WINTERVILLE ITEMS.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Feb. 13.

We feel sure our readers will pardon any and all things lacking to bring the items of this issue up to their usual standard. We have been visited by a most terrible fire, leaving many of our citizens out of employment and thrown entirely upon the mercies of a cold, very cold world. The facts have already been published in your paper, and this, with our other losses, leaves us in a position entirely out of order to write. We feel grateful, however, that our people are Americans true and brave, and despair finds no resting place here. Though adversities have overtaken them, with that spirit of Anglo-Saxon courage they have already buckled on their armor, and with a heroism worthy of a noble cause they are determined that the Winterville of twelve months shall far surpass the Winterville just laid in ashes. Such determination as this can never fail.

G. A. Kittrell went to Norfolk Wednesday and returned Thursday.

W. F. Harrington, living three miles below Greenville, died Tuesday and was buried Wednesday.

Our town lock-up is complete and on last Tuesday was dedicated in due form. The proceedings were interesting and of a high order. As a matter of fact one of our aldermen was confined therein and left for a while to reflect and ponder upon the possibilities of a way faring man. Then for a change our honored mayor, chief of police and ex-alderman exchanged places with him and they too, were left to experience the wild imaginations of him with whom the world goes hard, and in the glooming hereafter will be governed by what they know and deal kindly with one who must pass through the same trying ordeal.

Miss Pauline Joyner, of Ayden, is visiting the Misses Dawson.

Irwin McLawhorn, of Ayden, was here yesterday looking at the remnants of the fire.

Many were the fall downs and slip ups Thursday night. They had regard neither for the fair nor even for the homely. First a maiden and then a lad, next a comely dame followed by a battle scarred hero, all paying homage to their majesty the ground heels upward and heads downward, could be seen here and there.

William Cooper, of Greensboro, has been visiting his uncle, Rowan Cooper, the past week.

John A. Edwards fell on the snow Thursday and now he swears he saw seven stars and believes he saw some more, but didn't count.

C. A. Fair, of Ayden, was here yesterday.

H. A. White was here Friday regarding the recent fire and insurance.

Mr. Lunceford, of Ayden, was a visitor Thursday.

The burnt district will be rebuilt at once.

Just a few loafers in town now. No fault of ours, though. Better times, boys, bye and bye.

CARD OF APPRECIATION.

In behalf of the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co., I desire to express sincere thanks for such earnest efforts of both white and colored, that so miraculously saved our factory from the fierce flames that were so destructive to our town.

As we saw you working at so many points of danger, from the sleety ground to the icy top of a high house, and then beheld the fierce flames as they would almost leap upon you and burning debris falling all over and around the factory, and yet you stood and drove them back, our heart swelled with gratitude and our tongue fails to find utterance to express our thanks to you, and in silence our heart speaks and says surely this is a debt we can never pay.

We especially mention the true men and boys that have no earthly interest here, yet they swelled the effort to the saving of our factory. May the guiding hand of the Lord ever direct them in this life, and may He abundantly bless them in their efforts to prepare for life.

Again thanking each and every one, both white and colored, who stood by our interest in such time of need, we sincerely hope that heavens blessing's may be yours.

A. G. Cox.

Unveiling Postponed.

Owing to the inclemency of the weather, and to other special services in town, the unveiling services of the memorial window in the Baptist church will be postponed to Sunday, Feb. 21st.

A. T. KING, Pastor.

Tuesday Night.

Mr. J. W. Bailey, of Raleigh, will speak here in the opera house, on the subject of temperance and dispensary, on Tuesday night, 16th. Remember the time and be there to hear a good speech.

To The Teachers of Pitt.

The Teachers' Association adjourned today to meet February 20. The program for the 13 will be rendered then.

Feb. 13. JOHN D. EVERETT.

League Meeting.

The Woman's League for Moral Reform will hold a public meeting in the Methodist church Sunday, Feb. 14th at half past three o'clock. An interesting programme will be rendered and every body is cordially invited to attend.

Don't fret over the Jap. It looks like the little fellow is taking care of himself all right.

HOW WILL A DISPENSARY AFFECT BUSINESS?

We hear some of the good citizens of Greenville are hesitating to vote for a dispensary because they fear the closing up of the bar rooms would hurt the business of the town. We have two replies to make to this suggestion. First, if it were true that closing up the bar rooms and opening a dispensary would hurt the business of the town, even then will a man with a soul in him say that he prefers a prosperity purchased at the sacrifice of the moral tone of the town to a growth in moral and intellectual development. Will he put the morality of his town in one end of the scales and a business based on the liquor traffic in the other, and say give me business at whatever sacrifice? Will he prefer a few dollars to the life of some young man saved from a drunkard's grave? Will he hazard the safety of his own son rather than risk the loss of a few dollars from an apprehended loss of business? Will he take the chance of his daughter marrying a man given over to the drink habit in preference to taking his chance of doing business in a town without bar rooms? The father who says he cannot vote for the dispensary because he fears it may injure his business assumes a fearful risk. The man who says he will not vote for it for fear it may injure the business of the town puts a higher estimate on business than he does on morality. Have such men ever felt the danger of temptation? Have they ever been subjected to the force of example? Have they ever stopped to consider how many men have fallen because they were tempted? Have they estimated the danger of a bad example? As long as the bar rooms stand wide open and respectable men of standing and influence go in and out, is there not danger that some young man may fall who tries to follow their bad example? What father with a son can safely say "it will not be my boy?" What father can stand to be told in coming years he had the opportunity on the 2nd day of March 1904, to vote to close bar rooms and remove this temptation out of the path of his boy. He said to close them might hurt his business. He risked his boy but would not risk his business. His boy, not able to stand the temptation, fell. What a terrible, crushing blow this must be to the father on whom it falls. And yet fall it will on some father if the election on the 2nd of March fails.

Our second answer to this unholy suggestion is that it is not true as a matter of fact, and the man who entertains it, is simply taking counsel of his fears. To say that Greenville will lose a part of her trade if the bar rooms are closed is a very poor compliment to the men who come here to trade. It is equivalent to saying that their trade can be bought with whiskey. It is likewise a poor compliment to the Greenville merchants. It is equivalent to saying that they cannot compete with the merchants in other towns and that they are obliged to hold on to the bar rooms to hold the trade. We heard a few days ago of a conversation something like this. Mr. A. said to a friend he could not vote for the dispensary because some farmer might carry his tobacco to Kinston or Wilson. But, said the friend, Kinston and Wilson have dispensaries. Well, said Mr. A. he might carry his cotton to Farmville or Falkland. The friend asked, do you think the trade of a farmer worth much who would haul his cotton to Farmville or Falkland rather than to Greenville because he can buy a "five cent short" at either of these places and cannot at Greenville?

This is about a sample of the argument that is being used by those who can find no better excuse for wanting to keep the bar rooms running. Of course there is nothing in it. The progress and growth of the town does not depend upon its whiskey shops. The business of the merchants does not depend upon the ability of their customers to visit a grog shop also. We have in Greenville good merchants, good banks and good business men. The amount of business they do depends upon their own efforts and method and not upon the rum mills of the town. The fact is, if the nickles, dimes, quarters and half dollars which go into the tills of the bar rooms for whiskey could go into the money drawers of the merchants for something to eat and to wear, both the merchant and the customer would be the gainer.

We must admit, however, that there is one class of men whose business would be seriously hurt if not entirely destroyed by closing up the bar rooms, and that is the bar keepers themselves. They will be about in the condition of a gentleman in Raleigh when the Federal army entered that city in April, 1865. A Federal general took the house of this man (whose name we withhold) for his headquarters. The general was a kindly companionable sort of a fellow, and sought to get on good terms with the gentleman whose house he was occupying, but the man was morose and reticent. Finally, one day the general said to him "my friend, cheer up. I notice that you are down cast and seem to be in a great deal of trouble. This went do. You must not give up. Business will soon start up and you will soon be back to your old business more prosperous than ever." "No," said the man "my business is gone forever. It is utterly destroyed and I can never resume it." "By the way" said the general "what was your business?" "I was a negro trader" said the man.

Our Raleigh friend soon went in to another business and did well for himself and for the community. So will the twenty two men who are now engaged in the bar room business, if their present occupation is destroyed, go into some other business in which they will do well and in which they will be helpful and not hurtful to the community.

Russia's warships make a good target at any rate.

Raleigh is doing some stunts at anti-jug lery.

When You Have a Cold.

The first action when you have a cold should be to relieve the lungs. This is best accomplished by the free use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This Remedy liquefies the tough mucus and causes its expulsion from the air cells of the lungs, produces a free expectoration, and opens the secretions. A complete cure soon follows. This remedy will cure a severe cold in less time than any other treatment and it leaves the system in a natural and healthy condition. It counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bro. Farmville.

Escaped an Awful Feat

Mr. H. Haggins of Melbourne, Fla., writes, "My doctor told me I had Consumption and nothing could be done for me. I was given up to die. The offer of a free trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, induced me to try it. Results were startling. I am now on the road to recovery and owe all to Dr. King's New Discovery. It surely saved my life." This great cure is guaranteed for all throat and lung diseases by Wooten's Drug Store. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

Whiskey and Beer Habit

PERMANENTLY CURED BY

"ORRINE,"

A SAFE, SURE AND HARMLESS SPECIFIC

Physicians pronounce drunkenness a disease of the nervous system creating a morbid craving for a stimulant. Continued indulgence in whiskey, beer or wine eats away the stomach lining and stupefies the digestive organs, thus destroying the digestion and ruining the health. No "will power" can heal the inflamed stomach membranes. "ORRINE" permanently removes the craving for liquor by acting directly on the affected nerves, restoring the stomach and digestive organs to normal conditions, improving the appetite and restoring the health. No sanitarium treatment necessary; "ORRINE" can be taken at your own home without publicity. Can be given secretly if desired.

CURE GUARANTEED OR MONEY REFUNDED.

Mrs. E. Wycliff, New York City, writes: "ORRINE" cured my husband, who was a steady drunkard for many years. He now has no desire for stimulants, his health is good and he is fully restored to manhood. He used only five boxes of "ORRINE."
Mrs. W. L. D., Helena, Mont., writes: "I have waited one year before writing you of the permanent cure of my son. He took sanitarium treatment, as well as other advertised cures, but they all failed until we gave him "ORRINE." He is now fully restored to health and has no desire for drink."
Mr. A. E. L., Atlanta, Ga., writes: "I was born with a love of whiskey and drank it for thirty-two years. It finally brought me to the gutter, homeless and friendless. I was powerless to resist the craving and would steal and lie to get whiskey. Four boxes of "ORRINE" cured me of all desire and I now hate the smell of liquor."
Price $1 per box. Mailed in plain, sealed wrapper by Orrine Company, 317 1/2 St., Washington, D. C. Interesting book—Free on Drunkenness, (sealed) free on request. Sold and recommended by J. W. BRYAN, Druggist, Greenville, N. C.

Perfect Confidence.

When there used to be a feeling of uneasiness and worry in the household when a child showed symptoms of croup, there is now perfect confidence. This is owing to the uniform success of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the treatment of that disease. Mrs. M. I. Basford, of Poolesville, Md., in speaking of her experience in the use of the remedy says: "I have a world of confidence in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for I have used it with perfect success. My child Garland is subject to severe attacks of croup and it always gives him prompt relief." For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; R. L. Davis & Bro., Farmville.

RELIEF IN ONE MINUTE.

One Minute Cough Cure gives relief in one minute, because it kills the microbe which tickles the mucous membrane, causing the cough and at the same time clears the phlegm, draws out the inflammation and heals and soothes the affected parts. One Minute Cough Cure strengthens the lungs, wards off pneumonia and is a harmless and never failing cure in all curable cases of Coughs, Colds and croup. One Minute Cough Cure is pleasant to take, harmless and good alike for young and old. Sold by J. L. Wooten.

AN EARLY RISER.

A strong, healthy, active constitution depends largely on the condition of the liver. The famous little pills known as DeWitt's Little Early Risers not only cleanse the system but they strengthen the action of the liver and rebuild the tissues supporting that organ. Little Early Risers are easy to act, they never gripe and yet they are absolutely certain to produce results that are satisfactory in all cases. Sold by J. L. Wooten.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, Unequaled for Constipation.

Mr. A. R. Kane, a prominent druggist of Baxter Springs, Kansas, says: Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are, in my judgement, the most superior preparation of anything in use today for constipation. They are sure in action and with no tendency to nauseate or gripe. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bro. Farmville.

Announcement.

It gives me pleasure to announce that I have received advice from the companies represented by me that were involved in the recent Baltimore conflagration stating that the losses sustained by reason of this fire are now being adjusted and will be paid promptly. The solidity of none of them is impaired in the slightest degree. All losses will be paid out of the companies' surplus and there will still remain many million dollars in this fund to protect their policy holders.

When desiring additional insurance don't fail to call on me and secure a policy in a "conflagration proof company." H. A. White. 2 13 1td

Dorothy Dodd SHOES.

The "Dorothy Dodd" Shoe has that something in beauty and style that means individuality.

It possesses "style" in the highest degree; it gives distinction to the foot. In the diversity of kinds there are styles for every person from the exquisite evening slipper to the sturdy winter street boot; they all have a light, airy gracefulness peculiarly their own, which is sure to appeal to a woman's eye. "DOROTHY DODD" SHOES FIT; They Fit Perfectly.

Shoes should always fit closely under and about the instep so as to make it impossible for the foot to slip forward and crowd the toes, while the ball and toes should have plenty of room thus giving free play to the foot.

This is exactly what "Dorothy Dodd" shoes do.

Our new Spring Styles in oxfords and sandals will be here very shortly.
