RALEIGH, July 11, 1904.
Chas. M. Stieff,
9 Liberty St., Baltimore, Md.
Gentlemen:—We beg to enclose you herewith an order properly executed for the purchase of thirty new Upright Stieff Pianos and one new Stieff Baby Grand. We beg to advise that this will equip our school throughout, for teachers and pupils, with your celebrated instruments, excepting one Concert Grand. It is needless to say that we expect a great deal of the pianos which you shall send us, and from the thorough investigation we have given the matter and the great satisfaction which we find your pianos have given in other schools, we feel sure that we shall not be disappointed in our expectation.

The Baptist University for Women being among the foremost schools of its kind in the South, places us in such a position that our patrons expect of us the best equipment that can be had in this country, and we feel sure that they will not be disappointed in sending their daughters to our University to find it equipped with Stieff Pianos exclusively.
We trust you will be able to deliver these instruments to us not later than September 10th, so that they will be in place in ample time for the opening of our fall session.
Yours very truly,
R. T. VANN, Pres.

When the heads of such colleges with whom we entrust our children for their education select the Artistic Stieff Piano, would it not be wise for you to profit by their knowledge and experience? The Stieff Piano is a Southern production and sold direct from factory to fireside, thus saving all in-between profits.

Besides our own matchless Stieff, we have several other standard makes at exceedingly low prices and lenient terms. Several slightly used upright pianos and organs at surprising low prices.

We are here for a limited time only. Take advantage of rare and timely opportunity.

CHAS. M. STIEFF.

DEATH OF MRS. R. L. CARR.

Young Wife and Mother Passes Away.

Death is so relentless. He lays his icy hands alike upon the old, the young and the middle aged, leaving in his dark trail hearts burst asunder with grief. Sad indeed are his visits under all circumstances, but inexpressibly sad when he invades a new made, happy home and robs it of the young wife and mother. Never a dream had people of Greenville when barely a year ago they followed a happy bride to the altar, strewing her pathway with the flowers of good wishes and congratulations, that today they would follow that same form to the tomb and wreath her bier with flowers expressive of their sorrow and esteem. Yet such is the sudden change death has wrought, and where joy and happiness then reigned there is now grief and despair.

It was on the 15th day of October, 1903, that a host of friends gathered in the Memorial Baptist church to witness the ceremony that gave Miss Janie Flournoy in marriage to Dr. Robert L. Carr, and today loving hands bare her remains to the same edifice where she so recently became a bride, for the last tribute of esteem to be paid her memory, thence gently laid her in the tomb to sleep until awakened by angels on the resurrection morn, the same friends gathering to shed tears of sympathy with the bereaved.

Mrs. Carr was a daughter of Capt. and Mrs. Francis Flournoy, the latter now being Mrs. M. A. Allen. She came to Greenville a little more than three years ago when Mr. Allen moved his family here from Reidsville. She was a young woman of lovable character and gentle disposition, and rapidly won the hearts of friends in her new home. Hers was a sweet Christian life, shedding a fragrance of love and kindness upon all with whom she came in contact. Socially she was a favorite with every one, and when it was learned that her spirit had taken its flight at 9 o'clock Saturday night no eye could restrain a tear as the sad intelligence passed from one to another.

Words fail to express the sympathy felt for the heart-broken husband and tender babe of eleven days who in her death lost wife and mother, and for the grief-stricken mother and other members of the family. All truly share their sorrow and it is heart-felt.

The funeral services were held at 4 o'clock this afternoon in the Memorial Baptist church conducted by Rev. T. H. King, of Ayden, assisted by Rev. W. E. Cox, and the interment was in Cherry Hill cemetery. The pall bearers were: Honorary—J. L. Little, J. R. Moore, R. W. King, T. J. Jarvis, J. G. Moye, W. H. Ragsdale, C. D. Rountree, J. L. Wooten, F. W. Clare, W. B. Dove. Active—E. B. Ficklen, R. O. Jeffress, J. C. Tyson, D. J. Whichard, H. A. White, W. B. Wilson, F. M. Hodges, R. Williams.

The expressions of sympathy in floral tributes were many and beautiful, entirely covering the casket. Besides the individual tributes, there were appropriate designs from the Sans Souci Club, End of the Centry Book Club, Knights of Pythias, Baptist Sunday school, Woman's Missionary Society of the Baptist church and the Tobacco Board of Trade.

Masonic Opera House Friday Night.

To Whom it May Concern:—It gives me great pleasure to say that I have heard little Miss Viola Kilpatrick at more than one recital and can truthfully say that I never enjoyed a recitation more. I say this deliberately, and without exception, regardless of age reputation of the elocutionist. I heard little Miss Viola twice on the same program, and I would pay the price of both admission fees to hear her render the same identical program a third time.

One of the remarkable things about this little artist is that she is not yet six years old. Her charm therefore, is not the studied mechanical execution one would expect in a professional elocutionist. It is the unaffected spontaneous expression of genius and real power in the child herself.

That she has this genius and power to touch her hearers is unquestionable, and to convince of this you have simply to hear her.
REV. WM. E. COX.
Greenville, N. C. Sept. 15, 1904.

Tomorrow Night.

"Ted H. Faust's minstrels" will be the attraction at the Masonic opera house Tuesday night, 20th.

Their first part is spectacular and historic, a prodigious offering of brilliance, melody and hilarity, entitled, "In Old Mexico." The scene is laid in that country and to those who have travelled there it will be very realistic indeed. The "Ollo" embraces the Famous Faust Family of Nine Australian Acrobats the Boissette Troupe of French pantomimists, five in number, their first appearance in America "The Herald Squire Quartet" "the Brothers Stidolph," German musical artists, "Daly and Kels," the Boys "With the Tangled Feet," and "Bobby De Rue," monologist. The noted vocalists, "Olen De Bruin" and Wm. R. Pattie head the Faust choir of singers.

Street Parade.

A minstrel show without a first class band and orchestra is like a circus without a parade. The Faust Minstrels that appear at Masonic opera house Thursday night 20, are mindful of these important features, and have with them Prof. Alex. Bowles' military band and Professor A. V. Smith superb orchestra. The minstrels give a daily street parade, in which will appear Professor Bowles' skilled musicians. They will render open air concerts along the line of march and also in front of the theatre in the evening. Between the First part and the Ollo, Professor Smith's orchestra will render selections from the popular operas of the day.

Dr. Baker Acquitted.

The trial of Dr. Julian M. Baker for killing Dr. H. T. Bass occupied three days of the Superior court at Tarboro last week. The case was given to the jury Saturday evening and a verdict of justifiable homicide was returned Sunday afternoon.

Notice.

The Bright Jewels will have their annual mite box opening Tuesday night at the residence of Rev. J. A. Hornaday. Every member of the Band is cordially invited to be present.

The firm of A. E. Tucker & Co., has dissolved co-partnership, Mr. Tucker having purchased the interest of the other members of the firm. He is going to run a special dissolution sale to reduce stock.

Nature's greatest gift to the human family is Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. With it your family is fully protected. Best baby medicine in the world. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Woolen's Drug Store.

MONDAY AFTERNOON, SEPTEMBER 19, 1904.

The Great South.

Mr Joseph G. Brown, the prominent Raleigh banker, who is in attendance upon the National convention of bankers, made a speech night before last which was characteristic of the man and one that reflected credit on this section of the country. Among other things, he said:

"A fact which is little understood here is the remarkable strides made by the Southern farmer. He has raised this year a diversified crop and with the enormous returns from truck farming he has made himself comparatively independent. As a result of this and the large profits made from high cotton last year, the people of our region are in the best condition that they have been in for years. Of course the banks reflect this prosperity, and are unusually rich, with heavier resources than at this time in former years. Just now we are drawing on our balances here, and shall need large amounts of money to move the cotton crop. The banks of the South will give good account of themselves this season."

This sounds mighty good and every word of it is true, not only of the South, but of North Carolina. It must have given Mr. Brown much pleasure to make such a flattering account of his section.—Wilmington Dispatch.

Not since the civil war has a presidential campaign been so devoid of interest or excitement as the present one. In years ago we began campaigns in North Carolina in presidential years by the 1st of July and by the middle of September the campaign was at its height. This year, however, we have adopted the sensible plan of waiting until September to begin and as a consequence politics will excite little interest until next month. The people are giving politics little attention at present. Indeed, a condition of apathy seems to exist, but there is plenty of time. We hope the plan of giving only two months or six weeks to a campaign will be permanently adopted. The Asheville Citizen says the chairmen of both the Democratic and Republican committees in the tenth congressional district figure out that the present condition of apathy will be followed by an unusually large vote in November, arguing that the people are already well posted on general political conditions and there are no new issues to awaken their curiosity or make them doubtful as to how they will vote. This may be so, but the average politician would doubtless feel better if the people were manifesting a little more interest in politics.—Statesville Landmark.

United States Senator Simmons received a telegram today from Senator Nelson W. Aldrich of Rhode Island, asking Senator Simmons to meet him at Beaufort on Thursday for the purpose of examining the harbor there with a view to seeing what can be done by the government in dredging the bar for the passage of large vessels into the harbor. R. S. Howland, lessee of the Atlantic and North Carolina rail road, will be with Senator Aldrich. In fact the conference is brought about through Mr. Howland, with a view to the promotion of his plans for developing the Atlantic and North Carolina road. The bar at Beaufort now admits vessels of from fourteen to eighteen feet and it is claimed that with the expenditure of a little more than $100,000 in dredging vessels of 25 or 30 feet draft can be brought into the harbor.—Raleigh Correspondent.

THREE JURORS CURED

Of Cholera Morbus with One Small Bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Mr. G. W. Fowler of Hightower, Ala., relates an experience he had while serving on a petit jury in a murder case at Edwardsville, county seat of Cleburne county, Alabama. He says: "While there I ate some fresh meat and some soured meat and it gave me cholera morbus in a very severe form. I was never more sick in my life and sent to the drug store for a certain cholera mixture, but the druggist sent me a bottle of Chamberlain's Cholera, Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy instead, saying that he had what I sent for, but that this medicine was so much better he would rather send it to me in the fix I was in. I took one dose of it and was better in five minutes. The second dose cured me entirely. Two fellow jurors were afflicted in the same manner and one small bottle cured the three of us." For sale at Wooten's Drug Store.

A weak stomach weakens the man, because it cannot transform the food he eats into nourishment. Health and strength cannot be restored to any sick man or weak woman without first restoring health and strength to the stomach. A weak stomach cannot digest enough food to feed the tissue and revive the tired and run down limbs and organs of the body. Kodol Dyspepsia cure digests what you eat, cleanses and strengthens the glands and membranes of the stomach, and cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

Sour Stomach

When the quantity of food taken is too large or the quality too rich, sour stomach is likely to follow, and especially so if the digestion has been weakened by constipation. Eat slowly and not too freely of easily digested food. Masticate the food thoroughly. Let five hours elapse between meals, and when you feel a fullness and weight in the region of the stomach after eating, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the sour stomach may be avoided. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville.

What's in a Name

Everything is in the name when it comes to Witch Hazel Salve. E. C. DeWitt & Co., of Chicago, discovered some years ago how to make a salve from Witch Hazel that is a specific for Piles. For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles, eczema, cuts, burns, bruises and all skin diseases, DeWitt's Salve has no equal. This has given rise to numerous worthless counterfeits. Ask for DeWitt's, the genuine. Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

What is Life?

In the last analysis nobody knows, but we do know that it is under strict law. Abuse that law even slightly, pain results. Irregular living means derangement of the organs, resulting in Constipation, Headache or Liver trouble. Dr. King's New Life Pills quickly re-adjusts this. It's gentle, yet thorough. Only 25c at Wooten's Drug Store.

Cured of Lame After 15 Years of Suffering

"I had been troubled with lame back for fifteen years and I found a complete recovery in the use of Chamberlain's Pain Balm," says John G. Bisher, Gillam, Ind. This liniment is also without an equal for sprains and bruises. It is for sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville.

If you want to see something nice look at the new display of Parker fountain pens at Reflector Book Store.

Rev. T. H. King, of Ayden, again occupied the pulpit of the Baptist church here Sunday morning and night in the absence of the pastor. He is a good preacher.

"Old Joe Forbes" wants to remind his patrons that he is ready to serve them with oysters in any style. He is at the old stand, second story of Brady building.

LETTER TO PROF. E. T. HUGHES.

Greenville, N. C.
Dear Sir: It costs two or three times as much to put paint on as to buy it. A gallon of poor paint costs as much as a gallon of good, for the work; and a gallon of poor don't go half as far. Poor paint lasts half or a third or a quarter as long as good; and protects wood and iron a half or a third or a quarter as well as good.
Do you buy good paint or poor? You don't know any more? Why, the market is full of it!
All Devco agents have a state chemist's certificate which tells just what's in Devco.
Go by the name: the one safe name: Devco lead and zinc.
Yours truly,
F. W. DEVOE & Co.
