C. L. WILKINSON & CO.

EXCLUSIVELY IN SALEM ACADEMY AND COLLEGE.

REV. J. H. CLEWELL, Ph. D., Principal.

WINSTON SALEM, N. C., March 9th., 1904.

Mr. Chas. M. Stieff, Charlotte, N. C., Dear Sir:—It is a little unusual to file an order this late in the season, but we find that the more Steiff Pianos which we add to our music department, the better the results attained in the work. We have added quite a number of your instruments during the last few years, and they have all given good satisfaction. It requires a piano of unusual merit for the constant use which all practice pianos have within our school, but we are glad to be able to say that your instruments have stood the test, and we will continue to purchase from your firm from time to time as the need arises.

I think there are about a dozen now in the school.
J. H. CLEWELL, Principal.

A rare and magnificent display of these pianos can now be seen and heard at Greenville, at lowest factory prices and easiest terms. We also have on the floor several slightly used upright pianos at prices ranging from $175.00 to $225.00. Each instrument is guaranteed for 10 years. We also have a fine display of organs at surprising low figures ranging in price from a $35.00 and up. They are fully guaranteed.

This factory sale will positively close before many more days, when factory prices will promptly withdrawn, and if you have any earthly use for either piano or organ it will pay you to take a look around here in Greenville Miss

Be sie Patrick, who is associated with us during our stay here, will be glad to give you

CHAS. M. STIEFF.

Nine People Killed.

Winston-Salem, N. C., Nov. 2.—The most horrible catastrophe in the history of Winston-Salem occurred at 5 o'clock this morning when the north side of the old city reservoir on north Trade street collapsed, transforming the street into a veritable river of death, which bore nine persons to doom, caused the serious injury of eight others and washed away a number of small houses in its path.

The list of the dead is as follows. Mrs. Louise Southern, aged seventy, who moved to Winston yesterday from Greensboro.

Mrs. Martin Peebles, aged fifty, crushed by the collapse of the wall. Miss Selma Vogler, aged sixty. Mrs. John Poe, age fifty. Twelve-year-old daughter of Mrs. Poe.

John Southern, young man. Octavia Bailey, young white woman.

Lucile Malone, young colored woman.

Caroline Martin, colored.

The injured are:

T. L. Payne, of Greensboro, traveling salesman, suffering from shock and perhaps internal injuries.

Martin Peebles, whose wife was killed, dislocated thigh.

Walter Peebles' boy, back hurt.

Mr. Gale Jordan, painfully bruised.

Lizzie Maloue, colored, bruised.

Abe Martin, colored, bad gash in abdomen.

Malinda Poe, slightly injured.

Lea Malone, slightly injured.

Abe Martin, slightly injured.

Six tenement houses were more or less damaged.—Raleigh News and Observer.

The Youth's Companion in 1905.

It is impossible even to summarize in a single paragraph the many and varied attractions which The Youth's Companion announces for the coming year.

A series of articles planned to interest especially the forty five millions of Americans who look directly to the soil for their subsistence will treat of "New Fields for Young Farmers," "The Sanitation of the Farm," "The Future of American Cotton," "How Women Make Money on the Farm," etc.

Seven serial stories and 250 short stories by the most talented and popular American writers of fiction will form part of the contents of the new volume for 1905.

Full Illustrated Announcement describing the principal features of The Companion's new volume for 1905 will be sent with sample copies of the paper to any address free.

The new subscriber who sends $1.75 now for a year's subscription to The Companion receives free all the issues of The Companion for the remaining weeks of 1904, also The Companion "Carnations" Calendar for 1905, lithographed in twelve colors and gold.

A Punctual Man.

A certain Mr. Scott, of Exeter, whose business required him to travel constantly, was one of the most famous characters for punctuality in the kingdom. By his methodical habits combined with unwearied industry, he accumulated a large fortune. For a great many years the landlord of every inn in Cornwall or Devon that he visited knew the exact day and hour he would arrive. A short time before he died at the advanced age of eighty, a gentleman who was making a journey through Cornwall put up at a small inn at Port Isaac for dinner. He looked over the bill of fare, and found nothing to his liking. He had, however, seen a fine duck roasting on the fire. "I'll have that," said he. "You cannot, sir, replied the landlord; "it is for Mr. Scott of Exeter." "I know Mr. Scott very well," replied the traveler. "He is not in your house." "Very sorry," said the landlord. "but six months ago, when he was last here he ordered the duck to be ready for him this day, exactly at 2 o'clock." And, to the amazement of the traveler, who chanced to look from the window, the old gentleman was at that moment entering the inn yard, about five minutes before the appointed time.—Harper's Round Table.

Newspapers in N. Carolina.

There was issued from the office of the Commissioner of Labor and Printing last week a summary showing the number of newspapers and total circulation published in North Carolina, together with other interesting data connected with newspapers in the state, the summary being a chapter of the forthcoming annual report of the commissioner for the past year.

The report shows the circulation of North Carolina papers to be 683,525. This statement follows:

Kind.	No.	Circulation.
Morning daily	10	30,912
Evening daily	20	24,712
Weekly	164	277,082
Semi-weekly	22	41,065
Monthly	39	55,975
Semi-monthly	17	110,500
Annually	4	150,000
Quarterly	4	1,300
Tri-weekly	1	1,980

Total 683,526

Of the above, there are 136 Democratic, 15 Republican, 21 Independent and two Populist in politics.

LETTER TO W. O. BARNHILL.

Greenville, N. C.

Dear Sir: You buy your horse-shoes and nails; your grandfather, if he was a blacksmith, made 'em. You can't afford to hammer them out by hand, when you can buy as good, or better perhaps, ready-made to your hand, for a little more than the cost of the iron.

What do you think of a painter who goes on buying his linseed oil and whitelead, and mixing, and tinting by hand, and charging his time for work that is far better done than he can do it, done by machinery, done as your horse-shoes and nails are made.

Mistake isn't it?

He is wasting his chance in the world. There is no better stuff to do business with than good horse-shoes and paint; and no better work than putting them on. Good horse-shoes well put on: It's the putting 'em on that makes you a blacksmith; no matter who makes 'em.

Who wants to go back to old times, and make his own horse-shoes?

Between us two, that painter don't know how to make good paint—he used to; but paint has run away from him.

Yours truly

THURSDAY AFTERNOON, NOVEMBER 3, 1904.

NINE CANDIDATES.

It need not be said that the nation will be sure to get a president out of the many candidates to be voted for in Tuesday's election. There are just nine president tickets in the field, though only two of them come in for consideration. The tickets are as follows:

Democratic: President, Alton B. Parker, New York; Vice President, Henry G. Davis, West Virginia.

Prohibition: President, Silas C. Swallow, Pennsylvania; Vice President, George W. Carroll, Texas.

People's: President, Thomas T. Watson, Georgia; Vice President, Thomas H. Tibbles, Nebraska.

Socialist: Eugene V. Debs, Indiana; Vice President, Benjamin Hanford, New York.

Socialist Labor: President, Charles H. Corrigan, New York; Vice President, William W. Cox, Illinois.

Continental (Labor): President, Austin Holcomb, Georgia; Vice President, A. King, Missouri.

Lincoln Party (Negro): President, E. P. Penn, West Virginia; Vice President, John J. Jones, Illinois.

The flying machine scored a brilliant success at St. Louis Tuesday, the best test yet made in aerial navigation. It looks more and more like we will all fly sometime.

The president has issued his Thanksgiving proclamation. If he gets beaten in Tuesday's election, as we hope will be the case, he will not feel so thankful.

The Thanksgiving number of the Raleigh News and Observer will be a woman's edition. It will be something good.

Work earnestly from now until the election for the success of the Democratic ticket from president down.

Tom Watson is continuing to score both the old parties, but his real intentions are plain.

Wilmington must like them, as we see that city is going to try another carnival.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.

The President issued the Thanksgiving proclamation, setting aside Thursday, November 24, "to be observed as a day of festival and thanksgiving by all the people of the United States at home and abroad." The proclamation follows: "By the President of the United States of America—A Proclamation:

"It has pleased Almighty God to bring the American people in safety and honor through another year, and, in accordance with the long unbroken custom handed down to us by our forefathers, the time has come when a special day shall be set apart in which to thank Him who holds all others in the hollow of His hand for the mercies thus vouchsafed to us. During the century and a quarter of our national life, we as a people have been blessed beyond all others, and for this we owe humble and heartfelt thanks to the author of all blessings. The year that has closed has been one of peace within our own borders, as well as between us and all other nations. The harvests have been abundant, and those who work, whether with hand or brain, are prospering greatly. Reward has waited upon honest effort. We have been enabled to do our duty to ourselves and to others. Never has there been a time when religious and charitable effort has been more evident. Much has been given to us and much will be expected from us. We speak of what has been done by this nation in no spirit of boastfulness or vain glory, but with full and reverent realization that our strength is nothing unless we are helped from above. Hitherto we have been given the heart and the strength to do the tasks allotted to us as they severally arose.

"We are thankful for all that has been done for us in the past and we pray that in the future we may be strengthened in the unending struggle to do our duty fearlessly and honestly, with charity and good will, with respect for ourselves and with love toward our fellow-men. In this great republic the effort to combine national strength with personal freedom is being tried on a scale more gigantic than ever before in the world's history. Our success will mean much, not only for ourselves, but for the future of all mankind, and every man or woman in our land should feel the grave responsibility resting upon him or her, for in the last analysis this success must depend upon the high average of our individual citizenship, upon the way in which each of us does his duty by himself and his neighbor.

"Now, therefore, I, Theodore Roosevelt, President of the United States, do hereby appoint and set apart Thursday, the twenty fourth of this November, to be observed as a day of festival and thanksgiving by all the people of the United States at home or abroad, and do recommend that on that day cease from their ordinary occupations and gather in their several places of worship or in their homes, devoutly to give thanks unto Almighty God for the benefits He has conferred upon us as individuals and as a nation, and to beseech Him that in the future His Divine favor may continue to us.

"In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

"Done at the City of Washington, this 1st day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and four, and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and twenty-ninth.

"THEODORE ROOSEVELT.
"By the President.
"JOHN HAY, Secretary of State."

Judge Parker's words of confidence and encouragement should prompt every Democrat to greater exertion and determination to do his whole duty during the remaining days of the campaign. We cannot expect to win the victory without hard work.—Durham Sun.

BENSONIZER LUNG CURE

NO MORE EXILE FOR CONSUMPTIVES.

SUMPTIVES.

A Cure at Last Obtained, After a Searching Investigation, by St. Louis Interests.

A few months ago the attention of a few scientific and philanthropic gentlemen of St. Louis was directed to an entirely new method of combating that most dreadful of all diseases, tuberculosis, commonly called consumption. Out of 115 test cases, 77 were completely cured and 28 have shown such improvement that their ultimate recovery is but a question of a few weeks.

So astonishing have been the results and absolute cures in cases pronounced incurable by all old methods that a company has been formed and is now prepared to furnish at a normal cost this cure to all sufferers of the "White Plague." One of its chief features is that patients can remain at home, surrounded by friends and relatives, and in a great many instances, especially the incipient or early stages of the disease, pursue their daily vocations and still become completely cured.

Patients receiving the same treatment here in St. Louis have completely recovered as rapidly as those in Colorado, New Mexico and Texas.

The wonderful results in question have been accomplished by the Bensonizer, and the company which controls this marvelous medical device have located their main office at 417 North Seventh street, St. Louis. They have also located a factory on Easton avenue and a laboratory has been built at Hillside, Mo. The cure will be known as the Bensonizer Lung Cure, and Mr. C. P. Benson, the discoverer of the fluid inhalants which are used, will personally have charge of the affairs of the company. Mr. Benson will personally meet all who call at the office of the company on Seventh street, and will answer all communications from sufferers who are unable to make a personal call.—From the St. Louis Globe Democrat.

HOTEL SLEEPERS.

It is Much Easier to Awaken Women Than Men.

"It is immeasurably harder to awaken men in the morning than it is women," said a hotel proprietor. "A tap or two at a woman's door in the morning is sufficient. No matter how late she may have retired, no matter how exhausted she may have been, no matter how faint the 'yes' in answer to the knock that comes from the bed, you can bank on it that within a half hour or so that woman will walk into the dining room bright eyed and cheerful, but with a man—well, it's different.

"A man may leave a call for 7 o'clock in the morning with the warning that he must be up at that hour. A few minutes before 7 you detail a boy for the purpose and tell him not to stop pounding until the man awakes. The room may be on the top floor, but you can hear the thump, thump, thump on the door away down in the office. Does the man wake with a faint 'yes' and scramble out of bed? Not he. The boy knocks until his knuckles are sore, and then suddenly a stentorian voice roars from the room: 'Yes, yes; what in blazes is the matter with you? Do you think I'm dead?' The boy retires, turns in his report at the office and goes to ease his hand in cold water.

"Three hours later a swollen eyed individual with wrinkles in his brow walks up to the desk. 'I thought I left a call here for 7 o'clock in the morning.' 'You did, and the bell boy woke you promptly at 7.' 'That's a little too strong,' is the answer, and after you've argued with him for half an hour you haven't convinced him that he was actually awakened as he had ordered. So it goes day after day. The women get up promptly in response to a call, while the men invariably turn over to have another nap."—St. Louis Globe Democrat.

Settled Society.

After the war a Boston man was stopping at the Planters' house, the principal hotel of Leavenworth, and coming down to breakfast late one morning he partook of that meal with the landlord.

"Well, Mr. —," said the landlord, "how do you like our western country?"

"I'd like it very well," said the Boston man, "or would it society here were in a more settled state?"

"Nonsense!" said the landlord. "Our society is as settled as that of Boston."

Just then Anthony burst into the dining room and out of a back door, with Jennison pumping lead at him at every jump and following him out into the outbuildings in the rear of the hotel.

"How about society being as settled here as in Boston?" said the Boston man as he and the landlord crawled out from under opposite sides of the table.

"I had forgotten about that Anthony-Jennison matter," said the landlord, "but if Doc Jennison has caught up with Anthony—that is settled by this time."—Boston Herald.

Warning to Poor Penmen.

There should be no excuse for illegible handwriting, yet there is much of it. A certain Columbus club woman, having a friend who was an indifferent scribe, attempted to break her of the habit in a very novel manner.

Receiving a note from her friend one day which was exceptionally hard to decipher, she conceived the idea of pretending it was an invitation to dine, and accordingly wrote this reply: "I shall take great pleasure in accepting your invitation to dinner tomorrow evening." A short time after this note had been delivered the telephone rang, and on answering it she recognized the voice of her friend at the other end of the wire. "Hello!" it said. "You were mistaken in my note. I asked you if you would subscribe to the 'home fund.'" "Oh, was that it?" answered the woman. "I couldn't make out your note, and I wanted to answer something."—Columbus Dispatch.

"Mamma sent me after a pound of coffee, Mr. Pelican."

"My name is not Pelican," said the grocer as he weighed out the coffee. "My name is Mr. Crane. What made you think it was Pelican?"

"Well, that's what papa calls you, 'cause he says there's something about your bill that always makes him think of a pelican."—Chicago Record-Herald.

"My tests show it to be a splendid medicinal water," said the analytical chemist.

"Then there's only one thing wrong with it," said the owner of the spring; "the taste."

"Why, the taste is delightful." "Of course; that's the trouble. No one would believe it was a medicinal water if it didn't have an unpleasant taste."—Philadelphia Ledger.

A Boy's Wild Ride For Life

With family around expecting him to die, and a son riding for life, 18 miles, to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, W. H. Brown, of Leesville, Ind., endured death's agonies from asthma, but this wonderful medicine gave instant relief and soon cured him. He writes: "I now sleep soundly every night." Like marvelous cures of Consumption, Pneumonia, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds and Grip prove its matchless merit for all Throat and Lung troubles. Guarantee bottles 50c and $1. Trial bottles free at Wooten's Drug Store t. t. s. & t. s. w.

From 148 to 92 Pounds

One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep seated on the lungs causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 148 to 92 lbs. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

A weak stomach weakens the man, because it cannot transform the food he eats into nourishment. Health and strength cannot be restored to any sick man or weak woman without first restoring health and strength to the stomach. A weak stomach cannot digest enough food to feed the tissue and revive the tired and run down limbs and organs of the body. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat, cleanses and strengthens the glands and membranes of the stomach, and cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

What's in a Name

Everything is in the name when it comes to Witch Hazel Salve. E. C. DeWitt & Co., of Chicago, discovered some years ago how to make a salve from Witch Hazel that is a specific for Piles. For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding Piles, eczema, cuts, burns, bruises and all skin diseases, DeWitt's Salve has no equal. This has given rise to numerous worthless counterfeits. Ask for DeWitt's, the genuine. Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

What is Life?

In the last analysis nobody knows, but we do know that it is under strict law. Abuse that law even slightly, pain results. Irregular living means derangement of the organs, resulting in Constipation, Headache or Liver trouble. Dr. King's New Life Pills quickly re-adjusts this. It's gentle, yet thorough. Only 25c at Wooten's Drug Store.

A Power For Good

The pills that are potent in their action and pleasant in effect are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. W. S. Philpot, of Albany, Ga., says: "During a bilious attack I took one. Small as it was it did me more good than calomel, blue mass or any other pill I ever took and at the same time the effect was pleasant. Little Early Risers are certainly an ideal pill." Sold by Wooten's Drug Store.

Made Young Again

"One of Dr. King's New Life Pills each night for two weeks has put me in my 'teens' again!" writes D. H. Turner of Dempseytown, Pa. They're the best in the world for Liver, Stomach and Bowels. Purely vegetable. Never gripe. Only 25c at Wooten's Drug Store.

When once liberated with your system, it produces a most wonderful effect. It's worth one's last dollar to feel the pleasure of life that comes by taking Dr. King's Rocky Mountain Tea. Wooten's Drug Store.

"If" a woman ever gets so "homely" she isn't worth looking at, she'd better take Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. Brings back the bloom youth. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Wooten's Drug Store.

A Request.

Those in charge of the entertainment "Echoes from Operas" to be given in the Masonic temple opera house tonight, earnestly request the audience to be present and seated by 8:15 o'clock, as the curtain will rise promptly at that time. The first scene of the entertainment will be composed of thirty little girls from 6 to 12 years of age, and it will be very unjust for them to be disturbed by late comers in the midst of the performance. The ladies of the audience will be requested to remove their hats after reaching the opera house, so they will please take notice and have their hair arranged so their hats can be taken off. A compliance with the foregoing will be a favor to all connected with the entertainment.

Letters from Women

Cured by the use of Kodol are received daily. Their troubles nearly all begin with indigestion or other stomach disorder.

If the food you eat fails to give strength to your body, it is because the juices secreted by the stomach and digestive organs are inadequate to transform the nutrient properties of the food into blood. That is indigestion. The system is deprived of the amount of nourishment required to keep up the strength, and the result is that one or more of the delicate organs gradually grows weak, and then weaker, until finally it is diseased. Here a great mistake is made. That of treating the diseased organ. The best doctors in the land make this very mistake. Why should they? It is so easy to see that the trouble is not there.

Kodol Cures

This famous remedy puts the stomach and digestive organs in a healthy condition so that rich, red blood is sent coursing through the veins and arteries of every muscle, tissue and fiber throughout every organ of the entire body, and by Nature's law of health, full strength and vigor is soon restored to each. Kodol cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach disorders.

I have taken Kodol for nearly two months after each meal and it is the only remedy that gave relief from the terrible pains I endured. After a time I would take it but once a day, and now, while I keep a bottle handy, I seldom need it, as it has cured me. Mrs. J. W. COOLBAUGH, Milo Center, N. Y.

OUR SHOE STORE

IS A VERY INTERESTING PLACE

We claim to have the largest and most complete stock of Shoes in this town. We are now showing large variety of styles in the best makes for Men, Women, Children and Infants. We can't tell you much about them in this space, but we want to call your attention to the famous Ralston Health Shoes For Men.

All of the Style and the most Comfort

Ralston Health Shoes
UNION MADE

It is easy enough to cry "Best" but that which convinces is the test. We make strong claims for this Shoe, and ask a trial that our claims may be proven. We claim a unique, common sense sole construction, found in no other shoe. A system of last modeling which makes a shoe that fits the foot as nature intended.

We also claim that while quantity of material and workmanship may possibly be equaled, they cannot be excelled at the price, and that as good a shoe cannot be made and is not sold for less.

They are, however, the tangible results of many years study of the highly complex needs of the human foot. They appeal to common sense and warrant a trial by every one who desires foot comfort and good service combined.

Hand Blown Off.

Durham, N. C., Nov. 2.—A. W. Tilley, a farmer living near Bahama, in the northern part of this county, was seriously hurt yesterday. He was handling a stick of dynamite when it exploded and his hand was torn off about the wrist. The arm was shattered so that it had to be amputated near the elbow.—Raleigh Post.

Queen Quality

Shoes Lead, Others Follow.

BEHIND EVERY FACT LIES A REASON.

When there are a multitude of shoes trying to be sold, and one shoe far surpasses all others in volume of sales, there is a reason for it. This one shoe is "Queen Quality." Its sales are more than double the sales of any other women's shoe. It can't be because of price, since many other shoes cost the same. It is simply a triumph of leadership.

"QUEEN QUALITY."

"Queen Quality" is recognized as leader in style. It leads others follow. It originates, others copy. Everywhere it sets the style. If you wear a "Queen Quality" you are with the leaders in fashion.
