Russia in Dire Straits.
Birmingham, England, Feb. 20. (Special).—The London correspondent of the Post says he has seen a private letter from a prominent government official at St. Petersburg stating that the most extraordinary confusion exists in practically all the Russian government departments, save perhaps the admiralty which appears to be stunned or dead from the Japanese onslaught and the fact that their ships destroyed or damaged cannot be replaced.

Regarding financial debts, the official says there is hardly enough money to conduct preliminary efforts of the campaign against Japan. Russia, he says, needs a billion francs loan, and this appears not easy to obtain.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON, FEBRUARY 20, 1904.

From what has since come in the way of weather nobody blames the ground hog for going back in his hole.

Mr. Bryan is about to do some of his talking in North Carolina. He lectures in Greensboro tonight and in Raleigh Monday night.

Remember fathers, the responsibility of removing the drink evil by closing the bar rooms rests largely upon your shoulders. What will you do about it?

Indications are that the dispensary is going to win by a good majority at the election March 2nd. You should join in, however, and help swell the majority.

There is always excuse for taking advantage when wanted. The paper trust is using the war in the East as an excuse for advancing the price of newspaper.

When Mr. Cleveland says a thing it is usually strong and up to the point. This is likewise true of his article on the political situation, published in the Saturday Evening Post of recent date.

There is suspicion in some parts of the country that an abundance of labor would prove hurtful to the cotton belt this year. If the planters could follow their present inclination they would probably produce millions of bales of cotton this season, and that would glut the world's markets and bring the prices down below the cost of production. Nothing would prevent the South from producing such an amount of cotton but the lack of labor to cultivate and pick it.

Kill the Dogs.

The man who has mutton and lamb chops for sale these days is strictly "in it." In fact he is better off than the cotton grower, for what he has to sell does not fluctuate so wildly. But men who try to raise sheep have a hard time. The Kinston Free Press tells how dogs "went into a bunch of sheep belonging to Nathan and Frank Hill and killed ten. There were five right young lambs in the herd that were not killed but were given away because Messrs. Hill had no other sheep to raise them, making 15 sheep lost." The dogs were promptly killed, but that was like shutting the door of the stable after the horse had departed. The need is to kill dogs beforehand. If there could be a wholesale slaughter of worthless dogs in North Carolina, sheep husbandry would become a large and profitable industry in this State.—Raleigh News and Observer.

When you get a catalogue from a big mail order house, just look it over and see what they pay for your produce. Also investigate and see how their terms of credit are in case you do not have the ready cash; how much they will give towards keeping up the sidewalks. Just write and see how much they will give toward the erection of a church, how much they will give to assist the poor in your community. After you have done this and receive their reply, see if your home merchant don't do as well.—Durham Sun.

If your boy is sick, how quick you are to send for the doctor. If he is in bodily peril you spare no time in going to his rescue. Yet you see saloons in waiting to fasten the drink evil upon your boy and lead him to a drunkard's grave, and you will not raise your hand to close them. To whom will this apply on the 2nd of March?

The Profits of Whiskey.

The Wichita (Kans.) Beacon puts much in little, thus:
The distiller from the bushel of corn makes four gallons of whiskey with the aid of various harmful products and adulterations. These four gallons of whiskey retail for $16.14.
The farmer who raises the corn gets from 25 to 50 cents.
The United States Government, through its tax on whiskey gets $4.50.
The railroad company gets $1.
The manufacturer gets $4.
The drayman who hauls the whiskey gets 15 cents.
The retailer gets $7.
The man who drinks the new whiskey gets drunk.
His wife gets hunger and sorrow.
His children gets rags and insufficient food.

World's Fair Convention.

It is already assured that there will be in the neighborhood of 300 conventions in St. Louis during the Exposition. In some instances several of these conventions will fall on the same dates. This was notably true of the National educational association meeting and the Democratic National convention, two of the largest gatherings in the United States, but the teachers decided to hold their convention one week earlier, beginning June 23. The educational association expects to have an enrollment of 50,000, and it is probable that the attendance at the Democratic convention, including the convention followers and people attracted to the city by the meeting, will be close to 50,000.

This showing for organized attendance at the Exposition, it is said, has never been approached in the preliminary work of any exposition. There are on the convention list, it is asserted, more than 100 organizations which will have an attendance of at least 1,000 each. The Exposition management is extending to the various organizations the courtesy of meeting places without cost. There will be over twenty Exposition halls in use, ranging in capacity from 150 to 15,000. Two hundred committee rooms will be in readiness for the conventions. This statement in regard to halls is exclusive of such assembly room accommodations as the various city hotels will supply.

A CURE FOR ECZEMA.

My baby had Eczema so bad that its head was a solid mass of scabs, and its hair all come out. I tried many remedies but none seemed to do any good until I used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. The Eczema is cured, the scabs are gone, and the little one's scalp is perfectly clean and healthy, and its hair is growing beautifully again. I cannot give too much praise to DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve.—Frank Farmer, Bluff City, Ky., in buying Witch Hazel Salve look out for counterfeits. DeWitt's is the original and the only one containing pure Witch Hazel. The name E. C. DeWitt & Co is on every box. Sold by J. L. Wooten.

WINTERVILLE ITEMS.

WINTERVILLE, N. C. Feb. 20.

Miss Lida Roberson was here in attendance upon the marriage of her brother Wednesday evening.

O. A. Fair, of Ayden, stopped a short while Thursday on his way to Greenville.

W. H. Rouse will build a handsome brick store on east side of railroad at once.

More than one thousand dozen eggs have been shipped from here this week.

The insurance agent has been here this week adjusting losses by fire.

G. R. Dixon, who was hurt during the fire is nearly all right.

The masons and Jr. O. U. A. M. now meet in the cigar factory.

G. A. Kittrell & Co's store will be ready for occupancy last of this or first of next week.

Rev. F. G. Hartman, who made a special visit here Wednesday to marry a couple, returned to Greenville next morning.

Guano and fertilizers of various kinds are constantly moving.

Mrs. Louisa Cox is visiting the family of A. W. Ange in the country.

Misses Florence Blount and Fannie Dawson, who have been visiting the Misses Dawson, have returned home.

Don't forget Dr. Cox now has his office in the residence of J. H. Dixon.

Capt. W. H. Griffin, of Goldsboro, was here yesterday. He will be remembered by the Pythians in Greenville as having organized Tar River Lodge No 96 about ten years ago.

E. S. Edwards, of Ayden, has been a visitor this week.

Miss Minnie McGowan, a pupil at the school, was called home Thursday owing to the sickness of her mother.

D. Preston Harper, of Kinston, was here yesterday.

Winterville today has prospects better than ever. Her factories are still running, her people all employed, preparations rapidly being made for the erection of eleven brick stores, a bank in view, glowing chances of new capital finding its way here and her citizens full of fire and zeal ready to accomplish their purpose, is a thrilling fact as it presents itself. And added to this with never a look backward, but onward as a motto, our town must advance and our people must succeed. We all realize this is the time, and the opportunity shall not be thrown away. Our faith shall be shown by our works.

A ripple of excitement passed among not a few when on last Wednesday evening, upon arrival of the train, it was whispered a young couple from our sister county, Martin, had arrived and with them fair cupid came to cheer and encourage them in their purpose to enter that sphere allotted to man and from which no gentle lady ever shrank. The party repaired to the boarding house of Mrs. J. D. Cox and there in the presence of a few friends, Mr. Andrew Roberson and Miss Bertie Purvis assumed those vows that made them man and wife. It was a handsome couple and the Rev. F. G. Hartman, of Greenville, did the handsome when he so pronounced them. They were accompanied here by Harvey Roberson and Miss Hattie Roberson. The bridal party returned home next morning. It was no runaway, but just for the novelty there was in it. We extend congratulations.

Dorothy Dodd SHOES.

The "Dorothy Dodd" Shoe has that something in beauty and style that means individuality.

It possesses "style" in the highest degree; it gives distinction to the foot. In the diversity of kinds there are styles for every person from the exquisite evening slipper to the sturdy winter street boot; they all have a light, airy gracefulness peculiarly their own, which is sure to appeal to a woman's eye. "DOROTHY DODD" Shoes Fit, They Fit Perfectly.

Shoes should always fit closely under and about the instep so as to make it impossible for the foot to slip forward and crowd the toes, while the ball and toes should have plenty of room thus giving free play to the foot.

This is exactly what "Dorothy Dodd" shoes do. Our new Spring Styles in oxfords and sandals will be here very shortly.
