The Store and the Stock.

This store has a reputation to sustain. It is a safe and satisfactory place to buy, a place where newness is triumphant, and where goodness and merit go hand in hand with prices, wherein the fullest satisfaction is given. Think of it as your store, your place to buy.

Unprecedented values in high class Dress Goods, Broad Cloths, Cheviots, Serges and fancy, manish Suitings. The most popular weaves for suits and Skirts.

Ladies' Fine Jackets. The most fashionable Jackets for fall and winter are here. The style are different from those last season. Too many to attempt description.

Ready to wear Clothing. We carry the finest lines of Clothing made for boys, youths and men. We carry the "Also" system and the "EFF EFF," made by Feckheimer Feishel Co. Try a suit of these clothes and if not satisfactory, money will be refunded.

C. L. WILKINSON & CO.

EXCLUSIVELY IN SALEM ACADEMY AND COLLEGE.

REV. J. H. CLEWELL, Ph. D., Principal.

WINSTON SALEM, N. C., March 9th., 1904.

Mr. Chas. M. Stieff, Charlotte, N. C.,

Dear Sir:—It is a little unusual to file an order this late in the season, but we find that the more Steiff Pianos which we add to our music department, the better the results attained in the work. We have added quite a number of our instruments during the last few years, and they have all given good satisfaction. It requires a piano of unusual merit for the constant use which all practice pianos have within our school, but we are glad to be able to say that your instruments have stood the test, and we will continue to purchase from your firm from time to time as the need arises.

I think there are about a dozen now in the school.

J. H. CLEWELL, Principal.

A rare and magnificent display of these pianos can now be seen and heard at Greenville, at lowest factory prices and easiest terms. We also have on the floor several slightly used upright pianos at prices ranging from $175.00 to $225.00. Each instrument is guaranteed for 10 years.

We also have a fine display of organs at surprising low figures ranging in price from $35.00 and up. They are fully guaranteed.

CHAS. M. STIEFF.

C. G. FINEMAN, Factory Representative.

Snow.

The first snow of the season fell here Sunday afternoon. It came thick and fast for awhile, but the ground was too wet for it to stick.

The change in weather brought a severe storm along the coast region that played havoc with telegraph and telephone wires.

We could not get any market reports today because of trouble with telegraph wires north.

Plenty of subscription receipts ready to exchange for what you owe THE REFLECTOR.

The wind had a regular winter whistle Sunday night.

THE WEATHER

Fair tonight and Tuesday.

THE KID AND THE KING.

Written for the REFLECTOR] The Chicod kid of J. and B. Now a part of the Greenville ring; A marvelous kid indeed is he, To utterly vanquish an angry King.

The Chicod kid of J. and B. Seemed greedy we must admit, He gave to the king only one out of three Of the votes of the people of Pitt.

This Chicod kid of J. and B., So handsome and fat and sleek, Honored and trusted by all is he, While the angry King o'er his sins must weep.

This Chicod kid of J. and B. To serve his people will surely try For he's honest and true as all will see, As he enjoys his tempting pie.

And now a little advice we'll give To the King whose tears are hid, Never again so long as you live, Monkey with the Chicod kid.

Free Mulberry Trees for North Carolina.

The past several seasons' experience in silk-growing in North Carolina has demonstrated that the women and children of this state may by light and interesting work during six weeks of early summer and without interfering seriously with the ordinary duties, each earn from $30.00 to $40.00. Those who can devote more time to the work may earn more. Every pound of silk cocoons grown in North Carolina in 1904 has been sold at 90 cents to $1.00 per pound.

It is necessary to increase the available supply of silk-worm food. Every farm and village lot in North Carolina, having dry soil, should have at least 100 trees.

The fruit of seedling mulberries is excellent for poultry and hogs. The roots spread widely near the surface of the soil and will prevent even steep hillsides from washing. We recommend that farmers plant seedling mulberries 12x12 feet apart, permitting the plants to branch low. Use the field as a run for poultry or hogs and allow the children of the family to have the leaves for feeding silk worms as a source of pocket money.

In order to encourage the planting of the white mulberry, the North Carolina Department of Agriculture will distribute during the fall of 1904, among the farmers of the State, rooted seedling trees in lots of 50 and 100. Not more than 100 will be sent to one person. Recipients of trees will be required to pay postage or expressage at the rate of one cent per tree. This amount must be enclosed with application. Send stamps or money order—not bank checks.

Address applications to and make money orders payable to the undersigned.

GERALD MCCARTHY, Biologist, N. C. Department of Agriculture, Raleigh, N. C.

W. B. Wilson & Son.

W. B. Wilson has associated with him in business his son, W. B. Wilson, Jr. Mr. Wilson established a brokerage business here in 1885 and each year it has grown. His promptness, courtesy and careful attention to orders was for him the utmost confidence of the trade. His son is a "chip off the old block" and they will continue to enjoy a large patronage.

Dr. H. O. Hyatt will be in Greenville at Hotel Bertha December 5th, 6th and 7th, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday for the purpose of treating diseases of the eye and fitting glasses. Those not able to pay a fee will be examined free. 11-14 3 11 a week 1 day

MONDAY AFTERNOON, NOVEMBER 11, 1904.

A 60 year-old boy in the western part of the state asked his mother's permission to get married. The latter is ninety one.

We suppose Cortelyou can get any place in the cabinet he wants, unless it be secretary of state for which Hay has already been slated.

A member of the Charlotte Observer staff wrote on to Washington to learn how to pronounce the President's name. The answer says it is "Rosyvelt."

The wife of Arthur L. Bishop, the drummer who committed murder in Charlotte and was sentenced to the penitentiary for five years, has been importuning Governor Aycock to pardon her husband. The governor declined to interfere with the sentence of the court. He is entirely right. Bishop got off exceedingly light.

If the state of Alabama does not cut off the annual appropriation from the public fund to Booker Washington's institute it will be remiss in its duty. Washington is nothing less than a politician and place hunter, and the attention heretofore given him by President Roosevelt has completely turned his head. His influence and usefulness as an educator of his race has been destroyed.

It is estimated on careful authority that 75 000 lives have thus far been lost at Port Arthur. The siege of the great Russian stronghold promises to be the most remarkable, in many respects, in history.—Atlanta Constitution.

Now that the votes have been counted and Roosevelt is found to have 343 and Parker only 133, it is being predicted that the Democratic party is on its last legs. This is a good deal like what was said about the Republican party when Cleveland was elected last time.—Charlotte Observer.

One story is that, recognizing that "the hour of victory is the hour of magnanimity," the President will, in his new term, deal with the South in a spirit of great consideration. The story is an agreeable one, but the trouble about it is that nobody, not even the President himself knows for one day to the next what the President is going to do about anything. Charlotte Observer.

The prophet of evil is never a welcome guest, but it had just as well be said, by way of preparation of our people for what is to come, that with as strenuous a man as Mr. Roosevelt in the White House for the next four years, with a Senate and House each about two-thirds Republican, the South, the only hostile section, may look out for rough sledding.—Charlotte Observer.

Orphans' Day.

Thanksgiving Day is a special donation day to the orphans' homes of our State and this is most fitting.

A people greatly blessed of God desire to make some expression of their gratitude to Him. They find no cause more worthy than that of the destitute, homeless orphan child. They realize that our orphanages are performing a necessary, an important work for childhood and for the world. These institutions are being greatly used in the salvation of the children, in their preparation for useful lives. Without care and training the lives of these boys and girls would likely be given over to evil.

Surely an offering, lovingly made, to a well conducted orphans' home is accepted by God as a true thank-offering to Him.

We would that all of our people and especially our children in the homes of the State might enter more and more earnestly and actively into work for homeless children. The boys and girls of today will be the ones who will, in a few years, carry forward this noble work of love.

THREE JURORS CURED

Of Cholera Morbus with One Small Bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Mr. G. W. Fowler of Hightower, Ala., relates an experience he had while serving on a petit jury in a murder case at Edwardsville, county seat of Cleburne county, Alabama. He says: "While there I ate some fresh meat and some souse meat and it gave me cholera morbus in a very severe form. I was never more sick in my life and sent to the drug store for a certain cholera mixture, but the druggist sent me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy instead, saying that he had what I sent for, but that this medicine was so much better he would rather send it to me in the fix I was in. I took one dose of it and was better in five minutes. The second dose cured me entirely. Two fellow jurors were afflicted in the same manner and one small bottle cured the three of us." For sale at Wooten's Drug Store.

A Heavy Load.

To lift that load off of the stomach take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat. Sour stomach, belching, gas on stomach and all disorders of the stomach that are curable, are instantly relieved and permanently cured by the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. S. P. Storrs, a druggist at 297 Main street, New Britain, Conn. says: "Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is giving such universal satisfaction and is so surely becoming the positive relief and subsequent cure for this distressing ailment, I feel that I am always sure to satisfy and gratify my customers by recommending it to them. I write this to show how well the remedy is spoken of here." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure was discovered after years of scientific experiments and will positively cure all stomach troubles. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

Mothers Praise It.

Mothers everywhere praise One Minute Cough Cure for the sufferings it has relieved and the lives of their little ones it has saved. A certain cure for coughs, croup and whooping cough. A. L. Spafford, Postmaster of Chester, Mich., says: "Our little girl was unconscious from strangulation during a sudden and terrible attack of croup. One Minute Cough Cure quickly relieved and cured her and I cannot praise it too highly." One Minute Cough Cure relieves coughs, makes breathing easy, cuts out phlegm, draws out inflammation, and removes every cause of a cough and strain on lungs. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

Sour Stomach

When the quantity of food taken is too large or the quality too rich, sour stomach is likely to follow, and especially so if the digestion has been weakened by constipation. Eat slowly and not too freely of easily digested food. Masticate the food thoroughly. Let five hours elapse between meals, and when you feel a fullness and weight in the region of the stomach after eating, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the sour stomach may be avoided. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville.

GRIMESLAND ITEMS.

GRIMESLAND, N. C., Nov. 11.

For the last few weeks our people have been thinking and working upon two important matters the election and the Charitable Brotherhood picnic. The first passed off quietly Tuesday and we are all satisfied with the result. Yesterday the Charitable Brotherhood had one of the greatest and best picnics ever given in North Carolina. There were thirty nine barbecued pigs, besides other meats and trimmings and several thousand people to eat them.

The C. B. H. held a special meeting in their lodge room in forenoon and laid out a programme for grand parade, etc. The parade under the management of chief marshal J. L. Gibson, began at 11 o'clock and after marching through the streets of the town made halt at the long tables already laden with as tempting a dinner as it has ever been our pleasure to see. There was plenty and more than enough to fill the immense crowd that came for to eat. The Grimesland lodge is a very strong organization and it extended invitations to all the lodges in Beaufort and Pitt counties and they come too, and were welcome. Hon Frank G. Paul of Washington, made a pleasant after dinner speech, setting forth the objects and plans of the C. B. H.

This writer, though not a member of C. B. H., has watched its work in this neighborhood, and can say that it has done a great and good work here.

Our best citizens are its members, both rich and poor, all working for each other's benefit. One thing especially in C. B. H. is, that their charity is not confined to its own members, but they have, and do help others outside of their order. We are in a position to know that they look after the sick ones, and help the widows and orphans and have improved the moral tone of our community. They practice charity, and teach morality, and brotherly love.

May the order prosper and grow in number till every community in the state is organized and feels its good effect.

Thousands cured.

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve has cured thousands of cases of Piles. "I bought a box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve on the recommendation of our druggist," so writes C. H. LaCroix, of Zavalla, Tex., "and used it for a stubborn case of Piles. It cured me permanently." Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

Queen Quality

Shoes Lead, Others Follow.

BEHIND EVERY FACT LIES A REASON.

When there are a multitude of shoes trying to be sold, and one shoe far surpasses all others in volume of sales, there is a reason for it.

This one shoe is "Queen Quality." Its sales are more than double the sales of any other woman's shoe. It can't be because of price, since many other shoes cost the same. It is simply a triumph of leadership.

"QUEEN QUALITY."

"Queen Quality" is recognized as leader in style. It leads others follow. It originates, others copy. Everywhere it sets the style. If you wear a "Queen Quality" you are with the leaders in fashion.

BOOTS $3.00. A FEW SPECIALS $3.50.
