EXCLUSIVELY IN SALEM ACADEMY AND COLLEGE.

REV. J. H. CLEWELL, Ph. D., Principal.

WINSTON SALEM, N. C., March 9th., 1904.

Mr. Chas. M. Stieff, Charlotte, N. C., Dear Sir:—It is a little unusual to file an order this late in the season, but we find that the more Steiff Pianos which we add to our music department, the better the results attained in the work. We have added quite a number of your instruments during the last few years, and they have all given good satisfaction. It requires a piano of unusual merit for the constant use which all practice pianos have within our school, but we are glad to be able to say that your instruments have stood the test, and we will continue to purchase from your firm from time to time as the need arises.

I think there are about a dozen now in the school.
J. H. CLEWELL, Principal.

A rare and magnificent display of these pianos can now be seen and heard at Greenville, at lowest factory prices and easiest terms. We also have on the floor several slightly used upright pianos at prices ranging from $175.00 to $225.00. Each instrument is guaranteed for 10 years. We also have a fine display of organs at surprising low figures ranging in price from $35.00 and up. They are fully guaranteed. This factory sale will positively close before many more days, when factory prices will promptly withdrawn, and if you have any earthly use for either piano or organ it will pay you to take a look around. Be sie Patrick, who is associated with us during our stay here, will be glad to give you figures ranging in price from a tune.

CHAS. M. STIEFF.

G. G. FINEMAN, Factory Representative.

BEAVER DAM ITEMS.

BEAVER DAM, N. C., Nov. 7. No new case of smallpox reported. Quarantine will be raised off of John Tripp and John Baldrée, this week. No one has died, but sore arms are the order of the day. Those who had violated the quarantine law are spending their time at home.

The consolidated school at Ballard's commenced on Oct. 31st with five pupils and two beautiful young ladies to teach them. Laboring people in the country cannot spare their children except from December to April.

The bears have all migrated.

Miss Maud Tyson will teach at New South farm.

Piano Tuning.

Our Mr. Butler, piano tuner and repairer, will be here in a day or two anyone wishing to have their piano tuned or repaired will please leave their order at our warerooms. Mr. Butler's work is guaranteed by us or money refunded. Of course we don't propose to put life in a worn out instrument for $3 or $5. Tuning simply means to even up the unisons, it never improves quality of tone due to the fault of a defective sounding board or imperfect scale, or wires full of flats (commonly known in cheaper instruments) causing a metallic tone. Inferior hammer felts will produce a woody tone, such faults can hardly be adjusted, and we cannot promise to cure chronic troubles.

Very Respectfully Yours,
11-7 2t G. G. FINEMAN.

Buhmann Dawson.

The following cards have been issued:

Dr. Walter Wooten Dawson invites you to be present at the marriage of his sister Bertha Brown to

Mr. Frederick Gustavus Buhmann on Wednesday morning, November the sixteenth nineteen hundred and four at half after seven o'clock Saint Luke's Chapel Winterville, North Carolina.

They Are Elected.

The editor has a happy quartette of little folks at home. Some days ago Mrs. J. B. Cherry gave them her old drive horse, familiarly known as "Dick," and today they received a nice new Hunsucker buggy from Winterville, which is put up in that firm's best style. The little folks feel that they are elected, regardless of how the balance of the nation may go.

Dropped Dead.

Mr. John Brown, who lived near Mt. Pleasant, about five miles from Greenville, dropped dead in his field Monday. Mr. Brown was out in the field with some hands housing his potatoe crop when he fell, and was dead when the others reached him. He was about 60 years old and leaves a wife, six daughter, and two sons.

AYDEN ITEMS.

AYDEN N. C., Nov. 8, 1904. Sad—An old back in his room after tea before a lightwood knot fire, a cigar in his mouth, with no one to molest, no one to care, thoughts of what might have been like castles in the air. Don't want to sit up, don't want to go to bed, reckless and desperate at last he retires to dream of what might have been had he accomplished his desire.—Sad.

Mrs. William Worthington, of our town, received news yesterday that her father Mr. John Brown, had fallen dead in the field a short distance from Greenville on the other side of the river.

Joe and Thad Manning, of Winterville, spent Sunday here. His Honor Mayor J. J. Stokes was in Greenville Monday.

Miss Mary Hodges has been visiting in Kinston.

Our clever postmaster, E. V. Cox, is again at his post. Mr. Cox has had a severe case of fever and his friends are pleased to know he has so nearly recovered. During his illness the duties of postmaster were performed by E. G. Cox most acceptably.

Dr. M. M. Stuls has gone for a few days to Fremont.

The long distance telephone at the drug store is quite a convenience to the public.

Mrs. Jolly spent a day shopping in Greenville last week.

Quinton Bilbro, of Fort Barnwell, has accepted a position as salesman with W. C. Jackson & Co.

Miss Georgia Joyner, one of the teachers in the graded school, spent from Friday until Monday visiting relatives at La Grange.

The motor and engine for the electric plant has arrived. It is now bright by day and soon it will be bright by night.

Miss Julia Bready spent Saturday with her sister, Mrs. C. A. Fair, and returned to her school Monday morning.

Henry Tripp, who had an operation performed in a Norfolk hospital for cancer of the stomach and died, was brought to Winterville last Sunday and then carried to his late home for burial. Mr. Tripp had been a great sufferer for several years.

E. B. McLawhon and family, who have been living in Newbern for some time, have returned to Ayden and will make this their home.

Capt. D. G. Berry and wife and Miss Olivia Berry came home last Friday evening from their visit to Scotland Neck.

Mrs. Coward is on a visit to her son, Heber Coward, in Greenville.

A large crowd went from here to Greenville yesterday.

Luther Wingate, who has been home for some time with a sore arm has returned and resumed his position with the Ayden Milling and Mfg. Co.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON, NOVEMBER 8, 1904.

The camp fires of the campaign have smoldered and the torch of victory is ready to be lighted.

This is one of the between days for the evening paper. Too late to give any before election news, and too soon for any after.

One paper in heading the announcement of the verdict said "McCue will hang." We very much doubt that part of it, however much he may deserve to do so.

The committee have had an eye to business in letting the platform erected near the court house for the Glenn rally remain standing. It can be used to good purpose for an after election jollification or be sold to the other fellows for that purpose if they should lick us. But there is no prospect of the latter.

Chairman L. I. Moore of the county executive committee has conducted a splendid campaign, and the Democratic party owes him thanks for the handsome victory in the county. He has been energetic and painstaking and looked well after all the details of the campaign. The candidates of the party have also conducted an admirable canvass. They visited every section of the county and their speeches have been clean and manly. The appreciation of the people will speak in the handsome majority received by each of the candidates.

The Partridge and the Farmer.

The following plea for the partridge by the Washington Star should be read by every farmer in the land. This bird is truly the friend of the husbandman and should be protected by him against pot-hunters and over zealous sports men. The Star says:

The partridge has long been in favor as breakfast food and as splendid nourishment for the sick and well, but it is now coming into wide favor and renown as the farmer's friend. He is a candidate for the high perch of national bird. His partisans assure us that he is a stout ally of the American husbandman and a much more active defender of American agriculture and prosperity than the proud high flying eagle. Ornithologists, who, under government auspices, have been studying the partridge, say that he is a winner. Only about one-fourth of his food is grain, 19 per cent. corn, 3 per cent. wheat, and the balance millet, barley, sorghum, rye and oats. He does not steal this but gathers it after it has been lost in the field. He never pulls up sprouted grains after the fashion of the crow. He does not rob orchards, though he is fond of fruit, eating wild grapes, dewberries and wild strawberries; his long suit is as a weed seed and an insect eater. He is a glutton for seeds of the smart weed, pigweed, sheep sorrel, and ragweed. He has a passion for the potato bug, the ladybird bug, the chinch bug, the bean beetle, cucumber beetle, boll weevil, caterpillar, cutworm, wireworm, cotton worm, locust and other crop destroyers. In many states the partridge is now being taken into close communion by the farmers instead of being treated as an outlaw. May he flourish and multiply.

New seeded raisins, pitted dates, citron, currants, almonds, walnuts. S. M. Schultz.

Young Men Should Remember.

That it takes more than muscles to make a man.
That bigness is not greatness.
That it requires pluck to be patient.
That selfishness is the most unmanly thing in the world.
That consideration for mother and sister does more to mark a gentleman than the kind of necktie he wears.
That piety is not priggishness.
That the only whole man is the holy man.
That to follow the crowd is a confession of weakness.
That street corners are a poor college.
That one real friend is worth a score of mere acquaintances.
That to be afraid to be one's noblest self is greater cowardice.
That it is never too soon to begin the business of making a man of one's self.
That what is put into the brain today will be taken out of it ten years hence.
That the only manliness worth possession is shown in the life of the Son of Man.—Ex.

New York city's treasurer has just received a check for $75 to be applied to the "conscience fund" of the city by a man who has been dodging his taxes. Now, it is no wonder that the city feels encouraged to put a $4,000,000 increase in its budget for 1905.—Atlanta Journal.

A weak stomach weakens the man, because it cannot transform the food he eats into nourishment. Health and strength cannot be restored to any sick man or weak man without first restoring health and strength to the stomach. A weak stomach cannot digest enough food to feed the tissue and revive the tired and run down limbs and organs of the body. Kodol Dyspepsia cure digests what you eat, cleanses and strengthens the glands and membranes of the stomach, and cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

Fearful Odds Against Him

Bedridden, alone and destitute. Such, in brief was the condition of an old soldier by name of J. J. Havens, Versailles, O. For years he was troubled with kidney disease and neither doctors nor medicines gave him relief. At length he tried Electric Bitters. It put him on his feet in short order and now he testifies: "I'm on the road to recovery." Best on earth for Liver and Kidney troubles and all forms of Stomach and Bowel Complaints. Only 50c Guaranteed by J. L. Wooten, druggist. *

A Power For Good

The pills that are potent in their action and pleasant in effect are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. W. S. Philpot, of Albany, Ga., says: "During a bilious attack I took one. Small as it was it did me more good than calomel, blue mass or any other pill I ever took and at the same time the effect was pleasant. Little Early Risers are certainly an ideal pill." Sold by Wootens Drug Store.

What is Life?

In the last analysis nobody knows, but we do know that it is under strict law. Abuse that law even slightly, pain results. Irregular living means derangement of the organs, resulting in Constipation, Headache or Liver trouble. Dr. King's New Life Pills quickly re-adjusts this. It's gentle, yet thorough. Only 25c at Wooten's Drug Store.

Mrs. John Wesley, St. Louis—Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea is the greatest tonic I have ever used; cured me of chronic stomach trouble. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Wooten's Drug Store.

This one shoe is "Queen Quality." Its sales are more than double the sales of any other women's shoe. It can't be because of price, since many other shoes cost the same. It is simply a triumph of leadership.

"QUEEN QUALITY."

"Queen Quality" is recognized as leader in style. It leads others follow. It originates, others copy. Everywhere it sets the style. If you wear a "Queen Quality" you are with the leaders in fashion.
