Roosevelt Asked to Intervene.

Vienna, Feb. 8.—The Austrian peace society has sent a cablegram to President Roosevelt requesting him to intervene in the Russo-Japanese conflict under the provisions of the international arbitration tribunal at The Hague.

Woman's League.

The Woman's League for Moral Reform met with Mrs. T. J. Jarvis Tuesday afternoon. Quite a large number of ladies were present, and many new names were added to the League roll. Owing to the large and increasing membership, it will be inconvenient for the meetings to be held in private homes, so it was decided to hold future meetings in one of the churches. The next meeting will be in the Presbyterian church Thursday, Feb. 10, at half past three o'clock. Every woman in Greenville should be present, and join with this force for the moral uplifting of the community, and the protection of the women and children from the evils of the whiskey saloon.

'A Block Burned.

Lakeland, Fla., Feb. 8.—The entire block, bounded by the railroad, Kentucky avenue, Main street and Massachusetts avenue, was burned here this morning. The loss is estimated at $75,000, with insurance of about one-third. The cause of the fire is unknown.

Smashed the Porch.

On Tuesday Mr. Alfred Forbes had a large limb that was in the way cut from a tree on the side walk in front of the school house building on his property. In falling the limb struck the porch of the building and wrecked it. The force of the falling limb was so great that the porch was torn from the house and turned completely over.

THE FIRST CLASH OF WAR.

JAPAN DISABLES THREE RUSSIAN WAR SHIPS IN FIRST ENGAGEMENT.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 9.—An official dispatch received here says that Japanese torpedo boats have attacked the Russian squadron in the outer roads at Port Arthur and that three Russian ships were damaged. Admiral Alexieff's official report of attack by the Japanese is as follows:

"I most respectfully inform your majesty that at or about midnight of February 8 9 Japanese torpedo boats made a sudden attack by means of mines upon the Russian squadron in the outer roads of the fortress of Port Arthur, in which the battleships Retvizan and Czarevizan and the cruiser Pliada were damaged. An inspection is being made to ascertain the character of the damage. Details are following for your majesty."

London, Feb. 9.—Japan's daring coup in opening war on the strong Russian position at Port Arthur has astounded Europe. Not only is it indicative of the tremendous energy with which Japan will force the campaign, but it is regarded as an almost decisive blow so far as naval operations are concerned. Naval experts here are of the opinion that the disablement of three of the best ships of the Russian fleet is sufficiently important to assure Japanese victory upon the seas. All acquainted with the personnel of the Japanese navy and army agree that the war will be a constant series of daredevil exploits, even riskier in character than the bold dash at Port Arthur last night.

Chefoo, Feb. 9.—It is now said that the battleship Plotava and flagship Peresviet were led into a trap. After shelling the Russian fleet the Japanese vessels turned and rushed to sea as if in flight.

The Poltava and Peresviet pursued.

When just outside the harbor the entire Japanese fleet turned and concentrated a terrible fire on the two pursuers. The Russian ships were repeatedly struck by shells. The German officers here say the object of the Japanese admiral was merely to test the strength of the Russian naval force and that he found them very weak, weaker than was expected.

They say the moral effect of the victory is such that Japan can now dispatch her entire active army of 200,000 men into Manchuria and other points.

The plan now is said, by the foreign attaches, to be to make the land operations as rapid as those at sea and crush Russia's forces at the start.

NINE RUSSIAN WAR SHIPS SUNK.

A telegram received at 4 p. m. by Mr. W. B. Wilson from the New York World reads as follows:

"Several naval battles already fought, nine Russian warships sank or disabled. No Japanese losses."

NEW YORK THEN AND NOW.

Interesting Things Told by Col. Sugg—Holds to His Faith in Cotton.

New York, Feb. 7th, 1904, EDITOR REFLECTOR:

I don't know as you care to have a letter from me, or that your readers care either, but I am so constituted that when I enjoy a good thing I don't mind letting my friends have at least a share to the extent of knowing it in part.

I have been comparing New York when I was a boy and New York when I am a little more grown up. I will not say how many years ago, but it was before the street electric cars were in use and before any cars at all were used on Broadway. There was one elevated steam railway that ran from Brooklyn bridge to High bridge, now all is electric street and elevated cars, automobiles, and every device that American ingenuity can possibly divine.

When I first came to New York I wondered where in the world so many people came from; and as old Sheriff Tyson used to say "it looked like court week all the time." No one can come to this city and see the thousand and one things, gigantic in proportion, almost out of conception, and not feel proud of the fact that he is an American, the foremost and greatest of nations.

I was up town yesterday and witnessed the printing of the Herald and Evening Telegram by the largest printing press in the world. I was comparing it with THE REFLECTOR'S press and the comparison was one to stun a fellow. More than one thousand papers a minute being turned out and folded ready for shipping.

I suppose in another quarter of a century, possibly sooner, the mode of city travel will be again improved upon, and pneumatic tubes will be the modern method, when a man can leave down at the Battery and get to Central park before he starts, counting the difference in time. I shall not be surprised what will happen. At any rate I am coming up to New York then and see.

When I first came to New York A. T. Stewards down town store was the wonder of the day. It was seven stories high and was a big hoase, the admiration of everybody. It is the smallest store now in the city. Almost everybody wants an office or business place 25 stories high, some 45, and the value of space is so great an underground street railway is being constructed that beats the electric road.

Before you receive this letter I have calculated you will be surprised at the great reaction in the cotton market. It may possibly not occur before Thursday, but there is a sky rocket performance being arranged and the dizzy heights will be started for as soon as the Ginn's report is read out. I know some people are saying where are those sky-parlor prices, the market has broke 3 1/2 cents! Well, it is not good for it to go one way all the while. The other fellow's blood would stagnate. My calculations have all been verified so far and I am not disturbed about the others, as I have given myself plenty of time to realize all that I have predicted. I repeat again, war or no war, (Continued on Fourth Page.)

WINTERVILLE ITEMS.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Feb 10.

Unusually large crowds have been in town nearly every day for the past week. Some of us may be afraid of the robbers, but fortunately there are others with seemingly a little more nerve. The brave are by far in the majority. Full-blooded Americans, you know—ah!

Guy Taylor, of Kinston, has bought out A. D. Johnston and will conduct a grocery business in the store formerly occupied by Mr. Johnston.

Wm. Darden, of Greene county, was here on business Saturday.

Samuel Mumford, of Ayden, has been to see us.

Henry Manning and wife and Miss Julia Smith, of Ayden, came up on the train Sunday morning and spent the day with the family of Elder T. N. Manning.

Large crowds went out to attend preaching at Reedy Branch Sunday.

The world is conceded to be made up of all kinds and all sorts, but the most contemptible is the snake in the grass species.

Dr. B. T. Cox went to Greenville Monday.

R. G. Chapman, wife and little Clyde, went to Shelmerdine Saturday and returned Monday.

D. E. Cooper after muth, suffering with a fractious tooth, has about conquered the demon.

T. R. Hodges, of Washington, spent Monday night with J. D. Cox.

Mrs. B. F. Manning and child ren, who have been visiting friends here for several days, returned to their home in Greenville Monday.

Misses Maynie Ives, Lyda Roberson, Mollie Bryan and Lena Dawson, all of whom have schools in the country, spent Sunday with friends here and returned to their respective charges Monday.

W. F. Carroll and wife were in town Sunday visiting friends.

Elder T. N. Manning now occupies the Fair house on Main and Railroad streets.

C. A. Fair and family have moved to Ayden where Mr. Fair will engage in the buggy business.

We have had a home with them for more than two years and to us their leaving is a source of regret.

We do not think and cannot now feel we shall ever be thrown with people so kind and true. Mr. Fair is a high toned gentleman and Mrs. Fair a most excellent lady. Two sweeter little children, Letha and Edgar, never blessed a happy household. They were favorites with everyone. In their departure we miss friends whose places cannot be filled and we wish them happiness and that prosperity may be theirs in every vicissitude of life and no dark shadows ever cross the threshold of their peaceful home.

Miss Zora Gresham, a pupil in our school, left for home, near Kinston, last night owing to a serious fall her grandmother received last week while walking on ice.

W. L. House and J. S. Barber upon receipt of a message went to Farmville Monday after our robbers, but the parties arrested were not the right ones.

THE DRINK EVIL

Every civilized nation is looking for a cure of the liquor evil. The United States is not alone in the fight against liquor dealers. Society, the state, the law everywhere recognizes the sale of intoxicants, in the open saloon, as a great evil. It is regarded as a menace to the life, liberty, peace and happiness of every man, woman and child. In no country today is the sale of liquor unrestricted.

Wherever this iniquitous business is least restrained by law, public sentiment, by police force, there its foulest work is done in debauching and degrading the people, on the other hand, wherever the greatest care is exercised to limit and restrict the business, there the least amount of evil is seen to follow. Since no state can or does permit unlicensed, unrestricted sales of liquor, the more completely it can be hedged about by the state, the better it is for the state. Observation and experience teaches this.

The Watts law in North Carolina providing for a dispensary, restricts and hedges about the sale of liquor as much as it can be by law.

The dispensary does its business in daylight only, while the open saloon thrives at night. The dispensary breaks up the home of gambling and rowdyism. It furnishes no parlor nor loafing place. It provides no hiding place for those who will drink only in secret. It removes the temptation, "come in, let's have a drink," from those who seek to reform.

The dispensary drives out of business that class of men whose business, from its very nature, tempts them to corrupt the vote and office holders in town and city.

The open saloon, a recognized school of crime and enemy of the home, society, the church, should be closed. That fountain head of all the great evils that afflict the land should be closed.

The whole world stands astounded at the enormity of the Baltimore fire, the greatest in the history of the world. In truth the loss is well nigh incalculable running into millions—anywhere from two to three hundred millions. The blow is a bad one for Baltimore and will be felt over the entire South. Southern merchants buy many goods there and they will have to go elsewhere, no doubt creating loss to them. Yet with such terrible devastation not a life was lost as far as now known. This is something to be thankful for.

No punishment that could be put in the statute books would be ample for the friends who committed the crime on the Shield's family in Roanoke, Va.,—so maddened men reason and take the law into their own hands.

North Carolina so far as her senators go, is divided on the Panama canal treaty, Senator Simmons favoring it and Senator Overman opposing it.

EDUCATION.

Education seeks to make the individual of resource of power, honesty and honor, in whom the vision of truth is united with the power of doing one's duty, in whom tenderness of heart for the suffering is justly joined with capacity for moral indignation. It seeks to train leaders—intellectual, ethical, religious, civil, etc. It unites to lift the whole lives of human society to more broader and clearer seeing, finer thinking, and nobler opportunities.

It looks to us like any person who wants to see less drunkenness in Greenville and moral conditions improved should favor a dispensary rather than open saloons.

The ground hog is getting in some lively work now; he must be way back in his hole.

The French government employs 1,550 workmen and 15,000 women in the state tobacco manufactories and makes a yearly profit of 400,000,000 francs.

Have You a Boy to Spare?

The saloon must have boys, says the Presbyterian, or it must shut up shop. Can't you furnish it one? It is a great factory and unless it can get about 2,000,000 for each generation for raw material, some of these factories must close out, and its operators will be thrown on a cold world. "Wanted—2,000,000 boys," is the notice. One family out of every five must contribute a boy to keep up the supply. Will you help? Which of your boys will it be? Are you a father? Have you contributed a boy? If not, some other family has had to give more than its share. Are you not selfish, wanting to keep the saloon open to grind up boys, and then doing nothing to keep up the supply?—Ex

Habit of Doing One's Best.

The habit of always doing one's best enters into the very marrow of one's heart and character, it affects one's bearing, one's self-possession. The man who does everything to a finish has a feeling of serenity; he is not easily thrown off his balance; he has nothing to fear, and he can look the world in the face because he feels conscious that he has not put shoddy into anything, that he has had nothing to do with shams, and that he has always done his level best. The sense of efficiency, of being master of one's craft, of being equal to any emergency, the consciousness of possessing the ability to do with superiority whatever one undertakes, will give soul satisfaction which a half-hearted, slipshod worker never knows.

When a man feels throbbing within the power to do what he undertakes as well as it can possibly be done, and all his faculties say "Amen" to what he is doing and give their unqualified approval to his efforts—this is happiness, this is success. This buoyant sense of power puts the faculties to their fullest development. It unfolds the mental, the moral and the physical forces, and growth, the consciousness of an expanding mentality and of a broadening horizon, gives an added satisfaction beyond the power or words to describe. It is a realization of nobility, the divinity of the mind—success.

Escaped an Awful Fate

Mr. H. Haggins of Melbourne, Fla., writes, "My doctor told me I had Consumption and nothing could be done for me. I was given up to die. The offer of a free trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, induced me to try it. Results were startling. I am now on the road to recovery and owe all to Dr. King's New Discovery. It surely saved my life." This great cure is guaranteed for all throat and lung diseases by Wooten's Drug Store. Price 50c and $1.00.
Trial bottles free.

A woman who wants but little here below should get married and let it go at that.

AN EARLY RISER.

A strong, healthy, active constitution depends largely on the condition of the liver. The famous little pills known as DeWitt's Little Early Risers not only cleanse the system but they strengthen the action of the liver and rebuild the tissues supporting that organ. Little Early Risers are easy to act, they never gripe and yet they are absolutely certain to produce results that are satisfactory in all cases. Sold by J. L. Wooten.

Perfect Confidence.

Where there used to be a feeling of uneasiness and worry in the household when a child showed symptoms of croup, there is now perfect confidence. This is owing to the uniform success of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the treatment of that disease. Mrs. M. I. Basford, of Poolesville, Md., in speaking of her experience in the use of that remedy says: "I have a world of confidence in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for I have used it with perfect success. My child Garland is subject to severe attacks of croup and it always gives him prompt relief." For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; R. L. Davis & Bro., Farmville.

When You Have a Cold.

The first action when you have a cold should be to relieve the lungs. This is best accomplished by the free use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This Remedy liquefies the tough mucus and causes its expulsion from the air cells of the lungs, produces a free expectoration, and opens the secretions. A complete cure soon follows. This remedy will cure a severe cold in less time than any other treatment and it leaves the system in a natural and healthy condition. It counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bro. Farmville.

PERSONALS AND SOCIAL.

Charles Skinner went up the road this morning.

J. W. Brown went to Kinston Tuesday evening.

This is about as disagreeable weather as comes along.

Rev. W. E. Cox returned Tuesday evening from Williamston.

Mrs. J. W. Brown and children left Tuesday evening for a visit to Ayden.

Misses Sue Everett, of Robersonville, and Ella Langley, of House, are visiting Misses Valeria and Fannie Fleming.

Mrs. Pattie Winstead, of Rocky Mount, who was visiting her mother, Mrs. W. M. King, returned home this morning.

Teachers' Association.

The Teachers' Association will meet Saturday, 13. The program promises an interesting and profitable session. The library, consisting of about one hundred volumes, has arrived and Prof. Ragsdale says he will be ready to begin the lending of books by Saturday's meeting. We hope to see all the teachers in the county present.

No one in the work can afford to miss these meetings if he or she desires to keep up with the school work in the county.

cotton will sell much higher than 17½ cents, where it touched less than a week ago.

It takes meritorious skill to put the price up to abnormal heights, but sickly sentiment to cause it to tumble as it has the past week. The scene yesterday just as the market closed was beyond description, and July, Sully's favorite, sold at 13.48.

Mr. Sully has not gone to Florida. He would not leave the market in the present condition to be raided by the merciless bears. He is in New York and will be heard from before this reaches you; and futher than that deponent sayeth not.

When the weather is fair it is bitter cold, and when it is warm it rains.

A thrilling scene occurred in the dining room at 6 o'clock dinner. There was a great throng, and the special Italian band gave music and played everything for an hour. When "Dixie" was struck everybody slapped and cheered to the echo. As the years go by "Dixie" grows in the hearts of all. ISAAC A. SUGG.

Dorothy Dodd SHOES.

The "Dorothy Dodd" Shoe has that something in beauty and style that means individuality.

It possesses "style" in the highest degree; it gives distinction to the foot. In the diversity of kinds there are styles for every person from the exquisite evening slipper to the sturdy winter street boot; they all have a light, airy gracefulness peculiarly their own, which is sure to appeal to a woman's eye. "DOROTHY DODD" SHOES FIT; They Fit Perfectly.

Shoes should always fit closely under and about the instep so as to make it impossible for the foot to slip forward and crowd the toes, while the ball and toes should have plenty of room thus giving free play to the foot.

This is exactly what "Dorothy Dodd" shoes do. Our new Spring Styles in oxfords and sandals will be very shortly.
