EXCLUSIVELY IN SALEM ACADEMY AND COLLEGE.

REV. J. H. CLEWELL, Ph. D., Principal.

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., March 9th., 1904.

Mr. Chas. M. Stieff, Charlotte, N. C.

Dear Sir:—It is a little unusual to file an order this late in the season, but we find that the more Steiff Pianos which we add to our music department, the better the results attained in the work. We have added quite a number of your instruments during the last few years, and they have all given good satisfaction. It requires a piano of unusual merit for the constant use which all practice pianos have within our school, but we are glad to be able to say that your instruments have stood the test, and we will continue to purchase from your firm from time to time as the need arises.

I think there are about a dozen now in the school.

J. H. CLEWELL, Principal.

A rare and magnificent display of these pianos can now be seen and heard at Greenville, at lowest factory prices and easiest terms. We also have on the floor several slightly used upright pianos at prices ranging from $175.00 to $225.00. Each instrument is guaranteed for 10 years. We also have a fine display of organs at surprising low figures ranging in price from a $35.00 and up. They are fully guaranteed.

This factory sale will positively close before many more days, when factory prices will promptly withdrawn, and if you have any earthly use for either piano or organ it will pay you to take a look around here in Greenville. Miss Be sie Patrick, who is associated with us during our stay here, will be glad to give you a tune.

CHAS. M. STIEFF.

G. G. FINEMAN, Factory Representative.

TOWN MATTERS.

Business Transacted by the Aldermen.
The board of aldermen were in regular monthly session Thursday night, the mayor and six aldermen being present.

Under the head of streets the complain's of Brinkley & Hooker and Mrs. G. B. King for alleged damages were discussed but no definite conclusions reached.

The market committee reported the sale of a tenement house on the market lot, and that material for construction of the guard house had been received and work would begin in a few days.

The finance committee reported funds low in the treasury and it was ordered that $1,000 be borrowed from Greenville Banking & Trust Co. for thirty days, to enable the treasurer to pay all bills until the tax collector can make collections.

The street lights and wells were reported in fair condition. One lot in white cemetery was reported sold during past month. No work have been done in either cemetery during the month.

A pair of rubber gloves was ordered purchased for engineer of fire engine.

The tax collector, treasurer, policeman and dispensary commissioners made their reports for the month of October. The amount of sales at the dispensary during the month was $3,736.15.

The mayor was ordered to have published in THE REFLECTOR an article setting forth the exact condition of the smallpox in Greenville and 2,000 extra copies of the paper containing said article were ordered to be circulated.

A committee was appointed to make out bill of expense incurred by the town incident to smallpox patients and present same to the county commissioners.

Nineteen members of Red Hawk Fire Company were exempted from poll tax for the year 1904.

The special tax of $10 per day on merry-go-rounds was reduced to $5 per day.

The ordinance prohibiting the discharge of fire works in town was ordered to be suspended from 6 o'clock p. m., Dec. 24th to 6 o'clock a. m., Dec. 27th (excepting Sunday) provided that pop crackers or cannon crackers exceeding 4 inches in length shall not be permitted to be sold or used in the town.

The special tax of $5 per year on bicycle dealers was rescinded.

Necessary uniforms and overcoats for policeman were ordered purchased.

Accounts to the amount of about $550 were allowed and ordered paid.

Ruined by Bucket Shop.

Allan Parker the defaulting cashier of the First National Bank Tullahoma, Tenn., gave himself up to the authorities last week and acknowledged that he was short in his accounts to the amount of about $40,000. A special from Tullahoma to the Asheville News under date of the 22nd quotes Parker as saying "I have lost the money in speculation and bucket shop transactions I was led into by other men, prominent men of this city, and I carried on my trade through them." Up to the time of his default Parker had an un sullied reputation for honesty and integrity and stood high in the community.

AYDEN ITEMS.

AYDEN N. C., Nov. 1, 1904.

We went to Winterville yesterday to hear the county candidates speak. They were on hand and were met by a very respectable crowd. They acquitted themselves nicely and the crowd seemed pleased with their speeches. Especially did Fred Tucker, A. D. Johnston and Joe Blow make a ten strike in presenting their claims. The people are certainly with them, and these three last are congratulating themselves all over.

While in Winterville yesterday we visited the cotton seed oil mill. The visit was very interesting to us, as we were shown by Josephus Cox and Mr. Smith through all the departments and the manner in which the huge machinery was manipulated. It is a credit to Winterville and should be so to any town.

Raymond Turnage has been visiting in the country.

J. J. Edwards has come home from Hookerton.

Several car loads of brick were shipped from here this week. The manufacture of brick is quite a profitable industry here.

Dr. Sauls never tires of adding to the appearance of his drug store. For convenience and neatness it is a thing of beauty.

Haywood Smith and Robert Willoughby spent Sunday with Charlie Tyson.

The Masons held their regular semi-monthly meeting last night. William Dixon, of Fountain Hill, Greene county, was in town Wednesday.

Streets opened up south of Tripp's factory and north of Hart street would add much to those sections of Ayden and no doubt greatly enhance the value of property lying in that part of town.

Joe McLawhou went to Winterville Wednesday.

Joseph Neleon attended the speaking at Winterville yesterday.

Mrs. Turnage and daughter, Miss Jennie, of Ormondville, have been visiting Mrs. W. M. Edwards.

Large quantities of cotton have been brought to this market during the past several days. The buyers are busy and happy accordingly.

Thank the goodness Bill Hanrahan has gone to Richmond and we sincerely hope never to return.

Josh Mill's large new stables are complete and Mr. Mills seems to be doing a thriving business.

Mrs. J. W. Quinerly spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Greenville visiting friends.

William Smith went to and returned from Bethel Tuesday.

Frank Lilly and S. A. Jenkins have been to Grifton this week.

Your Winterville correspondent writes about his baby, Bob Glenn and baby Alton Parker in a surprising strain. Why that ain't nothing we've got the original John Smith who married Poca hoatas and a whole lot of little Smiths. Can he beat that?

Miss Dollie Adams came up on the train Tuesday and is stopping with the family of Dr. Dixon.

Mrs. Robert Wiggate, who has been visiting friends near here returned to her home in Fayetteville.

W. E. Hooks spent Wednesday in Scotland Neck.

Drummers are on the increase. They come every day.

Sweet potatoes and persimmon beer are in demand.

It is reported the Republican candidates spoke at Littlefield just a mile below here yesterday. They kept the appointment mighty quiet.

Rom Tilghman and wife of Washington City, are here on a visit to his uncle, L. B. Tilghman.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, NOVEMBER 4, 1904.

Not many more days to wait to see who it will be.

Watch for Republican tricks when election day comes.

The nearer the election comes the worse the Republicans get on a run.

Vote the straight Democratic ticket from President down to township constable.

Greenville's board of aldermen is composed of business men and they transact business whenever they go in session.

The campaign is practically over. It is now the duty of every Democrat to vote and make the majority as large as possible.

A talented son of North Carolina has become chief justice of the supreme court of Arkansas. This is Joseph Morrison Hill, the youngest son of Gen. D. H. Hill, of the Confederate army, and also a brother of Prof. D. H. Hill of the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Raleigh.

In the Review of Reviews for November, Prof. P. G. Hollen, of the Iowa State College of Agriculture, tells what has been accomplished in that State, with the cooperation of the railroads, in the matter of educating the farmers in corn-planting. Tours of the State have been made and lectures given in "corn-gospel" trains, so called. The result is a greatly increased yield of Iowa's staple product.

The swing of the pendulum is manifestly toward the Democratic side. The speeches of Judge Parker, and other influences, have put a different face on the situation within the last ten days, and Democratic prospects improve daily. The odds against Parker in the betting in New York have fallen materially, and the betting in favor of the Republican candidate for Governor of that State has changed to odds on the Democratic candidate. This is stated for the information of those who think that election betting signifies. The news from the doubtful States grows better and better, and there appears to be good reason for the cheerfulness which our New York correspondent represents as prevailing at national headquarters. —Charlotte Observer.

The Kansas newspapers are happy as pigs in barrels of corn, under conditions giving each pig a barrel to itself. A series of misfortunes, such as populism, new womanism, floods, drought, grasshoppers, caterpillars, &c., had for over a decade prior to 1890 the effect of steadily reducing by emigration the population of the state. In the last two or three years, however, says the Richmond News-Leader, the wanderers have been coming back and the population figures have been continually climbing. This is the cause of the felicity of the Kansas papers, but there is one thing that puzzles us, and which our contemporaries do not explain. That is why any one who ever left Kansas should desire to return. Some folks are monstrous queer, and Kansas folks seem to be among the queerest of all. —Durham Sun.

The State auditor has completed the statement showing the valuation of real estate in North Carolina for 1903, as it will appear in the report for the year ending November 30th, 1904. The total number of acres is 29,304,882, and the valuation $144,299,619. This is the valuation of real estate in the country. There are 20,000 acres owned by manufacturing establishments outside of towns, the value of this being $350,000. The value of mineral, quarry, and timber interests is $1,237,361. The number of town lots is 108,986, the valuation of these being $74,456,870. The total valuation of real estate in North Carolina is $220,303,339. The previous year it was only $178,892,819. The increase during the year is over $32,000,000, which is by far the greatest ever recorded in any one year. This shows the great prosperity of the State and the marked advance in the value of farm lands. It is a very practical proof of the prosperity of North Carolina.

A Republican Blunder.

The Democratic national ticket is likely to pick up one electoral vote in California this year. It came about in this manner.

The Republicans of California made the mistake of nominating as one of their presidential electors a federal office-holder. Such a person is ineligible as an elector, and if elected will be disqualified. In that event the next highest elector will be elected. If all the Republican electors are elected and the one who is disqualified is ruled out the next highest man is bound to be a Democrat. The Republican managers in California did not discover their mistake until too late to correct it. California has ten electoral votes, a gain of one since 1900. In 1892 that State gave Cleveland a plurality of a little less than three hundred and eight of its nine electoral votes were cast for the Democratic nominee. Not many years ago it also elected a Democratic governor, so that you see California is by no means a hopeless proposition for the Democrats.

Republicans Hard Pressed.

There must be a great deal of truth in the statement sent out by the press dispatches that Judge Parker had angered and aroused the Republicans in his Monday night speech at Madison Square Garden, in which he denounced Cortelyouism as shameless. Their party managers have been driven to the necessity of attempting an attack upon the spotless character of the democratic candidate. The person picked out for the job is no other than Boodler Ben Odell, whose governorship record is so rotten that many of his own party have refused to support his creature Higgins. And yet the present Governor of New York tells certain reporters that Parker has been interested in the promotion of a trust, and that his bank book would show how he came out on the deal.

Is it possible for a man like Parker to be hurt by such a vague charge from such a man as Odell?

We think not, and the mere fact that the Republican bosses are encouraging such talk shows they are badly scared, with all their cocksureness and vain boastings. —Charlotte News.

Sour Stomach

When the quantity of food taken is too large or the quality too rich, your stomach is likely to follow, and especially so if the digestion has been weakened by constipation. Eat slowly and not too freely of easily digested food. Masticate the food thoroughly. Let five hours elapse between meals, and when you feel a fullness and weight in the region of the stomach after eating, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the sour stomach may be avoided. BENSONIZER LUNG CURE

NO MORE EXILE FOR CONSUMPTIVES.

A Cure at Last Obtained, After a Searching Investigation, by St. Louis Interests.

A few months ago the attention of a few scientific and philanthropic gentlemen of St. Louis was directed to an entirely new method of combating that most dreadful of all diseases, tuberculosis, commonly called consumption. Out of 115 test cases, 77 were completely cured and 28 have shown such improvement that their ultimate recovery is but a question of a few weeks.

So astonishing have been the results and absolute cures in cases pronounced incurable by all old methods that a company has been formed and is now prepared to furnish at a normal cost this cure to all sufferers of the "White Plague." One of its chief features is that patients can remain at home, surrounded by friends and relatives, and in a great many instances, especially the incipient or early stages of the disease, pursue their daily vocations and still become completely cured.

Patients receiving the same treatment here in St. Louis have completely recovered as rapidly as those in Colorado, New Mexico and Texas.

The wonderful results in question have been accomplished by the Bensonizer, and the company which controls this marvelous medical device have located their main office at 417 North Seventh street, St. Louis. They have also located a factory on Easton avenue and a laboratory has been built at Hillside, Mo.

The cure will be known as the Bensonizer Lung Cure, and Mr. C. P. Benson, the discoverer of the fluid inhalants which are used, will personally have charge of the affairs of the company. Mr. Benson will personally meet all who call at the office of the company on Seventh street, and will answer all communications from sufferers who are unable to make a personal call.—From the St. Louis Globe Democrat.

SOLVED THE PROBLEM.

How the Skipper Named His Boat and Observed the Proprietor.

There is something singularly captivating to the imagination in the names of many of the old time sailing vessels, coastwise and ocean going, which once spread their white wings so plentifully against the blue skies and bright waters of the New England harbors.

Who can help at the mere sound of such names as the Lively Jane, the Lovely Peggy, the Laughing Lucy, the Modest Ann, the Constant Mary, the Three Fair Sisters, creating a mental picture of the sailors' sweethearts so honored in all the flower and freshness of their forgotten charms? Many indeed are the suggestions for the romancer hidden away in the brief compass of old shipping lists preserved here and there in faded and tattered newspapers. Sometimes, too, one catches elsewhere an echo of their name and fame.

In one old New England seaport there was a few years ago an aged seaman whose favorite tune among the many chanteys he was in the habit of humming as he went about the domestic chores of his tiny, solitary house was a scrap of refrain set to a taking air, all he could remember of a once popular sea song in honor of some fair unknown:

Hey, the charming Sally O!
Boston bound who'd daily O?
Sally of the foam to my Sally safe at home—
And we'll speed her home from Callao!

Perhaps the most curious story of any vessel named for a sweetheart is that pertaining to neither fishing craft nor merchantman, but to a little skiff familiar in the long ago to the waters of Narragansett bay. It was owned by the good elder of a little shore village, who for fifty years had persistently courted a shy maiden of the name of Rhoda Baker. So shy was she that often when he called she would not even see him. He would find the sitting room empty and the chair from which she had fled at the very moment of her "Come in" yet rocking by the window.

At length Rhoda died, still a spinster, and her bereaved lover desired to honor her memory by bestowing her name upon his boat. But he encountered a difficulty. Rhoda's permission could not be asked, and since in life she had never accepted him was it fair or courteous to her to dispense with it? He solved this problem of chivalry and avoided the least shadow of presumption by naming the vessel and painting the name in conspicuous black letters on the stern, Rhoda Wouldn't.—Youth's Companion.

The Proper Amount of Sleep.

A proper amount of sleep is of course absolutely essential to continued good health, but if dietetic habits are correct it is a matter which will regulate itself. If a rule is needed, one will follow naturally from the fact that almost every one feels languid on waking and is disposed to take another nap, no matter how long he has been sleeping. This is a morbid sensation which it would take too long to explain here. It is enough to say that lack of sleep should be made up, if possible, at the beginning and not at the end. The best general rule is to rise at a given hour every morning, whether tired or not, and go to bed when sleepy.—Century.

Tough Eggs.

Mrs. Newliwed—I really must complain of those eggs you sold me on Wednesday. They were awful.

Farmer—Why, they were perfectly fresh, ma'am.

Mrs. Newliwed—They must have been fresh, but they were frightfully tough. I made an omelet of them for my husband and they were so tough he couldn't eat them.—Philadelphia Press.

THREE JURORS CURED

Of Cholera Morbus with One Small Bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Mr. G. W. Fowler of Hightower, Ala., relates an experience he had while serving on a petit jury in a murder case at Edwardsville, county seat of Cleburne county, Alabama. He says: "While there I ate some fresh meat and some souse meat and it gave me cholera morbus in a very severe form. I was never more sick in my life and sent to the drug store for a certain cholera mixture, but the druggist sent me a bottle of Chamberlain's Cholera, Colera and Diarrhoea Remedy instead, saying that he had what I sent for, but that this medicine was so much better he would rather send it to me in the first place. I took one dose of it and was better in five minutes. The second dose cured me entirely. Two fellow jurors were afflicted in the same manner and one small bottle cured the three of us." Teddy's Lamb.

Teddy had a little lamb,
A fadeless black was he,
A cute and curly-headed pet,
Whose name was Booker T.

Now, Teddy loved him very much;
They made a charming pair,
And everywhere that Teddy went,
His little lamb was there.

So Teddy said unto himself,
"The great White house is mine;
Why should I care what people think?
I'll take him in to dine."

Then Teddy's friends, the Lilly Whites,
Began to kick and cuss—
"Unless you turn that black sheep cut
Look not for help from us."

But when they saw their Teddy's frown
How soon they changed the cry!
"Play with him, Teddy; we'll be good;
Just keep us eating pie."
—John E. Tyler in Norfolk Virginian-Pilot.

From 148 to 92 Pounds

One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep-seated on the lungs causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down down in weight from 148 to 92 lbs. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

What's in a Name

Everything is in the name when it comes to Witch Hazel Salve. E. C. DeWitt & Co., of Chicago, discovered some years ago how to make a salve from Witch Hazel that is a specific for Piles. A Power For Good

The pills that are potent in their action and pleasant in effect are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. W. S. Philpot, of Albany, Ga., says: "During a bilious attack I took one. Small as it was it did me more good than calomel, blue mass or any other pill I ever took and at the same time the effect was pleasant. Little Early Risers are certainly an ideal pill." Sold by Wooten's Drug Store.

Cured of Lame After 15 Years of Suffering

"I had been troubled with lame back for fifteen years and I found a complete recovery in the use of Chamberlain's Pain Balm," says John G. Bisher, Gilham, Ind. This liniment is also without an equal for sprains and bruises. It is for sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville.

When once liberated within your system, it produces a most wonderful effect. It's worth one's last dollar to feel the pleasure of life that comes by taking Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. Wooten's Drug Store.

To the Voters of Pitt County.

In spite of the fact that I have stated publicly in every township in the county, except in Greenville township, how I stand on the stock law question, there seems to be certain parties constantly misrepresenting me. This prompts me to publish this card.

No man or set of men can procure a stock law through my influence as a representative in the legislature except to allow the white voters in said territory an opportunity to vote upon the matter. If the majority votes in favor of it they can get it, otherwise they could not get it.

Very respectfully,
J. J. LAUGHINGHOUSE.

ECHOES FROM OPERAS.

Brilliant Entertainment at Opera House.
"Echoes from Operas" staged by J. S. Atkinson under the local management of Mrs. J. B. Curry, presented in the opera house Thursday night, was a most beautiful and attractive entertainment. A large audience filled the hall and the entire personnel was a delight from start to finish. It was a wonderful performance of home men and women, boys and little girls. Only one week ago Mr. Atkinson began rehearsing these for the entertainment to be given for the purpose of assisting in building the new Methodist church. What the result of their efforts have been is pleasingly attested by the very large audience that greeted them.

The performance has never been excelled in this town. The perfect rhythmic splendor with which the large group of people, large and small, were trained and handled by Mr. Atkinson, was simply marvelous. The renditions were all excellent. The people of Greenville and Pitt county may always be relied upon to do their very best in all they undertake and the attentive audience showed their appreciation of a high class entertainment.

Too much praise could not be given the untiring efforts of the management. The beautiful women and girls, gorgeously costumed were simply charming. The young men were gallant to the extreme, cavaliers and knightly in elegant paraphernalia of courtliness. It was a superb performance without a thread of discord or friction to mar or jar the evening's enjoyment. Such pleasures do not come often, but this one has shown beyond cavil that there is much stage talent among our home people.

Miss Cherry desires to thank every one who took part in the entertainment. Miss Bessie Patrick assisted her in the accompaniment.

Ralston
Shoes #4
UNION MADE

It is easy enough to cry "Best" but that which convinces is the test. We make strong claims for this Shoe, and ask a trial that our claims may be proven. We claim a unique, common sense sole construction, found in no other shoe. A system of last modeling which makes a shoe that fits the foot as nature intended.

We also claim that while quality of material and workmanship may possibly be equaled, they cannot be excelled at the price, and that as good a shoe cannot be made and is not sold for less.

They are, however, the tangible results of many years study of the highly complex needs of the human foot. They appeal to common sense and warrant a trial by every one who desires foot comfort and good service combined.
