STIEFF PIANOS

Read The Following:

Elizabeth College,
Charlotte, N. C., March 11.
Mr. Chas. M. Stieff,
Baltimore, Md.

Dear Sir:—We have been using the Stieff Upright Pianos exclusively in the music conservatory of Elizabeth College for the past seven years. The pianos have given entire satisfaction both to teachers and students. Our musicians prefer the Stieff Piano. And for this reason I have no disposition to admit any other make of piano into the conservatory. Our business relations with you firm have been both pleasant and satisfactory. We have in use seventeen Stieff Pianos.

CHAS. B. KING,
President.

When we send our children to the best school or College

we know they will be taught by experienced and trained teachers. The heads of our great colleges secure the best teachers and equipment possible.

In all our best colleges you will find Stieff Pianos on account of its beautiful singing tone, perfect action and wonderful durability. It is eminently the piano for artist and beginner alike.

We will quote from time to time, as our space will permit extracts of letters from the leading Southern colleges.

Three carloads of Pianos (consisting of Stieff and other makes) and organs can now be seen in our Greenville warehouses, direct from the factory at factory prices terms to suit.

CHAS. M. STIEFF.

HOOKER ERWIN.

A Beautiful Home Marriage.

Last evening at nine o'clock at the home of Miss Lelia Cherry, a beautiful marriage was celebrated, the contracting parties being Mr. Lawrence Hooker, one of Greenville's most successful business men, and Miss Della Erwin, one of our most charming young ladies. Rev. W. E. Cox, in the language of the matchless ceremony of the Episcopal church, pronounced the vows.

The bride gowned in a beautiful creation of white chiffon and real lace, over white taffeta, leaning on the arm of her dame of honor, Mrs. Snell, of Rocky Mount entered the parlor, to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, which was superbly rendered by Mrs. J. B. Cherry, where she was met by the groom with his best man, Dr. Zeno Brown.

The bride was given away by her friend, Miss Lelia Cherry, with whom she has been residing for some time. Miss Cherry, dressed in a handsome gown of black chiffon over black taffeta, received the invited guests in the front hall. Miss Rosa Hooker received in the sitting room, where the many beautiful presents were displayed. Miss Bettie Hooker received in the dining room, where elegant refreshments from Fusselles of Norfolk, were served by Misses Rosa Erwin and Emma Hardy.

The decorations consisting of ferns, palms, and bride roses were unusually beautiful and artistic. The color scheme being, in the front hall, red and green; in the parlor, blue and white; in the sitting room, pink and green; in the dining room, pink and white.

BEAUFORT GETS ATLANTIC HOTEL.

Mr. E. S. Howland, the lessee of the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad gives out the information that the present Atlantic Hotel will be entirely torn down, and removed to Beaufort. A syndicate is now being arranged and organized at Beaufort to conduct the hotel there, and Mr. Howland desires that the hotel shall be furnished and kept as elaborately as possible.

It being Mr. Howland's desire for Morehead to have an hotel suitable for an all-the-year resort, a suitable one will be erected at that point. This is to be some smaller than the present hotel, but is to be thoroughly equipped with all modern improvements, with a Casino attachment. An experienced hotelman of New York is to have charge of it, and patronage will be sought the year round.

INTERESTED IN THE OUTCOME

EDITOR REFLECTOR:

I arrived at Weldon safe and sound, and shall go into the school room on the 12th inst, with the ever recurring sense of that awful responsibility which haunts the mind of every conscientious teacher. But in spite of myself I cannot but be interested in the outcome of Saturday's primaries. I regret exceedingly, sir, that my business is such that I cannot participate in same as is my want. I shall pray, however, that justice shall prevail and that worthy men—men allied with no questionable cause—may be chosen as legislators. Being absent from the county I have no candidate to offer to the voters. I shall content myself by asking that the enclosed stamps may induce you to register my name for the time being, as a subscriber to your most valuable paper THE EASTERN REFLECTOR and shall expect to receive copy of the first issue after receipt of this letter.

Yours in haste,

JOHN F. STOKES,
Principal Weldon High School.

Expressions of Regret.

It is with genuine feelings of profound regret that we learn of the intended removal from our midst of our friend and associate, Mr. M. A. Allen, and while his promotion to other fields of larger usefulness is a matter of gratification and pleasure to his friends, we can only choose these feeble words to faintly express our deep and serious loss. We recognize in Mr. Allen a gentleman of highest character and frank open conduct. We know that wherever he may go he will soon become well and favorably known for his many manly qualities and excellent parts. As representatives of the board of trade it is our duty and privilege to take this means of expressing our regrets in losing him and we know that we voice the sentiments of the entire community, both in town and country, when we wish for him the fullest measure of success and happiness in the new field to which he has been elected.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON, SEPTEMBER 8, 1904.

A visit to the many shops, factories, and mills of our thriving town makes one feel like a different man. We have recently had the pleasure of visiting a number of the leading business places of our town, and we can truthfully say that we know of no town more wide awake, or more systematic in business than is Greenville.

Perhaps nothing is more essential to business success than is a correct system. Realizing this fact, the various companies of our town have invariably selected as their officials men who have executive ability, and who are systematic in their work. Much of the wonderful business success of our town is due to the systematic manner in which the work is done, and in which the business is carried on.

The willing manner in which the workmen do their work, and the care and interest is very noticeable. They seem to realize that the interests of the employer and employee are one and the same, and by their earnest efforts they bring success to both.

By these means our town has become one of the leading towns of Eastern North Carolina.

The new management of the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad Company, the Howland Improvement Company, have given out the news that the old officials and employees will be retained in the service. This, together with the great improvements that are to be made along the entire line, is very gratifying to the people of the entire state.

So far the policy pursued by the new management is very commendable, and if continued, will add much to the convenience of the patrons of the A. & N. C. We can but note the contract between the actions of the present management and the actions of the "receivers," who held sway for such a short period.

From the course of management mapped out by The Howland Improvement Company, we feel that the state is fortunate in having made the lease, and we predict for them great success.

Augusta, Ga., Sept. 6.—A special to The Herald from Atlanta, says that in discussing the refusal of a Georgia soldier to salute a negro officer, Governor Terrell to-day said:

"That's what I call true Georgia grit. He is made out of the proper stuff."

True, it is "true Georgia grit" and it somewhat resembles the grit that can be found in the Old North State.

Only two days and we hold our Primary. Let every Democrat of Pitt county remember the date and place, Saturday, Sept. 10th. in the Court house in Greenville.

Carrie Nation seems to be keeping quiet. Maybe she "has an axe to grind" this time.

Let us keep history straight and not let it further be announced that Roosevelt did his hero stunt at San Juan Hill. He was never there, as it was Kettle Hill up which he went and there was "nary" a Spaniard in sight. The Big Stick and Kettle Hill let it be writ!—News and Observer.

"THE HUMAN LOVE."

Yes, it is hot. The office seems stuffy and your temples throb. You can hardly see the figures at times. The dust from the street rifts through and fills your lungs: there is a queer ache in your back and heart.

You, a worker, wonders why a man slaves and delves and toils, and the next day and the days that come after goes through the same old routine.

Yes, you wonder why. At home it is "lonesome. You touch the piano and the notes sound ghostly. The place seems like a funeral. It likes the human touch that only the presence of a woman and children can give. The little pair of blue overalls you notice in a closet makes a lump come in your throat. In the night you wake up and hear strange noises, and wonder if you are going to be ill. And in the morning you go back to the dust and perspiration and noise again.

Why? Here is the reason:

"Lake Breeze, Aug. 11 1904. "Dearest Papa: I got your letter and I was glad you wrote to your little boy. I went hunting with my air-gun yesterday, and I didn't hit anything, but I had a lot of fun. I go in swimming every day as many times as mama will let me, and I can dive, and the sun burnt my back and mamma put cold cream on it. There are some nice little boys here, and they haven't got any air-gun. I'll bet I have got a better father than they have. We all miss you, and ME especially; but I guess mamma misses you most of all. I'll look after mamma; you needn't worry. With lots of love from all. "Your right hand-mrn, Georgie."

"Lake Breeze, Aug. 1, 1904." "My Dear, Dear Dad: I wish I could put my arms around your neck and give you a big hug this minute. It is lonesome without you, but we are having a lovely time. We go in bathing, we row and dance and have music and tell stories and 'spoon' a little (you don't mind, do you dear?) and I am getting tanned and strong, and don't know what an ache or a pain is. Somehow if you could come, everything would be perfect. I hope when I get back I can shoulder some of your worries, and be more of a daughter to you than ever before. There are many nice people here, and they like us and we like them. I know this summer vacation is going to do all of us good, and especially mamma, who was more worn than she ever admitted. Good-night, dearest father, with love from your

"Daughter." "Lake Breeze, Aug. 1, 1904. "Dearest: I'm homesick and happy. The children are the best children God ever made, but I want you. My health is improving. I eat well and am taking life easy. It seems a shame when I think of you working away back home. And you've been so good. You have always been good to me, dear, and to the children. I can only tell you that I love you for it. Don't send me too much money. I feel guilty spending it purely for pleasure, and you at your desk working in the heat. The people here are more than kind to us, and they think our children are just perfect. They are, and you and I know it, don't we dear? A woman told me last night that she would like to see the man who writes to his wife every day after so many years of married life. She said she envied me. So may all women, for I am very happy, and you have made me so. Please do not work too hard, and let us come home soon. I love you dear. Your Wife"

The man folds the letters and puts them into his pocket. The heat has lost its power to hurt, the dust no longer counts. The lines of care have left his forehead, and he's happy again. His heart is full to overflowing.

He knows the reason why. It is human love; and for the true affection that shines in those three letters he would gladly suffer the pangs of martyrdom.—Cincinnati Post.

BENZONIZER LUNG CURE

NO MORE EXILE FOR CONSUMPTIVES.

A Cure as Last Obtained, After a Searching Investigation, by St. Louis Interests.

A few months ago the attention of a few scientific and philanthropic gentlemen of St. Louis was directed to an entirely new method of combating that most dreadful of all diseases, tuberculosis, commonly called consumption. Out of 115 test cases, 77 were completely cured and 28 have shown such improvement that their ultimate recovery is but a question of a few weeks.

So astonishing have been the results and absolute cures in cases pronounced incurable by all old methods that a company has been formed and is now prepared to furnish at a normal cost this cure to all sufferers of the "White Plague." One of its chief features is that patients can remain at home, surrounded by friends and relatives, and in a great many instances, especially the incipient or early stages of the disease, pursue their daily vocations and all become completely cured.

Patients receiving the same treatment here in St. Louis have completely recovered as rapidly as those in Colorado, New Mexico and Texas. The wonderful results in question have been accomplished by the Benzonizer, and the company which controls this marvelous medical device have located their main office at 417 North Seventh street, St. Louis. They have also located a factory on Easton avenue and a laboratory has been built at Hillside, Mo. The cure will be known as the Benzonizer Lung Cure, and Mr. C. P. Benson, the discoverer of the fluid inhalants which are used, will personally have charge of the affairs of the company. Mr. Benson will personally meet all who call at the office of the company on Seventh street, and will answer all communications from sufferers who are unable to make a personal call. — From the St. Louis Globe Democrat.

THREE JURORS CURED

Of Cholera Morbus with One Small Bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Mr. G. W. Fowler of Hightower, Ala., relates an experience he had while serving on a petit jury in a murder case at Edwardsville, county seat of Cleburne county, Alabama. He says: "While there I ate some fresh meat and some souse meat and it gave me cholera morbus in a very severe form. I was never more sick in my life and sent to the drug store for a certain cholera mixture, but the druggist sent me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy instead, saying that he had what I sent for, but that this medicine was so much better he would rather send it to me in the fix I was in. I took one dose of it and was better in five minutes. The second dose cured me entirely. Two fellow jurors were afflicted in the same manner and one small bottle cured the three of us." What's in a Name

Everything is in the name when it comes to Witch Hazel Salve. E. C. DeWitt & Co., of Chicago, discovered some years ago how to make a salve from Witch Hazel that is a specific for Piles. For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles, eczema, cuts, burns, bruises and all skin diseases, DeWitt's Salve has no equal. This has given rise to numerous worthless counterfeits. Ask for DeWitt's, the genuine. Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

A Power For Good

The pills that are potent in their action and pleasant in effect are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. W. S. Philpot, of Albany, Ga., says: "During a bilious attack I took one. Small as it was it did me more good than calomel, blue mass or any other pill I ever took and at the same time the effect was pleasant. Little Early Risers are certainly an ideal pill." Sold by Wooten's Drug Store.

Fearful Odds Against Him

Bedridden, alone and destitute. Such, in brief was the condition of an old soldier by name of J. J. Havens, Versalles, O. For years he was troubled with Kidney disease and neither doctors nor medicines gave him relief. At length he tried Electric Bitters. It put him on his feet in short order and now he testifies: "I'm on the road to recovery." Best on earth for Liver and Kidney troubles and all forms of Stomach and Bowel Complaints. Only 50c Guaranteed by J. L. Wooten, druggist.

A weak stomach weakens the man, because it cannot transform the food he eats into nourishment. Health and strength cannot be restored to any sick man or weak woman without first restoring health and strength to the stomach. A weak stomach cannot digest enough food to feed the tissue and revive the tired and run down limbs, and and organs of the body. Kotol Dyspepsia cure digests what you eat, cleanses and strengthens the glands and membranes of the stomach, and cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

Editors at Banquet.

Five hundred democratic editors from all over the United States attended the banquet at the Waldorf Astoria in New York city, last night. The banquet was an elaborate affair, the spacious ball room in which the banquet was given, having been handsomely decorated for the editors. The national colors hung from every side, while over the head table were two large pictures of the candidates.

Col. Henry Watterson, being the orator of the evening, made an attack on President Roosevelt that brought applause from more than five hundred guest present.

S. E. Johnson, a former president of the Gridiron Club, of Washington, acted as toastmaster while beside him sat many men noted both as editors or otherwise.

While the editors were enjoying the banquet, the band was playing many enchanting tunes such as "Swanee River" and "Dixie" which drew from the editors the first yell of the evening.

Genuine Piano Bargains.

So-called piano bargains have become familiar features of newspaper advertising. Genuine bargains are far less familiar. An inferior piano, catalogued at double its actual worth and reduce 40 or 50 per cent, is no bargain, for, a bargain, according to Webster, is a satisfactory transaction. We have genuine piano bargains both new and slightly used instruments.

CLOTHING

We give you not only the best you can buy, but the money paid can buy. Quality & value combined argue for your patronage

This is an agreeable sort of Store to patronize. You can recognize at once, from the way you are served, that your best interest is being studied. We study the fit of every garment you try on much more closely than you do, and when the purchase is completed there's not a line of a garment that isn't perfect. Two and three piece suits divide honors of patronage. Some want vests, some don't. We're able to offer each the widest possible variety of fabrics for selection.
