EXCLUSIVELY IN SALEM ACADEMY AND COLLEGE.

REV. J. H. CLEWELL, Ph. D., Principal.

WINSTON SALEM, N. C., March 9th., 1904.

Mr. Chas. M. Stieff, Charlotte, N. C.,

Dear Sir:—It is a little unusual to file an order this late in the season, but we find that the more Steiff Pianos which we add to our music department, the better the results attained in the work. We have added quite a number of your instruments during the last few years, and they have all given good satisfaction. It requires a piano of unusual merit for the constant use which all practice pianos have within our school, but we are glad to be able to say that your instruments have stood the test, and we will continue to purchase from your firm from time to time as the need arises.

I think there are about a dozen now in the school.

J. H. CLEWELL, Principal.

A rare and magnificent display of these pianos can now be seen and heard at Greenville, at lowest factory prices and easiest terms. We also have on the floor several slightly used upright pianos at prices ranging from $175.00 to $225.00. Each instrument is guaranteed for 10 years.

We also have a fine display of organs at surprising low figures ranging in price from

A. C. L. DOUBLE DAILY SERVICE.

An Effort to Get Coast Line to Put on Another Train to Reach Kinston in the Forenoon.

The business people and all citizens of this city will be interested to know that an effort is being made to get the Atlantic Coast Line to put on another train on the Scotland Neck branch, to reach this city in the forenoon and return to Hobgood in the afternoon. This will give the people along this road a double daily service in passenger and freight traffic that is much needed and if done will prove a great benefit to Kinston in many ways.

The advantages to be derived from the double daily service are many, among them, it will put in closer touch with Kinston the people along this line and enable them to come to our city and transacting their business return home the same day. This of course will turn to Kinston a large volume of trade that now goes elsewhere. Another advantage is that freight from Norfolk and the north will reach Kinston 26 to 30 hours sooner than now, besides remedying the manifestly inadequate facility for handling the freight on this branch of the road.

A great many other benefits and advantages will inure from this increased service, but folks don't get things just so, and it's up to our business men to get together and ask of the railroad officials this thing.

The Free Press is in a position to state that the officials would more than likely act favorably on the request if made with the proper backing. That would be the chamber of commerce, the Free Press suggests, hold a meeting and make the request formally and officially.

There is no doubt but the business men and citizens generally, of the city, are in favor of the proposition and the time to act is NOW.—Kinston Free Press.

A little more than two years ago Greenville was interested in a movement of this kind. THE REFLECTOR at that time sent strong petitions from the business men of Greenville, Winterville, Ayden and Grifton to the railroad officials asking for the double daily service and Capt. W. H. Newell, of the Coast Line came here for a conference about it. At the time it looked like the petitions would be complied with and the double service put on, but for some reason the matter was sidetracked.

The needs of such a service and the benefit it will bring to all the towns along this branch of the road is apparent to every one, and the railroad would also increase its own business by putting it on. The merchants association of Greenville should at once take steps to cooperate with the merchants of Kinston in the movement to get the double service. If all the towns along the road will work together for it we believe it can be secured.

Some Improvements.

W. B. Greene is having a porch built around the front of his residence on Dickinson avenue.

J. A. Andrews is having his residence on Greene street newly painted.

A good crowd attended the opening play of the Elwell Winthrop company, Monday night, and greatly enjoyed it. Entire change of program tonight.

C. S. Nealy, Omaha—Rheumatism and kidney troubles have entirely left me. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea made me well and strong. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Wooten's Drug Store.

AYDEN ITEMS.

AYDEN N. C., Oct. 11, 1904.

Misses Nancy Coward and Eula Cox returned to Greenville yesterday.

R. F. Johnson has come home from a visit to his parents.

Mr. Morrison, of Hyde county, has been here to see his brother, who has been sick with fever.

Lil Cannon has joined the happy gang. He is now one of the boys.

W. L. House, of Winterville, was here Sunday afternoon.

The Raleigh Post man has been canvassing our town for several days.

Everett and Joe Stroud spent Friday in Greenville.

J. R. Godley, of Chowhnty, was here last week.

E. G. Cox has been at Asheville for the past week in attendance upon a meeting of the Prudential Insurance company.

There are very many pretty horses to be seen on our streets, driven by our livery men, every day. This with the new life infused by the fall season, certainly makes Ayden a bustling and a bustling town.

J. J. B. Cox, of Grifton, was here a short while Saturday.

Registration books are now open. Those who have not registered for the coming election have from now until the 25th to do so. J. A. Harrington is registrar.

Misses Mary Hodges, Delia Smith, Mattie McLawhorn, Annie Lee Perry and Sallie Cox attended the teachers' meeting in Greenville Saturday.

L. McCullen and family came from Norfolk Saturday and left at once to visit friends in Greene county.

Arch Forbes was here Saturday and H. A. White Monday.

Messrs. Mangum and Brinkley, of Greenville, were discussing the "filthy weed" on our streets Saturday.

The infant child of J. S. Ross died last Saturday evening and was buried in the cemetery Sunday afternoon. Rev. W. E. Cox, of Greenville, conducted the funeral services.

There were services in the Baptist church Sunday morning and evening, Rev. Mr. King preaching on both occasions. Sunday evening Rev. W. E. Cox conducted services in the Episcopal church.

There were several of our friends from Winterville here to attend services Sunday.

Miss Lizzie McGowan, of Greenville, is visiting the Misses Bland.

Miss May Anderson is on a visit to friends in Beaver Dam township.

Sid Moore went to Kinston Sunday and returned Monday.

Miss Helen Cox spent the Sabbath in Winterville.

DR. GRIMES A DEMOCRAT.

Bethel, N. C., Oct. 10, 1904.

EDITOR REFLECTOR:

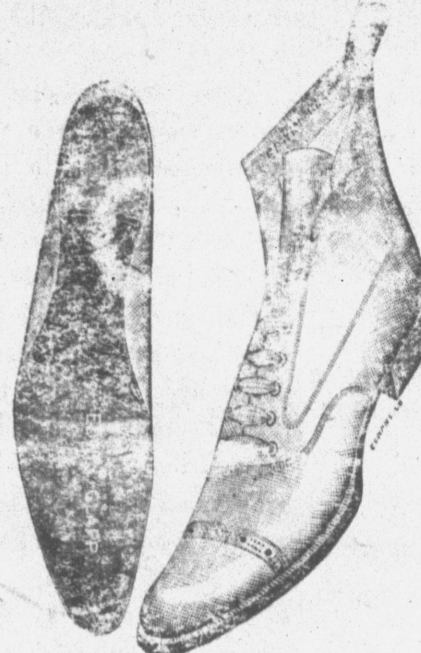

Kindly state to the public that the use of my name in the Populist convention was without my knowledge or consent—that I have had no sympathy with the movement since it fused with the Republican party and many of the leaders became identified with that party.

I can see nothing in the present movement except to weaken, to a very small degree, the Democratic party. I cannot under any circumstances help the Republican party, which has tried so hard to humiliate the southern white people.

I shall vote the Democratic ticket as I have always done, except at one election, and don't want any office under the sun.

R. J. GRIMES.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON, OCTOBER 11, 1904.

It is known by now that there were some diamonds in Asheville.

The automobile is making the highest percent of fatal accidents of any engine of travel.

If the fairs are only as fair as they are pictured in advance they will be better than in the past.

Sunday's Raleigh News and Observer sent out as a supplement a pretty lithograph picture of Judge Parker and his family.

Tom Watson, Populist nominee for president, has given the country a long letter of acceptance. He slaps at Parker and tickles Roosevelt.

Roosevelt's only gain is in avoirdupois. It is said he has claimed up to 212 pounds. Guess he will feel small enough after the 8th of November.

We cannot say what condition the farmers are in to hold their cotton, but there are plenty of predictions that it will sell for 12½ cents before another planting time comes.

THE COLONEL ON THE PIKE.

He is Taking in the Big Fair.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 8th, 1904.
EDITOR REFLECTOR:

When Uncle Sam, a few years ago, made that little deal of the Louisiana Purchase, some of the sap-head pessimists were disposed to make ugly faces and ugly remarks. In fact there is a record of some things not pious said. Well, they did not know what our old Uncle Sammy was looking out for. What a pity some of them are not here today, the greatest day of the fair—Chicago and Maine day. Sorry they are not.

I am more profoundly glad and proud of being an American than ever before in my short life. This is a great occasion for America, and all nations are here doing homage to Uncle Sam. If the Phillipines and Hawaii turn out as well as the little deal made 100 years ago, then there is luck in dealing in real estate, even from the home base. Had the St. Louis world's fair taken place in 1859 or 60 the war between the states would never have been.

Everybody is here, everybody is in good humor, all brothers and sisters in the same household of faith. This is the greatest nation this side of sundown, and no one will dispute it if he comes to St. Louis this month. In fact there is too much here, for all Americans want to see and know at once—and it simply can't be done. A fellow with an American inquiring mind gets tired too quick in trying to take it all in. I get breakfast and get back to my room at—well, after supper, and then I know how tired I am.

The Pike, the Pike, Oh, the Pike! From 6:30 to 12 a radiance of splendor and a throbbing mob of humanity—men and women, sweet hearts and old maids, widows and widowers, rushing, pushing, scrambling to take it all in. I took in Hades yesterday from start to finish, and it is a huge fake just like I expected. There are many other fakes but many, very many, fine things worth the money. I have seen my money's worth if I stop now—but I am here to see and am seeing all that there is and having a right good time for an "old colt."

A fine specimen of man and womanhood are here and in great numbers—all sorts and kinds of men and women—and when the thinking man takes it seriously his heart swells with emotion and says three cheers for America, the only nation in the galaxy.

North Carolina seems to be the poorest state here from the amount of show she makes in the exterior, but don't forget when the awards are made the old North State will be ahead of the hounds. The "State of Pitt" and Greenville is advertised more than any other county to the passer by. There is a big tablet on the old cabin that is under the dome telling that we are the biggest growers of bright tobacco in the world. I heard a fellow with his girl say in passing, "Where is Pitt?" I proceeded to tell them in my own particular style, and when I was through they asked me if I owned the county. I told them yes, for the time being.

Well, if I tell you all I know I won't have anything to say next time, so good bye. Put oh, the Pike, the Pike, the Pike.

I. A. Stagg.

About A Little Girl.

There is a little girl in Coatesville, Pa., whose peace of mind has been disturbed for a day or two, and who will not be quite herself again until she has had an interview with her Sunday school teacher. The little girl, aged ten, and her sister, aged six, were playing in the barn yard. An angry bull rushed upon them and tossed the smaller child into the air. Fortunately she fell on a pile of straw and was not hurt. The bull started to toss her again, when the larger girl seized a pitchfork and jabbed it into his nose with her strength, at the same time exclaiming, "Take that, d— you." The bull "took that," and it hurt him so badly that he ran away and let the children alone. "My gracious, I'm sorry I swore; what will my Sunday school teacher say?" said the little girl through her tears, as she told her mother about it. The mother, appreciating the brave act, told her it didn't matter. But the little girl insists that she must tell the teacher she "swore" and ask her forgiveness.

Judge Robinson in a Box.

If Judge Robinson, of Goldsboro, is as good as his word, and those who know him know that he is, he will not vote for Roosevelt. In a joint discussion with Congressman Thomas last week the Judge declared that if Roosevelt ever said that there was a streak of coarse brutality running through Southern blood he would not vote for him. See Benton's Life, Judge Robinson, and the statement will be found in print large enough to read. So what is he going to do about it. He has put his foot in it again and the only thing we see for him to do is to come out and vote for Parker. He certainly won't vote for Roosevelt if he keeps his word. The Raleigh Post thinks Judge Robinson will be a pretty good Democrat by the next election.—Wilmington Dispatch.

From 148 to 92 Pounds

One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep-seated on the lungs causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 148 to 92 lbs. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

Fearful Odds Against Him

Bedridden, alone and destitute. Such, in brief was the condition of an old soldier by name of J. J. Haven, Versailles, C. For years he was troubled with Kidney disease and neither doctors nor medicines gave him relief. At length he tried Electric Bitters. It put him on his feet in short order and now he testifies: "I'm on the road to recovery." Best on earth for Liver and Kidney troubles and all forms of Stomach and Bowel Complaints. Only 50c Guaranteed by J. L. Wooten, druggist. *

What is Life?

In the last analysis nobody knows, but we do know that it is under strict law. Abuse that law even slightly, pain results. ### NOTES FROM BETHEL.

BETHEL, N. C., Oct. 10th, 1904.
Dr. James' new drug store and office on corner of Pleasant and Main streets will soon be completed. Theodore Britton, has gone to the exposition at St. Louis. There he will meet his brother, Tom, from Texas.
Captain Hill is visiting friends here.

Miss Geneva Andrews is visiting Miss Lizzie Beverly in the country.
Mrs. F. C. James has been quite ill for some time.

Miss Dorothy Johnson and S. T. Everett of Robersonville are visiting the Misses Beverly near town.
Little Don, son of J. H. Bryan passed to his home of rest yesterday.

Some of the elderly gentlemen, near Bethel, think that it is not good for man to live alone. It seems, also, that they have been successful in persuading the opposite sex that it is not good for woman to be alone.

R. D. Whitehurst will erect a new brick store on Railroad street beside the new one now in course of construction.

Misses Mann, Grimes and Mayo and Prof. Everett, of the Bethel graded school, attended the teachers association of Pitt county at Greenville, Saturday. Miss Nelson was on the sick list and could not attend.

The Law and Order League will meet in Carson Hall Friday evening at 7:30, Oct 14. Come and help.
Rev. J. E. Hocutt has returned from the association and preached at the Baptist church Sunday.

W. Vincent left today for Winterville, where he will take a position with his uncle. He has been with Mr. Blount some time and has made many friends here. We regret to lose a young man of such excellent qualities.

GREENVILLE'S GREAT DEPARTMENT STORE.

OUR SHOE STORE

IS A VERY INTERESTING PLACE

We claim to have the largest and most complete stock of Shoes in this town. We are now showing large variety of styles in the best makes for Men, Women, Children and Infants. We can't tell you much about them in this space, but we want to call your attention to the famous

Ralston Health Shoes For Men.

All of the Style and the most Comfort

Ralston
HEALTH
Shoes $4.
UNION MADE

It is easy enough to cry "Best" but that which convinces is the test. We make strong claims for this Shoe, and ask a trial that our claims may be proven. We claim a unique, common sense sole construction, found in no other shoe. A system of last modeling which makes a shoe that fits the foot as nature intended.

We also claim that while quality of material and workmanship may possibly be equaled, they cannot be excelled at the price, and that as good a shoe cannot be made and is not sold for less.

They are, however, the tangible results of many years study of the highly complex needs of the human foot. They appeal to common sense and warrant a trial by every one who desires foot comfort and good service combined.
