The annual report of the secretary shows that the lodge now has 114 members. During the past year 11 members were added, 2 died and 2 were given demits to join other lodges. The financial showing was very gratifying.

All arrangements for laying the corner stone and dedicating the temple on the 30th were completed.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

R. Williams, W. M.
R. L. Carr, S. W.
L. H. Pender, J. W.
W. B. Wilson, Treas.
Wiley Brown, Sec.

The master of the lodge appoints the other officers.

Both the elective and appointive officers will be publicly installed at the celebration on the 30th.

Lawyer Vs. Editor.

Asheville, N. C., June 14.—A personal encounter occurred tonight between Editor James H. Caine, of the Asheville Citizen, and Hugh C. Chedester, a young lawyer of this city. The trouble occurred over the following paragraph, which appeared in the Citizen Sunday, in a communication signed "Vashti:"

"One amusing thing in the proceedings (the democratic county convention of Saturday) was when Mr. Craig by the simple wave of three fingers, caused Frank Carter's little Hugh Chedester to take his seat."

The men were separated before any serious damage was done. The glasses which Mr. Caine wore, were broken when Mr. Chedester struck the editor.

Bold Robbery at Hobgood.

A few nights ago some one entered the dining room of Rev. G. L. Merrell in Hobgood and stole some very valuable articles. A trunk with some of Mr. Merrell's wearing apparel had been placed in the dining room and the thief carried away a new suit of clothes and other articles, besides quite a number of dining room utensils. Some spoons were found on the outside, the robbers seeming to have taken out more than they could handle.—Scotland Neck Commonwealth.

Killed.

On last Sunday night a young white man by the name of Sam Hardy stabbed a colored man to death. It seemed that Hardy had been drinking and went to the house of the colored man, where they engaged in a quarrel. The white man ran the darkey according to report some forty or fifty feet, when Hardy stabbed the colored man fatally. This was near Black Jack, Pitt county. The white man was carried to jail where he will remain until his trial.—Ayden Baptist.

Plenty to Do.

If there is a man in Greenville who knows anything about carpentering or other work about buildings, and is not at work, it is because he is either unwilling or unable to work. There is plenty of this kind of work to be found around town now.

Lawn Party at Grifton.

The ladies of Grifton will give a lawn party there on the evening of the 22nd for the benefit of the school library. The enterprise should meet with a liberal patronage.

BETTS-MOORE.

Runaway Marriage This Morning.

A runaway marriage took place here this morning at the home of Mr. H. S. Hardy, in South Greenville. The contracting parties were Mr. R. F. Betts and Miss Myra Moore. Several friends were present to witness the ceremony which was performed by Rev. W. E. Powell.

For two days there have been rumors that the couple were trying to get married, but there being objection on the part of the bride's parents made it difficult. Several efforts were made to elude parental watchfulness, but the successful move did not come until this morning.

After the ceremony the couple left by steamer for Washington and from there will take a trip North, returning in a few weeks to make Greenville their home.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. J. R. Moore, agent of the Atlantic Coast Line at this place. The groom is a Virginian. He came to Greenville last year to engage as auctioneer of the Liberty warehouse, and since the tobacco season closed has been in South Carolina until last week. Both have many friends who extend best wishes.

Angle Cake and Develed Eggs Barred.

Because the officers of St. Paul's Reformed church, Fort Washington, Penn., voted against deviled eggs and angel cake the woman's auxiliary society has abandoned its annual June fete. To have deviled eggs, the officers argued, would be to bring profane objects within the sacred edifice, and to have angel cake would be sacriligious.

The church is now divided into two camps, one favoring the women and the other the committee.—Chicago Tribune.

Cool in July.

"Talk about the 'cold spell' in June," said a merchant to the reporter, "now and then we have them in July. I remember July 2nd and 3rd, 1892, the weather was so cool that several merchants had fires in the stoves in their stores.

"In 1847 I have heard the late Benjamin Norfleet say that there was frost here every month in the year, save one, July, and on the Fourth the inhabitants of the town were forced to have fires in their homes."—Tarboro Southerner.

A. & M. College.

Young men desiring preparation for industrial careers in life should write to President Winston, at West Raleigh, N. C., for a catalogue of the A. & M. College. Entrance examinations will be held in each court-house in North Carolina on Thursday, July 14, 1904. The Summer School for Teachers will begin July 4 and close July 29. The State Farmers' Convention will begin August 1 and close August 3.

Wisdom Teeth at 77.

Ex-Senator Willis R. Williams, of Falkland, was in town today. Something in his mouth was giving him trouble and he consulted a dentist to ascertain the cause. Imagine his surprise when he was told that he was cutting a wisdom tooth.

The honored senator is 77 years old, and has not had a natural tooth in his head in 20 years.

The Japs should be more careful when they go to plant mines and not kill so many of their men

Who will succeed Aycock? asked an exchange. Wait until after the Greensboro association and somebody will tell you.

Next Thursday is the day at Greensboro. Then those who did not get it will go back home and wait for another time.

According to the Durham Herald a negro swung off the gallows into glory at Roxboro Wednesday. Every hanged criminal professes to be going there.

The Greensboro Record says there will be plenty of electric fans, ice water, lemonade, mineral water, etc at the state convention, but the "etc" will be some distance away.

With abundant crops of strawberries, potatoes, whortleberries and blackberries, all selling at good prices in Northern markets, what can hinder North Carolina from being happy?

The governing board of the University of Virginia has elected Dr. E. A. Alderman, president of that institution. Dr. Alderman is a North Carolinian and has been president of Tulane University at New Orleans for four years. Also filled prominent educational positions in this state. This last election is a high honor and it is probable he will accept.

Many of our county courts are becoming veritable divorce mills. That meeting in Raleigh last week protesting against the loose divorce laws in this State was timely. Our State has been put to shame in the last four years by the disgraceful divorce business. To be sure most of it is among the negroes, but the State owes it to them to protect them from the evil results of easy divorces. The next Legislature ought to change the law and make it conform to decency. The letting down of the gap a few years ago was a bad day for the State.—North Carolina Baptist.

It is painful to see how ready very many people are to incur debt. Really the majority of men will buy anything if the purchase of it is urged on a credit. Not only so but if the buying is pressed vigorously enough folks will buy and bind themselves by liens that cover valued personal property and even realty. This is a weak point in human nature. In our section "you can pay in the fall" is the prevailing argument of the traveling seller of this and that thing from a clock up or down. Sales on a credit are under certain conditions better for the vender than for cash and worse for the buyer. It is a sad thought that so many should come to the marketing, yes, to the picking of the first bale of his cotton crop with a debt that covers it all. The year's work expended before its results are garnered. Let us all resolve that we will not, if possible, march on to the end of the year to incur the painful experience of having no extra cash in our tills.—Rev. P. R. Law in Lumberton Robesonian.

Moving Georgia Peaches.

Yesterday, at noon, the Southern Railway had 500 refrigerator and box cars on the yards at Spencer, ready to be moved south, and loaded with peaches and melons. All empty, they were put into trains of seventy cars each, and during the afternoon three of those trains came in Charlotte. South of this place the side tracks and other things will not admit of so long train, and the number of cars were cut to fifty to a train. This gave one some idea of the amount of hauling there is ahead of the railroad to move the crop of peaches this year.—Charlotte Chronicle.

Two Much For Him

Jokes have been told on people about undervaluing their property for taxation since time immemorial, and some have been pretty rough ones, but the following incident is said to have occurred yesterday at the list taker's booth at the court house in this city, where Justice Dibble and City Clerk Mewborne preside. A gentleman who was well known to the list takers and in consequence they had a fair knowledge of his wealth, presented himself and began to enumerate his belongings. Mr. Mewborne, list taker for the city, reached over and got the bible and opening it began in a solemn voice to read the account of Ananias and Sapphira. It is said the effect was remarkable, the gentleman making a substantial increase in valuing his property.—Kinston Free Press.

A Farmer Plants No Corn.

Some days ago we heard a man who is much interested in farming and who gives some of his personal attention to a farm say that he had not planted a grain of corn this year. He is taking the risk of making his other crops, truck, cotton, peanuts and the like to bring money enough to enable him to buy his corn cheaper than he could raise it. From pretty close observation of the thrifty farmers of the community and from some study of the condition of agriculture, we are impelled to say that our friend has made a mistake, and we believe he will find it so. We believe that whatever the price of cotton and peanuts, it pays a farmer to raise his home supplies—at least enough to feed his team. Buying corn, hay and other food for farm team puts one to a disadvantage all the time; and the farmer who operates on that system will find in the end that he would have done better if he had raised his own corn, fodder and hay at home. The Commonwealth has for years insisted on the home-supply system of farming and it still believes in it and still insists on it. When farmers have necessary supplies at home, they find that their money goes farther and they realize more from it.—Scotland Neck Commonwealth.

We are in receipt of The Bingham School Catalogue for its 11th Year, the best year financially in its history. We note that besides its North Carolina contingent it has attracted more than ONE HUNDRED AND FORTY (140) pupils from outside of the State, representing an area which reaches from Conn. and Neb., through Florida and Texas, Mexico City and Tehuantepec, to British Honduras; and we note also that it is refusing pupils instead of increasing its accommodations. We congratulate Col. Bingham that the success of the school is even greater at Asheville than it was in Orange County.

BENSONIZER LUNG CURE

NO MORE EXILE FOR CONSUMPTIVES.

A Cure at Last Obtained, After a Searching Investigation by St. Louis Interests.

A few months ago the attention of a few scientific and philanthropic gentlemen of St. Louis was directed to an entirely new method of combating that most dreadful of all diseases, tuberculosis, commonly called consumption. Out of 115 to 1 cases, 77 were completely cured and 28 have shown such improvement that their ultimate recovery is but a question of a few weeks.

So astonishing have been the results and absolute cures in cases pronounced incurable by all old methods that a company has been formed and is now prepared to furnish at a normal cost, this cure to all sufferers of the "White Plague." One of its chief features is that patients can remain at home, surrounded by friends and relatives, and in a great many instances, especially the incipient or early stages of the disease, pursue their daily vocations and still become completely cured.

Patients receiving the same treatment here in St. Louis have completely recovered as rapidly as those in Colorado, New Mexico and Texas. The wonderful results in question have been accomplished by the Bensonizer, and the company which controls this marvelous medical device have located their main office at 417 North Seventh street, St. Louis. They have also located a factory on Easton avenue and a laboratory has been built at Hillside, Mo. The cure will be known as the Bensonizer Lung Cure, and Mr. C. P. Benson, the discoverer of the fluid inhalants which are used, will personally meet all who call at the office of the company on Seventh street, and will answer all communications from sufferers who are unable to make a personal call.—From the St. Louis Globe Democrat.

Free booklet on request.

A Sure Thing

It is said that nothing is sure except death and taxes, but this is not altogether true. Dr. King's New discovery for consumption is a sure cure for all lung and throat troubles. Thousands can testify to that. Mrs. C. B. Van Buren of Shepherdown, W. Va. says "I had a severe case of Bronchitis and for a year tried everything I heard of, but got no relief. One bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery cured me absolutely. It's infallible for Croup, Whoop Cough, Grip, Pneumonia and Consumption. Try it. It's guaranteed by J. L. Wooten, Druggist. Trial bottles free. Reg. size 50c $1.

Some men would rather tell agreeable lies than the disagreeable truth.

Triumphs of Modern Surgery.

Wonderful things are done for the human body by surgery. Organs are taken out and scraped and polished and put back, or they may be removed entirely; bones are spliced; pipes take the place of diseased sections of veins; antiseptic dressings are applied to wounds, bruises, burns and lye injuries before inflammation sets in, which causes them to heal without maturation and in one-third the time required by the old treatment, Chamberlain's Pain Balm acts on this same principle. It is an antiseptic and when applied to such injuries, causes them to heal very quickly. It also allays the pain and soreness. Keep a bottle of Pain Balm in your home and it will save you time and money, not to mention the inconvenience and suffering which such injuries entail. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

Some men are unable to stand up for their rights because their wives sit on them.

An Alarm Clock for 25c.

If you want to get up early and feel good all day take a Little Early Riser or two at bed time. These famous little pill relax the nerves, give quiet rest and refreshing sleep with gentle movement of the bowels about breakfast time. W. H. Howell, Houston, Tex., says "Early Risers are the best pills made for constipation, sick headache, biliousness, etc." Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

When a bachelor has more money than he can spend he should annex a wife.

Thrown From A Wagon.

Mr. George K. Babcock was thrown from his wagon and severely bruised. He applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely and says it is the best liniment he ever used. Mr. Babcock is a well known citizen of North Plain, Conn. There is nothing equal to Pain Balm for sprains and bruises. It will effect a cure in one-third the time required by any other treatment. For sale by Wooten's Drug store Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

PARIAH OF THE SKY LINE.

Coyote Always a Tantalizing Mark For the Man With a Rifle.

There is a deal of coyote hunting in the west that is not attended by the niceties of the club hunt. Ever since the first pioneers pushed their way across the great plains the coyote has been an outlaw, looking for no mercy at the hand of man. His predatory habits have made the animal the bane of the ranchman, and his howl has made him the exasperation of the camper and the terror of the tenderfoot. Then, too, his habit of skulking just within rifle range has always made him a tantalizing target for the man with the rifle.

In spite of his unpopularity with all classes of men, however, the coyote has managed to hold his own better than any other animal in the great west. The antelope is swifter of foot, mayhap, but not having the cunning of the coyote, has been lured within rifle range until practically exterminated in many states. The ranchman's lust for fresh meat, the eastern tourist's desire for antlers and elk teeth and the native who slays for the market have depopulated Colorado and several other states of their best game. The bear, cougar and bobcat have felt the same blighting influence, but the coyote still figures in the sky line of the average western picture. Sometimes he is unwise enough to eat of poisoned carcasses of cattle, but this is seldom. Again, he falls a victim to a coyote "drive," organized by ranchmen and participated in by townspeople, tenderfeet, newspaper correspondents and amateur photographers. These coyote "drives" are held annually or oftener in nearly all western communities where the prairie pest flourishes. An average "drive," participated in by several hundred individuals, will yield sometimes none at all. A good deal depends on the wind, and more depends on the coyote's cunning and ability to sprint.—Outing.

A Useful Ladder.

Among the peculiar "geniuses" of Byfield, Mass., a place to be remembered, and of which J. L. Ewell has written a book, was a man in the north of the parish who was asked by a ladder vender if he would like to buy.

"How much are the ladders a foot?" he asked.

"Twelve cents," was the answer. "Very well," said he, "I'll take a foot."

The ladder vender jumped down from his load, pulled down a ladder and sawed off a foot.

The purchaser took it, paid the price and remarked quietly:

"That's just what I've been wanting to pick huckleberries with."—Youth's Companion.

Model Wanted.

"Longhair has received a commission to paint one of those studies from still life for old Muchcash," said the first artist.

"Good!" replied the second paint spreader. "I am glad to hear of his good luck."

"But he can't do the work. Muchcash wants a picture of a $20 note lying on a cigar box, and Longhair can't borrow a model."

Sued by His Doctor

"A doctor here has sued me for $12.50, which I claimed was excessive for a case of cholera morbus," says R. White, of Coachella, Cal. "At the trial he praised his medical skill and medicine. I asked him if it was not Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy he used as I had good reason to believe it was, and he would not say under oath that it was not." No doctor could use a better remedy than this in a case of cholera morbus, it never fails. Sold by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros, Farmville.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets Better than a Doctor's Prescription.

Mr. J. W. Turner, of Truhart, Va., says that Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets have done him more good than anything he could get from the doctor. If any physician in this country was able to compound a medicine that would produce such gratifying results in cases of stomach troubles, biliousness or constipation, his whole time would be used in preparing this one medicine. For sale by Wooten Drug Store, Greenville; R. L. Davis & Bro, Farmville.

Don't be too modest. Because of its modesty the lowly violet is frequently trampled under foot.

A Startling Test.

To save a life, Dr. T. G. Merritt of No. Meehoopany, Pa., made a startling test resulting in a wonderful cure. He writes, a patient was attacked with violent hemorrhages, caused by ulceration of the stomach. I had often found Electric Bitters excellent for acute stomach and liver troubles so I prescribed them. The patient gained from the first, and has not had an attack in 14 months." For a Hundred Years.

For a hundred years or more Witch Hazel has been recognized as a superior remedy, but it remained for E. C. DeWitt & Co. of Chicago to discover how to combine the virtues of Witch Hazel with other antiseptics, in the form of a salve. DeWitt's Witch Hazel salve is the best salve in the world for sores, cuts, burns, bruises and piles. The high standing of this salve has given rise to counterfeits, and the public is advised to look for the name "DeWitt" on the package, and accept no other. Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

THE ULTRA SHOE

The salient features of The Ultra are its fine workmanship, excellence of material, desirability of style, and elegance of fit and consequent comfort to the wearer. These form the sine qua non of desirable footwear.

In addition The Ultra is equipped with our patent cushion insole, a device which gives the shoe flexibility and durability, insuring a maximum of ease and comfort to the wearer, and protecting the foot from the ill effect of the hot sidewalks of summer as well as from the dampness of wet weather. This feature alone is well worth the price of the shoe.

We present a wide range in styles and finish, and are able to meet the requirements of the most fastidious as the more conservative patron and we invite a thorough inspection of our line. Ultra in name, Ultra in character, Ultra in every feature that contributes to fit, comfort and style. In finish, material and workmanship we are proud to present to all lovers of good taste in footwear a shoe for which we have never yet had to make an apology.
