We Sell and Guarantee FAY STOCKINGS

TRADE WITH A STORE That you have faith in.

The ethics of retailing have changed vastly in recent years, despite the old methods. This store well remembers the first axiom of salesmanship expressed to him twelve year ago when it was being initiated into commercial life. The highest salesmanship in those days was expressed in these words: "Any body can sell a customer what they want—the smart salesman can sell them what they don't want." That day has passed; the modern store has reserved the old method; to-day the shrewd retailer follows the lines of least resistance. Instead of buying whatever merchandise offers, and depending on smart salesmanship to get rid of it, he follows the law that exists at

WILKINSON'S.

Have just the thing that people want. Our merchandise is the best and priced at prices that compel investigation. Everything is real. We are not disposed to waste good advertising money printing "stuff" you do not care for, and that we do not keep. Columns of talk and pages of prices fail to do justice to the import and magnitude of our pretty stock. We have the right kind of merchandise at the right price. We ask you to investigate.

C. L. Wilkinson & Co.

Great Cut Price!

In order to clear out our Stock by January 1st, we cut the price on a good many articles to 1-2.

PERSONALS AND SOCIAL.

R. L. Smith went to Norfolk today.

J. S. Hester left this morning for Granville county.

Mrs. Dora Quinn and daughter, Miss Eula, left this morning for Norfolk.

Rev. A. T. Kiug left Monday for Elizabeth City to attend the Baptist State convention.

Rev. J. T. Edmundson, of Raleigh, spent Monday night here and left this morning for Elizabeth City.

Ex-Gov. and Mrs. T. J. Jarvis returned Monday evening from Henderson; where they had been attending the N. C. conference.

Rumors of Slaughter of Japanese.

Mukde, Dec. 5.—There is a persistent rumor that the force of Japanese sent to turn General Bennenkampff's flank has been reguised with great loss. The story is not yet officially confirmed, but details are given with great circumstantiality. It is stated that General Bennenkampff, who knew the movement was maturing, awaited the Japanese at the mouth of one of the captured passes, and that the Japanese taring force threw themselves unsuspectingly into the ambu-cade, where, after the fight, the Russians collected five hundred Japanese corpses. It is added that there are 1,000 more Japanese corpses which it has been impossible to collect as yet. This does not include the Japanese loss in wounded. The Russian loss, according to this account, was only thirty or forty men.

Conference Appointments.

The appointments of the North Carolina conference, in session at Henderson, were read out Monday night. Rev. J. D. Bundy was returned as presiding elder of Washington district, Rev. J. A. Hornaday was returned to Greenville and Rev. J. A. Stanfield to Ayden. Rev. R. B. John was sent to Kinston, Rev. N. H. D. Wilson to Herford, Rev. L. E. Sawyer to Farmville, Rev. F. A. Bishop to Central church at Raleigh, Rev. G. A. Oglesby to Aberdeen, Rev. N. M. Watson to Grace church at Wilmington, Rev. H. M. Eure to Beaufort, Rev. G. F. Smith, presiding elder of Warren district, Rev. L. L. Nash to Henderson, Rev. H. B. Anderson to Esfield. The conference meets next year in Wilson.

Stay Bond Sale.

Washington, Dec. 5th.—Attorney General Gilmer of North Carolina, today filed a motion in the Supreme Court of the United States in the case of South Dakota v. the State of North Carolina involving bonds of the North Carolina Railroad Company held by the former state and for the payment of which the latter state was held to be responsible providing for a postponement of the sale of the bonds in question from January 1 to April 1. Mr. Gilmer stated the object of his motion to be to afford opportunity to the North Carolina Legislature to take action for the payment of the claim if so disposed. The court took the motion under advisement.

Epworth League Meeting.

The Epworth League will meet in the Methodist church Wednesday night immediately after prayer meeting. It is time for election of officers and every member should be present.

A brick store in England was burned Sunday morning.

AYDEN ITEMS.

AYDEN N. C., Dec. 6, 1904.

Dr. G. C. Edwards, of Hookerton, passed through Friday on his way to attend the conference at Henderson.

Miss Emeline Benton, a trained nurse from Wilson, is here in attendance upon Mrs. W. E. Hooks who has the typhoid fever.

Mrs. Ida Sylvant, of Greene county, came over Friday morning and left on the train for the conference.

J. W. Hodges, of Washington, was visiting his son, Stancel Hodges here last week.

Mrs. Ade Dudley, who has been on a visit to her father, J. S. Hines, left for her home in Washington Friday morning.

Claude Norris came up Saturday from a visit to Kinston.

W. J. Boyd, of Edwards, has been here for several days and left yesterday for his home accompanied by Mrs. Boyd who has been here for sometime visiting her parents.

Harry Kittrell, of Winterville, paid us a very pleasant visit Friday.

Barnes Sumrell and family left Sunday to spend sometime with H. W. Dixon, at Wharton.

John Pierce went to Greenville Saturday.

G. A. Kittrell was here a short while Saturday.

Blount Garris and Mr. Smith who were here Friday night detained by business in leaving town for their homes, owing to the extreme darkness drove off a very high bridge, just out of town. No serious damage was done, only a broken buggy, two mighty muddy men and a little excitement was the result. Kind friends rendered all necessary assistance and Mr. Garris and his friend went on their way rejoicing.

Mrs. Susan Clark, of Maple Cypress, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Frank Lilly.

Miss May Anderson, after spending Saturday and Sunday at home returned to her school Sunday evening.

J. J. Hines and son Hatton were visiting at House Sunday.

There was a large crowd from this point at the capital city Monday.

Little Miss Irma Belle Dawson has come to make her home among us.

Luther Wingate and Harvey Cox went to Winterville Sunday.

A Woman Blazing.

New Bern, N. C., Dec. 5.—At two thirty o'clock Sunday morning a night watchman at the Elm City Lumber Company heard cries of "Muder" and "Fire" across the street from the mill and at the same time several neighbors saw a woman run out of the house entirely enveloped in flames and two men flee in different directions. The woman was Kate Peterson the wife of John Peterson.

In a dying declaration at noon today she asserted that John Peterson, her husband, came into the house, wrapped her up in blankets, saturated her with gasoline, lit a match, set her on fire and left her to die. Every means of physicians and friends were exhausted, but death came to end her agony this afternoon.—News and Observer.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to return heartfelt thanks to the people of Greenville for their many acts of kindness and the sympathy expressed for us in the recent sickness and death of our son.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Tyson.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON, DECEMBER 6, 1904.

The slump in cotton is certainly a blow to the South.

It is easy to make an impression on the streets, they are such soft things.

If the farmers knew just where to lay the blame for the low price of cotton they might be better satisfied.

The football record for the season just closed shows that thirteen deaths resulted. That is an unlucky number, especially for the thirteen.

The tumble in cotton struck the farmers a blow below the belt, but with everything else bringing good prices they are not knocked out.

Hint of interest in electric railways keeps growing something may be heard of a line between Greenville, Wirtsville and Ayden some of these days. Why not?

Gen Nelson A. Miles is given a berth. The announcement is made that governor elect Douglas, of Massachusetts, will appoint him adjutant general on his staff.

The canvass by the state board places the majority of Blackburn for congress in the eighth district at 245. This must give the stay-at-home Democrats on election day much satisfaction. If they had gone to the polls Newland would have been elected.

A man who was a year ago released from the lunatic asylum in South Carolina recently killed his wife and brother-in-law and was himself killed by officers who went to capture him. It would have been better to have kept him in the asylum when he was there.

An armistice was declared long enough for the contending forces of Japan and Russia to bury their dead. Then they will go at it again and kill some more to be buried. The man who said "war is hell," expressed a truth even if he did use harsh sounding language to say it.

The Wilmington Messenger expresses the opinion that the farmers should not be frightened at the low price of cotton incident to the large crop report, but should continue to hold what cotton they have until the flurry is over. That may be all right, at the same time any opinion as to what the price of cotton will do is only so much guess work.

Big Yield of Cotton

J. L. Yelverton, of Eureka, one of the best young farmers in Eastern Carolina, and who has made probably $10,000 in the past three years, by intelligently tickling the earth, has four acres from which he has already picked seven 500-pound bags, and is now working on his eighth and expects to get it.

From 140 acres he has gathered 125 bales and thinks he will reach a heavy bag of cotton to every acre planted.

The place to make money these times is on a farm for everything a farmer has to sell is bringing high prices.—Wilson Times.

Five all wool 11-4 and 12-4 bed blankets. J. B. Cherry & Co.

The farmers of this section of the country frequently complain of dry times, but they do not know what a drought is. They ought to see the conditions prevailing in the Ohio valley. From Ashland to Cincinnati, the train does not cross a single running stream: The beds of the streams are dry and covered with rustling leaves. The Ohio river does not appear to be any larger than the Catawba and all along steamboats and coal barges are seen sandbarred, waiting for rain and a rise. It is the driest looking country that we have ever seen.—Charlotte Chronicle.

"Usona" sounds like a Battle Creek patent to usona breakfast table, but it is as a matter of solemn fact the name proposed by his British nibs, Sir Edward Clarke, for the country of Uncle Sam, having been constructed from the initials of "United States of North America." Even if John Hay should approve of it and write a poem about it, which is likely enough, the people of the United States will bitterly resent being christened with any such insano-culinary pseudonym.—Durham Sun.

The Columbia Evening Record exposes the absurdity of the administration's proposition to raid newspaper shops for publishing guessing contests. "Wall street gamblers," says the Record, "will continue to have the use of the mails, however, to trap the unwary." That's the most unkind cut of all.—Wilmington Star.

The statement of Mr. Glenn that every time he decides upon a man for a certain place, somebody bobs up with charges against him, sounds familiar, but the Republicans were supposed to have a monopoly on this sort of thing. We are sorry they have not.—Charlotte Observer.

Beware of Counterfeits.

"DeWitt's is the only genuine Witch Hazel Salve" writes J. L. Tucker, of Centre, Ala. "I have used it in my family for Piles, Cuts and Burns for years and can recommend it to be the best Salve on the market. Every family should keep it, as is an invaluable household remedy, and should always be kept on hand for immediate use." Mrs. Samuel Gage, of North Bush, N. Y., says: "I had a fever sore on my ankle for twelve years that the doctors could not cure. All salves and blood remedies proved worthless. I could not walk for over two years. Finally I was persuaded to try DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, which has completely cured me. It is a wonderful relief." DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures without a scar. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

Fight Will Be Bitter.

Those who will persist in closing their ears against the continual recommendation of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, will have a long and bitter fight with their troubles, if not ended earlier by fatal termination. Read what T. R. B. all of Beal, Miss., has to say: "Last fall my wife had every symptom of consumption. She took Dr. King's New Discovery after everything else had failed. Improvement came at once and four bottles entirely cured her. Guaranteed by J. L. Wooten, Druggist, Price 60c, and $2.00. Trial bottles free. * t t s d l s w *

A Frightened Horse.

Running like mad down the street dumping the occupants, or a hundred other accidents, are every day occurrences. It behooves everybody to have a reliable Salve handy and there's none as good as Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Burns, Cuts, Sores, Eczema and Piles, disappear quickly under its soothing effect. 25c, at J. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

No More Suffering.

If you are troubled with indigestion get a bottle of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and see how quickly it will cure you. Geo. A. Thomson, of Spencer, Ia., says: "Have had Dyspepsia for twenty years. My case was almost hopeless. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure was recommended and I used a few bottles of it and it is the only thing that has relieved me. Would not be without it. Have doctored with local physicians and also at Chicago, and even went to Norway with hopes of getting some relief, but Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is the only remedy that has done me any good, and I heartily recommend it. Every person suffering with Indigestion or Dyspepsia should use it." Sold by J. L. Wooten, druggist.

To be patient is better than to be famous.

THE WEATHER

Fair tonight and Wednesday.

Ready for Yours.

Several of our subscribers have responded to our request for a remittance and we thank them. We hope others will do likewise promptly, as it is time all were paying up now.

More Tobacco, Less Cotton.

With tobacco selling so well and cotton continuing to go lower there will likely be material change in the acreage of both crops next year. Tobacco has sold well all this season.

A Costly Mistake.

Blunders are sometimes very expensive. Occasionally life itself is the price of a mistake, but you'll never be wrong if you take Dr. King's New Life Pills for Dyspepsia, Dizziness, Headache, Liver or bow-el troubles. They are gentle yet thorough. 25c, at J. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

ABOUT

RAIN COATS AND OVERCOATS.

The very height of fashion, according to whispered rumors from good tailors—for, to be honest, the good tailors set the fashion—is just a little bit of brown, or a big bit of brown, according to how much a man can stand.

Here are the "Rosenwald & Well" Mackinette coats some almost brown—others just fleckered brown and speckled with combinations of blue and grey and red invisible plaids.

Perfectly stunning patterns yet not "loud" either.

Just Conspicuously Swell.

"Griffon" Overcoats in all patterns are here, with or without belts, loose or close fitters just as you prefer.

And now is the time to make your purchase.

Our sizes are not broken. We fit others, we can fit you. We suit others, we can suit you.

C. S. FORBES,

THE MAN'S OUTFITTER.
