RALEIGH, July 11, 1904.
Chas. M. Stieff,
9 Liberty St., Baltimore, Md.
Gentlemen:—We beg to enclose you herewith an order properly executed for the purchase of thirty new Upright Stieff Pianos and one new Stieff Baby Grand. We beg to advise that this will equip our school throughout, for teachers and pupils, with your celebrated instruments, excepting one Concert Grand. It is needless to say that we expect a great deal of the pianos which you shall send us, and from the thorough investigation we have given the matter and the great satisfaction which we find your pianos have given in other schools, we feel sure that we shall not be disappointed in our expectation.
The Baptist University for Women being among the foremost schools of its kind in the South, places us in such a position that our patrons expect of us the best equipment that can be had in this country, and we feel sure that they will not be disappointed in sending their daughters to our University to find it equipped with Stieff Pianos exclusively.
We trust you will be able to deliver these instruments to us not later than September 10th, so that they will be in place in ample time for the opening of our fall session.
Yours very truly,
R. T. VANN, Pres.

When the heads of such colleges with whom we entrust our children for their education select the Artistic Stieff Piano, would it not be wise for you to profit by their knowledge and experience? The Stieff Piano is a Southern production and sold direct from factory to fireside, thus saving all in-between profits.

Besides our own matchless Stieff, we have several other standard makes at exceedingly low prices and lenient terms. Several slightly used upright pianos and organs at surprising low prices.

We are here for a limited time only. Take advantage of rare and timely opportunity.

CHAS. M. STIEFF.
G. G. FINEMAN, Factory Representative.

SUPERIOR COURT.

September Term in Session.

The September term of Pitt Superior court began Monday afternoon with Judge W. B. Council presiding and Solicitor L. I. Moore representing the state. The court could not begin at the usual morning hour because of the train upon which the judge was coming being late. Judge Council explained this in beginning his charge to the grand jury, as he said he believed in opening court at the proper time, and only in one or two instances since he had been on the bench had he failed to do so.

Judge Council's charge to the grand jury was an excellent one. Besides being a clear treatise of law for the guidance of the grand jury, it was instructive, patriotic, and of a nature to help all who heard to a fuller realization of the duties of citizenship and give them a clearer conception of the principles of good government.

The grand jury for this term is composed of B. E. Patrick, foreman, W. R. Williams, Jr., Thos. Carson, C. A. Hyma, Jas. H. Joyner, Furney Laughinghouse, E. T. Roberson, Jacob McLawhorn, S. S. Worthington, J. B. Roebuck, W. F. Barnhill, J. G. Garris, W. B. Burney, J. A. Teel, J. B. Speight, John Nobles, Jr., Heber Briley, W. J. Mills.

Greenville Boy Receives New Honors.

The Charlotte school commissioners met at the city hall at 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and released Prof. J. A. Bivins, who will go to Durham to accept the headmastership of Trinity Park School. Mr. Harry P. Harding, now superintendent of the New Bern graded school, was elected to the place Mr. Bivins vacated. Mr. Harding is a young man of ability, learning and experience. He was graduated from the University in 1898 with honors. At one time he was principal of the Goldsboro graded school, and he organized the city schools at Oxford. The board did well to select Mr. Harding. He comes highly recommended. He is a married man; his wife was Miss Lullie Lee, of New Bern. He is a brother of Mr. W. F. Harding, of this city.—Charlotte Observer.

Taken Through Error.

By some mishap one of our carriers picked up some papers of Saturday date and took them around to the subscribers. The error has been corrected and we could learn that the old papers have been left.

AYDEN ITEMS.

AYDEN N. C., Sept. 20, 1904.

The educational rally here Saturday was a success. There was a very respectable crowd present and everyone seemed to fully enjoy the occasion. In the morning State Superintendent Joyner delivered an address that will admit of no comment from us. It was befitting the occasion and replete with all that was necessary for the time. Hon. J. H. Small spoke in the afternoon and his address, like all others he delivers, was fully up to the standard. There were short addresses by Prof. Ragsdale and Prof. King.

Oscar Dixon, who has been to St. Vincent hospital has come home very much improved and has every appearance of a speedy recovery.

Very many of our citizens attended the funeral of Mrs. Jane Cox, who died in Greenville and was buried near here Sunday afternoon.

There were services in the Methodist and Disciple churches last Sabbath. Rev. Mr. Stanfield conducted services in the former and Rev. Mr. Davis in the latter.

We regret exceedingly to learn of the sad death last Saturday of Miss Luc, Dail, whose home was here. She went to Norfolk on the last excursion and was taken ill immediately upon her arrival and was at once conveyed to a hospital where she has since remained. Her remains arrived Sunday evening and were buried yesterday.

Mrs. J. D. Moon, who has been spending several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Stancil Hodges, returned to her home near Washington City Friday morning.

W. F. Hart went to Kinston Friday and came back Sunday.

Miss Brooks, of Grifton, came up on the train Friday and spent the day with the family of Mrs. Cason.

Noah B. Cox, a prominent merchant and farmer of Calico, came Saturday to take in the educational rally.

Narrow Escape.

W. L. Smith, a son of Mr. W. M. Smith, of Falkland, recently went to Poughkeepsie to take a course in a business college, and the first night after his arrival had a narrow escape from death by asphyxiation. When young Smith retired for the night he in some way left a gas jet open after turning off the light.

Not appearing for breakfast next morning his landlady sent to the room to have him called when he was found in an unconscious condition. Physicians were summoned at once and after several hours work he was restored to consciousness and soon was out of danger. His parents and friends at home learned with regret that he met with such an accident that came so near costing him his life, but are glad that the prompt attention revived him.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON, SEPTEMBER 20, 1904.

When a man fails to get a single vote from the township in which he was born and raised it does not look like the people were over anxious for him to be their candidate.

The announcement of one of the got-left candidates before the county convention that he will run independent takes no one by surprise. The people had just that opinion of him.

The Raleigh Evening Times has developed wonderfully since getting installed in its new home and is a splendid paper. But its new hat is not the prettiest looking part of it.

Moses did not appoint himself to lead the way to the promised land, and the man who appoints himself to lead the way to the general assembly will find when the roll is called that his name is mud.

The demand by our enterprising business men on the advertising space of THE DAILY REFLECTOR bids fair to cause another enlargement in the size of the paper. That is what we hope for, and plans to that end are already on foot.

The Populists have issued a call for a county convention. If they launch a ticket, as it is expected, it will merely serve to draw out the otherwise stay-at-home Democratic voters so that in reality it will make the party vote larger.

The Norfolk Landmark speaks of "Judge Winston, who has graced the Supreme court bench of North Carolina," as "the present aspirant for Democratic Governor of that State." Surely our friend has not lost his grip on North Carolina politics to the extent indicated. The editor must be taking his vacation.—Charlotte Observer.

"Mr. Theodore Roosevelt desires no communication with Jefferson Davis." It is stated in a Democratic contemporary that this sentence was written by Mr. Roosevelt, the historian, "to the old man who had politely called his attention to some gross errors in his writings." We had no idea that Mr. Roosevelt was so brutal, and would be much gratified to see a denial that he ever penned such a sentiment. If he did so, no man whose heart is in the right place should desire any communication with him.—Charlotte Observer.

Crawl For Appendicitis.
German medical journals are recommending a new and peculiar remedy for appendicitis, the employment of which, it is declared, obviates the necessity for the use of the knife in the great majority of cases.

This remedy consists in walking on all fours 20 minutes four times a day. A contemporary states that this method is not only original, but almost aboriginal. However this may be, the method is certainly worthy of consideration. This method of treatment operates by strengthening the abdominal muscles. When the muscles have relaxed the bowels become displaced, congested and diseased; the disease extends to the appendix and thus an inflammation is produced.

It is claimed that a well-known German diplomat has recently been cured of appendicitis by this method.—Ex.

THREE JURORS CURED

Of Cholera Morbus with One Small Bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Mr. G. W. Fowler of Hightower, Ala., relates an experience he had while serving on a petit jury in a murder case at Edwardsville, county seat of Cleburne county, Alabama. He says: "While there I ate some fresh meat and some souse meat and it gave me cholera morbus in a very severe form. I was never more sick in my life and sent to the drug store for a certain cholera mixture, but the druggist sent me a bottle of Chamberlain's Cholera, Colera and Diarrhoea Remedy instead, saying that he had what I sent for, but that this medicine was so much better he would rather send it to me in the fix I was in. I took one dose of it and was better in five minutes. The second dose cured me entirely. Two fellow jurors were afflicted in the same manner and one small bottle cured the three of us." For sale at Wooten's Drug Store.

A weak stomach weakens the man, because it cannot transform the food he eats into nourishment. Health and strength cannot be restored to any sick man or weak woman without first restoring health and strength to the stomach. A weak stomach cannot digest enough food to feed the tissue and revive the tired and run down limbs and organs of the body. Kodol Dyspepsia cure digests what you eat, cleanses and strengthens the glands and membranes of the stomach, and cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

Modesty in a woman is her robe of virtue.

Sour Stomach

When the quantity of food taken is too large or the quality too rich, sour stomach is likely to follow, and especially so if the digestion has been weakened by constipation. Eat slowly and not too freely of easily digested food. Masticate the food thoroughly. Let five hours elapse between meals, and when you feel a fullness and weight in the region of the stomach after eating, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the sour stomach may be avoided.  One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep-seated on the lungs causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 148 to 92 lbs. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Fearful Odds Against Him
 Bedridden, alone and destitute. Such, in brief was the condition of an old soldier by name of J. J. Havens, Versailles, O. For years he was troubled with Kidney disease and neither doctors nor medicines gave him relief. At length he tried Electric Bitters. It put him on his feet in short order and now he testifies: "I'm on the road to recovery." Best on earth for Liver and Kidney troubles and all forms of Stomach and Bowel Complaints. Only 50c Guaranteed by J. L. Wooten, druggist.

A Power For Good
 The pills that are potent in their action and pleasant in effect are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. W. S. Philpot, of Albany, Ga., says: "During a bilious attack I took one. Small as it was it did me more good than calomel, blue mass or any other pill I ever took and at the same time the effect was pleasant. Little Early Risers are certainly an ideal pill." What is Life?
 In the last analysis nobody knows, but we do know that it is under strict law. Abuse that law even slightly, pain results. Irregular living means derangement of the organs, resulting in Constipation, Headache or Liver trouble. Dr. King's New Life Pills quickly re-adjusts this. It's gentle, yet thorough. There was a delightful gathering in the rooms of Carolina Club, last night at the formal opening for the season of the club cafe. There were a number of invited guests. Many ladies were present among them being several visitors and they added much to the occasion. Music and games were features of the evening and the ladies delighted the assemblage with several delightful solos. Oyster were served in the cafe. The club has splendid quarters and it constantly grows in popularity. The membership is quite large.
