RALEIGH, July 11, 1904.
Chas. M. Stieff,

9 Liberty St., Baltimore, Md.
Gentlemen:—We beg to enclose you herewith an order properly executed for the purchase of thirty new Upright Stieff Pianos and one new Stieff Baby Grand. We beg to advise that this will equip our school throughout, for teachers and pupils, with your celebrated instruments, excepting one Concert Grand. It is needless to say that we expect a great deal of the pianos which you shall send us, and from the thorough investigation we have given the matter and the great satisfaction which we find your pianos have given in other schools, we feel sure that we shall not be disappointed in our expectation.

The Baptist University for Women being among the foremost schools of its kind in the South, places us in such a position that our patrons expect of us the best equipment that can be had in this country, and we feel sure that they will not be disappointed in sending their daughters to our University to find it equipped with Stieff Pianos exclusively.

We trust you will be able to deliver these instruments to us not later than September 10th, so that they will be in place in ample time for the opening of our fall session.

Yours very truly,
R. T. VANN, Pres.

When the heads of such colleges with whom we entrust our children for their education select the Artistic Stieff Piano, would it not be wise for you to profit by their knowledge and experience? The Stieff Piano is a Southern production and sold direct from factory to fireside, thus saving all in between profits.

Besides our own matchless Stieff, we have several other standard makes at exceedingly low prices and lenient terms. Several slightly used upright pianos and organs at surprising low prices.

We are here for a limited time only. Take advantage of rare and timely opportunity.

CHAS. M. STIEFF.
G. G. FINEMAN, Factory Representative.

STATE NEWS.

Raleigh, N. C., September 13.—Bryant Partin, the six year old son of Frank Partin, was smothered to death to day while playing in a pile of cotton in front of his father's home, near Raleigh.

The boy playfully dug a hole in the cotton and jumped in. He had not been missed at the house and his dead body was found by his little sister who was digging into the loose cotton. The child was found standing on his head in the center of the pile.

Prince George, the negro prophet who got his race in Wilmington and James City so wrought up, has been heard from. He writes that he is bound for New Bern and that he will set another date for the destruction of those places which he thoroughly believes will stick.—New Bern Journal.

Negro Youth Escaped Prison Clad in His Mother's Dress and Bonnet.

Briston, Va., September 13.—Wiley Gibson, a youth being held in the Lee County jail at Jonesville Va., to await conveyance to the penitentiary at Richmond to serve a five years sentence for robbery, made good his escape yesterday morning by departing from the prison clad in dress and bonnet of his aged mother, who had been left alone with her son, that she might say good bye, to the youth. He made good his escape.

Graded School.

The Greenville graded school will begin its next session on Monday, 26th, in charge of Superintendent W. B. Dove. The board of trustees recently completed the corps of teachers for the term, and they are as follows: Misses Annel Moore, Eula Cox, Carrie Wray, Leila Suttie, Eloise Couling, Maggie Connor, and Cynthia Neal. Two of these teachers, Misses Moore and Cox, taught in the school last session. The colored school will begin on 19th.

Treat Awaits You.

Friday night of next week there will be an entertainment of unusual interest in the Masonic opera house, by Miss Rachael M. Tomlinson, reader and impersonator, assisted by little Miss Violo Kilpatrick, aged 6, who is a wonderful child elocutionist. No one should miss it.

Big Rattler.

A. J. Whichard who lives near Grindel creek, tells us that he killed a large rattlesnake a few days ago. He was riding along the road and did not see the reptile until it was run over by a wheel of his buggy. He killed the snake and found it had fourteen rattles and a button.

Bank Statement.

Attention is called to the statement of the Greenville Banking & Trust Co., at the close of business Sept. 6th. This statement shows a large increase of business for the last three months. It constantly grows stronger.

Change of Date.

The time for the beginning of the meeting in the Free Will Baptist church by Elder S. B. Stephens, state evangelist, has been changed from the 22nd to the 18th. The meeting will begin Sunday.

S. J. Sampson, Newport—Our daughter was pale and sickly. Gave her Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. Now she's rosy cheeked, healthy and happy. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Wooten's Drug Store.

AYDEN ITEMS.

AYDEN N. C., Sept. 16, 1904.

Julius Lyons has gone to Kinston to enter the military school at that place.

Mrs. Carraway and Miss Florence Moore, of Farmville, have been visiting friends here.

Miss Vida McLawhorn, of Newbern, after a visit to friends in and around Ayden, has returned to her home.

For the past few days there has developed an appearance of activity and life among our business men that is encouraging. New goods, new cotton and everything pointing to a prosperous season makes the old bones jingle and the young nimble. Everything seems encouraging.

Now the ticket is named let us elect it.

Misses Mamie Guthery and Mattie Jones, of Grimesland, have been visiting friends here.

Elder S. B. Stephens and family have returned home after an absence of several weeks on ministerial work.

A large crowd attended the convention from here yesterday.

Merrimon McKinnie, of Washington, is here.

Cotton sold here yesterday at 10:35.

A new recruit at bachelor's den. A sick calf will cry out after awhile. There is no home without a woman in it. Even it ain't our's.

Miss Mary Hodges, one of the teachers in the graded school, came over from Kinston Thursday morning.

The teachers have all come in and the graded school will open in full bloom Monday.

Miss Carlotta Mewborne, of Kinston, is visiting Miss Helen Quinerly.

Candidates are not so numerous now as they were a while back. We look for them again a little later on.

A big crowd expected here tomorrow to the grand educational rally. Full baskets will be greatly in demand.

We are living out east now, right in about 50 feet of the graded school and after this week we will be strictly in it, and don't you forget it. We can sit out upstairs on the front porch and gaze and look, look and gaze, with nobody to say us nay. Imagine the magnificent building, the beautiful grove; and—the lovely girls, all our's to behold. 'Tis a paradise to dream of and a heaven when realized. Oh, we'll be there and don't you forget it.

Yesterday was a little dull. Most of our men folks had gone to the convention and we other people had to stay to ourselves, hence it was a little dull.

Several of our young men are trying the bachelor hall business. They report lovely times now, but a little later we are afraid things will take a change.

The protracted meeting in the Baptist church has closed. There were several accessions and a feeling of much interest was aroused.

Paul Buhmann returned from Seven Springs Tuesday.

Miss Georgia Joyner, of La-Grange, has arrived to resume her duties as one of the teachers in the graded school.

Miss Taylor, of near Grifton, came up on the train Wednesday and spend sometime with Miss Nina Johnson.

J. R. Smith has been to Winterville this week.

Mrs. Flossie Wedmore, of New Hope, Conn., who has been spending sometime with her sister Mrs. A. C. Noble, left for Greenville Wednesday to visit her brother, R. L. Humber.

Misses Olivia Berry and Ida M. Edwards are visiting Mrs. Burrough at Scotland Neck.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, SEPTEMBER 16, 1904.

The galleries made more noise than the pit.

As a nomination is equivalent to an election you know who are to be in.

With now and then an exception everything about the convention was in good spirit.

The speeches of acceptance that did not get a chance to air themselves will do for future reference.

The Populist hand bill that was flung at the delegates on leaving the convention was intended to catch the disgruntled.

Old Contentnea is a hummer. When she rang out with twenty-five votes solid for a candidate there was something doing in the convention.

They are telling a good joke on the man who sat at his office, with his speech ready, waiting for the notification committee that did not come.

The fellows who were not delegates yet kept butting in with "Mr. Chairman" when the convention was at an exciting pitch, afforded some amusement.

A striking estimate of a man at his own home and among his own people was shown in the vote of Chicod township in the county convention for J. J. Laughinghouse for the legislature. Mr. Laughinghouse has lived among the people of Chicod township for twenty five years and the support given him shows their esteem for the man. They know that he is a man whom they can trust absolutely at all times. THE REFLECTOR joins with them in this confidence, for we regard Mr. Laughinghouse as a man who will always be found on the right side of all public questions.

DO SOUTHERN PEOPLE READ MUCH?

Some days ago at a hotel table we heard the conversation of a number of gentlemen concerning certain conditions in the South, and the conversation interested us very much. One of the gentlemen was from Ohio, and of course the conversation had to take a turn at lynchings in the South. The gentleman from Ohio did not say anything harsh about the South, nor about the lynching here. On the contrary he said that for the same crimes for which negroes are lynched in the South, they would be "strung up," as he put it, in the North. He said that the people in the North do not really care as much for the negro as do the people in the South. He says the people here understand the race better than the people there do. But the most interesting part of the conversation turned up on the question of reading. The gentleman from Ohio said that he has travelled much in the North and in the South and so has had opportunity to make observations of the people in the different sections. He said that the people in the North read many times more than the people in the South.

Some one, he said, made close observation on a railroad car of the number of people reading as they leave a city. In the North on a train leaving a city he observed that almost every one is reading; but in the South on a train leaving a city very few are reading. One person in the company ventured to suggest that the price of news papers may have something to do with it—in the North you can buy a paper for a penny while in the South you have to pay five cents for one of equal size. It was not admitted, however, that the price of paper could not be the cause of such a discrepancy between the reading of the people of the two sections. The gentleman from Ohio stuck to his proposition, that the people in the North like to read much more than the people of the South. From his view of the matter the people of the South are too garrulous, they talk too much and think too little. And when we come down to the truth of it, the indictment which was not made in any spirit of bitterness or ridicule, for the most part holds good. The Southern people are not as constant readers as the Northern people, and in this lies much of the disadvantage which we suffer in being considered slow and behind the times. We might make good investment with more of our idle time by reading books, magazines and papers a little more.—Scotland Neck Commonwealth.

Congregation Happy.

Mr. L. C. Caldwell, who makes something of a specialty of mental anguish suits against the telegraph company, had a rather unusual case presented to him a few days ago. A colored preacher named Byers, who is pastor of a congregation at Cleveland, was en route to Cleveland to hold services and finding the train delayed he telegraphed his church officials from Davidson that he would be on hand and asked them to hold the congregation until he arrived. The message was not delivered and when the preacher arrived at Cleveland on the belated train he found his congregation dispersed. Consequently he was deprived of the privilege of breaking the bread of life to his flock that day and possibly, incidentally, of the privilege of "lifting" a collection.

The pastor stated the case to Mr. Caldwell and wanted an action brought, but Mr. Caldwell was not impressed with the case. He wrote his would-be client that he might have suffered some mental anguish by the negligence of the telegraph company but it would be difficult, possibly, to make a jury believe that his congregation suffered on account thereof, and so the action has not been brought.—EX.

Unheralded Deeds.

Not a day passes over the earth but men and women of no particular note do great deeds, speak great words, suffer noble sorrows, like the pearls in the depth of the ocean, or flowers that blush unseen. Of these obscure heroes, martyrs and philosophers, the greater part will never be known until that great day when the small and the great shall be marshalled before the Judge of all the Universe, when the great shall be small, and the small great, and all will receive their full reward. The cup of cold water given in the true spirit will be a grander proof of the greatness of true character than plethoric gold bags of the world's great men and women.—Durham Sun.

I. M. Meekins, Republican candidate for Lieutenant Governor of North Carolina, spoke in New York Tuesday, and is quoted as saying that the Republicans have the Democrats on the run in his State. This will doubtless be news to both parties to the race in North Carolina.—Charlotte Observer.

BENSONIZER LUNG CURE

NO MORE EXILE FOR CONSUMPTIVES.

A Cure At Last Obtained, After a Searching Investigation, by St. Louis Interests.

A few months ago the attention of a few scientific and philanthropic gentlemen of St. Louis was directed to an entirely new method of combating that most dreadful of all diseases, tuberculosis, commonly called consumption. Out of 115 test cases, 77 were completely cured and 28 have shown such improvement that their ultimate recovery is but a question of a few weeks.

So astonishing have been the results and absolute cures in cases pronounced incurable by all old methods that a company has been formed and is now prepared to furnish at a normal cost this cure to all sufferers of the "White Plague." One of its chief features is that patients can remain at home, surrounded by friends and relatives, and in a great many instances, especially the incipient or early stages of the disease, pursue their daily vocations and all become completely cured.

Patients receiving the same treatment here in St. Louis have completely recovered as rapidly as those in Colorado, New Mexico and Texas. The wonderful results in question have been accomplished by the Bensonizer, and the company which controls this marvelous medical device have located their main office at 417 North Seventh street, St. Louis. They have also located a factory on Easton avenue and a laboratory has been built at Hillside, Mo. The cure will be known as the Bensonizer Lung Cure, and Mr. C. P. Benson, the discoverer of the fluid inhalant which are used, will personally have charge of the affairs of the company. Mr. Benson will personally meet all who call at the office of the company on Seventh street, and will answer all communications from sufferers who are unable to make a personal call.—From the St. Louis Globe Democrat.

A Power For Good

The pills that are potent in their action and pleasant in effect are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. W. S. Philpot, of Albany, Ga., says: "During a bilious attack I took one. Small as it was it did me more good than calomel, blue mass or any other pill I ever took and at the same time the effect was pleasant. Little Early Risers are certainly an ideal pill." Sold by Wooten's Drug Store.

Sour Stomach

When the quantity of food taken is too large or the quality too rich, sour stomach is likely to follow, and especially so if the digestion has been weakened by constipation. Eat slowly and not too freely of easily digested food. Masticate the food thoroughly. Let five hours elapse between meals, and when you feel a fullness and weight in the region of the stomach after eating, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the sour stomach may be avoided. THREE JURORS CURED

Of Cholera Morbus with One Small Bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Mr. G. W. Fowler of Hightower, Ala., relates an experience he had while serving on a petit jury in a murder case at Edwardsville, county seat of Cleburne county, Alabama. He says: "While there I ate some fresh meat and some soured meat and it gave me cholera morbus in a very severe form. I was never more sick in my life and sent to the drug store for a certain cholera mixture, but the druggist sent me a bottle of Chamberlain's Cholera, Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy instead, saying that he had what I sent for, but that this medicine was so much better he would rather send it to me in the fix I was in. I took one dose of it and was better in five minutes. The second dose cured me entirely. Two fellow jurors were afflicted in the same manner and one small bottle cured the three of us."
