C. L. WILKINSON & CO.

EXCLUSIVELY IN SALEM ACADEMY AND COLLEGE.

REV. J. H. CLEWELL, Ph. D., Principal.

WINSTON SALEM, N. C., March 9th., 1904.

Mr. Chas. M. Stieff, Charlotte, N. C.,

Dear Sir:—It is a little unusual to file an order this late in the season, but we find that the more Steiff Pianos which we add to our music department, the better the results attained in the work. We have added quite a number of your instruments during the last few years, and they have all given good satisfaction. It requires a piano of unusual merit for the constant use which all practice pianos have within our school, but we are glad to be able to say that your instruments have stood the test, and we will continue to purchase from your firm from time to time as the need arises.

I think there are about a dozen now in the school.

J. H. CLEWELL, Principal.

A rare and magnificent display of these pianos can now be seen and heard at Greenville, at lowest factory prices and easiest terms. We also have on the floor several slightly used upright pianos at prices ranging from $175.00 to $225.00. Each instrument is guaranteed for 10 years.

We also have a fine display of organs at surprising low figures ranging in price from $35.00 and up. They are fully guaranteed.

This factory sale will positively close before many more days, when factory prices will promptly withdrawn, and if you have any earthly use for it or piano or organ it will pay you to take a look around.

hen in Greenville Miss Be sie Patrick, who is associated with us during our stay here, will be glad to give you

CHAS. M. STIEFF.

G. G. FINEMAN, Factory Representative.

SHELMEKDINE ITEMS

SHELMEKDINE, N. C., Nov. 1.—Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Lassiter, Rufus Jennings and daughter, M. F. Dickens and S. A. Hicks attended the Weldon fair last week.

Messrs H. H. Stanley and Chas. Jennings visited Washington last week.

G. L. Spivey and family who have lived in Shelmerdine for the past two years have moved to Weldon. His many friends here regret to have him leave.

Messrs. McGlawhon and Moore, of Ayden, spent Friday in Shelmerdine.

Henry P. Hill, of Chocowinity, spent Sunday in town.

J. T. Stokes and family have moved to Black Jack and Mr. Burrus will occupy the houses vacated by Mr. Stokes.

Chas. Baker and Miss Ballard, Mr. Harrington and Miss Early spent Sunday with friends in the country.

Work has begun on George Calhoun's residence.

Mr. and Mrs. Leggett have returned from a visit to Mrs. Leggett's mother, near Enfield.

Mr. Leggett spent Saturday in Tarboro.

Mr. Pulley went to Greenville Monday.

Miss George Cole and Mrs. Jas. Bobbitt are spending today in Greenville.

Progressing Beautifully.

Our home talent is going to show off to great advantage on Thursday night in the big production of 'Echoes from Operas.' The rehearsal last night was a great success.

There is a great deal of enthusiasm over this event and the sale of seats already indicates a packed house. The scenes are all beautifully worked up. The double sextette with its beautiful acting all the way through is going to be a decided hit and the "Cozy Corner Girl" will be one of the most attractive things we have ever had.

In the Chinese act some beautiful imported costumes will be worn, those of some of the principal-being of serese, old rose, yellow and green silk. The whole affair is to be a gorgeous one and the whole town ought to see it. There is a large advance sale already.

If you haven't secured seats yet you had better see Coward & Wooten at once.

Wheel Run Off.

Jesse Speight says we were misinformed regarding the runaway last Friday, wherein it was stated that he threw down the reins and jumped out of the buggy. His version of the accident is as follows:

When the wheel ran off and the horse began running he held the horse and very nearly stopped the animal in front of Fleming & Mooring's store and he then stepped out of the buggy with both reins in hand when the horse again jumped off carrying Mr. Speight with him. He very much regrets that he did not release the reins sooner, as he was dragged fully twenty feet before the reins were forced from his hands.

MR. SMALL WAS THERE.

EDITOR REFLECTOR: Your correspondent from Bethel failed to say everything that he intended to say in reference to the Democratic speaking here Friday.

Please add to the Bethel items for this week:

Owing to the lateness of the hour Hon. Jno. H. Small did not attempt to make a speech. In a few well-chosen words he thanked the people for their support in the past, and assured them of his continued efforts in their behalf in the future.

AYDEN ITEMS.

AYDEN N. C., Nov. 1, 1904.

Dr. Dixon says there is one happy man in town, Mr. Levi Peirce has been vaccinated and can't work, so has all the leisure to mingle with the boys anyone might be looking for. Happy Mr. Peirce.

J. T. Smith, Jr., has gone to Kinston.

Laurie Chapman, of Grifton, was here on business Friday.

Last Saturday there were four men in the store of J. R. Smith & Bro. Each was in debt to the other. One of them had one silver dollar and by passing it among the crowd twice around that dollar paid debts to the amount of eight dollars, and the first owner still retained the original coin.

Miss Julia Bready has taken charge of a school about three miles from town, near H. E. Ellis.

Rev. W. E. Cox conducted services in the Episcopal church Sunday night.

W. F. Hart after an absence of a week has come home from Jacksonville, Fla.

Miss Mattie McLawhon spent Monday in Greenville.

J. R. Tingle has been here for the past few days visiting friends.

Right much cotton was received on this market Saturday.

Owing to vaccination there are but few of the employes of our town who have been able to work during the past week. Things are better now and most of them will resume work in a day or so.

W. B. Wingate, of Winterville, was here Saturday.

Mr. Burton and B. E. Parham of Greenville, were here again last week talking tobacco. They brought good news to our farmers, stating that the "filthy weed" had crawled up with cotton.

G. F. Morrison has returned from Bertie and is ready to go to work.

Miss Arah Davis returned from Washington yesterday.

Miss Julia Bready spent Friday and Saturday in Winterville with friends.

Capt. Berry, wife and Miss Olivia Berry are visiting in Scotland Neck.

E. A. Johnson, of Johnson's Mills, has been here on a visit to his son.

W. E. Hooks has moved his family to town and will make this his home.

William Phillips has returned from Norfolk with his wife who is very much improved.

There was a large crowd in town last Saturday.

The registration for the coming election is said to be on an average.

The man with moving pictures failed to put in appearance last Saturday evening according to advertisement. He will be here later however.

One more week to election and then we will all have office. Bully for us.

Sling, slinger, slinger. It is not he who totes the longest sling, but he who totes the sling longest that will be longer in it.

W. O. Bilbro and family who have been boarding quite a while, will commence housekeeping this week.

C. A. Fair has moved into the pretty six room cottage on Second street, recently built by R. W. Smith.

Going Forward.

Work at the plant for the water-works and electric lights is now moving along well. The boilers are now being placed in position. Laying pipes and putting up poles on the streets is also moving along.

Overcoat Protection.

Overcoat protection is one kind of protection we believe in. We furnish it to our customers.

We protect you from rain and wind, from heat and cold.

We Protect Your Person and Your Purse.

Each Overcoat we sell is a lasting advertisement for us.

Any man who has his eye out for Winter Overcoats, and isn't blind to his interests, should not miss seeing our new styles.

Long or medium

lengths, and a size to fit every shape.

Every good fabric is represented in our lines.

Comes here for a look. We'll not urge you to buy. The Coats will do that.

Frank Wilson, The King Clothier.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON, NOVEMBER 1, 1904.

VOTE FOR WINSTON.

While the Republicans have no hope of success in defeating any nominee on the Democratic State ticket, they are making a determined effort to cause Judge F. D. Winston, candidate for lieutenant governor, to run behind the ticket. They seem to have singled him out for attack and have even resorted to forgery in their efforts to malign him. The Republicans hate him for his earnest work for Democracy, hence are showing their spite against him in every possible way. When it is remembered that Judge Winston was at the head of the white supremacy club movement in the campaign of 1898 that led to the overthrow of fusion; that as a member of the legislature from Bertie county in 1899 he helped to frame the constitutional amendment; that in the same legislature he introduced one of the "Jim Crow" car bills; that in the campaign of 1900 there was not a more faithful and earnest worker for the amendment than he, it ought to arouse in every Democrat a determination that Frank Winston shall not run behind any man on the ticket. We hope no Democrat in Pitt county will scratch his ticket and thus gratify the grudge the Republicans have against Judge Winston. The straight ticket from beginning to end should be voted by every Democrat.

With defeat staring them in the face the Republicans in New York are resorting to frauds to increase their chances of carrying the election. In one county it is said a thousand illegal names have been placed upon the registration books, and eighteen thousand negroes have been colonized in New York city. Leader Murphy, of Tammany Hall, has issued orders for an investigation that will check this fraud.

Judge Henry R. Bryan decided against the plaintiff in the mandamus proceedings against the trustees of schools in Durham to compel the admission to the schools of children who had not been vaccinated. An appeal was taken to the Supreme court, but it is likely the plaintiff will meet a similar decision there.

The Republicans hope to materially cut down the Democratic majority in North Carolina so as to gain standing with the administration in case Roosevelt is elected. It is the duty of every Democrat to see that this hope of the Republicans is not realized.

Dispatches from Washington indicate that there is much alarm in the Republican camp over the outlook in New York. Judge Parker's activity is rapidly swinging sentiment his way as prospects of his election grow bright as the eighth gets nearer.

This month brings two big events, the election and Thanksgiving. Those who win out in the election will have increased reasons for thankfulness.

And Tarboro did not want Judge Peebles to hold court there, but contempt proceedings are hardly looked for to result from it.

If November follows the character of October there will be plenty of open weather.

Should Have Attention.

The Wilmington Dispatch, referring to the verbal report made by Colonel T. R. Robertson of the First Regiment, National Guard of North Carolina, in regard to the looting of stores at Reidsville by soldiers of that regiment returning from Manassas, says: "While there is considerable difficulty in getting the men to tell on each other, it is believed the guilty parties will be punished severely for their outrageous conduct. A simple dismissal from the Guard would not answer in this case. If the military regulations are not sufficient to deal with the guilty parties, then the criminal laws of North Carolina should be invoked to punish the looters for their crime. There is no excuse for such conduct in this day of civilization and good rations."

This, we think, about expresses the sentiment of the State on this subject. The conduct of members of the Guard in time past, in returning from the annual encampments at Morehead City, Asheville and elsewhere, has been outrageous, and the sense of public indignation has become cumulative with this Reidsville incident. If these men cannot be controlled, or at least punished for their misconduct, the legislature ought to withdraw the State's appropriation to the Guard. This misbehavior will undoubtedly come up at the next session of the General Assembly in connection with the proposition to renew the appropriation.—Charlotte Observer.

"We send felicitations herewith," says The Greenville REFLECTOR, "to The Charlotte Observer. No doubt our esteemed contemporary feels exuberant over the fact that another flying machine did fly." The Observer expresses its gratitude and makes its manners to its contemporary. It is pleased, of course, on account of the successful performance at St. Louis last week, but has experienced no sense of surprise nor indulged in any excessive jubilation. That we will all fly has not been a hope with The Observer, but a conviction, and each day brings us nearer and nearer to the time when we will sail around among the hen hawks and the buzzards.—Charlotte Observer

What's in a Name

Everything is in the name when it comes to Witch Hazel Salve. E. C. DeWitt & Co., of Chicago, discovered some years ago how to make a salve from Witch Hazel that is a specific for Piles. For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles, eczema, cuts, burns, bruises and all skin diseases, DeWitt's Salve has no equal. This has given rise to numerous worthless counterfeits. Ask for DeWitt's, the genuine. Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

What is Life?

In the last analysis nobody knows, but we do know that it is under strict law. Abuse that law even slightly, pain results. Irregular living means derangement of the organs, resulting in Constipation, Headache or Liver trouble. Dr. King's New Life Pills quickly re-adjusts this. It's gentle, yet thorough. Only 25c at Wooten's Drug Store.

BENSONIZER LUNG CURE

NO MORE EXILE FOR CONSUMPTIVES.

SUMPTIVES.

A Cure at Last Obtained, After a Searching Investigation, by St. Louis Interests.

A few months ago the attention of a few scientific and philanthropic gentlemen of St. Louis was directed to an entirely new method of combating that most dreadful of all diseases, tuberculosis, commonly called consumption. Out of 115 test cases, 77 were completely cured and 28 have shown such improvement that their ultimate recovery is but a question of a few weeks.

So astonishing have been the results and absolute cures in cases pronounced incurable by all old methods that a company has been formed and is now prepared to furnish at a normal cost this cure to all sufferers of the "White Plague." One of its chief features is that patients can remain at home, surrounded by friends and relatives, and in a great many instances, especially the incipient or early stages of the disease, pursue their daily vocations and still become completely cured.

Patients receiving the same treatment here in St. Louis have completely recovered as rapidly as those in Colorado, New Mexico and Texas. The wonderful results in question have been accomplished by the Bensonizer, and the company which controls this marvelous medical device have located their main office at 417 North Seventh street, St. Louis. They have also located a factory on Easton avenue and a laboratory has been built at Hillside, Mo. The cure will be known as the Bensonizer Lung Cure, and Mr. C. P. Benson, the discoverer of the fluid inhalants which are used, will personally have charge of the affairs of the company. Mr. Benson will personally meet all who call at the office of the company on Seventh street, and will answer all communications from sufferers who are unable to make a personal call.—From the St. Louis Globe Democrat.

AN EXCITED ANGLER.

He Lost His Head For Awhile, but Finally Landed His Fish.

If there is any place requiring a cool head it is when one is in a light boat or canoe angling for heavy fish in deep or swift water. Undue excitement has cost many a life under such circumstances.

A curious example of the outcome of undue excitement has just been related to me by a friend—in fact, the individual himself.

Unfortunately for my friend, although a man of thirty-five years, yet only once previous to this occasion had he experienced the joys of angling.

Business took him up near the pine woods, and between trains, after his business had been transacted, he was invited by two of his customers to try the maskinonge. And off they started, he throwing out his lure and within a few moments getting a vicious tug at his line which bent his rod and set his reel screeching. The tug on the line, the bending of the rod and the screeching, whirring reel were too much for him, and, giving a spasmodic leap, he cleared the boat and landed feet first on the bottom of the lake, that was covered with five feet of water, holding fast meanwhile to the rod. The cool water calmed his nerves at once, and, being a six footer, he simply elevated his chin and arms and in his own fashion began to manipulate the rod and reel. The fish began to leap and run. When he turned his head toward the boat to ask for advice as to the proper way to handle the fish, no one was to be seen in the boat. Both his friends had just simply rolled off their seats and were guffawing with laughter; the only thing to be seen by him were two cornucop pipes that his friends had removed from their mouths and held aloft while they roared with amusement.

He landed the fish. I asked him what it weighed. "It was a maskinonge," he replied, "and weighed two and one-half pounds." "Much ado about nothing," I exclaimed, and I made up the third man who heartily enjoyed the episode.—Cor. Forest and Stream.

The Family Spoons.

While rummaging through the drawers of a bookcase in her daughter's room in search of some writing paper the other day Mrs. Wimperling came upon a bundle of letters tied with a pink string.

She untied the bundle and glanced through several of the letters.

Then she picked them up, went downstairs and confronted her daughter. "Bunice," she said, in a high state of indignation, "who is the idiot that you're corresponding with, I'd like to know? Of all the lovesick balderdash I ever saw this is absolutely the worst. I shall consider it my duty to report the matter to your father. Who wrote these letters?"

"I am not going to lie to you about them, mamma," said Miss Eunice bravely. "If you will put on your glasses and look at them again you will find that they're a lot of old letters papa wrote to you when you were a girl."—Chicago Tribune.

No Diner Out.

Miss Graham gave the tramp some food in response to his moving appeal, and stood at the kitchen door to make sure that he ate the bread and cold boiled potatoes and did not throw one crumb away.

"You have a very awkward way of eating," she said severely, as the knife she had lent him seemed to vanish for a moment down the man's throat and on its way back to the light performed strange evolutions.

"Yes, ma'am," said the tramp, as he made another onslaught on the potato. "You see, I'm kind of out of practice these days."

Close Call For Jacob.

Harcourt sat in his office discussing with a friend his plans for an old-fashioned Christmas at his grandfather's in the country. Just then a messenger boy brought in a telegram; it was from the grandfather.

"Barns all burned last night. Only house and smoke house saved," it read.

Harcourt looked gloomy for a moment. Then his face lighted up. "Anyway," he cried, "Jacob, the pig, is safe! They cut him up and cured him before Thanksgiving."

"That's good!" exclaimed his friend. "Jacob must be thankful that he escaped the fire."

Her Ex-Son.

Mrs. Wabash—There goes Mrs. Marmore with her stepson. What a homely boy he is!

Mrs. De Vorse—Yes, and yet I remember several years ago I thought him quite pretty.

Mrs. Wabash—Ah, but you were his mother at that time, were you not?

Mrs. De Vorse—Why, yes, I believe I was.

PERSONALS AND SOCIAL.

A. Savage went to Norfolk today.

J. W. Perkins returned Monday evening.

Mrs. R. M. Hearne returned today from a visit to Washington.

Misses Nannie and Martha Coffield, of Hamilton, are visiting their sister, Mrs. W. R. Smith.

T. U. Lassiter and H. D. Potter, of Greene county, took the train here this morning for Norfolk.

Mrs. R. O. Jeffers returned Monday evening from Richmond. Her sister, Miss Annie Brame, accompanied her home.

P. R. Rives and Mrs. Della Outterbridge, of Hamilton, came in Monday evening to visit Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rives and left this morning.

The Remounts.

"When you talk about enterprise, I never saw anything to beat the Indians of the old northwest," said a regular army soldier who was in the campaign against the Sioux after the Custer massacre in 1876. He explained Indian enterprise this way:

"We had a lot of Crows employed as scouts, and they were quite useful. They had their own ponies, but sometimes they would wake up in the morning with nary a pony to their credit. They would start out afoot, and they always came back at night with plenty of ponies. Nobody ever asked where they got the ponies."—Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

A Bookkeeping Triumph.

"Now, dearest, just see," said Mrs. Newlywed, "since I commenced keeping our accounts we haven't got nearly so many bills to pay. Now, see, you haven't got any butcher's bill or milkman's bill to pay at all this month."

"But, darling, we certainly had plenty of meat and milk all the time."

"Yes, dearest," replied Mrs. Newlywed, "but I bought them from the grocer."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Nothing White There.

Albert, the young man of the family, was undeniably ill. The doctor was sent for. He pronounced it a case of jaundice, as indeed the parents had suspected, from the patient's yellowish appearance.

Albert's little sister was explaining to a caller.

"He's got the yaller janders," she said. "The doctor says so."

"But how could the doctor tell, Bessie?" asked the caller.

"Easy enough," replied Bessie. "Anybody could tell it by jes' lookin' into the yolks of his eyes."

From 145 to 92 Pounds

One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep-seated on the lungs causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 145 to 92 lbs. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

A weak stomach weakens the man, because it cannot transform the food he eats into nourishment. Health and strength cannot be restored to any sick man or weak man without first restoring health and strength to the stomach. A weak stomach cannot digest enough food to feed the tissue and revive the tired and run-down limbs and organs of the body. Kodol Dyspepsia cure digests what you eat, cleanses and strengthens the glands and membranes of the stomach, and cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

NEW ARENIC SENSATIONS.

The Lucussos, Martineks, Eddys, Hungarian Magyars, Mons. Hubert.
When the Great Adam Forepaugh and Sells Brothers United Shows pitch their acres of tents in Greenville on November 18th they promise to bring many heroic, artistic and fun-making new features, among which the following are prominent:
La Famille Lucussos, who, in their visit to America, present their extraordinary Parisian-born, combined equestrian and park brake acts, known as "On the Way to the Grand Prix Base, Paris." Using the bare backs of horse and the seats and bottom of the holiday vehicle as platforms for the performance of the most difficult acrobatic feats, is certainly something absolutely new in circus history. As a strange and unfamiliar acrobatic dancing and musical wonder, the Szarvasi Freucz Troupe of Hungarian Magyars, are, at least so far as this country is concerned, in a class entirely by themselves. They come from their native land with the highest of royal and popular endowments.
Volatile fun loving France also sends us her four most famous male and female professional fools in the Martineks, appearing in a stellar conjunction with nearly fifty other champion clowns. Mons. Hubert, making his first American appearance, might be termed as at once an amalgamation of juggling jockey and Samson. Assuredly the feats of leaping from the ground to the back of his horse while holding aloft a sulky by its thills, and of balancing a park cart on his chin, are unparalleled in our arenas. Even in such stellar company as is this the Eddys are not outshone and their new and original aerial acrobatic act is a wonder.
U. H. Snowden, St. Paul—Wife was sick for years, nothing did any good until we used Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. Now she's strong and healthy. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Wootea's Drug Store.

GREENVILLE'S GREAT DEPARTMENT STORE.

OUR SHOE STORE IS A VERY INTERESTING PLACE

We claim to have the largest and most complete stock of Shoes in this town. We are now showing large variety of styles in the best makes for Men, Women, Children and Infants. We can't tell you much about them in this space, but we want to call your attention to the famous Ralston Health Shoes For Men.

All of the Style and the most Comfort

Ralston Health Shoes $4.00
UNION MADE

It is easy enough to cry "Best" but that which convinces is the test. We make strong claims for this Shoe, and ask a trial that our claims may be proven. We claim a unique, common sense sole construction, found in no other shoe. A system of last modeling which makes a shoe that fits the foot as nature intended.

We also claim that while quantity of material and workmanship may possibly be equaled, they cannot be excelled at the price, and that as good a shoe cannot be made and is not sold for less.

They are, however, the tangible results of many years study of the highly complex needs of the human foot. They appeal to common sense and warrant a trial by every one who desires foot comfort and good service combined.

Fearful Odds Against Him

Bedridden, alone and destitute. Such, in brief was the condition of an old soldier by name of J. J. Havens, Versailles, O. For years he was troubled with Kidney disease and neither doctors nor medicines gave him relief. At length he tried Electric Bitters. It put him on his feet in short order and now he testifies: "I'm on the road to recovery." Best on earth for Liver and Kidney troubles and all forms of Stomach and Bowel complaints. Only 50c Guaranteed by J. L. Wooten, druggist.

"If" a woman ever gets so "homely" she isn't worth looking at, she'd better take Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. Brings back the bloom youth. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Wooten's Drug Store.

THE WEATHER

Fair tonight and Wednesday.

Corpse in Trunk.

Charlotte, N. C., October 31.—Sunday evening one of the baggage handlers at the Southern Railway depot had his suspicions aroused by the odor that proceeded from a trunk he was handling.

The police were notified and when the trunk was opened the body of a yellow negro was found therein. The trunk had been checked at Gaitonia to Davidson.

The body lay on its back, with the legs doubled up. It would weigh little over a hundred pounds, being short and slight. A plain black suit, calico shirt, collar and tie, slippers held in place by rubber straps, and black socks comprised his raiment. There was nothing in the trunk except a little coarse wrapping paper.

It is supposed to be a "stiff" intended for use by the medical students of Davidson College. The body has been placed in an undertaking establishment here temporarily.—Raleigh Times.

Made Young Again

"One of Dr. King's New Life Pills each night for two weeks has put me in my 'teens' again" writes D. H. Turner of Dempsey town, Pa. They're the best in the world for Liver, Stomach and Bowels. Purely vegetable Never gripe. Only 25c at Wooten's Drug Store

Queen Quality

Shoes Lead, Others Follow.

BEHIND EVERY FACT LIES A REASON.

When there are a multitude of shoes trying to be sold, and one shoe far surpasses all others in volume of sales, there is a reason for it.

This one shoe is "Queen Quality." Its sales are more than double the sales of any other women's shoe. It can't be because of price, since many other shoes cost the same. It is simply a triumph of leadership.

"QUEEN QUALITY."

"Queen Quality" is recognized as leader in style. It leads others follow. It originates, others copy. Everywhere it sets the style. If you wear a "Queen Quality" you are with the leaders in fashion.
