James River Frozen Over.

Richmond, Va., Jan. 6.—The river is frozen from the city to City Point, a distance of thirty-two miles. The ice is two inches thick. Navigation is still open, however, boats arriving and leaving today as usual, but making slow time.

Two Trains Crash.

Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 6.—The Rock Island's California and Mexico express, which left Chicago Monday at 11:30 for the west, collided head on with a cattle train at Willard, Kansas, fourteen miles west of Topeka. Twenty person were killed and every person on the train was injured. A relief train that left Topeka for the scene returned to that city at 7:30 o'clock this morning with the dead and injured.

Maryland Legislature.

Annapolis, Md., Jan. 6.—The biennial session of the Maryland legislature began here at noon today and, under a provision of the state constitution, will continue ninety days. On assembling the officials previously nominated by the democratic caucus were formally elected, Spencer C. Jones being chosen president of the senate and Geo. V. Everhart, speaker of the house of delegates.

Morgan Talks.

Washington, Jan. 6.—The democratic members of the foreign relations committee at today's meeting for the consideration of the Panama canal treaty showed every evidence of opposing action on that convention. While Senator Morgan led the opposition he was seconded by the other democratic members, except Senator McCreary, in efforts to postpone for a week and other periods any consideration of the treaty. After all dilatory motions had been voted down Senator Morgan occupied the remainder of the session in an argument against the treaty, and when, at noon, adjournment was taken, it was to meet tomorrow morning.

A BEAUTIFUL MARRIAGE.

Harrington-Fleming.

Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock a very beautiful marriage was solemnized in the Pactolus Baptist church, uniting Mr. Robt. D. Harrington and Miss Blanche Fleming. Rev. A. T. King, of Greenville, performed the ceremony.

The church which was filled with many friends present to witness the happy event was artistically decorated with evergreens, smilax and trailing cedar. The decorations of white and green cloth about the windows, and transept, and the arrangement of the candles on the arch over the pulpit were replete with good taste.

Miss Nina James presided at the organ and as the Lohengrin wedding march pealed forth the bridal party entered the church as follows: First the ushers, Mr. Vann Fleming coming down the right aisle and Mr. Sugg Fleming the left; then the bridesmaids, Miss Sydney Davenport and Miss Emma Harrington, followed by the maid of honor, Miss Annie Fleming on the right and the dame of honor, Mrs. W. T. Clark on the left. Then coming the groom, Mr. Robert D. Harrington, with the best man, Mr. Chas. Harrington, his brother, while on the opposite side came the bride, Miss Blanche Fleming with her father, Mr. R. B. Fleming, who gave her away at the altar.

The bridesmaids were elegantly attired in white with velvet hats and gloves to match. The maid of honor looked beautiful in a white organdy with black hat and gloves. The dame of honor wore an exquisite creation of cream cloth and white beaver with plume, while the lovely and charming bride was most becomingly gowned in a navy blue crepe de chene—skirt accented with white hat with black ostrich plume.

During the ceremony "Hearts and Flowers" was most appropriately played by Miss Nina James after which to the strains of Mendelsou's bridal march the party left the church and drove in carriages to the home of the bride's father. There, wedding gowns were changed for traveling suits, and everything made ready for the drive to Greenville. Soon the bridal party arrived at the beautiful new home of the groom, where an elegant reception was tendered friends and relatives of the happy couple. Not simply upon one large table were many presents, but all over the house, could be seen costly and appropriate gifts, of silver, cut glass, furniture, carpets etc., given by friends of the bride and groom. The large display of handsome and costly presents bespoke the popularity of the bride and groom and the good wishes of their many friends.

A Railroad Man Arrested on Several Charges.

Falisbury, N. C., Jan. 6.—S. L. Helms, agent of the Southern Railway at Woodleaf, Rowan county, has been arrested on the charge of burning the depot at that place November 13, the warrant being sworn out by Special Freight Agent W. V. Guerard. Charges of robbery are made, also a shortage of two hundred dollars. Helms has been given a preliminary hearing and placed under a bond of $300. The arrest has caused a sensation.

M. H. Watson, representing the large proprietary medicine house of H. E. Bucklen & Co., Chicago, was here today to renew the firm's advertising contract with THE REFLECTOR.

Pretty Sight.

Wednesday evening and this morning the graded school building presented a strange yet beautiful picture. During the day Wednesday the snow on the roof melted just enough to slip down in a large sheet until it extended some distance over the eaves. In the evening these snow sheets froze in that position giving the building a deep white fringe.

AYDEN ITEMS.

She had been sick for a few days, but was thought to be improving until her husband awoke about 3 o'clock and found her unconscious, in which condition she remained until she died. She leaves a husband and three small children. She was the daughter of Mr. E. E. Dail, and was a good woman. The remains were buried today in Greene county.

Lutner McLawhorn has resigned his position with J. J. Hines, and has been succeeded by Robt. Worthington.

James Alexander, who has been sick for several weeks, is able to sit up and will soon be out again.

Miss Mattie Moon, music teacher at the graded school and seminary, returned from her home in Virginia Monday night, where she had been spending the holidays.

STATE NEWS.

Nine prisoners escaped from Raleigh jail Tuesday night.

A white man in Charlotte who had $650 insurance on his furniture, sent his family away from home and tried to burn up the house in which he lived.

A Cabarrus county man captured a squirrel that was pure white and had pink eyes.

The snow was heavier near the coast than in the interior. It was 12 inches deep at Morehead City, while no further up the state than Raleigh there was none.

The state firemen's tournament is to be held in Salisbury this year and the local firemen's association is already taking active steps toward making the event a success.

Dr. Robt E. Caldwell, of Winston, a prominent minister and lecturer of the Presbyterian church, died in Philadelphia in Dr. Joseph Price's private hospital on Jan. 4th as the result of an operation performed for appendicitis.

Fatal Hunting Accident.

Asheville, N. C., Jan. 6.—Paul Cochrane of Avery's Creek township, while out hunting Monday afternoon, was accidentally shot in the abdomen. It is believed his wound will prove fatal. Cochrane had shot a bird which fell in some leaves. While brushing the leaves with the stock of his gun the gun was discharged, the load of shot entering his abdomen.

More Snow.

The weather gave us several spurts of snow this morning. At one time it seemed to have started in earnest, but soon stopped.

Nine Negroes Break From Wake County Jail.

As easily as if no steel bars and brick walls surrounded them nine negroes confined in Wake county jail left that place Tuesday morning between three and four o'clock.

Among the nine prisoners who escaped are some desperate characters, men who before this have been in jails and the penitentiary, while one was there for safe keeping, charged with rape in Edgecombe county, another was a Federal prisoner, and another a negro already indicted for burglary and to be tried for his life.

The nine negroes who escaped are Dan Bigg, John Bethel, El Cotten, Henry Curtis, George Hayes, Moonie Perry, Len Spence, Herbert Raynor and Joe Butte. One has been recaptured, Hubert Rayner, the Federal prisoner, but the others are all still at large, though word came late yesterday afternoon that Perry was in the neighborhood of Rogers' store, in the northern part of the county.

Superstitious Thieves.

Bibles are said by detectives to be more rarely stolen than any other object. The Chicago Tribune says this is not because Bibles are worthless to a thief, but because few criminals are sufficiently depraved to steal the good book. A detective said recently that in an important case which he had followed up some years ago a thief had entered the house, stolen some valuable jewels, and left untouched a Bible bound in white chicken skin and studded with pearls. The detective caught the thief, and the man who had been robbed, a dealer in "curios," visited his despoiler in jail, took an interest in him because he had not taken the Bible, and eventually reforme him and got him a good job. "I knew," the thief said, "that if I took that Bible it would do me harm, and if I didn't take it it might do me good. I let it alone, and now, thank heaven, I'm an honest and a righteous man." The detective added that in another case where a thief had stolen a Bible the book had been returned. "Another thing few thieves will take," he added, "is a child's savings bank."

Effort to Wreck Train.

Winston-Salem, N. C., Jan. 5.—An attempt was made to wreck the incoming passenger train from Randle on the Norfolk and Western road near Mayodan, last night. The engineer ran into a rock larger than a man's head, and a plank about fifteen feet long, which had been placed upon the track by unknown parties. The train stopped suddenly, the result being that the passengers were shaken up and greatly excited. The plank was placed across the track and the engine and two cars passed over it when the train stopped. The large rock demolished the plot. The train was delayed an hour or more. There is no clue to the guilty parties. The trainmen cannot understand how a serious wreck was averted.

Week of Prayer.

The weather so far has continued to make small congregations at the week of prayer services, but the meetings are interesting. The service last night was held in the Methodist church. In the absence of Rev. A. T. King, who was away at a marriage at which he officiated, Rev. W. H. Laughinghouse preached on the subject of "God's Love" and brought out many impressive thoughts in his sermon. The service tonight will be held in the Baptist church.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON, JANUARY 7, 1904.

Don't fret. It will be warmer in July.

If every farmer plants a big cotton crop this year what will be the result?

It looks like fire-proof houses are not much more fire-proof than the other kind.

A Greensboro physician has expressed the opinion that appendicitis is a germ disease and contagious. Chills will be a germ disease next.

If the disturbance between Russia and Japan should become settled the Wall street cotton speculators would have to invent some other excuse.

The investigation as to the safety of buildings that has followed the Chicago disaster, is not confined to that city but has spread all over the country. Charlotte and Asheville are both looking after their play houses.

The press dispatches say that letters of opposition to Mrs. Russell getting the Wilmington postoffice continue to go to the department at Washington. The opposition will be fruitless and Daniel will soon be taking care of the salary.

Several well known citizens of Wilcox county, Alabama, were arrested on the charge of being participants in a lynching, but at last accounts no justice of the peace could be found who would hear the preliminary trial. Several were applied to but refused.

Rev. Sam Small, the erstwhile evangelist who is now on the editorial staff of the Atlanta Constitution, was in Washington Tuesday and cornered the two Georgia senators. He laid down an ultimatum to them, declaring that "hell would break loose in Georgia" if either of them failed to vote for the Panama canal treaty.

Why did the aldermen not say that the drug stores should not sell it at all and be done with it.—Durham Herald.

That would have been the proper thing to do:

If Mayor Harrison, of Chicago, had been as zealous in his efforts to enforce the law before the thing happened as he is now the recent chapter in the city's history might not have been written.—Durham Herald.

Stories and Pastimes for Children.

The Delinctor for February contains bright stories and interesting articles for grown people, and delightful tales and other amusements to keep little hands and minds occupied. A Little Garden Calendar, by Albert Bigelow Paine, tells the story of the second month's development of a garden belonging to two very interesting children. It is instructive as well as entertaining. Tom ny Postoffice is a cat story by Gabrielle E. Jackson, a writer who is dear to the hearts of young folks. Then Lina Beard tells how to build a miniature Indian Encampment, and there is a humorous poem called The Insects' Thimblebee. There is other matter in the number that will delight the children, and also the very latest styles in garments for them.

If the farmer only could realize it he has the situation in hand to control the price of bright tobacco, only through a small area in Virginia and the two Carolinas is bright tobacco raised, and if the farmers of these three states could arrange the acreage they could force the American Tobacco Co. to pay them a good price for their tobacco.—News and Observer.

Again Gaston is at the head of the list. The recent report of the corporation commission shows that Gaston leads the procession of the counties in the tax valuation of her lands—the average rate being $13.43 per acre. How far Gaston is in the lead is indicated by the statement that the average for the State is only $1.35 per acre.—Gastonia Gazette.

"Is this political party that is now supporting the Roosevelt administration in aiding and abetting the dismemberment of the union of a South American republic the same republican party that expended tens of thousands of precious lives and billions of money to suppress rebellion and secession in the United States?" asks the Philadelphia Record. The very same. The United States must back-track on their "rebellion and secession" record if they have to dig the Panama Canal in order to do it.—Charlotte Observer.

The New York Commercial thinks that there is no reason to fear business depression in this country in the event of war between Japan and Russia, that is of course if the United States is not drawn into it, which would be an impossibility with any other man in the White House than Theodore Roosevelt. Many American products will have an increased demand for them "and while the cotton goods may suffer from a temporary closing of Eastern ports, it is thought that the business of the cotton manufacturer will be also increased, in the long run. And it seems to be true that the sympathies of America are almost entirely with the Jap as against the Cossack.—Charlotte News.

Southern was After Him.

It will be interesting for Charlotte people to hear that the Southern Railway came very near landing Mr. J. M. Barr, the new president of the Seaboard Air Line, it was necessary for the Seaboard to give Mr. Barr the presidency in order to keep the Southern from getting him. Mr. Barr's contract with the Seaboard expired sometime this year and had the presidency not fallen his way he would have certainly gone with the Southern.

Mr. Barr will retain his offices in the headquarters building of the road at Portsmouth, Va., and will continue to supervise the general management of the system. Having been in charge of the policy of the road for three years there will not be any material changes. As vice-president and general manager, it is said, Mr. Barr's salary was $35,000 a year. As president it is reported that he will get about $50,000.

Mr. John H. Sharp, who was treasurer of the Seaboard and one of its oldest employees, is succeeded by Mr. M. S. Meldrin.

The announcement of the election of Mr. Barr as president has caused great uneasiness among the employees of the road, as his cutting propensities are well known. It is recalled that he decapitated a thousand or more persons when he was made general manager, and the recollection has served to put more on the anxious bench.—Charlotte News.

Congratulations

Mr. John H. Cullom, Editor of the Garland, Texas, News, has written a letter of congratulations to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as follows: Sixteen years ago when our first child was a baby he was subject to croupy spells and we would be very nora-y about him. We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in 1887, and finding it such a reliable remedy for colds and croup we have never been without it in the house since that time. We have five children and have given it to all of them with good results. One good feature of this remedy is that it is not disagreeable to take and our babies really like it. An other is that it is not dangerous, and there is no risk from giving an overdose. I congratulate you upon the success of your remedy." For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and R. L. Davis & Bros., Farmville.

A GOOD NAME.

From personal experience I testify that DeWitt's Little Early Risers are unequalled as a liver pill. They are rightly named because they give strength and energy and do their work with ease.—W. T. Easton, Boerne, Tex. Thousands of people are using these tiny little pills in preference to all others, because they are so pleasant and effectual. They cure biliousness, torpid liver jaundice, sick headache, constipation, etc. They do not purge and weaken, but cleanse and strengthen. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

An emergency is a case of unexpected company on Su-day.

URED OFFILES AFTER 40 YEARS.

Mr. C. Haney, of Geneva, O., had the piles for 40 years. Doctors and dollars could do him no good. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured him permanently. Invaluable for cuts, burns, bruises, sprains, laceration, eczema, teiter, salt rheum, and all other skin diseases. Look for the name De Witt on the package—all others are cheap, worthless counterfeits. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

The best is the dearest in the case of girls.

A SCIENTIFIC DISCOVERY.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does for the stomach that which it is unable to do for itself, even when but slightly disordered or over-loaded. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure supplies the natural juices of digestion and does the work of the stomach, relaxing the nervous tension, while the inflamed muscles of that organ are allowed to rest and heal. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digest what you eat and enables the stomach and digestive organs to transform all food into rich, red blood. Sold by John L. Wooten.

If it were not for the fools, dead-beats and sharpers would have to go to work.

Found a Care For Indigestion

I use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for indigestion and find that they suit my case better than any dyspepsia remedy I have ever tried and I have used many different remedies. I am 51 years of age and have suffered great deal from indigestion. I can eat almost anything I want now.—George W. Emory, Rock Mills, Ala. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville and R. L. LONDON'S GRASSHOPPER.

For Nearly Three and a Half Centuries a Famous Landmark.
 The golden grasshopper on the tower of the Royal Exchange has been for nearly three and a half centuries a London landmark as familiar as the cross on St. Paul's or the dragon on Bow church steeple.
 Sir Thomas Gresham, a royal agent in three successive reigns, founded the exchange in the reign of Elizabeth. He erected at his own expense a beautiful structure in the Flemish style of architecture, with shops on the first floor. A bell tower crowned by a huge grasshopper stood on one side of the chief entrance. The bell in this tower summoned the merchants at 12 o'clock noon and 6 o'clock evening. During the great fire of 1666 the building was totally destroyed. The statues of kings and queens which ornamented the corridors were precipitated into the enormous cellars and with them the tower and grasshopper.
 Gresham was loyally loved by the metropolis, and his generous services were not forgotten. From the mountain of debris the grasshopper was rescued, and it was placed—a lofty vane of gilt brass—above the new dome supported by eight Corinthian columns, and to this hour it swings to the points of the compass, perpetuating the sign and crest of the Gresham family. The old clock in this tower had four dials and chimed four times daily, on Sunday, the One Hundred and Fourth Psalm; on Monday, "God Save the King;" on Tuesday, "Waterloo March;" on Wednesday, "There's Nae Luck About the Hoose;" on Thursday, "See, the Conquering Hero Comes;" on Friday, "Life Let Us Cherish;" and on Saturday, "Foot Guards' March." In 1838 fire again devastated the stately building, beginning soon after 10 at night, and by next morning the clock tower alone was standing. It is significant that the last air played by the chimes before they went crashing through the tower roof, crushing the entrance arch below, was "There's Nae Luck About the Hoose;" then the eight bells ceased their clanging.

The grasshopper was unharmed and to this day remains, eleven feet of shimmering metal, looking down from its perch 108 feet above the busy streets.—Julian King Colford in St. Nicholas.

 Gratitude is the fairest blossom which springs from the soul, and the heart of man knoweth none more fragrant.—Hosea Ballou.

Twice Declined.

The invitation list of the governor general of Canada is made out strictly in accordance with precedent, but is not kept up to date always, the aid who has to send the invitations out, generally an Englishman or Scotchman, not always being au courant with changes on the list.
 The late Sir Antoine Dorion, chief Justice of Quebec, was once invited to some function, as was proper, but Lady Dorion, who was dead, was invited likewise. Sir Antoine accepted for himself, but declined for her ladyship, on the ground that she was in the cemetery. The next year, however, the same mistake was made; so the old judge wrote back to the aid-de-camp in waiting:
 "Sir Antoine Dorion accepts, etc., but her ladyship being still in St. Anne's cemetery Sir Antoine is compelled again to decline the invitation for her."

Another Name For It.

The veterinary made a critical examination of the ailing steer.
 Here and there, wherever the demarcation of a bone was visible, he attempted to pinch the skin.
 But it would not work.
 "What is the matter with it?" asked the owner of the steer.
 "He has what would be called 'conservatism' in a man. But as he is only a dumb brute we say he is hidebound."
 —Baltimore American.

Expert Testimony.

"To settle a bet," said the visitor, "how long can a man go without food?"
 "Ask the man over there," said the snake editor.
 "Is he the editor who answers questions?"

KODOL
 Digests What You Eat.

Weak Hearts

Are due to indigestion. Ninety-nine of every one hundred people who have heart trouble can remember when it was simple indigestion. It is a scientific fact that all cases of heart disease, not organic, are not only traceable to, but are the direct result of indigestion. All food taken into the stomach which fails of perfect digestion ferments and swells the stomach, puffing it up against the heart. This interferes with the action of the heart, and in the course of time that delicate but vital organ becomes diseased.

Kodol
 Digests What You Eat

Mrs. Loring Nichols of Penn Yan, N. Y., writes: "After eating, my food would distress me by making my heart palpitate and I would become very weak. Finally I got a bottle of Kodol and it gave me immediate relief. After using a few bottles I am cured."

Kodol cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach disorders, and gives the heart a full, free and untrammelled action.
 Bottles only $1.00 Size holding 2 1/2 times the trial size, which sells for 50c

THE
AMERICAN MONTHLY
 REVIEW OF REVIEWS

THE NECESSARY MAGAZINE.
 IN THE PRESIDENTIAL YEAR.

The Review of Reviews is often called a necessity, in recognition of its usefulness in keeping readers "up with the times."
 In Presidential election years the REVIEW OF REVIEWS is more than ever "the necessary magazine." Everybody wants to be truly and quickly informed about this or that public question that has forged to the front; to know about the new candidates and personal factors in politics, to have a complete picture at hand of the current movement of history.

In Dr. Shaw's editorials, in its authentic and timely contributed articles, in its brilliant character sketches, in its condensations and reviews of all the important articles of other magazines, and in its hundred a month of valuable portraits, witty cartoons, and interesting views, the REVIEW OF REVIEWS gives the much desired news of the world's and our own progress. "The World under a Field-glass" is the way one subscriber describes it.
 Men in public life, like President Theodore Roosevelt, the members of Congress, and the great captains of industry, who must keep "up with the times," intelligent men and women all over America, have decided it is "indispensable."

Japan's War Preparations.

Paris, Jan. 5.—A dispatch to the Havas agency from Tokio says: "The preparations for the embarkation of two divisions troops continue. It is believed they will be dispatched to ports in southern Korea to restore order."

The most significant feature of this dispatch from Tokio is the statement that Japan is hastening final preparations for a far more extensive dispatch of troops to Korea than was at first contemplated. The government has now decided to send an army of 35,000 men, organized as two divisions, to Korea. This is more than double the strength of the expedition first contemplated. It requires a large fleet of transports and extensive arrangements, which are proceeding rapidly toward completion. The destination of this army is expected to be southern Korea, particularly Fusan and Masampo.

Officials here at first understood that Russia would object to the dispatch of the expedition, but the magnitude of the plans begins to raise some doubt as to whether Russia will acquiesce. Although no positive advices have been given of the preparations for the dispatch of this large army the reports excite some apprehension, as it is said it may develop into the first outward act of the impending conflict.

Tokio, Jan. 5.—1:05 p. m.—The Russian reply to Japan has not yet been received. It is reported from Vladivostock that the Russian squadron there is preparing for action. According to another report a Russian cruiser has left Port Arthur with a small military force on board. Its destination is unknown, but is probably Chemulpo, Corea.

Tokio, Jan. 3:05 p. m.—An extra edition of the official Gazette has been issued containing army and navy orders prohibiting the publication of any reports of the movements of troops or war vessels from this time on. Otherwise the Japanese authorities are not interfering with messages.
