C. L. WILKINSON & CO.

EXCLUSIVELY IN SALEM ACADEMY AND COLLEGE.

REV. J. H. CLEWELL, Ph. D., Principal.

WILKINSON SALEM, N. C., March 9th., 1904.

Mr. Chas. M. Stieff, Charlotte, N. C.,

Dear Sir:—It is a little unusual to file an order this late in the season, but we find that the more Stieff Pianos which we add to our music department, the better the results attained in the work. We have added quite a number of your instruments during the last few years, and they have all given good satisfaction. It requires a piano of unusual merit for the constant use which all practice pianos have within our school, but we are glad to be able to say that your instruments have stood the test, and we will continue to purchase from your firm from time to time as the need arises.

I think there are about a dozen now in the school.

J. H. CLEWELL, Principal.

A rare and magnificent display of these pianos can now be seen and heard at Greenville, at lowest factory prices and easiest terms. We also have on the floor several slightly used upright pianos at prices ranging from $175.00 to $395.00. Each instrument is guaranteed for 10 years.

We also have a fine display of organs at surprising low prices ranging in price from $35.00 and up. They are fully guaranteed. This factory sale will positively close before many more days, when factory prices will promptly withdrawn, and if you have any earthly use for it or piano or organ it will pay you to take a look around. Ben in Greenville Miss Be sie Patrick, who is associated with us during our stay here, will be glad to give you squares ranging in price from a tune.

CHAS. M. STIEFF.

G. G. FINEMAN, Factory Representative.

FLEMING-THIGPEN.

Beautiful Home Wedding.

Seldom do we witness a more beautiful wedding than that which was solemnized at the hospitable home of Mrs. Mariba Thigpen, just two miles north of Greenville, Wednesday afternoon, when her youngest daughter, Miss Lydia, was united in the bonds of matrimony to Mr. Julius Fleming, of Pactolus. All through the house could be seen decorations of palms, ferns and trailing ivy, whilst the parlor was a scene of loveliness, palms, ferns, asparagus and white chrysanthemums here abounding in quantity.

Just as Miss Mary Higgs, of Greenville, skillfully started the favorite wedding march "Mendelssohn's" the ribbon boys, Masters Carey Harrington and Guy Cherry, dressed in pure white marched in the parlor holding the ribbons. Then followed Misses Anna Fleming, of Washington and Annie Fleming, of Greenville, dressed in Nun's veiling and carrying huge white chrysanthemum; next came the dame of honor, Mrs. Boper, of Washington, dressed in white silk mull with accordion plaited chiffon trimmings, carrying white chrysanthemums. Then the maid of honor, Miss Estelle Thigpen, sister of the bride, wearing a beautiful dress of white crepe cloth and carrying a bunch of white chrysanthemums.

Then came the bride and groom. The bride gowned in beautiful white crepe de chene with real lace trimmings carrying a huge shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley, was a picture of loveliness itself. The Rev. A. T. King, of Greenville, in his usual solemn and impressive manner joined them together as man and wife, using the wedding ring which was borne in by little Miss Elizabeth Cobb, in white silk.

During the ceremony Miss Higgs softly rendered that touching melody "Schubert's Serenade." After congratulations were extended by the large crowd present the happy couple left on the evening train for an extended bridal tour.

Mr. Fleming is one of Pitt county's most popular and progressive young business men. The bride is one of her most beautiful and charming daughters. The best wishes of innumerable friends follow them.

Look at the Ads.

These are fine days for trading and the merchants are getting the benefit of them. By the way, don't go beating around to hunt up what you want to buy, but save a lot of time by looking at THE REFLECTOR advertising columns before you start out trading. You find the advertisements of live business men in this paper and they have the things you want.

A Warning.

It might be well for our people to see that their doors and windows are securely fastened for a few nights. We notice when the circus was in Wilson recently several robberies were committed by hangers on around the show. There may be such followers of the circus when it comes here, and it is well enough to be on the lookout for them.

In the great Adam Forepaugh and Sell Brothers aggregation special attention is paid to the pleasure and comfort of the ladies and children who can at all times visit it unattended, with perfect propriety and safety.

THE WEATHER

Fair tonight warmer in south east portion, Friday fair.

Buhmann-Dawson Marriage.

Winterville, N. C., Nov. 16.—Special—One of the most beautiful marriages ever witnessed in Winterville took place this morning at half past seven o'clock, in St. Luke's Episcopal church, when Mr. F. G. Buhmann, of Ayden, and Miss Bertha Dawson, of this place, were united in the bonds of holy matrimony. The church was beautifully decorated in green and white, and the clear crisp morning lent additional loveliness to the scene.

Promptly at half past seven the ushers, Messrs. J. C. Green, of Winterville, and Claude Dawson, of Raleigh, marched up the aisle to the strains of Lohengrin exquisitely rendered by Miss Clyde Harrison, of Raleigh, who presided at the organ. After them came the maid of honor, Miss Lena Dawson of Eureka, followed by Mrs. S. P. Burt, of Louisburg, the dame of honor. As the groom with his best man, Mr. Walter Buhmann, of Greensboro, stepped from the vestry room into the chancel the bride, attired in a lovely blue going-away gown, and carrying bride roses moved up the aisle leaning upon the arm of her brother, Dr. W. W. Dawson. The groom met her at the chancel steps and led her to the altar where they were united in marriage according to the beautiful ritual of the Episcopal church, Rev. W. E. Cox, of Greenville, officiating.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Buhmann left on the morning train for an extended bridal tour, bearing with them the hearty congratulations and good wishes of all their host of friends.

An informal pre-nuptial reception was given at the home of the bride on College street Tuesday evening. The beautiful display of presents attested the wide popularity of the happy couple.

Among the visitors present at the marriage were Rev. T. H. King and Messrs. Robert Anderson D. S. Moore, Will Buhmann and David Dibb, of Ayden, O. L. Whichard, Kingston, R. F. Abercrombie, New York, B. C. Pearce, Sanford, N. C., Dr. J. R. Abercrombie, Baltimore, Misses Olivia Berry, Ayden, Freda Buhmann, Greensboro, Lu'la Hazlett, Borden N. C.

A Paragon.

"Can you cook?"
 "Yes, mum; everything."
 "And wash?"
 "Yes, mum."
 "How many nights do you wash?"
 "None."
 "Sunday afternoon?"
 "No, mum."
 "How often will you scrub the kitchen?"
 "Twice a week."
 "And wash the windows?"
 "Every Friday."
 "Build a fire every morning?"
 "Yes, mum."
 "Do you dislike children?"
 "No, mum."
 "How long were you in your last place?"
 "Four years."
 "Why did you leave?"
 "The people went to Europe."
 "How much wages did you get?"
 "Eight dollars a month."
 "When can you come?"
 "Tomorrow."
 Just then a keeper from the insane asylum rushed up and said: "Here you are!" bound her hand and foot and carried her off bodily. —Chicago Record.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON, NOVEMBER 17, 1904.

How about your taxes and what you owe the newspaper? Time to be paying.

The president is entertaining a Japanese prince who came over to see how the country looks; and the people pay the bills

If the divorce evil argument fails to bring about corrections to the law by the next legislature, then argument is not worth much.

One man has been heard to remark that his troubles seem just begun since he got elected. Those wanting places must be after him very thick.

Now the dispatches say Ratstorpny at Che-Foo. Wonder what the rats done with him after they tore him. Better put their ponies to some other use

The Washington reporters failing to find out when something did happen to the president rather discredits their prophecies of what is going to happen.

The workmen digging the trenches and putting in the water pipes attract plenty of lookers on. If all the idlers would take a shovel and throw dirt the work would move along faster.

If more people would catch the spirit of Col Sugg and praise things instead of kicking against them, the town would move along faster. His idea is to say something good about everything, and it is a good idea.

The Washington Gazette-Messenger, a paper just a few weeks older than THE DAILY REFLECTOR, recently completed its tenth year. In its career it has enlarged from a three column sheet to seven columns. The Gazette-Messenger has been an important factor in the advancement of its town.

The president, according to a correspondent, has expressed himself as feeling hurt over the criticisms against him in the south, and especially the charge that he favors social equality of the races. For the life of us we are unable to see who the president can blame for these criticisms but himself. If his own personal acts in regard to the negro do not show his inclinations we are at a loss to know what it does show. But as he is now avowing friendliness to the South it is to be hoped he is sincere in it.

Those people of the South who are paying their money for the privilege of reading the New York World, may read with relish (?) the following slur at their section which appeared in a recent issue of that paper:

"Many and various were the influences that contributed to the unprecedented personal victory gained by Mr. Roosevelt. But none of the minor influences helped him more than did the abuse which the Southern politicians and newspapers heaped upon him for entertaining Booker T. Washington at the White House.

The American people will never accept the dictum that a negro scholar is the inferior of a white ignorant, that a negro gentleman is the inferior of a white blackguard, that a man's title to consideration rests on the color of his skin and not on his character and his achievements.

The World hopes that this little lesson has finally been thoroughly learned."

The New York Herald estimates that the election cost the two political parties more than twenty-two million dollars. We have always been in favor of popular elections, but if the Herald's figures are any way near correct we shall be forced to lean to the theory that the goods come too high.—Raleigh Post.

This paper is much opposed to divorce and we note with some alarm that a Detroit woman is suing her husband to break the marriage bond on the ground that he is a plebian, the chief grievance being his having years ago worked in a saw mill for a short while. Suppose this elegant and aristocratic dame should win her suit, how many miserable and mismatched matrons could get divorces because their husbands had once performed manual labor. The self-made man is the glory of our country.—Charlotte News.

A Heavy Load.

To lift that load off of the stomach take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat. Sour stomach, belching, gas on stomach and all disorders of the stomach that are curable, are instantly relieved and permanently cured by the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. S. P. Storrs, a druggist at 297 Main street, New Britain, Conn. says: "Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is giving such universal satisfaction and is so surely becoming the positive relief and subsequent cure for this distressing ailment, I feel that I am always sure to satisfy and gratify my customers by recommending it to them. I write this to show how well the remedy is spoken of here." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure was discovered after years of scientific experiments and will positively cure all stomach troubles. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

A Boy's Wild Ride For Life

With family around expecting him to die, and a son riding for life, 13 miles, to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, W. H. Brown, of Leesville, Ind., endured death's agonies from asthma, but this wonderful medicine gave instant relief and soon cured him. He writes: "I now sleep soundly every night." Like marvelous cures of Consumption, Pneumonia, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds and Grip prove its matchless merit for all Throat and Lung troubles. Guarantee bottles 50c and $1. Trial bottles free at Wooten's Drug Store. t. s. & t. s. w.

Mothers Praise It.

Mothers everywhere praise One Minute Cough Cure for the sufferings it has relieved and the lives of their little ones it has saved. A certain cure for coughs, croup and whooping cough. A. L. Spafford, Postmaster of Chester, Mich., says: "Our little girl was unconscious from strangulation during a sudden and terrible attack of croup. One Minute Cough Cure quickly relieved and cured her and I cannot praise it too highly." One Minute Cough Cure relieves coughs, makes breathing easy, cuts out phlegm, draws out inflammation, and removes every cause of a cough and strain on lungs. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

Thousands cured.

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve has cured thousands of cases of Piles. "I bought a box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve on the recommendation of our druggist," so writes C. H. LaCroix, of Zavalla, Tex., "and used it for a stubborn case of Piles. It cured me permanently." Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

Combine Comfort With Style

Modern fine shoe making is a combination of Science, Art and Organization. Many shoe makers understand the principles of good shoe making, they know how a durable and stylish shoe ought to be made, but lack the necessary organization to carry out their ideals. Only by combining these three qualifications can you get perfect shoes. Our Fine Shoe Lines, the Dorothy Dodd and Ralston Health, represent the very acme of scientific shoe making combined with style and finish.

ABOUT

RAIN COATS AND OVERCOATS.

The very height of fashion, according to whispered rumors from good tailors—for, to be honest, the good tailors set the fashion—is just a little bit of brown, or a big bit of brown, according to how much a man can stand.

Here are the "Rosenwald & Weil" Mackinette coats some almost brown—others just flickered brown and speckled with combinations of blue and grey and red invisible plaids.

Perfectly stunning patterns yet not "loud" either.

Just Conspicuously Swell.

"Griffon" Overcoats in all patterns are here, with or without belts, loose or close fiters just as you prefer.

And now is the time to make your purchase.

Our sizes are not broken. We fit others, we can fit you. We suit others, we can suit you.

C. S. FORBES,

THE MAN'S OUTFITTER.
