FRIDAY AFTERNOON, MAY 6, 1904.

If building material could be more easily obtained here Greenville would grow faster. A brick making plant is much needed.

And now comes the report that the big victory of the Japanese land forces was all a fake. The denial has a Russian color to it.

The war against saloons goes bravely on in this state. Wilmington and Charlotte have both asked for elections to vote out the saloons.

The Rev. Thomas Babb has bobbed up again. He was the star speaker at a republican convention in Washington, Wednesday, and was loaded to the neck with abuse of everything democratic.

If the next legislature does its duty it will revoke the charter of a number of cross roads places that were incorporated solely for the purpose of permitting the establishment of whiskey distilleries.

The three gentleman on trial in the Federal court at Greensboro for collusion with a whiskey distillery to defraud the government, were convicted and each sentenced to a term in the penitentiary and to pay a large fine. They all took an appeal.

Truer words have not been spoken than the sentiment expressed by Governor Jarvis near the close of his speech on the dispensary restraining case, when he said "the days of the open saloon are numbered." We make the prediction that the saloons in this state that are not closed in the meantime by local elections, will be wiped out by the next legislature. The sentiment against them continues to grow rapidly, and the saloon men themselves ought to be able to see it.

When you have found a man's chosen associates you needn't ask anything about the man. He expresses his own life and character in the men he chooses as companions.—North Carolina Baptist.

There seems just now a disposition on the part of the newspapers to stop this continual picking and fussing at each other. Much of it is without excuse or reason and the paper that recognizes this shows its good sense.—Durham Herald.

Some fellow claims to have discovered a remedy for preventing dogs from howling. Just let that belated gentleman get out of the push. Smith & Wesson have had on the market for years a remedy that gets there like touching a button.—Wilmington Star.

The Language of Gifts.
To give the cook a holiday signifies a cold dinner.

To give most people what they deserve signifies that you are getting wise.

To give the janitor fifty cents signifies that you want him to do what you want him to.

To give a cabman a retort direct signifies that there will be a hot argument forthcoming.

To give her younger brother a quarter means that he is to disappear for the time being—maybe.

To give your wife a bunch of roses when you go home at night signifies that you want to go to a lodge meeting.

North Carolina Got $630,000.
The Raleigh Post's Washington correspondent says:

Looking back over the record of congress, there was little legislation affecting North Carolina in a local sense. The only two measures of importance that could be pushed through the grist mill were Representative Small's bill appropriating $590,000 for the Hatteras light house, and the provision in the river and harbor bill appropriating $40,000 for improvement of the lower Cape Fear. Like all other democratic states, North Carolina got little. The delegation, individually and collectively, worked with as much zeal, aggressiveness and intelligence as any other in the union, but they had to buck up against a partisan majority. With a democratic house, which politicians look forward to in the fifty-ninth congress, the state will not only get the local measures it wishes but the Appalachian forest reserve and the Small inland waterway will be authorized. They are in the wrong section of the country to attract the favorable attention of a republican administration.

Senatorial Luxuries.

Alfred Henry Lewis, who contributes a political letter from Washington to The Saturday Evening Post every week, is generally interesting though his wonderful satisfaction with himself as shown by his off-hand setting of the greatest problems, is anything but pleasing to the reader. In a recent issue, however, he threw some light on the darkness of the incidental expenses of the United States Senate. He gave a number of the items for which the government pays—among them being pocket knives, toilet articles, manicure sets, and apparently something of everything for which the usual family can find any use, it being especially noted that a large quantity of soap was included. It appears that these expenses together with the salary, mileage and allowance for secretaries, amounts to an average of $11,000 a year for each senator, and Mr. Lewis suggests that the salary be raised to that sum and thus avoid the injury to senatorial consciences. The senators may need the money, but this increase for the reason given would establish a dangerous precedent.—Charlotte Chronicle.

And remember, while doing so, that it is but the beginning of a long season, and that the shoes you buy now should be bought with a long look ahead. Whether you pay $1.00 or $5, you don't get any variation in sturdy durability, it's mainly the material used.

From the Chapin, R. I procured a bottle and before using the entire contents we were entirely cured. It is a wonderful remedy and should be found in every household. H. C. Bailey, Editor. A Cure For Piles

"I had a bad case of piles," says G. F. Carter, of Atlanta, Ga., "and consulted a physician who advised me to try a box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. I purchased a box and was entirely cured. Eczema and other skin diseases, also sores, cuts, burns and wounds of every kind are quickly cured by it. Sold by J. L. Wooten.

Weak lungs should be careful. Coughs and colds are dangerous then. One Minute Cough Cure cures coughs and colds and gives strength to the lungs. Mrs. G. E. Fenner, of Marion, Ind., says, "I suffered with a cough until I run down in weight from 148 to 92 lbs. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold by J. L. Wooten.

A Startling Test,

To save a life, Dr. T. G. Merrit of No. Mehoopany, Pa., made a startling test resulting in a wonderful cure. He writes, a patient was attacked with violent hemorrhages, caused by ulceration of the stomach. I had often found Electric Bitters excellent for acute stomach and liver troubles so I prescribed them. The patient gained from the first, and has not had an attack in 14 months." Electric Bitters are positively guaranteed for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Constipation and Kidney troubles. Try them Only 50c at Wooten's Drug Store.

Reported for Reflector] The End of the Century Club held its regular semi-monthly meeting on Tuesday afternoon, May 3rd, the hostess being Mrs. Mark Quinerly.

The meeting manifested the undiminished zeal and interest of the members in the matter of a free library for the town of Greenville. Plans were discussed looking to the early circulation of the books donated at the recent book reception, to which have been added all those purchased by the club.

An outline for a course of study to be followed during another season, was placed in the hands of a competent committee.

Several new books were ordered, and many other matters arranged for the future usefulness and pleasure of the club.

The house was tastefully decorated, and the hostess expressed her artistic instincts, by serving with the delicious refreshments, lovely roses to each guest, thus blending the useful and the beautiful, in a way which added to the universal pleasure.

The visitors present were Messrs. Jarvis, Smith, Coward, Munford and Vines.

After an afternoon replete with pleasure, the club adjourned to meet on May 17th at the home of Mrs. Fordyce Harding.

A TRIBUTE.

God in His goodness and mercy called from her earthly home, April 27th, 1904, the sweet spirit of Mamie Sutton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Sutton. She was 15 years old, and had been a great sufferer, having been confined to bed since January 1st. She was a child of sweet disposition and was held in love and esteem by all who knew her. She was a member of the Sunday school at Forbes' School House and it was always her greatest pleasure to be prompt and regular in her attendance. We bow in humble submission to the will of our Heavenly Father, realizing that He doeth all things well. This tribute is written by order of her Sunday school. M. A. ALLEN.
