BIG PIANO PURCHASE. 50 STIEFFS---BARNAU COLLEGE.

Gainesville, Ga., May 16, 1904
Chas. M. Stieff,

9 Liberty St., Baltimore, Md.

Dear Sir: I beg to enclose you an order properly executed for the purchase of fifty (50) Stieff Pianos, to be delivered at Brenau Conservatory, Gainesville, Ga. This will equip the Conservatory with Stieff Pianos exclusively, with the exception of one Concert Grand which we have on hand.

When I began to investigate pianos with a view of taking out all and putting in an entirely new supply, the Stieff came to my notice. I have studied pianos closely during the last ten years and have purchased ninety instruments in that time. After visiting the factories in a number of cities, I inspected your plant in Baltimore. I felt sure that no factory in the United States was better equipped to produce a strictly high-grade piano than the Stieff factory.

We have had one of your instruments in the Conservatory for one year, and have tested the tone, quality and mechanical construction. After thoroughly testing it for eight or ten hours per day, I have placed an order for fifty new Stieff Pianos. I find the action of this piano in every way desirable to the artist and to the student.

While the cost of your piano is considerably more than I have to pay for others, it has greater merits, and I considered they're best none too good for Brenau Conservatory.

I take pleasure in saying that after we have secured the pianos ordered all of our practice rooms, both for teachers and students, will be supplied with your excellent instruments. Yours very truly,
A. W. VANHOESE.

Rarest display of these artistic pianos now on at Greenville, N. C., direct from the factory at factory prices. Terms to suit.

CHAS. M. STIEFF.

G. G. FINEMAN, Factory Representative.

TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.

Saturday, October 8th, 1904.

The first meeting of the Teachers' Association will be held in Greenville, on Saturday, October 8th, at 10 o'clock a. m. All the teachers in the county are earnestly requested to be present at this first meeting. J. D. EVERETT, Pres.

The following program will be had:

10 a. m. Devotional exercises by Rev. F. G. Hartman.

10.15 a. m. Enrollment of members.

10.20 a. m. Election of officers and permanent organization.

11 a. m. Address: "The people, the teacher, the school," by Rev. J. A. Hornaday.

11.30 a. m. The work of the association during the coming year. General discussion.

12:15 p. m. Informal social gathering.

Above will be seen the call of president for the first meeting of teachers' association, I desire to say to the teachers of county that the board of education has passed an order making attendance upon these meetings compulsory and in the signing of vouchers I shall be governed by this order. A little later will be published the rules and regulations which may be adopted for the government of schools. You will also be furnished with a copy of these at this meeting. It is important for you to be present to get these rules or you will not be able to conduct your school in accordance with them. I desire also at this meeting to get an accurate list of where each teacher will teach and when her school will begin. Many of the teachers have been faithful in attending the meetings of this association. Some have been very negligent. This year it is proposed that all shall aid in making this association what it has already proven to be, the greatest power in the county for its educational progress.

Let every teacher in the county know now that attendance upon these meetings is as much a part of their work as that which they do in the school room and no one will be regarded as sufficiently interested in the work who does not aid by her presence in making efficient this organization. You are invited cordially, and expected to be present on Saturday, October 8th. Will you come? We await your answer on the above named day.

Co. Supt. Schools.

A Car Full of Tramps.

A negro man 'poked' his head out of the small window of a sealed box car at South Rocky Mount last Monday and pleaded for water. A dipper full of the blessed fluid was given him, but lo and behold more and more were called for and it became liken unto pouring water into a rat's hole, and it was then found that the car was full of men. The car was pulled up to Rocky Mount and opened and eight men, three white the others colored, were arrested. They stayed in the calaboose until Tuesday, when upon paying what the fare from Richmond would be and costs they were released. They were carnival attaches and were making their way to Washington, N. C.—Rocky Mount Record.

Meeting at Baptist Church.

Dr. M. H. Wharton, of Philadelphia arrived Saturday evening to hold a meeting in the Baptist church. The meeting began Sunday, services being held morning, afternoon and night. Dr. Wharton is a delightful speaker and preaches the gospel plainly and forcibly. He is known throughout the country as a great evangelist, and much good is hoped to result from his work in Greenville. Services will be held each night this week beginning at 7.30 o'clock. Those who fail to attend the services are the losers.

Graded School.

The second year of the Greenville graded school opened this morning under most gratifying conditions. The enrollment cannot yet be given to the exact figure, but will reach 375. This is about a hundred ahead of the beginning a year ago. Everything about the school starts off well and good results are expected from the work.

Colored Teachers' Association.

The colored teachers of the county have formed a teachers' association and held their first meeting on last Saturday. The next meeting will be held on the fourth Saturday in October.

Killed a Bear.

A large bear was killed last Friday near Tyson's bridge, in Beaver Dam township. The neighbors had a big time hunting the bear and enjoyed a feast after the battle.

Mrs Tomlinson and little Miss Viola Kistrick will give an entertainment in the chapel at the graded school building Tuesday night.

D. G. Berry, of Ayden, brought a curious gourd to town today. It was more than 5 feet in length and shaped like a big interrogation point.

MONDAY AFTERNOON, SEPTEMBER 26, 1904.

Election forecasters are now setting New York down in the certain Democratic column.

Webster's Weekly, of Reidsville, now comes donned in a bright new dress that gives it a handsome appearance. The Weekly is an ably edited paper and is a power for good.

Awful disasters continue to occur with startling frequency. A wreck on the Southern railway near Knoxville, Tenn., Saturday morning, killed upward of fifty people and injured many more.

Raleigh and Greensboro are both up in arms against the disreputable women that infest those cities. Every town is more or less afflicted with this undesirable class and it would be better for morals to get rid of them.

Widows and Pensions.

The most amazing fact about the pension disgrace, says American Medicine, is the professional widow business. Women may live a year or so longer than men on the average, but what shall one think of the ludicrous fact that only one pensioned soldier of the war of 1812 now lives, while 918 soldiers' widows continue to draw pensions?

The old soldiers of the civil war are evidently in greater demand as husbands than the youngest and handsomest men. During the last five years the number of civil war invalids has decreased by 50,476, but there has been an increase of 27,457 widows, and the less the number of the pensioned the greater the amount of the total disbursements. What a demonstration of demagogism is made by this showing! Nothing would be easier than to stop the humbuggery of these adventuresses mocking at death, patriotism, love and decency, with their waving marriage certificates. —Ex.

The Chiefs of Police of North Carolina To Meet October 19th.

Raleigh is to be honored on October 19th by the annual meeting of the chiefs of police of the state. Referring to the plans for the meeting, the Asheville Citizen says:

"Chief of Police Jordan, of Asheville, who is secretary and treasurer of the state organization of chiefs of police, is today mailing to all members a notice of the annual meeting of the body at Raleigh on October 1st. The meeting of the chiefs of police at Raleigh next month will be the second annual gathering. The association was formed at Durham last year with the election of J. A. Woodall, of that place as president, and Chief Jordan, of Asheville, secretary and treasurer. In speaking of the approaching meeting of the chiefs the secretary and treasurer said that the indications pointed to a good attendance. He said that while the organization was scarcely well formed, that much good had already resulted and that still greater good would yet result from the annual gathering of North Carolina's chiefs of police."

Unthoughtful Disrespect.

The town of Wilson has a good mayor in the person of Hon. Doane Herring. The Wilson News almost daily heads its reports of the mayor's court: "Doane's Doings." In that the News does not mean to be disrespectful, but it is just the same. A mayor, in the trial of causes, is a judge, and is entitled to respect and dignity. Indeed, these things he must maintain if he would be effective in the discharge of that part of his duty.

The mayor of Raleigh is Hon. A. M. Powell, called Sandy Powell by some of his intimate friends. How would it look for the papers in Raleigh to report the mayor's court under the heading: "Sandy's Seance"? And how long could we keep out of jail if, when Judge M. H. Justice comes to town to hold court, we served the proceedings under "Mike's Matinee"?

A mayor is entitled to as much dignity and respect as a superior court judge, and newspapers and others should accord the same to him. He should so conduct himself as to command respect, and when he ceases to do so he should be removed from office — Raleigh Post.

Stop Thinking of Yourself.

Thousands of people are out of good positions and cannot keep good places when they get them because of the weakness of oversensibilities. Many a good business man has been kept back or even ruined by his quickness to take offense or to resent fancied slight. Oversensitiveness, whether in man or woman, is really an exaggerated form of self-consciousness. It is far removed from conceit or self-esteem, yet it causes one's own personality to overshadow everything else. A sensitive person feels that whatever he does, wherever he goes or whatever he says he is the center of observation. He imagines that people are criticising his movements, making fun at his expense or analyzing his character when they are probably not thinking of him at all. He does not realize that other people are too busy and too much interested in themselves and in other things to devote to him any of their time beyond what is absolutely necessary. When he thinks they are aiming remarks at him, putting slights upon him or trying to hold him up to the ridicule of others they may not be even conscious of his presence. A man who appreciates himself at his true value and who gives his neighbors credit for being at least as good as he is cannot be a victim of oversensitiveness. —Colorado Springs Telegraph.

From 148 to 92 Pounds

One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep seated on the lungs causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 148 to 92 lbs. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

A Power For Good

The pills that are potent in their action and pleasant in effect are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. W. S. Philpot, of Albany, Ga., says: "During a bilious attack I took one. Small as it was it did me more good than calomel, blue mass or any other pill I ever took and at the same time the effect was pleasant. Little Early Risers are certainly an ideal pill." BENSONIZER LUNG CURE

NO MORE EXILE FOR CONSUMPTIVES.

A Cure at Last Obtained, After a Searching Investigation, by St. Louis Interests.

A few months ago the attention of a few scientific and philanthropic gentlemen of St. Louis was directed to an entirely new method of combating that most dreadful of all diseases, tuberculosis, commonly called consumption. Out of 115 test cases, 77 were completely cured and 28 have shown such improvement that their ultimate recovery is but a question of a few weeks.

So astonishing have been the results and absolute cures in cases pronounced incurable by all old methods that a company has been formed and is now prepared to furnish at a normal cost this cure to all sufferers of the "White Plague." One of its chief features is that patients can remain at home, surrounded by friends and relatives, and in a great many instances, especially the incipient or early stages of the disease, pursue their daily vocations and still become completely cured.

Patients receiving the same treatment here in St. Louis have completely recovered as rapidly as those in Colorado, New Mexico and Texas. The wonderful results in question have been accomplished by the Bensonizer, and the company which controls this marvelous medical device have located their main office at 417 North Seventh street, St. Louis. They have also located a factory on Easton avenue and a laboratory has been built at Hillside, Mo. The cure will be known as the Bensonizer Lung Cure, and Mr. C. P. Benson, the discoverer of the fluid inhalants which are used, will personally have charge of the affairs of the company. Mr. Benson will personally meet all who call at the office of the company on Seventh street, and will answer all communications from sufferers who are unable to make a personal call.—From the St. Louis Globe Democrat.

HE OBEYED ORDERS.

After They Had Been Interpreted by His Ingenious Piances.

A smart young officer belonging to a cavalry corps in India was sent on sick leave to the convalescent station of Simla and while recovering his health among the hills there was robbed of his heart and in return captivated the charming thief. The young fellow proposed and was accepted, and with all possible dispatch the wedding day was fixed. But the colonel of the expectant bridegroom's regiment was strongly opposed to the lieutenant marrying and telegraphed an unwelcome "Join at once" to the amorous sub.

The chagrined soldier handed the peremptory message to his fair one. She glanced at it and then, with a becoming blush of sweet simplicity, remarked:

"I am more than glad, dear, that your colonel so approves of your choice, but what a hurry he is in for the wedding! I don't think I can be ready quite so soon, but I'll try, for, of course, the colonel must be obeyed."

"But you don't seem to understand the telegram, sweetheart," said the lieutenant. "It upsets every plan we have made. You see, he says 'Join at once.'"

"Certainly he does, dear," replied the lady, looking up with an arch smile, "but it is you who don't seem to understand it. When the colonel says 'join at once,' what does he mean but get married immediately? What else, indeed, can he possibly mean?"

"What else, indeed, darling?" delightedly exclaimed the ardent lover, rejoicing in the new reading, which he received with the utmost alacrity. So forty-eight hours had scarcely passed before the colonel received the following: "Your orders have been carried out. We were joined at once."—London World.

Not Very Interesting.

"Doctor," said the man who seemed to be cherishing a case of asthma, "you have doubtless read and heard of cases where a perfectly well man has developed a disease simply because somebody made him believe he had it?"

"Dozens of them," was the reply. "Then you must believe imagination plays a great part in disease?"

"Of course I do."

"Did you ever know of the imagination being appealed to to develop smallpox, for instance?"

"I did. I once made a perfectly healthy and sound man believe that he had smallpox, and he had as pretty a case of it as one ever saw. All came from his imagination, sir."

"It must have been an interesting experiment?"

"Not so very. I attended him for six weeks, and then it was his turn."

"How do you mean?"

"Why, he made me imagine he had paid me a forty-five dollar doctor bill, and I have never been able to get a cent out of him since."

Defending His Hens.

It was commonly said of Silas Boggs that after he had talked on any subject for awhile he "got so wound up he didn't know which way he was facing."

"Do those three old Plymouth Rocks o' yours do much besides scratching up the neighbors' gardens?" demanded an irate citizen of Centerby one day. Mr. Boggs looked at him with mild reproach.

"Them three hens?" he said quickly. "Why, they don't scratch, not to amount to anything; they like to walk round here and there and kind o' feel the ground, but I don't believe they've ever hurt a flower seed; no, sir, or anyway not excepting where there was so many planted they actually needed thinning out. And as for laying eggs, why, there ain't a hen hereabouts I'll wager that can beat 'em on size. Why, that biggest one, sir, she'll lay eggs as big as—as big as hailstones, right along. You can believe me or not, jest as you choose!"—Youth's Companion.

LETTER TO SMITH & HOOKER.

Greenville, N. C.

Dear Sir: The Fair Ground buildings, Cobleskill, N. Y., were painted Devos last year.

Two other paint agent said the job would take 150 gallons (their price was 15 cents less a gallon.)

Our agent said not over 125.

It took 115. We saved 'em at least $140 on paint and labor.

The American House, Tannersville, N. Y., was painted two coats last year; not Devos.

Mr. Charles Hauser, across the street, put on one coat Devos.

Mr. Wiltse (American House) is sorry he didn't paint Devos. Hauser's one coat was better than Wiltse's two.

Depends on the paint.

Yours truly,

F. W. DEVOS & Co.
