Mr. Guilford Cox tells us a tenant on his farm in driving a pump some four months ago struck a vein of water about 15 feet below the surface and a spout immediately gushed up some 3 or 4 feet above the ground and has been running ever since at the rate of one gallon per minute. More remarkable still the water empties into a crawfish hole and the hole has never filled.

If the prospects for every buggy factory in Pitt are as bright as ours, there will be many buggies sold during the present year.

BLAND & PARKERSON,

Many new and pretty styles are seen in the gathering of Lawns and Prints. Indeed it would be more correct to say that every one of them are new and pretty. They are from the leading manufacturers and their quality is fully equal to their beauty. All the standard Dress Goods in Lawns, Percales and Prints are shown. The patterns are dainty, the colors rich and lasting, the prices are wonder workers.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON, APRIL 26, 1904.

No doubt Judge Parker can survive all Mr. Bryan says.

Congress is getting ready to adjourn and the country will soon have a rest.

Now they say the fruit is not all killed, but that there will be a fair crop. Good.

Better interview the sheriff about your poll tax if you want to vote. Only a few days left.

Spring took a long jump when she left the lap of winter and landed almost in the arms of summer.

Mr. Bryan seems to be getting in a class by himself. He is one man who says Judge Parker is unfit for the Presidency.

Since the two Raleigh morning dailies have got so warm in their language toward each other we may look for warm weather.

The republicans of this State are hoping to make an issue against the Watts law. As they have stood for almost everything else, it will not create much surprise if they take a stand for whiskey also.

Certain kinds of presidential tours are not a legitimate charge upon the national treasury—Atlanta Constitution.

But the bill for any kind of a junket goes into the treasury for the people to pay, just the same.

Wanted—A Southerner.

Bourke Cockran says that the country wants a northern man for president and a southern man for vice-president. This is the opportune moment for those who know Governor Aycock, his friends and admirers, to fall in line with this sentiment and advance the claims of our great educational governor for the second place on the ticket. Circumstances point to the fact that Judge Parker, or a man "equally as good," will be asked to lead the Democratic hosts. And the indications are that added enthusiasm would accrue to our cause could we succeed in placing with the New York jurist that clean, whole souled noble hearted man who now adorns our governor's chair.

Charles B. Aycock is the man to place on the national ticket with Judge Parker. The State should instruct for such a ticket.—Kinston Free Press.

What We Owe To Asia.

It is noteworthy that out of Asia came our alphabet and our Arabic numerals. The compass we owe to the Chinese, who knew the magnetic needle as early as the second century A. D. Gunpowder originally came out of Asia, and so did the art of printing and the manufacture of paper. The Chinese invented movable types in the middle of the eleventh century, 350 years before Gutenberg. They also made silks long before Europe, and porcelain that has never been equaled by Europe. Truly, Asia is the cradle of the race. On the original ideas of the Persians, the Arabians, the Hindoos, and the Chinese our modern society has been built.—Portland Oregonian.

The democrats cannot entertain such a bad opinion of Mr. Roosevelt after all, if they split up and let him be elected.—Durham Herald.

A Philadelphia woman threw a dish of lettuce in her husband's face because he refused to pray. Under such provocation how can he ever expect him to say: "Lettuce Pray"—Wilmington Star.

Burke county farmers refused to permit such a thing as a lively April snow storm stop them planting their corn. It was time to plant corn, and when that time arrives Burke farmers plant right along, snow or no snow. And they always have good crops and plenty to live on.—Raleigh Post.

Political conventions this year are bitter as of yore. The passing of the lie, the blacking of the eye, and other similar operations are still prevailing characteristics. Isn't the lesson to be drawn this. That men who have control of themselves should take more interest in politics? The fire eater has been the whole show long enough. It is time for the sane, self-contained fellow to put in an ear.—Greensboro Telegram.

TESTIMONY IN MOORE CASE.

Preliminary Trial Held at Washington.

feet, could not have gone but short distance. The ball I think was 32. My opinion is that Moore was evidently lower than Rue was for the shot to inflict such a wound.

John Reid one of the defendants, was next placed on the stand. Among other things he stated, that he and Moore went to the Cowhead springs on wheels. After loitering around the springs they started to return and the owner of the springs told them that the road was better the other way. They came up with Maud Martin, Mamie Hill, John Kinian and John Rue on the road. Moore was in the lead and after passing Maud, who was in the buggy, he saluted. Witness then came up to where Maud was and said "Maud you have acted nice, out here with John Rue. Witness caught hold of her and started to get in the buggy with her. Rue ran up struck me on the side of the head with a stick; the blow knocked me down on my knees. Witness looked around and was struck on the arm the third time. When witness came to his senses, being groggy from the effect of blows received heard the report of a pistol. Witness went at once to Moore thinking he had been shot. Rue was lying cross-ways on the road. After he was shot he walked ten or fifteen steps and fell. Moore and witness then placed body on the side of road and witness put the stick beside him. Moore said to witness, "what had we better do." Reid said lets go to town and surrender ourselves to the sheriff. They came to this city and surrendered.

Fire destroyed the pack-house, a three story building, barn and stables of Jas. H. Hardee this morning at 3 o'clock. It is not known just how the fire originated. Mr. Baker, who lives on Mr. Hardee's place awoke at 3 o'clock seeing it somewhat light in the yard, he went to the door, and to his surprise the barn was on fire. The pack house and stables caught from the barn. Mr. Baker lost all his fodder and corn, including good many peas. Mr. Hardee had all his tobacco sticks stored in his pack house, and with lots of other plunder were burned. The pack-house was partly covered by insurance, but your correspondent understands that Mr. Hardee did not carry any insurance on either his barn or stables.

Whiskey and Beer Habit

PERMANENTLY CURED BY

"ORRINE,"

A SAFE, SURE AND HARMLESS SPECIFIC

Physicians pronounce drunkenness a disease of the nervous system, creating a morbid craving for a stimulant. Continued indulgence in whiskey, beer or wine eats away the stomach lining and stupefies the digestive organs, thus destroying the digestion and ruining the health. No "will power" can heal the inflamed stomach membranes. "ORRINE" permanently removes the craving for liquor by acting directly on the affected nerves, restoring the stomach and digestive organs to normal conditions, improving the appetite and restoring the health. No sanitarium treatment necessary; "ORRINE" can be taken at your own home without publicity. Can be given secretly if desired.

CURE GUARANTEED OR MONEY REFUNDED.

Mrs. E. Wycliff, New York City, writes: "ORRINE" cured my husband, who was a steady drunkard for many years. He now has no desire for stimulants; his health is good and he is fully restored to manhood. He used only five boxes of "ORRINE." Mrs. W. L. D., Helena, Mont., writes: "I have waited one year before writing you of the permanent cure of my son. He took sanitarium treatment, as well as other advertised cures, but they all failed until we gave him "ORRINE." He is now fully restored to health and has no desire for drink." Mr. A. E. L., Atlanta, Ga., writes: "I was born with a love of whiskey and drank it for thirty-two years. It finally brought me to the gutter, homeless and friendless. I was powerless to resist the craving and would steal and lie to get whiskey. Four boxes of "ORRINE" cured me of all desire and I now hate the smell of liquor."

Price $1 per box. Mailed in plain, sealed wrapper by Orrine Company, 817 14th St., Washington, D. C. Interesting book—Treatise on Drunkenness, (sealed) free on request. Sold and recommended by

We have used other medicines for the same purpose, but never found anything to equal Chamberlain's. If you will use it as directed it will always cure."
