ACADEMY AND COLLEGE.

REV. J. H. CLEWELL, Ph. D., Principal.

WINSTON SALEM, N. C., March 9th., 1904.

Mr. Chas. M. Stieff, Charlotte, N. C.,

Dear Sir:—It is a little unusual to file an order this late in the season, but we find that the more Steiff Pianos which we add to our music department, the better the results attained in the work. We have added quite a number of your instruments during the last few years, and they have all given good satisfaction. It requires a piano of unusual merit for the constant use which all practice pianos have within our school, but we are glad to be able to say that your instruments have stood the test, and we will continue to purchase from your firm from time to time as the need arises.

I think there are about a dozen now in the school.

J. H. CLEWELL, Principal.

A rare and magnificent display of these pianos can now be seen and heard at Greenville, at lowest factory prices and easiest terms. We also have on the floor several slightly used upright pianos at prices ranging from $175.00 to $225.00. Each instrument is guaranteed for 10 years.

We also have a fine display of organs at surprising low figures ranging in price from a tune. $35.00 and up. They are fully guaranteed.

This factory sale will positively close before many more days, when factory prices will promptly withdrawn, and if you have any earthly use for either piano or organ it will pay you to take a look around. When in Greenville Miss Bessie Patrick, who is associated with us during our stay here, will be glad to give you

CHAS. M. STIEFF.

G. G. FINEMAN, Factory Representative.

TWO ABLE SERMONS.

One to Young Men Especially Fine.

Rev. J. T. Jenkins, of Wilson, one of the state's most gifted preachers, delighted the Baptist congregation Sunday with two as good sermons as were ever delivered in Greenville. The morning sermon was addressed to Christians. The tribute to character was masterfully presented, while the appeal for purity of life was heart searching.

The service at night was under the auspices of the Baraca class. A large and appreciative congregation listened to the eloquent and stirring words of Mr. Jenkins. The sermon was taken from the 9th verse of the 119th Psalm: "Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way? by taking heed thereto according to thy word."

The speaker said in part "the thrilling history of heroic conquest is the history of youth. Almost everything that is great is done in youth." To verify these statements he mentioned many examples that beautify the pages of history.

Young men, said he, should possess high aims, with an unwavering and an unmovable courage and firmness. God has ordained that you must pay the price would you wear the laurel; would you unlock the portals of life you must turn the key. Toil, labor, conflict, these sanctify. The places where you wrought hardest become the brightest in memory. It takes time to build a character. Mushrooms grow in a night, in a night they die. Oaks grow for years, they stand for centuries.

"Heaven is not reached by a single bound, We build the ladder by which we rise

From the lonely earth to the vaulted skies;
And reach the summit round by round."

"The first and best of victories," says Plato, "is for a man to conquer himself; to be conquered by himself is of all things the most shameful and vile." After the speaker gave many examples from history and literature that failed to conquer self, he enforced another thought that if we would evolve ideals into realities we must be mindful of the problem of time. He who kills time must pay the penalty of failure. On the face of the great clock of time is but one word—NOW.

We should focalize our faculties upon a definite object. Not many things indifferently but one thing supremely is the demand of the hour. He who scatters his efforts in this intense concentrated age cannot hope to succeed.

There must be an iron will for facing difficulties. There is nothing impossible to him who will try. High ideals, concentration and determination will bring success.

After the speaker told the story of Creon, the Greek slave, who overcame all obstacles and became famous, the address was concluded thus: "To the noble youth of Greenville I would say, gather up the wasted fragments of your energies, place your feet upon the un-failing foundation, key up your courage with a noble purpose, and launch forth determined to succeed and though you may be branded for a time as a fanatic, you will succeed."

The congregation is under lasting obligations to the Baraca class for so delightful a service.

A woman can have a good time thinking what a good time she would have if she were having it.

Prognostications.

The Washington Post, after long commentary on what sort of weather we may expect during the imminent winter continues:

"The Charlotte Observer says: 'When you see an experienced sow scurrying around about sunset with her mouth full of straw, look out for cold weather.' The Jefferson Jimblecute stands by the time-honored proposition an early gathering of field rats in the corn crib means ice and a whole lot of it.

"As the esteemed Charlotte Observer admits, however, though after some dignified hesitation, the final verdict must be sought in the goose bone. Other augurs may fall down. Other clairvoyants and prophets may be discredited by acts. These shortcomings have been explained at various times and with more or less success. But the great heart of the people turns to the goose bone in the hour of incertitude, and what the country now demands is an oracle from that cave. Having no goose bone of our own, we appeal to the first wise acre who sees these lines. Is the winter of 1904-05 to be hard or soft?"

The Observer had as well commit itself: it is going to be a hard winter. Not only have we conferred with our goose bone and cast our eye up into the long-leaved pine to see it crowded with burrs, but we have noted the hickories and walnuts—how laden they are with nuts. Now, these are nature's provisions for the poor married man. Mild winters, when his children may fish or grable after buck-root, she lets them shift for themselves. But for hard winters she pulls off her hickories and walnuts. This is nature's way of encouraging matrimony.

We have not seen the experienced sow yet. She waits until the last moment to operate. You needn't expect to see her collecting straw and scurrying around until she thinks Senator Fairbanks is coming with his cold wave.—Charlotte Observer.

Paid the Cost and Were Vaccinated.

Saturday three colored men living on the north side of the river were arraigned before Justice H. Harding on warrant for refusing to be vaccinated. Each of the defendants plead guilty, and the judgment of the court was that they pay the cost and submit to vaccination. It is very unwise for a person needing it to refuse to be vaccinated when a physician goes to them for that purpose under the direction of the superintendent of health.

County Canvass.

The Democratic county candidates began their canvass last week, speaking at Fountain Friday and at Farmville Saturday. There were not many people out at Fountain, but a large crowd heard them at Farmville. The principal speakers among the candidates are the gentlemen upon the legislative ticket and these made good speeches.

MORE ABOUT THE FAIR

ST LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 14.
EDITOR REFLECTOR:

After many days—and you know one day is as a thousand years and a thousand years as one day—I am again talking to you. Where I left off with the first lesson I do not remember, but there are so many places where one can break off here and begin again it does not seem he has lost the thread, and if he has lost it he finds another one so easily, especially by paying from 5 cents to $5 that it does not make a great difference.

We, our party, are all alive and have escaped the fair grounds and especially the pike with whole bones, no accident occurring save the minus ducats that have gone hence no more.

We have a nice party to dinner at the Jefferson hotel today. Our party is composed of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hill and daughter, of Darden; Mr. M. Rosenthal, of Raleigh; Miss Flora Creach, Mrs. Peter Arrington (nee Miss Kate Pendleton, a niece of Mrs. Dr. Q'kagan), Edward Clark, I. J. Thomas, Jr., and my humble self last but not least. That we have maintained the reputation of the Tar Heel state goes without saying. They all are pleased and are glad to turn faces to the old North State. We leave for home at 8:40 tonight. Mr. and Mrs. Hill and daughter and myself will stop a day in Nashville on business. What that business—or mine—is will be known later.

I will not undertake in this chapter to write them up personally—I mean our party. They are all so beautifully splendid and clever that time and space forbid.

The fair grows bigger and bigger every day, and everybody has fallen in love with us and we with everybody. We have been given the post of honor on several occasions to our delight because we were representing the great old state of North Carolina, and all were proud of an opportunity to do her honor.

Of course I have seen all the fair and could tell it in brief if your paper was big enough and you had the patience to publish it, but then I would not have anything to tell you when I get home. Suffice it to say it is the biggest show on terra firma. No country will dare try to compete with this little effort of Uncle Sam in glorying over his past purchase. When we have expanded a little more and South and Central America are taken in, to say nothing of Canada, and Mexico who are waiting, of course, to come under the wing of Uncle Sam; and when our protectorate is established over Great Britain, then there will be another world's fair, gotten up to the genuine good taste of Uncle Sammy and his family. Of course I expect to take a part in that exposition, the date and place of which have not yet been fixed. Then you may look for a very large U. S. A. consolidated exposition fair. Don't laugh, it is coming, and then I shall be saying "I told you so," and you know that is not always pleasant to take.

All the nations of the world have done splendidly in this fair, but there will be a grand, eager distinction in coming to our next world's fair, that all will vie with each other in paying homage to "Uncle Sam."

Sorry to note General Ransom's sudden demise.

Hope all have missed us while away.

ISAAC A. SUGG

Professor Harding.

The many friends of the Charlotte schools will rejoice to learn that Mr. Harry P. Harding, the new principal of the north school is getting along well with his new work. The children and patrons of the school are delighted with him. He has already gotten the work well in hand, and has greatly endeared himself to the pupils.

The schools are doing a splendid work this year and especially is this true of the north school over which Mr. Harding has been placed. All interested in the school feel that he is the very man for the place.

It may be interesting in this connection to give a short account of Mr. Harding's teaching experience. He graduated at the University of North Carolina with the class of 1899, taking the A. B. course. During the next two years he was principal of the New Bern graded school. In the fall of 1901 he became Superintendent of the Oxford graded school. The next year he went back to New Bern becoming superintendent of the schools of which he had formerly been principal.

At all of these schools Mr. Harding has been very successful in his work, and left each place much to the regret of all the patrons.—Charlotte News.

Mule Colts Shipped to Gen. Ransom's Farm.

Wednesday the Henkel Live Stock Company shipped to Garysburg, Northampton county, 51 mule colts which will be placed on the late Gen. M. W. Ransom's farm.

Gen. Ransom contracted with the Henkel Live Stock Company before his death for a large number of mule colts. He expected to pasture them until they are old and strong enough for farm work. The colts range from four to six months old and were bought from different parts of the country. They sold for an average of $50 each.—Statesville Landmark.

"The political pot in New Jersey," said Robert Thom, of Jersey City, "has not been very hot until lately. Things are growing lively now. Apathy, which had been apparent, has at least given place among Democrats to hearty unity. I look for a sweeping victory for Parker and Davis and for Chas. C. Black, our candidate for governor."

Former President Cleveland gives as one of his reasons for his attachment to the Democratic party is its ever-enduring qualities. Even so. The Democratic party has not only lived down its own blunders, but outlived the successes of all other parties. It is because it has always been the only party of all the people.—Charlotte Observer.

BENSONIZER LUNG CURE

NO MORE EXILE FOR CONSUMPTIVES.

A Cure at Last Obtained, After a Searching Investigation, by St. Louis Interests.

A few months ago the attention of a few scientific and philanthropic gentlemen of St. Louis was directed to an entirely new method of combating that most dreadful of all diseases, tuberculosis, commonly called consumption. Out of 115 test cases, 77 were completely cured and 28 have shown such improvement that their ultimate recovery is but a question of a few weeks.

So astonishing have been the results and absolute cures in cases pronounced incurable by all old methods that a company has been formed and is now prepared to furnish at a normal cost this cure to all sufferers of the "White Plague." One of its chief features is that patients can remain at home, surrounded by friends and relatives, and in a great many instances, especially the incipient or early stages of the disease, pursue their daily vocations and still become completely cured.

Patients receiving the same treatment here in St. Louis have completely recovered as rapidly as those in Colorado, New Mexico and Texas. The wonderful results in question have been accomplished by the Bensonizer, and the company which controls this marvelous medical device have located their main office at 417 North Seventh street, St. Louis. They have also located a factory on Easton avenue and a laboratory has been built at Hillside, Mo. The cure will be known as the Bensonizer Lung Cure, and Mr. C. P. Benson, the discoverer of the fluid inhalants which are used, will personally have charge of the affairs of the company. Mr. Benson will personally meet all who call at the office of the company on Seventh street, and will answer all communications from sufferers who are unable to make a personal call. —From the St. Louis Globe Democrat.

THREE JURORS CURED

Of Cholera Morbus with One Small Bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Mr. G. W. Fowler of Hightower, Ala., relates an experience he had while serving on a petit jury in a murder case at Edwardsville, county seat of Cleburne county, Alabama. He says: "While there I ate some fresh meat and some soured meat and it gave me cholera morbus in a very severe form. I was never more sick in my life and sent to the drug store for a certain cholera mixture, but the druggist sent me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy instead, saying that he had what I sent for, but that this medicine was so much better he would rather send it to me in the fix I was in. I took one dose of it and was better in five minutes. The second dose cured me entirely. Two fellow jurors were afflicted in the same manner and one small bottle cured the three of us." For sale at Wooten's Drug Store.

A weak stomach weakens the man, because it cannot transform the food he eats into nourishment. Health and strength cannot be restored to any sick man or weak man without first restoring health and strength to the stomach. A weak stomach cannot digest enough food to feed the tissue and revive the tired and run down limbs and organs of the body. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat, cleanses and strengthens the glands and membranes of the stomach, and cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

Sour Stomach

When the quantity of food taken is too large or the quality too rich, sour stomach is likely to follow, and especially so if the digestion has been weakened by constipation. Eat slowly and not too freely of easily digested food. Masticate the food thoroughly. Let five hours elapse between meals, and when you feel a fullness and weight in the region of the stomach after eating, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the sour stomach may be avoided. LETTER TO G. E. HARRIS.

Greenville, N. C.

Dear Sir: It costs two or three times as much to put paint on as to buy it. A gallon of poor paint costs as much as a gallon of good, for the work; and a gallon of poor paint don't go half as far. Poor paint lasts half or a third or a quarter as long as good; and protects wood and iron a half or a third or quarter as well as good.

Do you buy good paint or poor? You don't know any too. Why, the market is full of it!

All Devco agents have a state chemist's certificate which tells just what's in Devco.

The Free Press congratulates the people of North Carolina and the Howland Improvement Company that Gov. Thomas J. Jarvis has been made a director of the company. Gov. Jarvis has always been closely identified with every movement for the upbuilding and development of this section, and in this capacity he can do much in that direction. His advice to the company will be invaluable and his efforts in behalf of the people along the line will do much toward promoting prosperity in this section.—Kinston Free Press.

A Power For Good

The pills that are potent in their action and pleasant in effect are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. W. S. Philpot, of Albany, Ga., says: "During a bilious attack I took one. Small as it was it did me more good than calomel, blue mass or any other pill I ever took and at the same time the effect was pleasant. Little Early Risers are certainly an ideal pill." Sold by Wootens Drug Store.

Quick Arrest

J. A. Gullidge of Verona, Ala was twice in the hospital from a severe case of piles causing 24 tumors. After doctors and all remedies failed, Bucklen's Arnica Salve quickly arrested further inflammation and cured him. It conquers aches and kills pain. 25c at Wootens drug Store.*

MOTICE OF DISSOLUTION.

C. T. Munford and Z. V. Johnson having sold to A. E. Tucker their entire interest in the firm of A. E. Tucker & Co. heretofore existing in the town of Greenville, N. C., the said firm is hereby dissolved by mutual consent from and after this date.

In the firm of dissolution the said A. E. Tucker takes all the accounts and assumes all the liabilities of said firm. All persons owing said firm will therefore make payment to said A. E. Tucker and all persons having claims against firm will present them to said A. E. Tucker for payment.

Witness our hand and signatures this Sept 17th 1904.

C. T. MUNFORD.

Z. V. JOHNSON.

Having purchased the entire interest of C. T. Munford and Z. V. Johnson in the firm of A. E. Tucker & Co., I will continue the business in my own name at the same place. I beg to thank our patrons for their favors and to solicit a continuation of the same. I shall endeavor to please those who favor me with their patronage and to make it to their advantage to come again.

All persons having claims against the old firm of A. E. Tucker & Co. will present them to me for payment and all persons owing the firm will make payment to me.

This Sept 17th 1904.

A. E. TUCKER.

We have sold our entire interest in the firm of A. E. Tucker & Co., who will continue the business at the same old stand and we take pleasure in commending him to the favor and patronage of the public.

This Sept 17th 1904.

C. T. MUNFORD.

GREENVILLE'S GREAT DEPARTMENT STORE.

OUR SHOE STORE IS A VERY INTERESTING PLACE

We claim to have the largest and most complete stock of Shoes in this town. We are now showing large variety of styles in the best makes for Men, Women, Children and Infants. We can't tell you much about them in this space, but we want to call your attention to the famous Ralston Health Shoes For Men.

All of the Style and the most Comfort

Ralston
HEALTH
UNION MADE

It is easy enough to cry "Best" but that which convinces is the test. We make strong claims for this Shoe, and ask a trial that our claims may be proven. We claim a unique, common sense sole construction, found in no other shoe. A system of last modeling which makes a shoe that fits the foot as nature intended.

We also claim that while quality of material and workmanship may possibly be equalled, they cannot be excelled at the price, and that as good a shoe cannot be made and is not sold for less.

They are, however, the tangible results of many years study of the highly complex needs of the human foot. They appeal to common sense and warrant a trial by every one who desires foot comfort and good service combined.
