HELP THE BOYS.

Communicated.]

The base ball players of Greenville are organizing a ball club. This club is expected to be one of the best in the state, and to make it so there must be some ball spirit among the people. We have some of the best material in North Carolina from which to pick a team, and if we can only get the support from the people, Greenville will have a team to be proud of. Of course we don't expect everybody to help us, but we do think those who like baseball and who always attend the games, ought to be willing to contribute something towards the support of the team. Every other town in the state the size of Greenville has a ball team and the only reason we haven't one is because the boys have been discouraged by the bumps they get from the older men. We want every boy who thinks he can play to come out and even if he doesn't make his position he will make the other man play harder and in this way our team will be much stronger than it would if every man was assigned to his position. Now, let everybody work together and instead of knocking our team puff them up, and when Washington, Kingston, Goldsboro, and other teams come to Greenville, our people will see some ball playing that will startle them. Below is our lineup, but the position is always open for the best player. We want all the boys who are interested to be at the Perkins opera house, Saturday night at 8:30 o'clock.

NEGRO SHOTS HIMSELF.

Domestic Troubles the Cause.

Just afternoon today Joe Eborn, a colored man who has been at work as drayman for A. H. Taft & Co., shot himself on Washington street. Joe used a pistol and fired the weapon into his right jaw. The ball ranged upward, badly tearing the roof of the mouth and lodged somewhere in the head. While the wound is a serious one it is not necessarily fatal.

Joe's rash act is said to be due to domestic trouble, he and his wife having scrappy times together and frequently being before the mayor for fighting. Joe seems to have grown tired of this kind of life.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON, JUNE 2, 1904.

The Old North State holds her own.

Receivers Meares and McBee did not hold their seats long enough to get them warm.

Judge Purnell caused Judge Peebles to nearly get lost in the notoriety shuffle.

Capital M's and P's have for the last few days come in for much use by the linetypers.

The scribes are kept busy recording history in North Carolina as fast as it is made these days.

Meares and McBee did not ride far, but had hardly got aboard before they were told to get off.

Much depends on the aldermen who are nominated tonight. Let every democrat in every ward do his duty.

Home news beats the foreign news, and the war in North Carolina is more interesting than that between Japan and Russia.

If you want to see less money paid for conducting the government of the town, attend your ward meeting tonight and help nominate the right men for aldermen.

It must have given Judge Purnell a jolt when Chief Justice Fuller so quickly set aside his appointment of receivers for the Atlantic & North Carolina railroad.

A more masterly effort is seldom penned than Editor Josephus Daniels' personal word in the News and Observer, written while in the custody of the United States Marshal. The occasion seemed to give his pen an inspiration to speak for liberty and freedom. Never were the sympathies of all the people of the state more centered upon one man.

Haman wanted to hang Mordecai and built a very high scaffold upon which to carry out his desires. But instead of hanging him he had to lead the procession and proclaim the praises of the man whom the king delighted to honor. If Judge Purnell had really desired to have heralded the praises of Josephus Daniels and make a hero of him, no more effective step than the contempt attachment could have been taken to accomplish that purpose. Joe Daniels got all the honor out of that proceeding.

Enough has been said recently in these columns, both editorially and by correspondents, to show the tenor of the people relative to saving money to the tax payers of the town by paying out less of the public money in fees and salaries to officers. The tax payers themselves will have an opportunity in the primaries tonight of saying whether they want lower taxes under the next administration. It is the duty of every democrat to attend his primary and help nominate the right men.

REFLECTIONS OF A BACHELOR.

It takes a pretty hot lie to blister a woman's tongue if she is bragging about the smart things her children say.

A woman's idea of a nice, quiet rest from business for her husband is a chance for him to mow the lawn all day.

It makes a woman quiver with joy to think that if she were a duchess she could be haughty even to the cook.

When a man asks a girl to go to the theater with him she goes around telling everybody she has had another proposal.

It's queer how much more afraid a woman is that her dress may trail in the dust when she has on low shoes and gay stockings than when she has on regulation boots.—New York Press.

AUSTRALIAN TOTEMS.

Odd Beliefs of the Aborigines as to Their Origin.

An interesting report of the investigations by Professor Baldwin Spencer into the question of "totemism" in Australia is given in a Melbourne paper. Various myths, it seems, exist as to the origin of the totem. The aborigines believe that in what they call the dream times there lived beings, half animal, half plant, which were transformed into human beings and wandered about making the natural features of the country. Each ancestor carried a stick, and with that stick the spirit of the ancestor is associated. Each place where an ancestor has wandered is believed to have a spirit, such, for instance, as an emu spirit, a kangaroo spirit, etc., and each child born in that particular place is, say, an emu child or a kangaroo child and so on. Thus it is that each child has its totem.

As to the ceremonial, if a woman or child see it, the eyes are put out or death inflicted. The professor was initiated by one group and was thus permitted to see the ceremonies. The initiators bedaubed themselves with ochre, down and their own blood and, after going through a grotesque dance, related to the novices the doings of the ancestors. The aborigines believe that reincarnation is continually going on, so that many living people are accepted as reincarnations of some celebrity. As to the religious or magical aspect, every person believes he has influence over the animal or plant after which he is called, even to the extent of causing it to increase. As a rule, the totem is edible, and in the great majority of cases the totem is the food supply, wherefore the power of increasing the totem is of importance. The aboriginal rarely eats his own totem, but he has no objection to giving it to others to eat.—St. James' Gazette.

Squaring Accounts.

An office boy in London owed one of the clerks three halfpence.

The clerk owed the cashier a penny.

One day the boy, having a halfpenny in his pocket, was disposed to diminish his outstanding indebtedness and paid the clerk to whom he was indebted one halfpenny on account.

The clerk, animated by so laudable an example, paid one halfpenny to the cashier to whom he was indebted one penny.

The cashier, who owed the boy a penny, paid him a halfpenny.

And now the boy, having his halfpenny again in his hand, paid another third of his debt to the clerk.

The clerk with the said really "current" coin squared with the cashier.

The cashier instantly paid the boy in full.

And now the lad, with the halfpenny again in his hand, paid off the third and last installment of his debt of three halfpence.

Thus were the parties square all round and all their accounts adjusted.—London Tit-Bits.

It Was Wished On.

Johnny's sister has a ring that Johnny is very fond of. He is allowed to wear it sometimes for an hour or so when he has been very good or has promised to be. One day he suddenly found that he wanted to wear that beautiful little gold band, and so he informed his sister. She wasn't just in the mood, so she told him, as he insisted, that she couldn't take it off because it was "wished on." Johnny said little and thought much, and the next afternoon when his sister had callers he rushed in and plumped down on an ottoman in the middle of the room.

"Johnny," reminded his sister, "your cap, dear."

"Oh," returned the boy innocently, "I can't take it off, sis. It's 'wished on.'"—New York Times.

Weak lungs should be careful. Coughs and colds are dangerous then. One Minute Cough Cure cures coughs and colds and gives strength to the lungs. Mrs. G. E. Fenner, of Marion, Ind., says, "I suffered with a cough until I run down in weight from 148 to 92 lbs. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold by J. L. Wooten.

A Startling Test.

To save a life, Dr. T. G. Merritt of No. Mehoopany, Pa., made a startling test resulting in a wonderful cure. He writes, a patient was attacked with violent hemorrhages, caused by ulceration of the stomach. I had often found Electric Bitters excellent for acute stomach and liver troubles so I prescribed them. The patient gained from the first, and has not had an attack in 14 months." It is said that nothing is sure except death and taxes, but this is not altogether true. Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption is a sure cure for all lung and throat troubles. Thousands can testify to that. Mrs. C. B. Van Metre of Shepherdstown, W. Va. says "I had a severe case of Bronchitis and for a year tried everything I heard of, but got no relief. Triumphs of Modern Surgery.

Wonderful things are done for the human body by surgery. Organs are taken out and scraped and polished and put back, or they may be removed entirely; bones are spliced; pipes take the place of diseased sections of veins; antiseptic dressings are applied to wounds, bruises, burns and like injuries before inflammation sets in, which causes them to heal without maturation and in one-third the time required by the old treatment. Chamberlain's Pain Balm acts on this same principle. It is an antiseptic and when applied to such injuries, causes them to heal very quickly. It also allays the pain and soreness. Keep a bottle of Pain Balm in your home and it will save you time and money, not to mention the inconvenience and suffering which such injuries entail. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, R. Sued by His Doctor

"A doctor here has sued me for $12.50, which I claimed was excessive for a case of cholera morbus," says R. White, of Coahella, Cal. "At the trial he praised his medical skill and medicine. I asked him if it was not Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy he used as I had good reason to believe it was, and he would not say under oath that it was not." No doctor could use a better remedy than this in a case of cholera morbus, it never fails. Sold by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

When a man's hair begins to get thin he needs either a tonic or a divorce.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets Better than a Doctor's Prescription.

Mr. J. W. Turner, of Truhart, Va., says that Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets have done him more good than anything he could get from the doctor. If any physician in this country was able to compound a medicine that would produce such gratifying results in cases of stomach troubles, biliousness or constipation, his who's time would be used in preparing this one medicine. For sale by Wooten Drug Store, Greenville; R. L. Davis & Bro. Farmville.

BENSONIZER LUNG CURE

NO MORE EXILE FOR CONSUMPTIVES.

A Cure at Last Obtained, After a Searching Investigation, by St. Louis Interests.

A few months ago the attention of a few scientific and philanthropic gentlemen of St. Louis was directed to an entirely new method of combating that most dreadful of all diseases, tuberculosis, commonly called consumption. Out of 115 test cases, 77 were completely cured and 28 have shown such improvement that their ultimate recovery is but a question of a few weeks.

So astonishing have been the results and absolute cures in cases pronounced incurable by all old methods that a company has been formed and is now prepared to furnish at a normal cost, this cure to all sufferers of the "White Plague." One of its chief features is that patients can remain at home, surrounded by friends and relatives, and in a great many instances, especially the incipient or early stages of the disease, pursue their daily vocations and still become completely cured.

Patients receiving the same treatment here in St. Louis have completely recovered as rapidly as those in Colorado, New Mexico and Texas. The wonderful results in question have been accomplished by the Bensonizer, and the company which controls this marvelous medical device have located their main office at 417 North Seventh street, St. Louis. They have also located a factory on Easton avenue and a laboratory has been built at Hillside, Mo. The cure will be known as the Bensonizer Lung Cure, and Mr. C. P. Benson, the discoverer of the fluid inhalants which are used, will personally have charge of the affairs of the company. Mr. Benson will personally meet all who call at the office of the company on Seventh street, and will answer all communications from sufferers who are unable to make a personal call.—From the St. Louis Globe Democrat.

THE ULTRA SHOE.

The salient features of The Ultra are its fine workmanship, excellence of material, desirability of style, and elegance of fit and consequent comfort to the wearer. These form the sine qua non of desirable footwear.

In addition The Ultra is equipped with our patent cushion insole, a device which gives the shoe flexibility and durability, insuring a maximum of ease and comfort to the wearer, and protecting the foot from the ill effect of the hot sidewalks of summer as well as from the dampness of wet weather. This feature alone is well worth the price of the shoe.

We present a wide range in styles and finish, and are able to meet the requirements of the most fastidious as the more conservative patron and we invite a thorough inspection of our line. Ultra in name, Ultra in character, Ultra in every feature that contributes to fit, comfort and style. In finish, material and workmanship we are proud to present to all lovers of good taste in footwear a shoe for which we have never yet had to make an apology.
