FAY STOCKINGS
TRADE WITH A STORE
That you have faith in.

The ethics of retailing have changed vastly in recent years, despite the old methods. This store well remembers the first axiom of salesmanship expressed to him twelve year ago when it was being initiated into commercial life. The highest salesmanship in those days was expressed in these words:

"Any body can sell a customer what they want—the smart salesman can sell them what they don't want."

That day has passed; the modern store has reserved the old method; to-day the shrewd retailer follows the lines of least resistance. Instead of buying whatever merchandise offers, and depending on smart salesmanship to get rid of it, he follows the law that exists at

WILKINSON'S.

Have just the thing that people want. Our merchandise is the best and priced at prices that compel investigation. Everything is real. We are not disposed to waste good advertising money printing "stuff" you do not care for, and that we do not keep. Columns of talk and pages of prices fail to do justice to the import and magnitude of our pretty stock. We have the right kind of merchandise at the right price. We ask you to investigate.

C. L. Wilkinson & Co.

Great Cut Price!

In order to clear out our Stock by January 1st, we cut the price on a good many articles to 1-2.

Ashville Refuses to License Further the Five Distilleries There.

Asheville, N. C., Dec. 3.—The Board of Aldermen in executive session last night gave the distilleries of this city a knock-out blow when it declined to re-license the five establishments, both large and small, to continue business after January 1st, 1905. Unless the order of the board is rescinded, and it is not probable that it will be, the distilleries will cease to operate here with the ushering in of the new year.

The action of the board was a surprise to the distillers and their friends, but those who have watched the trend of affairs for the past several months and who have had the ear of the city administration expected such an event to occur. It is said that the board's determined stand is due to the fact that the distilleries—all but one or two, at any rate—have been indicted for violating the law and the members of the board do not propose to countenance such business.

The action of the board has been the subject of much discussion on the streets and the distillers are non-plussed. One distiller declared that he could not believe the board would adhere to its policy of last night and said that such a policy, if carried out, would mean severe loss to the men who have invested their money in the business.

Another interesting phase of the question is the declared purpose of the distillers and their friends to retaliate against the administration next spring and work for prohibition.

The county authorities are heartily in favor of ridding the city of distilleries, and it is said that had the city granted the license the County Commissioners would have refused to do so. News and Observer.

DEATH OF CLIFFORD TYSON.

A Bright Boy Called From Earth.

James Clifford Tyson, aged about 15 years, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Tyson, died at 3 o'clock Sunday morning at their home on Fifth street. Nearly three weeks ago he underwent an operation for appendicitis. He was critically ill at the time and his life almost despaired of, but he stood the operation well and showed such improvement as to revive hope that he would recover. Alas! vain hope. Though he made a brave fight for life and all that love and skill could do was done for him, all these could not stay the hand of the grim reaper who will sooner or later claim us all.

Clifford Tyson was a bright boy full of promise of a useful life, and his death is very sad. He was a manly little fellow, industrious, obliging, kind and courteous to all and was a favorite with every one.

Funeral services were held in the Baptist church, of which he was a member, at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon conducted by Rev. A. T. King. The interment was in Cherry Hill cemetery, the pall bearers being Messrs. C. S. Carr, D. L. James, A. E. Tucker, D. J. Whichard, H. A. White and J. A. Lang. The teacher and scholars of the fifth grade of the graded school in which he was pupil attended the funeral in a body.

There were many beautiful floral tributes and much sympathy is expressed for the bereaved parents in their sorrow.

Marriage Licenses.

Register of Deeds R. Williams issued licenses to the following couples last week:

WHITE.

W. J. Robertson and Martha Hawkins.

Henry Corey and Etta Harrington.

W. H. Crawford and Malissa Baldree.

B. F. Jolley and Nannie E. Forbes.

COLORED.

Jesse Peel and Georgianna Jones.
 Robert Sheppard and Adelaide Little.

Lee Tillery and Alice Gorham.
 Alfred Hilliard and Jane Wiloughby.

Wm. Wilkins and Sarah Hyman.
 Oscar Taft and Ann's James.

Henry Ward and Mary Langley.

The total number of licenses issued for the fiscal year ending Dec. 3rd, was 410. Of these 184 were for whites and 226 for colored. This was 17 larger than the number issued during the preceding year.

That boy of Yours.

We chaperone our girls and carefully guard them against unworthy boys, but we leave the boy to choose for himself his associates and his achievements.

Girls are naturally winsome, gentle, and companionable. They win their way in hearts and homes. But the boy, noisy, awkward, mischievous, is invited into few homes and he feels none the worse for it.

About the only door that swings with sure welcome to the boy, about the only chair that is shoved near the fire for the boy, about the only place where he is sure of cordial welcome is where he ought not to go.

It is one of the hardest things in the world to get hold of a boy—to get a sure grip on him.

He is hungry for companionship and he will have it. You can't chain him away from it. He wants the companionship of boys, and nothing will take his place.

If the crime of selfishness has so increased your heart that the joy and hopes of your boy cannot enter into it, the boy is to be pitied, but so are you.—Milwaukee Journal

MONDAY AFTERNOON, DECEMBER 5, 1904.

JUST LIKE HIM TO HELP OTHERS.

Rev. A. D. Betts, pastor of the Methodist church at Lillington, and one of the most venerable, most joyous and sunshiny members of the North Carolina Conference, must have been a grievously disappointed man yesterday. He had been appointed to make the address before the Methodist historical association in Henderson last night, prior to the meeting of the conference today. He had prepared his sketch and came to Raleigh yesterday morning to take the Seaboard for Henderson. But the Raleigh and Cape Fear train was late and he reached here just ten minutes after the last northbound train had gone. There was no way to go then, so he had to remain in Raleigh until 1:30 this morning.

"I certainly do regret it," declared the always happy little man as he rubbed his hands, "But then I have wired the brethren and I supposed it has all happened for the best. Why here is Brother Powell," he exclaimed, as he stopped on the street to warmly greet the mayor. "We were in the Confederate army together, you know."

When the minister had passed on Mayor Powell turned to the reporter and observed "For years while I was in the army I saw Mr. Betts every day and never, that I can recall, during that time did I see him when he was not helping some one. Usually some worn out or sick soldier was riding his horse and he was walking or he would be relieving some unfortunate soldier by carrying his knapsack or his gun for him. And he was always bright and happy, talking of the goodness of the Lord, and bringing sunshine into the lives of the men."—Raleigh Post.

That is truly characteristic of "Uncle Betts." He never seems happier than when he is scattering rays of sunshine to bless others. One of the occasional joys of THE REFLECTOR is the receipt of a few cheering words from this dear old veteran of the Confederacy and soldier of the Cross. They usually come on postal card, brief and to the point, seemingly uttered just as the Spirit moves him. A few days before Thanksgiving a card brought this loving message from him: "Dear Bro—I saved your Thanksgiving number 1902 and re-read it today. It was good. You and I and your readers have much to be thankful for now. My heart humbly intakes Divine blessings on you and your readers."

The North Carolina conference of the Methodist church at Henderson heartily joined hands with the other denominations that are moving to get the coming legislature to repeal the lax divorce law that exists in this state.

His appointment of a grandson of Stonewall Jackson to a West Point cadetship shows that the president is not entirely anti-southern.

If Parker had been elected this slump in cotton would have caused a howl. The air would have been filled with "I told you so's."

The Japanese are taking a hill at the time. Constant dripping will wear away a stone.

Those who held their cotton now wish they had not.

Wouldn't They Howl?

There were some farmers in every cotton county who voted for Roosevelt because they were induced to believe that Parker's victory would put down the price of cotton. There are farmers who take gold bricks of that sort just as there are cotton manufacturers in North Carolina who think protection helps them and carpenters who voted for Roosevelt because somebody worked the gold brick of Roosevelt and high wages on them.

The cotton farmers have early found out that they were cruelly deceived. The Cleveland Star, in that connection, says:

"Just ask the Republicans about Roosevelt and cotton. If Judge Parker had been elected and cotton declined as it has, wouldn't the radicals have raised a howl?"

Wouldn't they have raised a howl if cotton had gone down to the present low level if Parker had won? Every little revenue office and postmaster in the State would have been going to Democratic farmers and saying: "I told you so."

Everything is going up in price except cotton. The cotton farmers are "catching it in the neck."—Raleigh News and Observer.

THREE JURORS CURED

Of Cholera Morbus with One Small Bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Mr. G. W. Fowler of Hightower, Ala., relates an experience he had while serving on a petit jury in a murder case at Edwardsville, county seat of Cleburne county, Alabama. He says: "While there I ate some fresh meat and some souse meat and it gave me cholera morbus in a very severe form. I was never more sick in my life and sent to the drug store for a certain cholera mixture, but the druggist sent me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy instead, saying that he had what I sent for, but that this medicine was so much better he would rather send it to me in the fix I was in. I took one dose of it and was better in five minutes. The second dose cured me entirely. Two fellow jurors were afflicted in the same manner and one small bottle cured the three of us." For sale at Wooten's Drug Store.

Beware of Counterfeits.

"DeWitt's is the only genuine Witch Hazel Salve" writes J. L. Tucker, of Centre, Ala. "I have used it in my family for Piles, Cuts and Burns for years and can recommend it to be the best Salve on the market. Every family should keep it, as is an invaluable household remedy, and should always be kept on hand for immediate use." Mrs. Samuel Gage, of North Bush, N. Y., says: "I had a fever sore on my ankle for twelve years that the doctors could not cure. All salves and blood remedies proved worthless. I could not walk for over two years. Finally I was persuaded to try DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, which has completely cured me. It is a wonderful relief." DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures without a scar. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

Sour Stomach

When the quantity of food taken is too large or the quality too rich, sour stomach is likely to follow, and especially so if the digestion has been weakened by constipation. Eat slowly and not too freely of easily digested food. Masticate the food thoroughly. Let five hours elapse between meals, and when you feel a fullness and weight in the region of the stomach after eating, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the sour stomach may be avoided. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville.

If you are troubled with indigestion get a bottle of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and see how quickly it will cure you. Geo. A. Thomson, of Spencer, Ia., says: "Have had Dyspepsia for twenty years. My case was almost hopeless. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure was recommended and I used a few bottles of it and it is the only thing that has relieved me. Would not be without it. Have doctor'd with local physicians and also at Chicago, and even went to Norway with hopes of getting some relief, but Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is the only remedy that has done me any good, and I heartily recommend it. Every person suffering with Indigestion or Dyspepsia should use it." Sold by J. L. Wooten, druggist.

ABOUT

RAIN COATS AND OVERCOATS.

The very height of fashion, according to whispered rumors from good tailors—for, to be honest, the good tailors set the fashion—is just a little bit of brown, or a big bit of brown, according to how much a man can stand.

Here are the "Rosewald & Well" Mackinette coats some almost brown—others just flannelled brown and speckled with combinations of blue and gray and red invisible plaids.

Perfectly stunning patterns yet not "loud" either.

Just Conspicuously Swell.

"Griffon" Overcoats in all patterns are here, with or without belts, loose or close fitters just as you prefer.

And now is the time to make your purchase.

Our sizes are not broken. We fit others, we can fit you. We suit others, we can suit you.

C. S. FORBES,

THE MAN'S OUTFITTER.
