Wall street might give a penny to the lambs it has shorn.

Pabst, the great Milwaukee beer maker, is dead, but beer drinking will not stop in consequence.

Wonder how many new year resolutions have survived the strenuous ordeal up to now and are still in tact.

There are more places beside Chicago that need to look after their play houses and make them safer for the public.

We will keep an eye out to see if any of our exchanges print that overworked poem on the "Beautiful Snow."

The Boston Herald says that Mr. Olney will accept the nomination. That assertion is a little premature, as it is not yet clear that he is going to have a chance to accept it.

It is rumored that the Colombian gunboat, General Pison, has been sunk by American warships, though there is no confirmation of the report.

Raleigh is bragging about the heavy sales the new dispensary had there the first day it was open. Are they all joining together to make the business a success?

You will soon be hearing dispensary talk in Greenville followed by the opportunity to say by your vote whether you prefer that to the open saloon.

It is said that, as a rule, the opening years of a new century are generally attended by wars. The early years of the 19th century witnessed some strenuous conflicts, and present indications are that the 20th century will be marked by bloody hostilities.

Someone has suggested that the stand taken by some of the parents of Greenville to have their daughters go to dances at a reasonable hour or stay at home, ought to be followed by a movement to get sooner attendance upon plays in the opera house, so that those who are present when the curtain rises will not be so annoyed by the late comers. The suggestion is timely.

The Russians are growling and Japan is trembling. War seems imminent between these two great nations. Russian greed may yet bring about the greatest war of modern times. France is friendly to Russia, England and Germany seem friendly to Japan and if war is declared, it seems probable that several nations will take a hand. The whole world is hoping that this great conflict may be avoided.

North Carolina only had one lynching last year. North Carolina should make a New Year resolution and maybe she can climb into the Indiana class in 1904.—Atlanta Journal.

No, thank you. North Carolina had rather stay in a class by herself.

The boll weevil has got into the North Carolina strawberry crop, and there is said to be something gnawing at the dispensary system, too.—Atlanta Journal.

No hands were allowed in pockets at president's New Year reception yesterday. An hour of that must have been an awful test of forbearance for the postoffice officials.—Atlanta Journal.

It is stated in the papers that Mr. Saunders, of Washington, has sued Mr. Dunn, of the same county, for $5,000 for having struck him last September with a nail puller. He certainly deserves damages in some sum. No greater indignity can be put upon a gentleman than striking him with a nail-puller except knocking him down with a bung-starter.—Charlotte Observer.

It is estimated that the Philippine frolic has cost the United States up to this New Year's Day, about $627,000,000, including the bonds about to be issued for the friar lands, and taking no account of the 10,000 deaths. Whether the oriental game is worth this Occidental candle—well, they say it is altogether too late to talk about that.—Durham Sun.

The banking capital now employed in this state amounts to more than fifty millions of dollars. It was not half that sum less than ten years ago. This of itself tells the story of the rapid development of the state. It is not only the money of our own people, but the accumulations in small as well as large sums, employed in a greater variety of industry than any other state can boast, from railroading up to farming—in truth the concrete representation of the multitudinous and diversified activities of our population.—Raleigh Post.

There will be a vigorous if not violent protest against the Panama treaty by the democrats in congress. In the senate the objections which they will endeavor to sustain are (1) the wresting of Panama from Columbia was an inexcusable outrage for which the president and his supporters are responsible; (2) the canal can never be profitably constructed along that line, France having expended the enormous sum of $426,000,000 and the lives of 10,000 men, and having then given it up as a bad job; (3) it is probable that the French Canal Company will in a few weeks increase their demand from $40,000,000 to $80,000,000 on the ground that the former agreement was obtained by duress; (4) when the house appropriated $10,000,000 for a country called Columbia and the president arbitrarily writes Panama in the place of Columbia; it closely resembles the process which in commercial life is known as altering a check without consulting the drawer of it; (5) for ten years the Nicaragua route has been preferred by civil engineers and publicists, has been repeatedly recommended by committees and the Hepburn bill providing for the construction of a canal by the Nicaragua route passed the house by only two dissenting votes. It will be held that the president usurped the authority of congress in substituting the Panama route for the Nicaraguan, and the most able and conspicuous democrats in both houses are willing to go to the people on this issue.

I was prescribed for by physicians with no noticeable result. A friend gave me part of a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with instructions to closely follow the directions and I wish to state that after the first day I could notice a decided change for the better, and at this time, after using it for two weeks, have no hesitation in saying I realize that I am entirely cured." Congratulations

Mr. John H. Callom, Editor of the Garland, Texas, News, has written a letter of congratulations to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as follows: Sixteen years ago when our first child was a baby he was subject to croupy spells and we would be very uneasy about him. We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in 1887, and finding it such a reliable remedy for colds and croup we have never been without it in the house since that time. We have five children and have given it to all of them with good results. One good feature of this remedy is that it is not disagreeable to take and our babies really like it. Another is that it is not dangerous, and there is no risk from giving an overdose. I congratulate you upon the success of your remedy. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and R. L. Davis & Bros., Farmville.

A GOOD NAME.

From personal experience I testify that DeWitt's Little Early Risers are unequalled as a liver pill. They are rightly named because they give strength and energy and to their work with ease.—W. T. Easton, Boerne, Tex. Thousands of people are using these little pills in preference to all others, because they are so pleasant and effectual. They cure biliousness, torpid liver jaundice, sick headache, constipation, etc. They do not purge and weaken, but cleanse and strengthen. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

We would like to see the hair that covers the brow of a hill.

URED OFFICES AFTER 40 YEARS

Mr. C. Haney, of Geneva, O., had the piles for 40 years. Doctors and dollars could do him no lasting good. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured him permanently. Invaluable for cuts, burns, bruises, sprains, laceration, eczema, tetter, salt rheum, and all other skin diseases. Look for the name DeWitt on the package—all others are cheap, worthless counterfeits. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

A SCIENTIFIC DISCOVERY.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does for the stomach that which it is unable to do for itself, even when but slightly disordered or over-loaded. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure supplies the natural juices of digestion and does the work of the stomach, relaxing the nervous tension, while the inflamed muscles of that organ are allowed to rest and heal. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and enables the stomach and digestive organs to transform all food into rich, red blood. Sold by John L. Wooten.

The world is to us what we are to it; we are creatures of our own world.

Found a Cure For Indigestion

I use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for indigestion, and find that they suit my case better than any dyspepsia remedy I have ever tried and I have used many different remedies. I am 51 years of age and have suffered great deal from indigestion. I can eat almost anything I want now.—George W. Enory, Rook Mills, Ala. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville and R. L. OUR FIRST REPUBLIC.

It Was Not the United States, but the Louisiana Republic.

The first republic in this hemisphere to succeed in compelling recognition of its independence was, of course, the republic whose present capital is Washington. But there was an earlier one which died soon after its birth, of which little or nothing is said in our American histories.

When France, in 1761, ceded Louisiana to Spain, the subjects of King Louis XV. objected to the transfer without their consent. The local government submitted the question to the council, which, under the lead of Nicholas Chauvin de Lafreniere, rose in revolt. Lafreniere called a convention of the people at New Orleans, while the new Spanish governor was on his way to the colony, and the convention selected a delegate to go to Paris to dissuade the French king from his course. Louis XV. however, rebuffed the delegate and sent back word that the people must recognize the authority of Spain.

It was then that the people of Louisiana resolved on a radical course. On the night of Oct. 28, 1768, the rebels took possession of the French forts and the gates of the town in the name of the republic of Louisiana. The old French governor offered no resistance, while the new Spanish governor took refuge on a ship and sailed for Havana. On Oct. 2, 1768, the council at New Orleans adopted a formal declaration of independence, officially named itself the republic of Louisiana, elected Lafreniere "protector" and prepared a written constitution. This interesting government lasted from October, 1768, to July, 1769, when a Spanish squadron of twenty-four vessels, with an army of 2,600 men, arrived at New Orleans. The new republican state was destroyed and five republican leaders, including Lafreniere, were put to death. Then all the republic's official papers, including its declaration of independence and constitution, were burned in the public square.—Springfield Republican.

A BOWERY INCIDENT.

The Invited Guest Who Was Called Before the Feast.

The missionary had finished his talk to the crowd of derelicts in a Bowery mission and went around the room to shake them by the hand. There was one man sitting on a bench whose face was so utterly loathsome that the missionary's gorge rose in his throat, and he was compelled to pass him by. The man's dulled eye marked the look of disgust, and in a tone of mingled dejection and resentment he cried out:

"Say, mister, why don't you shake hands wid me?"

The young missionary turned, conscience stricken, looked into the sin scarred features and grasped the man's hand.

"Really, brother, you must forgive me," he stammered. "I—I couldn't help it when I saw you—your face. But I'll make amends. You must take dinner with me tomorrow night."

The broken man glanced at his rags in confusion, blushed like a girl and gasped:

"Wot! Me take dinner wid you! Me go to your house! Me!"

"Yes, I mean it. I'll come tomorrow night and get you."

True to his word, the missionary presented himself at the lodging house the next evening and inquired for the man. A corpse was lying on the table, a handkerchief spread over its face. The clerk jerked his thumb in the direction of the body.

"That's Wilson," he said. "He had fixed himself up and was waitin' for you; dropped dead half an hour ago."—New York Press.

Embarrassing.

The Squire's Pretty Daughter (examining the village school)—Now, children, can you tell me what a miracle is?

The children looked at one another, but remained silent.
"Can no one answer this question?" the new curate asked, who was standing behind the squire's daughter.

A little girl was suddenly struck with a brilliant idea. She held up her hand excitedly.

"Well, Nelle?" the squire's daughter asked, smiling approvingly.

"Please, miss," the small child replied breathlessly, "mother says 'twill be a miracle if you don't marry the new curate."—London Globe.

Recognized It.

"This," smiled the fond young wife as she passed a plate of dessert to her husband, "is cottage pudding. I made it myself."

The man tasted of it.

"I'd have known it was cottage pudding," he asserted.

"You would?" she asked, delighted.

"Yes. I can taste the plaster and the wall paper. What did you do with the shingles and the bricks of the chimney?"—Judge.

The Sweet Girls.

Kittie—Paul told me last evening I was the prettiest girl he ever saw.

Bessie—Oh, that's nothing. He said the same to me last year.

Kittie—I know, dear, but his taste may have improved since then, you know.—Boston Transcript.

Refined.

Mrs. Nuritch—I think I'll take this bracelet. Are you sure it's made of refined gold?

Jeweler—Oh, yes.

Mrs. Nuritch—Because I do detest anything that isn't refined.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Work is the soup, fame the entree, fortune the roast and oblivion the dessert of most lives. There is no cordial.

Making Chills Useful.

Mrs. Newwed—My husband has the chills and fever, but they come in handy.

Mrs. Oldwed—How so?
Mrs. Newwed—Whenever he has a chill I put a rattle in his hand, and it amuses the baby.—Chicago Journal.

Idleness and poverty always dwell together, and misery and crime are their natural offspring.—Maxwell's Tallisman.

A Synonym.

"Being a printer, Mr. Dash," said the hotel proprietor, "maybe you can advise me. I want to get a sign painted, 'Writing Room Free to Our Patrons,' or something like that."

"I don't like 'patrons,'" said Mr. Dash.

"No? Maybe that doesn't sound just right. What would you suggest?"

"'Victims.'"—Philadelphia Ledger.

His Own Experience.

"Many a man would give a great deal for your opportunities," said the earnestly ambitious man.

"Of course," answered Senator Sorghum. "I had to give a great deal for 'em myself."—Washington Star.

The defects of the mind, like those of the face, grow worse as we grow old.—Rochefoucauld.

THE AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEW OF REVIEWS

THE NECESSARY MAGAZINE IN THE PRESIDENTIAL YEAR.

The Review of Reviews is often called a necessity, in recognition of its usefulness in keeping readers "up with the times."

In Presidential election years the REVIEW OF REVIEWS is more than ever "the necessary magazine." Everybody wants to be truly and quickly informed about this or that public question that has forged to the front; to know about the new candidates and personal factors in politics, to have a complete picture at hand of the current movement of history.

In Dr. Shaw's editorials, in its authentic and timely contributed articles, in its brilliant character sketches, in its condensations and reviews of all the important articles of other magazines, and in its hundred a month of valuable portraits, witty cartoons, and interesting views, the REVIEW OF REVIEWS gives the much desired news of the world's and our own progress. "The World under a Field-glass" is the way one subscriber describes it. Men in public life, like President Theodore Roosevelt, the members of Congress, and the great captains of industry, who must keep "up with the times," intelligent men and women all over America, have decided it is "indispensable."
