FAY STOCKINGS

TRADE WITH A STORE That you have faith in.

The ethics of retailing have changed vastly in recent years, despite the old methods. This store well remembers the first axiom of salesmanship expressed to him twelve year ago when it was being initiated into commercial life. The highest salesmanship in those days was expressed in these words:

"Any body can sell a customer what they want—the smart salesman can sell them what they don't want."

That day has passed; the modern store has reserved the old method; to-day the shrewd retailer follows the lines of least resistance. Instead of buying whatever merchandise offers, and depending on smart salesmanship to get rid of it, he follows the law that exists at

WILKINSON'S.

Have just the thing that people want. Our merchandise is the best and priced at prices that compel investigation. Everything is real. We are not disposed to waste good advertising money printing "stuff" you do not care for, and that we do not keep. Columns of talk and pages of prices fail to do justice to the import and magnitude of our pretty stock. We have the right kind of merchandise at the right price. We ask you to investigate.

C. L. Wilkinson & Co.

Great Cut Price!

In order to clear out our Stock by January 1st, we cut the price on a good many articles to 1-2.

SANS SOUCI CLUB.

Reported for Reflector

The Sans Souci Club was delightfully entertained by Miss Winnie Skinner, Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 22nd, at her residence on Fourth street. The guests were charmingly received by Miss Skinner and invited into the parlor, which was beautifully decorated with American Beauty roses.

The club was called to order, and after the usual transaction of business, was entertained by the reading of a short selection by Mrs. Haywood Dail, and a delightful musical program by Misses Pattie Skinner and Sallie Cotten.

The club had the pleasure of having with them Mesdames Arthur, Wooten, Jeffers, Skinner and Miss Dickinson, of Richmond.

After the program the hostess served dainty refreshments, and the club adjourned to meet with Miss Lottie Blow Dec. 6th.

END OF CENTURY BOOK CLUB.

Reported for Reflector.

The End of the Century Book Club held a most delightful meeting on Tuesday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. W. A. Bowen on fourth street.

Arrangements were made for the annual banquet, which will be given at Buckingham on Thursday evening, Dec. 8th.

The literary program for the afternoon was postponed until the next meeting.

Miss Dickinson and Mrs. A. E. Tucker were the guests present.

Most delicious refreshments were served, after which the club adjourned to meet with Mrs. J. L. Fleming on Tuesday, Dec. 13 h.

THE WEATHER

Rain tonight colder in east and in extreme western portion, Sunday partly cloudy.

A young man always puts in a lot of time looking at his new good watch.

Service at Christian Church Sunday Dec. 4th.

The morning service 11 a. m. will be in charge of the Christian Woman's Board of Missions Auxiliary, the first Lord's Day in December being set apart as "C. W. B. M. Day."

A suitable program has been prepared and will include an address by the pastor. A large illuminated map of the world has been especially prepared to illustrate the work of the C. W. B. M. in many lands. Following is the program:

To the Ladies.

All the lady members of St. Paul's Episcopal church as well as the Parochial society, who will assist in any way in the bazaar on the 14th, are most earnestly requested to meet at the church on Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock. This is the last meeting before the bazaar and there are many important matters that must be looked after. None should fail to be present.

Over Twelve Million Bales.

The bureau report issued today places the estimate of the cotton crop for this season at 12,160,000 bales. In consequence of this heavy crop report there was a decline of about a quarter cent in price.

The County Superintendents of Public Schools of North Carolina are holding their annual session in Raleigh this week. We see from the daily papers that the attendance is quite large.

A movement is on foot to make Beaufort, N. C., a great seaport. Senator Simmons and other prominent men of the state are taking much interest in the project.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON, DECEMBER 3, 1904.

Congress meets Monday, to be followed by the agony of the president's message and the Congressional Record.

The campaign in Durham did not end with the election. There is now a fight over the postoffice and the contest waxes warm.

Just a month from Monday to the meeting of the legislature. Then there will be news of something doing around Raleigh.

The Raleigh Post has rounded out its seventh year and shows vigor and ability enough to do the same thing several times over.

Another remarkable thing about the world's fair at St. Louis is that it was a success financially and came to the end clear of debt.

If the vagrancy law was enforced it might not be so hard to get labor. Perhaps some loafers had rather work than go to the roads.

If cotton is not all out of the patch now it cannot be because there has not been plenty of pretty weather. The fall has been a most favorable one for housing crops.

Reports from the conference indicate that it will be moving time with many of the preachers when the appointments are read out. A number of them have served the allotted four years at their respective stations.

One thing vastly to Judge Parker's credit is that he has not been making any faces since the election. He accepted the result gracefully and proceeded to business. Good example for scores of other people to follow.

A New York magistrate before whom a wealthy woman was arraigned for shoplifting said wealth and social standing came in for no consideration in his court. He is right, and there should be more judges after his order.

In a test case that went through the courts as to the rights of a public school board to exclude from school children who had not been vaccinated, the Supreme court has rendered a decision upholding the school board in such a step.

If Spencer Blackburn is not given some part in the distribution of the jobs he will not amount to much in the approaching Congress. They ought to give Spencer some hand in this work since job letting seems to be the most important part of the business.—Lexington Dispatch.

It matters little if he does not amount to much, he will draw his five thousand a year salary, and possibly he will not care much for the balance.

They do not mix every time it is tried in the north either. In a high school at Alleghany, Pa., a teacher appointed two white girls to do some class work with a negro girl who was also a pupil. The white girls refused flatly to study with the negro, and the teacher said they must apologize or leave the school. The white girls stood pat and there is trouble brewing around that particular school.

There are some manly men yet in our land as well as some of the brute variety. Both classes were in evidence on a train from Raleigh to Greensboro the other day. A brute of a husband and his much-to-be-pitied wife were among the passengers. He was drunk and became so abusive of his wife that others of the passengers interfered, dragged him from the seat beside her, carried him into the smoker and told him if he did not keep quiet they would make him. The brute took the hint.

Beware of Counterfeits.

"DeWitt's is the only genuine Witch Hazel Salve" writes J. L. Tucker, of Centre, Ala. "I have used it in my family for Piles, Cuts and Burns for years and can recommend it to be the best Salve on the market. Every family should keep it, as is an invaluable household remedy, and should always be kept on hand for immediate use." Mrs. Samuel Gage, of North Bush, N. Y., says: "I had a fever sore on my ankle for twelve years that the doctors could not cure. All salves and blood remedies proved worthless. I could not walk for over two years. Finally I was persuaded to try DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, which has completely cured me. It is a wonderful relief." DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures without a scar. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

Fight Will Be Bitter.

Those who will persist in closing their ears against the continual recommendation of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, will have a long and bitter fight with their troubles, if not ended earlier by fatal termination. Read what T. R. B. all of Beal, Miss., has to say: "Last fall my wife had every symptom of consumption. She took Dr. King's New Discovery after Everything else had failed. Improvement came at once and four bottles entirely cured her. Guaranteed by J. L. Wooten, Druggist. Price 60c, and $2.00. Trial bottles free. * t t e d t s w.

A Frightened Horse.

Running like mad down the street dumping the occupants, or a hundred other accidents, are every day occurrences. It behooves everybody to have a reliable Salve handy and there's none as good as Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Burns, Cuts, Sores, Eczema and Piles, disappear quickly under its soothing effect. 25c, at J. No More Suffering.

If you are troubled with indigestion get a bottle of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and see how quickly it will cure you. Geo. A. Thomson, of Spencer, Ia., says: "Have had Dyspepsia for twenty years. My case was almost hopeless. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure was recommended and I used a few bottles of it and it is the only thing that has relieved me. Would not be without it. Have doctored with local physicians and also at Chicago, and even went to Norway with hopes of getting some relief, but Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is the only remedy that has done me any good, and I heartily recommend it. Every person suffering with indigestion or Dyspepsia should use it." Sold by J. L. Wooten, druggist.

ABOUT

RAIN COATS AND OVERCOATS.

The very height of fashion, according to whispered rumors from good tailors—for, to be honest, the good tailors set the fashion—is just a little bit of brown, or a big bit of brown, according to how much a man can stand.

Here are the "Rosenwald & Well" Mackinette coats some almost brown—others just speckled brown and speckled with combinations of blue and gray and red invisible plaids.

Perfectly stunning patterns yet not "loud" either.

Just Conspicuously Swell.

"Grifon" Overcoats in all patterns are here, with or without belts, loose or close fiters just as you prefer.

And now is the time to make year purchase.

Our sizes are not broken. We fit others, we can fit you. We suit others, we can suit you.

C. S. FORBES,

THE MAN'S OUTFITTER.
