There was a nice shower of rain yesterday and everything, as well as every body, seems to be blooming.

There are more well trained billy goats in Ayden than any other town of its size we know. Some of them can and do pull large loads considerable distance and often as many as two men can ride in a cart pulled by them. They are useful in many ways and sell remarkably cheap in accordance with their real worth.

J. A. Harrington has removed his old office on West avenue and built a larger and more convenient one in its stead.

Miss Benton, of Wilson, who has been in Ayden for several weeks in the capacity of a trained nurse, left for her home Tuesday.

What a blessing these dark nights are our electric lights. We hardly realize it is not day.

THE BEAUTIFUL SHOWERS.

Contributed]

How delightfully refreshing was the shower of rain yesterday! Everybody, everything, was hoping it would rain. The atmosphere had become oppressive. The dust had become so suffocating and intolerable, from head to foot one would be covered in dust. And then came the beautiful mist of rain. Only a gentle change—hardly enough to discern and no voice of thunder, no shriek of wind, but quietly, softly, like the cooing of the dove.

"And it fell on the fevered spirits, Like the voice of an angel's dreams."

How grateful should we be that "He sendeth His rain upon the just and the unjust."

There seems to be almost a new world today for every one. Truly what a great world is this of ours. The farmers are happy, the people are all rejoiced, and the birds sing more cheerily. All indeed are happy. X

Thursday was a good day for hangings. Three murderers were hanged together at Winchester, Tenn., and two were strung up at Pittsburg, Pa.

The aldermen of Kinston have passed an ordinance forbidding the dispensary employes to sell liquor to a minor or to an intoxicated person, and also making it unlawful for any person to buy liquor for a minor or intoxicated person.

"Divorces while you wait," was the expression of bystanders in court the other day when they saw a divorce granted in five minutes. The thing is now done so easy that one has to stop and wonder where it will end. The next legislature ought to make it harder to get a divorce in North Carolina.

WHAT ARE TOWN CHARTERS FOR?

According to the interpretation of some lawyers, charters enacted for the government of towns are inoperative and worthless. Suit has been brought against the town of Spencer because under its charter a higher rate of taxes is levied and collected than the rate prescribed in the general law of the state. This reminds us that right here in Greenville men asserting knowledge of law have set up the charge that the mayor and aldermen of the town are usurpers in office because they were elected under the charter enacted for the government of the town instead of under the general law enacted for the state. This leads us to ask two questions: What is the use of having a charter if its provisions cannot be carried out? And why is not a charter enacted for a town by the legislature just as legal as a general law enacted for the state by the same law making power? One hears strange things said in the name of law, but in both the above instances it looks more like playing for political capital.

Visitation in North Carolina.

By order of the College of Bishops in their session at Waco, Texas, the following appointments were made for the visitation of the Methodist Episcopal bishops in North Carolina:

Second District—Bishop Duncan, Charlotte, November 9th.

Third District—Bishop Candler, Henderson, November 30th.

Greene The Banner County.

The Snow Hill Standard prints a picture of Mr. W. W. Edwards, the popular and capable sheriff of that good county, and says:

"The above cut represents the best sheriff in the State. He has actually collected every white man's poll taxes prior to May 1, 1904 in the county, and therefore no white man will be disfranchised in Greene county by not paying his poll taxes. There are a few on the books unpaid but they are known not to be living in the county. Now if any other county has got a sheriff that has done the same, trot him out and let's see who he is and where he is from. The Standard joins the people throughout the county in saying we have got the best sheriff in the state."

There seems to be a decided inclination on the part of some of North Carolina's judges to put a stop to so much divorce getting.

A late instance was when Judge Justice in Mecklenburg court instructed a jury in a divorce case to be withdrawn and a mistrial to be had. In disposing of the case he said: "This is a reputable looking man, and no doubt his wife is a nice woman; and they should live together. I cannot allow the case to go to the jury on this evidence. The cause of the separation should be removed; that is, this plaintiff should make further efforts to live with his wife, and her people should not interfere." This is, therefore, another case where the law is just plain common sense. "Should make further efforts." That's the remedy for incompatibility of temperament and the thousand other excuses for divorce. The discouraged brother, or sister it may be should keep trying until he or she gets reconciled.—Greensboro Telegram.

Are Country Schools Worth While.

Had there been no change in the conditions prevailing between 1880 and 1900, the population of country districts would cease to increase by 1910. The rate of increase is much greater in cities than elsewhere, and though the country population is increasing slowly, the proportion of the inhabitants of the United States living in the country was smaller in 1900 than it was in 1890. The causes of the tendency to leave home to go into the more crowded sections are various, but one of them is plainly the fact that superior educational facilities are to be found where there are the most people. The farmers are therefore facing a serious problem and they will be obliged to choose their own way. Unless they build schools and secure other modern improvements the present trend of emigration will continue and as the demand for country property decrease; on the other hand, with modern improvements in the country, the demand for the property will increase, the value will increase and with the better inducements, the tide of emigration may be turned. The first step in this direction is the betterment of the schools. And along with this improvement will come better roads, telephone service proper mail facilities, markets, and other features of city life. Country schools are worth while.—Charlotte Chronicle.

Cured His Mother of Rheumatism

"My mother has been a sufferer for many years with rheumatism," says W. H. Howard, of Husband, Pa. "At times she was unable to move at all, while at all times walking was painful. I presented her with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications she decided it was the most wonderful pain reliever she had ever tried, in fact, she is never without it now and is at times able to walk. An occasional application of Pain Balm keeps away the pain that she was formerly troubled with." For sale at Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; R. L. Davis & Bro., Farmville.

Whiskey and Beer Habit PERMANENTLY CURED BY "ORRINE,"

A SAFE, SURE AND HARMLESS SPECIFIC

Physicians pronounce drunkenness a disease of the nervous system, creating a morbid craving for a stimulant. Continued indulgence in whiskey, beer or wine eats away the stomach lining and stupefies the digestive organs, thus destroying the digestion and ruining the health. No "will power" can heal the inflamed stomach membranes. "ORRINE" permanently removes the craving for liquor by acting directly on the affected nerves, restoring the stomach and digestive organs to normal conditions, improving the appetite and restoring the health. No sanitarium treatment necessary; "ORRINE" can be taken at your own home without publicity. Can be given secretly if desired.

CURE GUARANTEED OR MONEY REFUNDED.

Mrs. E. Wycliff, New York City, writes: "ORRINE cured my husband, who was a steady drunkard for many years. He now has no desire for stimulants, his health is good and he is fully restored to manhood. He used only five boxes of 'ORRINE'."

Mrs. W. L. D. Helena, Mont., writes: "I have waited one year before writing you of the permanent cure of my son. He took sanitarium treatment, as well as other advertised cures, but they all failed until we gave him 'ORRINE.' He is now fully restored to health and has no desire for drink."

Mr. A. E. Ly Atlanta, Ga., writes: "I was born with a love of whiskey and drank it for thirty-two years. It finally brought me to the gutter, homeless and friendless. I was powerless to resist the craving and would steal and lie to get whiskey. Four boxes of 'ORRINE' cured me of all desire and I now hate the smell of liquor."

Price $1 per box. Mailed in plain, sealed wrapper by Orrine Company, 817 14th St., Washington, D. C. Interesting book—Treatment on Drunkenness, (sealed) free on request. Sold and recommended by

J. W. BRYAN, Druggist, Greenville, N. C.
