CHILDREN'S EXERCISES.

At Baptist Church Sunday Night

The children of the Baptist Sunday school gave very interesting exercises at the church Sunday night, a large audience being present. The part of each child was rendered well and the audience enjoyed the exercises.

The program was as follows:
Song.
Class recitation, "Twenty-third Psalm."

Prayer, by Rev. A. T. King.
Responsive Scripture reading.
Recitation, "Welcome," Grace Smith.

Class recitation, "Spreading the light."
Recitation, "Everybody's Business," Milo Smith.

Song.
Recitation, "The Little Preacher," Ernestine Forbes.

Recitation, "Our Field is the World," Willie Ragsdale.
Song, "Gather Them all for Jesus."

Recitation, "Giving," Lucille Cobb.
Class Recitation, "How the Pennies Came."

Collection, taken by Lillian Burch, Susie Warren, Mary Shelburn, Lucille Cobb and Hennie Whichard.

Song, "Be a Little Sunbeam."
Recitation, "Make Your Life a Song," Essie Whichard.

Reading, "The Starless Crown," Lillian Burch.
Song.

Benediction.
The children were trained by Miss Annie Perkins and Miss Fannie Bagwell was organist.

Different Kinds of Kisses.

To steal a kiss, says a French writer, is natural; to buy a kiss is stupidity; for two girls to kiss is a loss of time; not to kiss at all is an insignificance; for two men to kiss is quite ridiculous; to kiss the hand or the tips of the fingers is droll; to kiss one's sister is proper; to kiss one's wife is an obligation; kissing a child is often a regret for not being permitted to kiss the mother; to kiss an ugly person is galantry; to kiss an old, faded widow shows great devotedness, but to kiss a young, blushing widow is a charm; to kiss one's waiting maid is very dangerous; to kiss one's affianced is a premeditation and a right; an old, rich aunt is is hypocrisy; a young cook in the bloom of age is delicious, dainty; to kiss a neighbors' wife is doubtless very good, but quite wrong; kissing three girls the same day is an extravagance; a girl whose father is watching her, it may make one jump over the fence; to kiss a mother-in-law is a sacrifice; an old maid, it is politeness; finally, a kiss to one's mother is the purest, the sweetest of all kisses.

Dispensary Case.

The dispensary trial was called again before Justice H. G. Connor at 4 o'clock, Saturday afternoon, when several witnesses for the state were introduced. The defense did not introduce any testimony but relied on cross examination of the state witnesses and numerous objections to the evidence given. At the conclusion of the examination of witnesses the case was continued until Thursday at 10 o'clock. In the meantime the dispensary is closed.

THE WEATHER

Fair tonight, Tuesday showers with cooler in interior.

Two Pieces.

NO VEST.

There's great comfort in wearing Coat and Trousers without the vest during this warm weather. You get rid of the vest, the suspenders and the stiff shirt. You get a free circulation of air. There's no dragged on look to the coats of our lightweight two-piece suits.

We've Mastered The Problem

A little thing in the right spot makes the garment hold its shape. You'll appreciate this as soon as you see the suit and as long as you wear it. Smart, snappy patterns. Real young stuff for men of all ages, who feel they are still in it. Flannels, Homespun, Serges and Cheviot mixtures, just the proper materials.

MONDAY AFTERNOON, JULY 11, 1904.

AND DAVIS, TOO.

This is the time of year when lightning gets in its deadly work.

Saturday night the St. Louis convention nominated Henry G. Davis, of West Virginia, for vice president.

At this dull season of the year all who can should pay their debts promptly so as to help make conditions easier.

Winston-Salem is beginning a war on saloons. Let the good work go on until they are entirely wiped out of the State.

The announcement is made in New York that Sully will soon be in business again. Perhaps he will have a hand in making the next cotton season lively.

All the nominations are in now except for congress and the county ticket. We all know that Small will be re-nominated for congress, and the county nominations will be made in due time.

And now a man in Texas has gotten out an injunction against the bringing into Texas of the Guatemalan ants which are expected to administer the solar plexus blow to the boll weevil. But then it is remembered that there are still some folks who oppose vaccination and a few who do not believe that a successful flying machine will ever be perfected — Charlotte Observer.

Observe the Poet.

They had just been married. She was very pretty and lovable, but very fresh to the household duties, and the husband was a very patient man. One night, however, she had a great surprise in store for him, so, putting her arms around his neck and kissing him, she said: "Come and look, darling; I have been stitching up two big splits in your coats."

He then kissed her to hide the look which came over his face, called her a busy little woman and went out and groaned.

She had sewn up his coat tail pockets.

Pointed Paragraphs.

Many a truthful woman travels under false colors.

A woman's idea of a rich man is one who has everything she wants.

No man enjoys kissing a girl who has her hair done up in curl papers.

A man thinks long and speaks short; a woman thinks short and speaks long.

If there is anything a man detests more than another it is a speaking portrait of his wife's mother.

An old bachelor says that young ladies who study law expect to lay down the law to their husbands after they are graduated — Chicago News.

The effort to protect Texas from the ravages of the cotton boll weevil which threatens to destroy the cotton crop of that state and to sweep across the entire cotton belt if not arrested, is accompanied by many suggestions to stay the advance of the plague. Professor Cook of the Agricultural Department has brought from Guatemala to Galveston a large number of voracious ants peculiar to the fauna of Central America whose function and pleasure it seems to be to attack and destroy the weevil. A corps of experimenters has assembled at Victoria, Texas, where, under direction of Dr. Cook, they will release the carnivorous ants into cages covered with mosquito netting inverted over infected cotton plants. The result of these experiments will determine whether this lively exotic is an effective antidote to the bane from which Texas has for ten years been a sufferer. Another helpful remedy is proposed in "the cotton tree" which grows to the height of forty or fifty feet, multiplies very rapidly, is immune to the boll weevil and will yield from twenty to twenty-five pounds per tree, including seed. If difficulty is found in gathering the crop, the tree is easily dwarfed, so as to bring the cotton within reach. At an average yield of twenty pounds of cotton per tree, the yield would be sixteen bales to the acre. The expense of planting is no greater than that of corn, and it is able to withstand droughts during eight months of the year. It is planted only once in twenty-five years. This tree comes to us by way of Mexico.

Safeguard the Children

Notwithstanding all that is done by boards of health and charitably inclined persons, the death rate among small children is very high during the hot weather of the summer months in the large cities. There is not probably one case of bowel complaint in a hundred, however, that could not be cured by the timely use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. One Lady's Recommendation

Sold Fifty Boxes of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets.

I have, I believe, sold fifty boxes of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets on the recommendation of one lady here, who first bought a box of them about a year ago. She never tires of telling her neighbors and friends about the good qualities of these Tablets.—P. M. Shore, druggist, Rochester, Ind. The pleasant purgative effect of these Tablets makes them a favorite with ladies everywhere. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; R. L. Davis & Bros., Farmville.

A Startling Test.

To save a life, Dr. T. G. Merrit of No. Mehoopany, Pa., made startling test resulting in a wonderful cure. He writes, a patient was attacked with violent hemorrhages, caused by ulceration of the stomach. I had often found Electric Bitters excellent for acute stomach and liver troubles so I prescribed them. The patient gained from the first, and has not had an attack in 14 months." Electric Bitters are positively guaranteed for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Constipation and Kidney troubles. Try them! Only 50c at Wooten's Drug Store.

The pill that will, will fill the bill, Without a gripe.

To cleanse the liver, without a quiver, Take one at night.

DeWitt's Little early Risers are small, easy to take, easy and gentle in effect, yet they are so certain in results that no one who uses them is disappointed. For quick relief from biliousness, sick headache, torpid liver, jaundice, dizziness and all troubles arising from an inactive, sluggish liver, Early Risers are unequalled. Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

Weak Hearts

are caused by indigestion. If you eat a little too much, or if you are subject to attacks of indigestion, the stomach expands—swells, and puffs up against the heart. This crowds the heart and shortens the breath. Rapid heart beats and heart disease is the final result. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat, takes the strain off the heart, cures indigestion, dyspepsia, sour stomach, and contributes nourishment, strength and health to every organ of the body. Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

A Sure Thing

It is said that nothing is sure except death and taxes, but this is not altogether true. Dr. King's New discovery for consumption is a sure cure for all lung and throat troubles. Thousands can testify to that. Mrs. C. B. Van Meire of Shepherdstown, W. Va. says "I had a severe case of Bronchitis and for a year tried everything I heard of, but got no relief. One bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery then cured me absolutely." It's infallible for Croup, Whoop-Cough, Grip, Pneumonia and Consumption. Try it. It's guaranteed by J. L. Wooten Druggist. Trial bottles free. Reg. U. S. Pat. 50c $1

John L. Wooten.

Ask the readers of this paper who are suffering with indigestion or dyspepsia to call on him at once and get a bottle of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. If you knew the value of this remedy as we know it, you would not suffer another day. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is a thorough digester and tissue-building tonic as well. It is endorsed personally by hundreds of people whom it has cured of indigestion, dyspepsia, palpitation of the heart and stomach troubles generally. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure Digests what you eat. It is pleasant, palatable and strengthening.

"I wish to say a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mrs. Mattie Burge, of Martinsville, Va. "I suffered from chronic diarrhoea for ten years and during that time tried various medicines without obtaining any permanent relief. Last summer one of my children was taken with cholera morbus, and I procured a bottle of this remedy. Only two doses were required to give her entire relief. I then decided to try the medicine myself, and did not use all of one bottle before I was well and I have never since been troubled with this complaint. One cannot say too much in favor of that wonderful medicine." This remedy for sale at Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros., Farmville.

Recognized His Genius.

A writer whose stories of southern life have made him famous while on his way across the country a few years ago stopped for a day or two in one of the large cities. The reporter for the daily papers heard of his presence in town and began flocking to the hotel. He sent word to them that he had no desire to be "interviewed," but he would see them all together in his room if they desired.

They came trooping in, and he entertained them an hour or more with stories and reminiscences, told in his best style.

They listened with great interest, and when he had come to the end of them one of the reporters, a young man who had just begun his newspaper career, said, with the utmost earnestness:

"Mr. C., why don't you write up some of those things and have them printed? They'd go like hot cakes!"

Cause For Tears.

Some friends were talking once before a well known caricaturist of the effect of a powerful painting upon the mind, and some one said enthusiastically:

"The painter with his brush can bring tears to the eye quite as well as the poet with his lyre."

"That is indeed true," replied the caricaturist. "I was in —'s studio yesterday, and he was showing me one of his pictures, and, though I am not usually in the melting mood, I wept for ten minutes."

"Ah! I had heard that — was treating a very pathetic subject. And you found his wonderful brush?"

"Oh, that isn't it. He stuck his wonderful brush in my eye while gesticulating."

Rebuking the Indolent.

Two darkies lay sprawled on the levee on a hot day. Moses drew a long sigh and said: "Heey-a-h-h! Ah wish Ah had a hund'ed water-millions."

Tom's eyes lighted dimly. "Hum-ya-h! Dat would suttenly be fine. An' ef yo' had a hund'ed water-millions would yo' gib me fifty?"

"No. Ah wouldn't gib yo' no fifty water-millions."

"Would yo' gib me twenty-five?"

"No. Ah wouldn't gib yo' no twenty-five."

"Seems ter me yous powahful stingy, Mose. Wouldn't yo' wouldn't yo' gib me one?"

"No. Ah wouldn't gib yo' one. Look a-hyah, niggah, are yo' so good fer nuffin lazy dat yo' cain't wish fo' yo' own water-millions?"

International Amenities.

The newly rich American looked across the table at the faded and shabbily dressed Englishwoman who she thought was trying to snub her, and it was plainly a hostile glance.

"You admire this diamond," she said to her next neighbor in an unnecessarily loud tone. "It is handsome, I think. I bought it in London at one of the pawnshops where the English royalty dispose of their ornaments in times of need."

Her glance again rested on the face across the table.

"I have no doubt of it," said the exasperatingly soft and clear English voice. "Our best people sometimes sell, but they never buy in pawnshops, madam." — Youth's Companion.

A Bismarck Story.

Prince Bismarck once received an application from a personal friend who desired a place in the imperial office for his son. "What can the boy do?" asked the prince. "He can speak seven languages," replied the proud father. "Lieber himmel!" exclaimed the man of blood and iron. "What a splendid head waiter he would make!"

An Easy Way Out.

"So this is your birthday? How old are you?"

"Don't you know," she indignantly replied, "that it is a sign of bad breeding to ask a lady about her age?"

"Oh, no; not in all cases. It is only unmannerly to ask how old a lady is when one has reason to believe she is old enough to be ashamed of it."

Then she invited him to sit down so they could have "a nice, long visit." — Chicago Record-Herald.

A Small Matter.

French Maid (to inquiring friend) — Oui, madame is ill, but ze doctor haf pronounce it something very trifling, very small.

Friend — Oh, I am so relieved, for I was real anxious about her. What does the doctor say the trouble is? "Let me recall. It was something very leetle. Oh, oui, I have it now. Ze doctor says zat madame has ze smallpox." — Woman's Home Companion.

Many people believe the only reason men appointed under the Wason Law in violation of that law are making this fight are for political purposes. They are making friends for a legally conducted dispensary and for prohibition. The dispensary people have won in most of the skirmishes but the decisive fight is yet to be fought.

The whiskey element will fight as a unit. Temperance people must not divide. We hope to see temperance forces in control all over N. C. and from Carolina, too.

OXFORDS

The Accepted Time.

Now is the accepted time to wear Oxfords and now is the accepted time to purchase a new pair. Our stock has been slaughtered but we recently bought a filling order, and bought too many, and we are overstocked, and in order to reduce our stock, we offer every pair at a bargain. Our stock comprises three lines, "Dorsch" "Banister" and "Crossett" made in all styles and in all leathers, in Tan or Black. Call in and examine our stock whether you buy or not. It is a pleasure to see you

C. S. FORBES,
THE MAN'S OUTFITTER,

THE ULTRA SHOE

The salient features of The Ultra are its fine workmanship, excellence of material, desirability of style, and elegance of fit and consequent comfort to the wearer. These form the sine qua non of desirable footwear.

In addition The Ultra is equipped with our patent cushion insole, a device which gives the shoe flexibility and durability, insuring a maximum of ease and comfort to the wearer, and protecting the foot from the ill effect of the hot sidewalks of summer as well as from the dampness of wet weather. This feature alone is well worth the price of the shoe.

We present a wide range in styles and finish, and are able to meet the requirements of the most fastidious as the more conservative patron and we invite a thorough inspection of our line. Ultra in name, Ultra in character, Ultra in every feature that contributes to fit, comfort and style. In finish, material and workmanship we are proud to present to all lovers of good taste in footwear a shoe for which we have never yet had to make an apology.

Offer to Withdraw.

The town was full of rumors this afternoon that the dispensary trouble was about to be settled. Those who have been conducting the illegal dispensary have written a letter to the board of aldermen offering to withdraw, and the board called a special meeting to consider the matter; The result is not known at the time this is written.

Greenville's Great Department Store

It is easy enough to cry "BEST" but that which convinces is the test. We make strong claims for

"Dorothy Dodd Shoes."

So strong perhaps as to excite skepticism in the minds of those who do not know. We, however, ask but a trial that our contentions may be proved or disapproved in all fairness. We are showing a beautiful line of

'Dorothy Dodd Shoes'

In the seasons newest styles, Oxfords, Strap Sandals, Gibson Ties, Etc.
