EXCLUSIVELY IN SALEM ACADEMY AND COLLEGE.

REV. J. H. CLEWELL, Ph. D., Principal.

WINSTON SALEM, N. C., March 9th., 1904.

Mr. Chas. M. Stieff, Charlotte, N. C., Dear Sir:—It is a little unusual to file an order this late in the season, but we find that the more Steiff Pianos which we add to our music department, the better the results attained in the work. We have added quite a number of your instruments during the last few years, and they have all given good satisfaction. It requires a piano of unusual merit for the constant use which all practice pianos have within our school, but we are glad to be able to say that your instruments have stood the test, and we will continue to purchase from your firm from time to time as the need arises.

I think there are about a dozen now in the school.
J. H. CLEWELL, Principal.

A rare and magnificent display of these pianos can now be seen and heard at Greenville, at lowest factory prices and easiest terms. We also have on the floor several slightly used upright pianos at prices ranging from $175.00 to $225.00. Each instrument is guaranteed for 10 years. We also have a fine display of organs at surprising low figures ranging in price from $35.00 and up. They are fully guaranteed.

CHAS. M. STIEFF.

AYDEN ITEMS.

AYDEN N. C., Oct. 28, 1904.
Another spoke in the wheel of prosperity. The Ayden Milling and Manufacturing Company have commenced the erecting of a large two story brick building in which to separate their electric light plant. They have contracted for a dynamo, four times as large as the one now in use, with twelve hundred light power. Many more wires will be run out and the whole system greatly enlarged. They have purchased another 150 horse power engine making three large engines in operation. The success of this company is truly wonderful, composed of men of great energy and all the capital at their command necessary for such an enterprise. Turning out only the best work, always guaranteeing satisfaction they have merited a patronage which they have justly received and it is increasing every day. This enterprise is a credit to Ayden.

For the past few days several parties have been here prospecting for the purpose of location, with the result that right much real estate has changed hands, more capital circulated in our midst and the encouraging prospect of our population being greatly increased. This is as it should be and if proper means are used the effect will be amazing. Let capital loose. J. J. Stroud went to Washington Tuesday.

Miss Letha McLawhon has been visiting in Greenville.

Mrs. Blanche Weeks, of Scotland Neck, who has been visiting relatives here has returned home.

W. L. Tucker and I. J. McLawhon returned from the Federal court at New Bern Tuesday.

Ben Sheppard is in Ayden.

W. E. Hooks returned yesterday from a business trip to Fremont, Raleigh and Greensboro.

The cool snap makes a fellow feel good.

Miss May Anderson has returned from quite a long visit to Farmville.

B. F. Early is back from Bertie.

Prof. W. H. Bagnsdale was here from Greenville inspecting the graded schools.

Cam Nobles has come home from LaGrange.

Ab Horton, of Norfolk, is in town.

We are glad to see J. J. Hines on the street after his long sickness.

For 2 or 3 ply paper roofing see J. R. Smith & Bro.

William Phillips has gone to Norfolk to return with his wife who has been there in a hospital for treatment. We are pleased to learn Mrs. Phillips is very much improved.

R. F. Johnson has returned from a business trip to Richmond.

Joseph McLawborn went to and returned from Goldsboro Tuesday.

Those of our towns people who attended the Christian convention have about all come home from Washington.

C. M. Holton has been visiting in Washington.

Wednesday evening at the home of the bride, Mr. Charles Manning and Miss Mary Dennis were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, Squire J. J. Stokes officiating. Mr. Manning will pull the scales at about 120 pounds, while his charming bride will balance them at something over 100 pounds. We wish them a long and happy life.

Reuben Wall has come home from attending court at New Bern.

Cotton comes in slowly and the buyers are having an easy time.

Money doesn't always lead to happiness, but it helps in the search very materially.

Mrs. W. F. Harding Dead.

The sad intelligence reached here by wire that Mrs. Lillian Harding, wife of Mr. W. F. Harding, of Charlotte, died at 2 o'clock this morning in the hospital at Salisbury. She was formerly Miss Lillian Long, of Chapel Hill, and was married to Mr. Harding in December, 1899. After marriage they lived in Greenville a little more than two years. Mr. Harding's home being here at that time, and then moved to Charlotte. Mrs. Harding was recently taken to the hospital in Salisbury for treatment and letters received here since then had given most encouraging reports of her condition. She leaves a husband and little son about three years old, who have the heartfelt sympathy of a host of friends here.

Mrs. Harding was a woman of lovable character and was held in high esteem by the people of Greenville. The announcement of her death brings sadness to many hearts.

New Books at Library.

The following new books have been added to the public library in Masonic temple building:

"Gordon Keith," by Thomas Nelson Page.

"The Heart of Hyacinth," by Onato Watauna.

"Cecelia," by Marian Crawford

"The Proud Prince," by Justin Huntley McCarthy.

"A Speckled Bird," by Augusta Evans Wilson.

"A Gentleman of France," by Stanley J. Weyman.

"Lady Rose's Daughter," by Mrs. Humphrey Ward.

"Bylow Hill," by George W. Cable.

"Simon Dale," by Anthony Hop.

"Under the Rose," by Isham.

The Ladies of the End of the Century Book Club, under whose auspices the library is conducted, cordially invite the people of the town to freely use these and all other books in the library.

Notice to Parents.

The graded schools were established for the children of the district and it is the desire of the board of trustees that all attend. The board dislikes to exclude any child from the school.

But there are a few parents who have neglected to have their children vaccinated. The most of the parents have complied with the orders of the board of aldermen.

It is but reasonable that all shall do so.

The executive committee of the board therefore trusts that all parents, who have not done so, will have their children vaccinated at once and thus relieve the board of the necessity of taking any action in the matter.

By order of the executive committee of the board of Trustees.

Mr. Spruill at Stokes.

Hon. Frank Spruill, of Louisville, was with the county candidates at Stokes, Thursday, and with the exception of the one by Bon. R. B. Glenn here made the best vote-winning speech that has been delivered in the county during the campaign. A large crowd was present and all were enthused by Mr. Spruill's strong argument of campaign issues. His speech will show good results in the vote of Carolina township on election day.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, OCTOBER 23, 1904.

There is about an end to the fairs

If indications count for anything Parker will be the next president.

It is just as important to vote as it is to register: One follows the other.

Great Britain says Russia must pony up and be pretty quick about it, or there will be something else doing

The betting by Republicans in New York can be put down as a bluff game to try and keep their side in heart.

Whether the Republicans get beaten or not in the coming election, they are the worst scared that they have been in many years.

You know there is a straight Democratic ticket in Pitt county, one selected by the people themselves and the people are behind it. The duty of every Democrat is to vote that ticket.

Mr. Bryan made a great tour through Indiana and 700,000 people in that state heard him speak. He expresses the utmost confidence that the state is safe for Parker

A Kinston woman who conducted a house of ill repute went through the courts in an effort to compel the telephone company to put a telephone in her house. The courts all decided against her.

The Carolina Fruit and Truck Growers Journal says the shipments of lettuce from Wilmington and vicinity this fall and next spring will distribute fully $200,000 among the growers. It is a profitable crop.

Every Democrat in every township in the county should vote on election day so that his township may have as large a representation as possible in future conventions. The coming election determines this point for the next four years.

The entire machinery of the government is being used to further the interest of the Republican party. The government has even been run to the expense of footing the bills for cable messages from the Philippines to be used for campaign purposes. Not only this, but the mails, the government printing office and all other departments are being used for the purpose, and the government foots the bills. Rooseveltism comes high, and the people will show on the eighth of November that they have become weary of it.

A Streak of Cowardice.

Mr. Roosevelt is reputed to be a man of nerve, and he is on occasions. But all politicians are cowards on occasions, and Mr. Roosevelt is no exception. For instance at this moment, he hasn't the nerve to pass on the case of the white soldier whose dismissal from the army has been recommended because he married a negro wife. He is afraid to approve the dismissal and he's afraid not to approve it. Therefore he will let the matter rest until after the election. This is the man of whose moral and physical courage we have heard much in this campaign.—Statesville Landmark.

And now it is said that James H. Tillman, the slayer of Editor Gon gales, wants to become a preacher. The position of penitentiary chaplain might suit him.—Charlotte Chronicle.

The Census Bureau reports that the government has 271,169 employers. It would be interesting to know just how many of them are on Mr. Cortelyou's list of spell-binders Washington Post.

By Championing the cause of whiskey the republicans think they are appealing to the farmer vote, but if they have sized up correctly then we confess that we do not know the farmer.—Durham Herald.

General Fitzhugh Lee has been offered the position of chief of police of the city of Richmond, though there is some doubt that he will accept the office. He has been a major general in the confederate army, the governor of Virginia, consul general to Cuba, and a brigadier general in the United States army; still it would not detract from his dignity to wear the buttons of chief of police of one of the finest cities of the country.—Savannah News.

The next time the campaign is pitched all the parties will be on the temperance side. The great majority of the white folks of North Carolina are in favor of temperance, gentleman, and we thank the Lord that this is true. You need never fear that you will offend the country people by taking liquor away from them. They are not fools, though some of you wily old foxes thought they were. You know better now—Charity and Children.

"We pledge to our countryman, through our platform, rest genuine prosperity, safety, and a return to the way marked out by the constitution; and we promise, through our candidates, that, if it is the people's will, our platform shall be carried out and that under our governmental management Democratic conservatism and care shall rule the national councils to the exclusion of rash impulse and spectacular demonstration."—Grover Cleveland.

"Why should I vote?" a Democrat may ask himself, when to vote calls for a little time, a little travel, a little exertion. "Glenn is going to be elected anyhow," he continues; "Parker is going to carry the State, our candidates for Congress, the Legislature and the county officers are going to be elected—why, then, should I put myself out to go to the polls?" If every Democrat argued this way to himself and acted upon the argument, no Democrat would be elected. But leaving out of account this view of the matter, it is the duty of the Democrat to vote, not only to elect his party candidates but as a protest against the way the dominant party in national affairs is managing things. It is our affair, speaking narrowly, first to care of North Carolina, and next, to let it be known to the country that we are opposed to Mr. Roosevelt's administrative methods, and the larger our majority the more fervent the protest.—Charlotte Observer.

BENSONIZER LUNG CURE

NO MORE EXILE FOR CONSUMPTIVES.

A Cure at Last Obtained, After a Searching Investigation, by St. Louis Interests.

A few months ago the attention of a few scientific and philanthropic gentlemen of St. Louis was directed to an entirely new method of combating that most dreadful of all diseases, tuberculosis, commonly called consumption. Out of 115 test cases, 77 were completely cured and 28 have shown such improvement that their ultimate recovery is but a question of a few weeks.

So astonishing have been the results and absolute cures in cases pronounced incurable by all old methods that a company has been formed and is now prepared to furnish at a normal cost this cure to all sufferers of the "White Plague." One of its chief features is that patients can remain at home, surrounded by friends and relatives, and in a great many instances, especially the incipient or early stages of the disease, pursue their daily vocations and still become completely cured.

Patients receiving the same treatment here in St. Louis have completely recovered as rapidly as those in Colorado, New Mexico and Texas. The wonderful results in question have been accomplished by the Bensonizer, and the company which controls this marvelous medical device have located their main office at 417 North Seventh street, St. Louis. They have also located a factory on Easton avenue and a laboratory has been built at Hillside, Mo. The cure will be known as the Bensonizer Lung Cure, and Mr. C. P. Benson, the discoverer of the fluid inhalant which is used, will personally have charge of the affairs of the company. Mr. Benson will personally meet all who call at the office of the company on Seventh street, and will answer all communications from sufferers who are unable to make a personal call.—From the St. Louis Globe Democrat.

From 145 to 92 Pounds

One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep-seated on the lungs causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 145 to 92 lbs. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

Many a man while walking to save a nickel care fare indulges in a 10 cent cigar.

A weak stomach weakens the man, because it cannot transform the food he eats into nourishment. Health and strength cannot be restored to any sick man or weak woman without first restoring health and strength to the stomach. A weak stomach cannot digest enough food to feed the tissue and revive the tired and run down limbs and organs of the body. Kodol Dyspepsia cure digests what you eat, cleanses and strengthens the glands and membranes of the stomach, and cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

The rose is red, the violet's blue—and so is a man when his nose comes due.

Sour Stomach

When the quantity of food taken is too large or the quality too rich, our stomach is likely to follow, and especially so if the digestion has been weakened by constipation. Eat slowly and not too freely of easily digested food. Masticate the food thoroughly. Let five hours elapse between meals, and when you feel a fullness and weight in the region of the stomach after eating, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the sour stomach may be avoided. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville.

A Power For Good

The pills that are potent in their action and pleasant in effect are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. W. S. Philpot, of Albany, Ga., says: "During a bilious attack I took one. Small as it was it did me more good than calomel, blue mass or any other pill I ever took and at the same time the effect was pleasant. Little Early Risers are certainly an ideal pill." Sold by Wooten's Drug Store.

What's in a Name

Everything is in the name when it comes to Witch Hazel Salve. E. O. DeWitt & Co., of Chicago, discovered some years ago how to make a salve from Witch Hazel that is a specific for Piles. For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles, eczema, cuts, burns, bruises and all skin diseases, DeWitt's Salve has no equal. This has given rise to numerous worthless counterfeits. Ask for DeWitt's, the genuine. Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

Just In Time.

When the bell at an uptown parsonage rang the other evening the clergyman was in his study and his wife was busy putting an infant to sleep, so Master Harold, aged seven, went to the door. On opening it he found a couple, young and bashful. After looking at the boy for a moment the young man queried:

"Is the pastor at home?"
 "Yes," said Harold. "Do you want to get married?"
 "That's just what we're here for," replied the prospective bridegroom.
 "Well, come right in, then," said the boy, ushering them into the parlor. "I'll tell papa and mamma too. She'll be awful glad to see you, for she gets all the marriage money. I heard her tell pa this mornin' that she wished some folks would come to get married soon 'cause she wanted to buy a new hat."
 —New York Press.

Extending the Loan.

Old Mr. Dobson was nothing if not neighborly, but in the case of the Perkinses he really felt that a line must be drawn somewhere. It was the fifth time that week that little Sammy Perkins had been over to borrow something, and this was only Wednesday.

"Please, Mr. Dobson, mother says won't you lend her your lawn mower for about an hour or two?"

Mr. Dobson scratched his head dubiously. "Well, sonny, 'deed I can't," he said at last. "I'll be needing it now, straight through the summer, off and on. But I'll tell you what," he added, when he saw the youngster's downcast countenance. "There's the snow shovel she borrowed last January; I'll let her keep that a bit longer."

His Love Letters.

Many men able to write excellent business letters fail lamentably when they attempt to compose anything else. The relatives of one such hampered person complained, not without reason, of the extreme brevity of his home letters.

"But," pleaded the offender, "you know very well that I never could write much of a letter."

"You write long enough ones to your betrothed," asserted the aggrieved sister. "Sometimes she has to pay extra postage on them."

The engaged girl, who was present, laughed and blushed; then she rushed to the rescue.

"He just puts 'I love you' at the top of each page," she exclaimed, "and fills all the space beneath with ditto marks."—Exchange.

THREE JURORS CURED

Of Cholera Morbus with One Small Bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Mr. G. W. Fowler of Hightower, Ala., relates an experience he had while serving on a petit jury in a murder case at Edwardsville, county seat of Cleburne county, Alabama. He says: "While there I ate some fresh meat and some souse meat and it gave me cholera morbus in a very severe form. I was never more sick in my life and sent to the drug store for a certain cholera mixture, but the druggist sent me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy instead, saying that he had what I sent for, but that this medicine was so much better he would rather send it to me in the fix I was in. I took one dose of it and was better in five minutes. The second dose cured me entirely. Two fellow jurors were afflicted in the same manner and one small bottle cured the three of us." For sale at Wooten's Drug Store.

THE WEATHER

Fair and continued cool with frost tonight. Saturday fair, warmer.

Welcomed in Richmond.

The following criticism of Mr. Douglas Leftwich is clipped from the "Times Dispatch," Richmond, Va.

Mr. Leftwich has been engaged to give an entertainment at the graded school auditorium Monday evening Nov. 7, for the benefit of school library.

"Mr. D. L. Leftwich made his initial appearance in Richmond last night at the Y. M. C. A. Hall before a large audience. No entertainer has ever more fully come up to the standard set by his advance press notices, than did Mr. Leftwich, the audience was more than pleased. The entertainment consisted of clever sketches and stories told in inimitable negro dialect, some convulsed the audience with laughter and others held them breathless with interest. His magnificent baritone voice has a sweetness of quality, a resonant tone and power. Several ballads and descriptive songs were introduced, which were in excellent contrast to his negro melodies.

Mr. Leftwich will be cordially welcomed on his next visit to Richmond.

Did you ever pause to think how many people there are in the world who probably never heard of you?

All the bad children in the neighborhood belong to the neighbors—so every mother will inform you.

GREENVILLE'S GREAT DEPARTMENT STORE.

OUR SHOE STORE
IS A VERY INTERESTING PLACE

We claim to have the largest and most complete stock of shoes in this town. We are now showing large variety of styles in the best makes for Men, Women, Children and Infants. We can't tell you much about them in this space, but we want to call your attention to the famous Ralston Health Shoes For Men.

All of the Style and the most Comfort

Ralston Health Shoes #4.
UNION MADE

It is easy enough to cry "Best" but that which convinces is the test. We make strong claims for this shoe, and ask a trial that our claims may be proven. We claim a unique, common sense sole construction, found in no other shoe. A system of last modeling which makes a shoe that fits the foot as nature intended.

We also claim that while quantity of material and workmanship may possibly be equaled, they cannot be excelled at the price, and that as good a shoe cannot be made and is not sold for less.

They are, however, the tangible results of many years' study of the highly complex needs of the human foot. They appeal to common sense and warrant a trial by every one who desires foot comfort and good service combined.
