But love, they say, will find the way.

Mr. Outlaw Dead.

Mr. Paul R. Outlaw died Tuesday afternoon at 6:30 o'clock in the hospital at Tarboro. The remains were taken by train today to Elizabeth City.

Mr. Outlaw was only about 28 years of age. He came to Greenville in August, 1902, and took a position with THE REFLECTOR. He was a brilliant writer, and as associate editor his work on the paper spoke for itself. He made many friends in Greenville.

In September, 1903, he married Miss Rodolph Freeman, of Moyock, and brought his bride here.

Mr. Outlaw was not a strong man physically, and while he dismissed the thought from his own mind his friends feared that the monster, consumption, had fastened itself upon him. In the fall his health failed and the decline was so rapid that he soon had to give up work and in December went back to his old home at Hertford. The progress of the disease could not be checked and he fell an early victim to it, though he made a brave fight for life. All here are saddened at his death and express sympathy for the sorrowing young wife.

A Pretty Window.

The merchants are receiving their spring goods daily now and some of them certainly make beautiful displays of their goods. In passing down the streets yesterday afternoon our attention was attracted to the window of A. E. Tucker & Co. They have a very large display in their window and in it are shoes of every description, low quarters, high quarters, but ton, lace, gaiter and in every conceivable shape and style.

The window will make your mouth water. Take a look at it—Alf says it won't cost you a cent to look.

WINTERVILLE ITEMS.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Mar. 23.
Elder Fred McLawhorn went to Grindool Saturday to fill his regular appointment with the church at that point.

The school taught by Miss Kate Chapman at Shelmerdine, closed last week and she is now at home enjoying a long-needed rest.

Dr. Blount was here Friday night.

J. W. Smith, of Greenville lodge, aided very materially in the conduct of the Masonic meeting here last Friday evening.

Mrs. P. H. Kittrell spent Saturday in the country with Mrs. Ed Patrick, who is very sick.

One thousand dollars from one source is no small amount to be spent in one day in a place of this size. Such was the case last Saturday.

There seems to be a general decline in prices of all the farmer now produces and a tremendous rise in that he has to buy.

Mrs. Ada Sutton, of Greene county, was visiting her father, L. F. Elliott, last Sunday.

Miss Nannie Rouse, of Lenoir, is spending the week with her brother, W. H. Rouse.

Mrs. A. G. Cox was in the country from Saturday to Sunday afternoon.

John Askew, of Farmville, was here Monday.

Ephraim Askew, of Vanceboro, has been visiting relatives here this week. He returned home yesterday with his wife, who has been on a visit here for sometime.

Now McBee and Finch have tried and slipped up in their railroad scheme, wonder if some other fellow won't make an effort to pocket North Carolina.

That was a badly frightened set Monday when Herbert White came down and told the n his company had busted. He relieved the monotony of the situation after awhile however, by paying Harrington, Barber & Co., $1,000 and Tucker Bros. $300, insurance due them on losses during the fire. Mr. White is prompt and his companies are reliable.

Mrs. W. A. West, of Shelmerdine, is visiting Mrs. J. D. Cox.

$10,000 subscribed toward the cotton seed oil mill here is surely no bad start. We're going to have it.

Misses Vivian Roberson, Ethel McDaniel and Clara Brewer spent Saturday and Sunday in the country with Miss Minnie McGowan.

Forest House from over the river, came Sunday to visit his sister, who is a student in the Winterville High school.

Concise Comparison.	Union Services
The following comparison between Japan and the Russian Empire will prove especially interesting just now.	Rev. J. A. Operator Drops Dead.

Mr. L. J. LeFancher, one of the operators in the W. U. telegraph office, at Norfolk, dropped dead just as he was leaving the office last night. He was 62 years of age and had performed his usual day's duty in apparent good health. His work ended at midnight, and after completing this he was starting home and fell dead just as he passed out the office door to the sidewalk.

Schools Closing.

Supt. W. H. Ragsdale and Prof. W. B. Dove went out this afternoon to speak at the closing of Miss Myrtle Wilson's school. Prof. Ragsdale also speaks at the closing of Miss Brown's school tonight. We believe that much good to the school interests will result from the closing exercises at which addresses may be delivered along educational and practical lines.

DELAYED TRAINS.

If the Atlantic Coast Line should exert itself specially in that direction, THE REFLECTOR believes it could hardly run the trains on this branch of the system on a more inconvenient and annoying schedule than at present. The schedule as advertised might do, but running trains by it is another question, and the public knows no more about when to expect the arrival of a train than if there was no schedule at all to pretend to run by. According to the schedule the evening train is due here at 5:49 p. m., but not once a month does it come any where near on time, and is frequently one, two or even three hours late.

When information is given out as to what time the train is expected to arrive, neither can this be depended upon, for it is just as apt to be twice as late as bulletined as otherwise. It can be seen at a glance how annoying such a schedule is. It not only is an inconvenience to the traveling public, but it seriously interferes with business. It is not infrequent that persons having important engagements elsewhere are prevented from meeting them because these delayed trains miss connection at Kinston which would be made if they were on time. Mails suffer great delay from the same cause.

The railroad people say the trains on this branch and the Plymouth and Washington branches are delayed by having to wait for the northbound train on the main line to reach Rocky Mount, and that train is always late. We fail to see why it is necessary for these branch line trains to wait for that particular main line train, when there are other trains, the one from Wilmington via Goldsboro for instance, by which people wanting to come this way can make connection at Rocky Mount for the branch lines and come much earlier.

The present arrangement is little less than a nuisance, and the sooner there is a remedy the better.

Bristow says he did not say it, but when faced with the facts that he did open his mouth and said even more.

It may be a little late, but perhaps not too late, to say that the Raleigh News and Observer is entitled to much credit for the manner in which the receivership of the Atlantic & North Carolina railroad terminated. At the very beginning of the outrage the News and Observer opened warfare against it and continued to throw on the light until the whole state was aroused. There is no doubt that the News and Observer is a paper of wide influence, and uses its power to good effect.

Many people do not have to wear "the green" on St. Patrick's day to show their verdancy.

Original Observations.

'Tis evil communications that corrupt the mails.

Those who now laugh with us will also laugh without us.

The fashionable dressmaker should never be a poor hand at figures.

Some men are so deliberate that they couldn't win even the slow race.

On the tree of life the higher you sit the more unsteady are the branches.

Many people who belong to the "upper crust" of society are not well bred.

You are a good orange as long as society's children can squeeze juice out of you.

Many sermons would be shorter if they were practiced before they are preached.

Wonder if that stench in the post office department was caused by the dead letters.

In admiring an Easter girl no one stops to credit the man who is paying for her clothes.

The style of the world is to hitch on to those who are going up—to cut loose from those going down.—Orange, Va. Observer.

The Idle Comment man on a Mississippi paper, published recently the following personals:

"John Bonin, the laziest merchant in town, made a trip to Belview yesterday.

"John Dovie, our groceryman, is doing a poor business. His store is dusty, dirty, noisily odoriferous. How can he expect to do much?

"The Rev. Styx preached Sunday night on 'Charity.' The sermon was puns. If the reverend gentleman would live up a little closer to what he preaches he'd have bigger congregations.

"Dave Smoky died last Saturday at his home in this place. The doctor gave it out as heart failure. The fact is, he was drunk, and whiskey is what killed him. His home was a rented shack on Roudy street.

"Married—Miss Sylvia Rhodes and James Canhan, last Saturday evening in the Baptist parsonage. The bride is a very ordinary town girl, who doesn't know any more than a rabbit about cooking, and who never helped her mother three days in her life. She is not a beauty by any means, and has a gall like a fat duck. The groom is well known here as an up to date loafer. He has been living off the old folks all his life, and don't amount to shucks. They will have a hard life while they live together, and The News has no congratulations to offer, for we don't believe any good can come from such a union."

The first action when you have a cold should be to relieve the lungs. This is best accomplished by the free use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. A FAVORITE REMEDY FOR BABIES.

DO YOU WANT STRENGTH?

If you want to increase your strength you must add to and not take from the physical. In other words, food that you eat must be digested, assimilated and appropriated by the nerves, blood and tissues before being expelled from the intestines. Kodol Dyspepsia Care adds to the physical. It gives strength to and builds up strength in the human system. It is pleasant to the taste and palatable, and the only combination of digestants that will digest the food and enable the system to appropriate all of its health and strength-giving qualities. Dorothy Dodd
SHOES.

The "Dorothy Dodd" Shoe has that something in beauty and style that means individuality.

It possesses "style" in the highest degree; it gives distinction to the foot. In the diversity of kinds there are styles for every person from the exquisite evening slipper to the sturdy winter street boot; they all have a light, airy gracefulness peculiarly their own, which is sure to appeal to a woman's eye. "DOROTHY DODD" Shoes Fit, They Fit Perfectly.

Shoes should always fit closely under and about the instep so as to make it impossible for the foot to slip forward and crowd the toes, while the ball and toes should have plenty of room thus giving free play to the foot.

This is exactly what "Dorothy Dodd" shoes do. Our new Spring Styles in oxfords and sandals will be here very shortly.
