BIG PIANO PURCHASE. 50 STIEFFS—BARNAU COLLEGE.

Gainesville, Ga., May 16, 1904
 Chas. M. Stieff, 9 Liberty St., Baltimore, Md.
 Dear Sir: I beg to enclose you an order properly executed for the purchase of fifty (50) Stieff Pianos, to be delivered at Brenau Conservatory, Gainesville, Ga. This will equip the Conservatory with Stieff Pianos exclusively, with the exception of one Concert Grand which we have on hand. When I began to investigate pianos with a view of taking out all and putting in an entirely new supply, the Stieff came to my notice. I have studied pianos closely during the last ten years and have purchased ninety instruments in that time. After visiting the factories in a number of cities, I inspected your plant in Baltimore. I felt sure that no factory in the United States was better equipped to produce a strictly high-grade piano than the Stieff factory. We have had one of your instruments in the Conservatory for one year, and have tested the tone, quality and mechanical construction. After thoroughly testing it for eight or ten hours per day, I have placed an order for fifty new Stieff Pianos. I find the action of this piano in every way desirable to the artist and to the student. While the cost of your piano is considerably more than I have to pay for others, it has greater merits, and I considered them very best none too good for Brenau Conservatory. I take pleasure in saying that after we have secured the pianos ordered all of our practice rooms, both for teachers and students, will be supplied with your excellent instruments. Yours very truly,
 A. W. VANHOOS.

Rarest display of these artistic pianos now on at Greenville, N. C., direct from the factory at factory prices. Terms to suit.
 G. C. FINEMAN, Factory Representative.

WINTERVILLE ITEMS

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Oct. 5. Jerome McGlohon, of Reaston, stopped at L. L. Kittrells Sunday. J. R. Smith, of Ayden, was in town Tuesday.

J. M. Blow, of Ayden, was here Saturday.

Felix Pitman, of Klinton, was here Tuesday.

A. P. Lunceford was here Tuesday.

Harvey Cox and C. A. Fair, of Ayden, were here Sunday.

Miss Minnie Hardee, of Greenville, spent Sunday with Miss Mary Smith.

Miss Tessie Speight, of Reaston, was a visitor at L. L. Kittrell's Sunday.

W. B. Wingate carried 1,255 pounds of seed cotton to the Pitt Co. Oil Mills gins and got a bale of cotton weighing 518 pounds. For 1,425 pounds he got a 562 pound bale. He knows how to raise good cotton and no gin can make a better turnout.

Everything in Winterville seems to be growing. The A. G. Cox Mfg. Co. are now building to their shop an addition 66x36 feet, two stories high. The Winterville Mfg. Co.'s shop is also undergoing repairs, a new church and six or eight new houses are being built. The merchants are all doing a good business, most of the farmers who have their cotton ginned here are carrying it back home waiting for higher prices. And every many that will work can get all he can do. It is the most progressive town in the state, to its age. A list of our industries would take up too much of your space.

Last Sunday was the anniversary of some important events in the lives of some of our Winterville people, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Cox, celebrated their silver wedding. Mrs. Louisa Cox was 75 years old and Mrs. Pollie Smith 78.

RESOLUTIONS OF SYMPATHY.

Winterville Council, No. 37, Jr. O. U. A. M.

Whereas God in His infinite mercy has seen fit to visit the home of our faithful brother, John E. Cooper, and carry home the sweet little baby, Vere-a, therefore be it resolved,

1st. That while we cannot understand why this precious little life was cut off so soon yet we know that our heavenly Father knoweth and doeth all things well and that some day we may understand.

2nd. That we extend to the grief-stricken parents our tenderest sympathy and commend them to Him who alone can comfort, and pray that God may bestow upon them His richest blessings until they shall meet around His throne.

3rd. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the parents, a copy be sent to THE REFLECTOR and a copy be placed upon our minutes.

Winterville Council, No. 37 Jr. O. U. A. M.

Whereas, God in His infinite wisdom has seen fit to call from labor to reward the wife of our devoted brother, Wilfred Buck, therefore be it resolved,

1st. That while we do not understand why this devoted wife and mother should be taken yet we bow in humble submission to Him who hath given and only claimed His own.

2nd. The community, the town, the church and her home have lost a devoted Christian woman. We mourn her loss, feel her absence, but thank God that her Christian influence still lives.

3rd. That we extend to her sorrowing husband and children our most profound sympathy and pray that God may comfort them and bestow upon them His richest blessings and benedictions, and prepare them for the meeting around His throne.

4th. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to her husband a copy to THE EASTERN REFLECTOR and a copy spread upon our minutes.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, OCTOBER 5, 1904.

Judge R. B. Peebles has brought more disfavor upon himself. The Superior court clerk of Warren county tendered his resignation because of ill health. Mr. J. R. Rodwell, who was deputy clerk, made application for the office, and the power of filling the vacancy was vested in Judge Peebles. It seems that Mr. Rodwell was not a supporter of Judge Peebles in the convention that nominated him for judge over ex-Judge F. D. Winston, and he did not get the appointment as clerk. Wanting some excuse for not appointing him Judge Peebles accused Mr. Rodwell of being a defaulter and said he would regard it a crime to appoint such a man to office. This effort to blight the character of an honest man aroused the just indignation of the people of Warren county who knew and honored Mr. Rodwell, and it has not tended to change the already poor opinion people in other sections of the state had of Judge Peebles.

Between the speakings and the fairs this month the people need not get dull.

BENEFACTOR'S DAY AT TRINITY COLLEGE.

DURHAM, N. C., October 3, 1904. Today was a holiday at Trinity college known as Benefactor's day. This evening ex-Governor T. J. Jarvis, of Greenville, delivered the address of the evening in the Craven Memorial Hall.

Governor Jarvis delivered the address at the laying of the corner stone of the first building erected on Trinity college campus about fourteen years ago. At that time he called upon the Methodist of North Carolina, of every age and station, to rally to the support of the situation and build such a school as should be a credit to the Methodism of North Carolina. This evening he congratulated all concerned on the wonderful achievements made by Trinity college since that time.

His address was directed mainly to the young men, and the messages that he brought were these two: Live the life of service, and never be satisfied with anything but the highest round of success. Governor Jarvis amplified and enlarged these two themes, and pointed out in glowing terms the nobility of the life of service, the difficulties that stand in the way of success, the moderate measure of success with which some are contented, and the grandeur of complete and total success. His address was timely and thoughtful, and with his living personality produced a splendid effect upon his audience.

At the conclusion of the address President Kilgo read the list of donors for the year just closed. The amount of donations was something over one hundred and thirty thousand dollars.

A Bit of Enterprise.

A man with an observant eye noticed a bit of enterprise at Rockingham when the John Robinson circus was there the other day. The only field that suited the showmen as a location for their tents was one filled with cotton ready to pick. So what did the show folks do but buy the cotton on the land, as well as rent the ground. Then several hundred men were put to work picking cotton until the field was cleared and the staple saved. Now this story is vouched for strongly. - Charlotte Observer.

How the Trusts Strike every Home in the Country.

The tariff question is a business proposition that concerns every man, woman and child, for it taxes the average home $110 a year, or more than one-tenth of the average family's total income. There is an average of one and one-eighth tenths earners in the average home. These contribute thirty days' labor each, or fifty-four days' labor a year to the tariff-tax collectors. If this $110 went as honest taxes to our government to meet necessary expenditures, no fault would be found, though the tax would be considered extremely high. But only a very small part of this $110 can be classed as legitimate taxes. By far the greater part goes to million and billion dollar tariff trusts and monopolies, which thrive now as never before in this country. These greedy trusts levy a tribute of $94 a year upon the average home, while the government collects an average of about $15 a year in tariff taxes; the collection last year amounted to $3.49 per capita, or $16.52 per family of 4.7 persons. Do the heads of these 17,000,000 families, the voters, knowingly and willingly donate $94 a year to the hundreds of trusts? Do they love these trusts more than they love their wives and children? If not, why should they vote to give this $94 to trusts that do not need it rather than to keep the $94 for their own families, who do need it? An extra $94 a year would mean much to the average family in the way of better food, clothing and education. A vote for the Democratic party means a vote to dispense with this additional tax.—Ex.

THREE JURORS CURED

Of Cholera Morbus with One Small Bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Mr. G. W. Fowler of Hightower, Ala., relates an experience he had while serving on a petit jury in a murder case at Edwardsville, county seat of Cleburne county, Alabama. He says: "While there I ate some fresh meat and some soured meat and it gave me cholera morbus in a very severe form. I was never more sick in my life and sent to the drug store for a certain cholera mixture, but the druggist sent me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy instead, saying that he had what I sent for, but that this medicine was so much better he would rather send it to me in the fix I was in. I took one dose of it and was better in five minutes. The second dose cured me entirely. Two fellow jurors were afflicted in the same manner and one small bottle cured the three of us." For sale at Wooten's Drug Store.

From 145 to 92 Pounds

One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep-seated on the lungs causing pneumonia; is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 145 to 92 lbs. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

A Power For Good

The pills that are potent in their action and pleasant in effect are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. W. S. Philpot, of Albany, Ga., says: "During a bilious attack I took one. Small as it was it did me more good than calomel, blue mass or any other pill I ever took and at the same time the effect was pleasant. Little Early Risers are certainly an ideal pill." Sold by Wooten's Drug Store.
