TRADE WITH A STORE That you have faith in.

The ethics of retailing have changed vastly in recent years, despite the old methods. This store well remembers the first axiom of salesmanship expressed to him twelve year ago when it was being initiated into commercial life. The highest salesmanship in those days was expressed in these words:

"Any body can sell a customer what they want—the smart salesman can sell them what they don't want."

That day has passed; the modern store has reserved the old method; to-day the shrewd retailer follows the lines of least resistance. Instead of buying whatever merchandise offers, and depending on smart salesmanship to get rid of it, he follows the law that exists at

WILKINSON'S.

Have just the thing that people want. Our merchandise is the best and priced at prices that compel investigation. Everything is real. We are not disposed to waste good advertising money printing "stuff" you do not care for, and that we do not keep. Columns of talk and pages of prices fail to do justice to the import and magnitude of our pretty stock. We have the right kind of merchandise at the right price. We ask you to investigate.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Adopts Resolutions on Retiring Treasurer and Member—New Member Elected.

The board of education of Pitt county held a meeting Monday for the purpose of having a final settlement with the retiring treasurer and turn over the books to the incoming treasurer, also to elect a successor to a retiring member. S. T. White succeeds J. B. Cherry as treasurer, and L. C. Arthur was elected a member of the board to succeed J. L. Fleming.

The board adopted the following resolutions:

TO RETIRING TREASURER.

Whereas, the relation between the board of education of Pitt county and its retiring treasurer, Mr. J. B. Cherry, has been so pleasant, and his service so long and efficient, therefore be it resolved

1st. That this board desires to affirm that it believes that no board in the state has ever had a better treasurer. He has at all times been accurate, prompt, obliging, courteous and faithful in the discharge of every detail of the office, this board not now recalling any error ever discovered in any part of the work during his administration. They recognize also that not only has he been pleasant and accommodating to the board, but to all persons having business with him as treasurer of the board, that by this courteous demeanor at all times to everybody he has aided the board in attaining the present educational progress of the county in no small degree.

2nd. That each and every member of this board has a personal fondness for him, and as he retires from the office assures him of their appreciation of his work, their respect and regard for him as an officer and a man, and their wish that he may through the remainder of life fill every station or position to which he may be called with as much honor and credit to himself as he has as treasurer of the board of education, and receive from all the merited love and regard which he now has from this board.

A. G. COX.

B. M. WHITEHURST.

Members of Board.

W. H. RAGSDALE, Clerk of Board.

TO RETIRING MEMBER.

Whereas, Mr. J. L. Fleming, on account of having been elected senator from this district, has been compelled to resign as a member of the board of education, and the board being desirous of expressing its appreciation of his work, therefore resolved

1st. That in the person of Mr. Fleming the board of education of Pitt county had a member efficient in service, kind and courteous as an associate, diligent in guarding the educational interest of the county, alert in seeking opportunities for progress, and faithful in the discharge of every duty of the office.

2nd. That his associates hereby express their regret at having to lose him from the board, that they will miss his wise counsel and faithful acts, which can only be compensated for in the fact that his promotion does not take him from the work but only enlarges his opportunities to serve the people of his county in standing for the educational progress now being made in which he has taken no small part.

3rd. That the board hereby assures him of their appreciation of his services and courtesies while with them and wishes for him abundant success in his enlarged field for usefulness.

A. G. COX.

B. M. WHITEHURST.

Members of Board.

W. H. RAGSDALE, Clerk of Board.
THE REFLECTOR wishes to commend the selection of Mr. Arthur by the board as a member of that body. A man better suited for the position could hardly have been chosen. He takes an active interest in educational matters and will carry both energy and wisdom into the deliberations of the board. Pitt county has had an excellent board of education and can point with pride at the splendid educational progress made under their wise administration, and Mr. Arthur will prove a valuable collaborer with them.

DECISION AGAINST DANIEL.

Supreme Court Says Railroad is not Liable

The Supreme court recently rendered a decision in the case of Daniel against the Atlantic Coast Line railroad that is of more than passing interest. It will be remembered that at a time when a man named Atkinson was in the employment of the Coast Line in the capacity of cashier at the depot here, a package of money was lost. On the evening that the package disappeared S. M. Daniel waited awhile in the depot office for a train going to Kinston. The loss of the money was not discovered until after the train had gone. The cashier remembering to have seen Daniel in the office had a warrant issued and caused him to be arrested in Kinston and searched. The money not being found Atkinson ordered that Daniel be released from custody.

Daniel was very much mortified at this proceeding and returning to Greenville demanded a trial under the warrant that had been issued. At this trial he readily proved himself innocent of the charge brought against him. Later Daniel entered suit for damage against the railroad for false arrest. When the matter came up for a hearing in Pitt Superior court it was not permitted to go to the jury the judge ruling that the only point at issue was whether the railroad company was responsible for the acts of its agent.

An appeal was taken to Supreme court and following is the gist of the decision rendered by that court:

Daniel, Appellant, vs. A. C. L. Railroad.—From Pitt county. No error.

It is within the implied authority of an agent to preserve the property of his principal and protect it against theft, but when the property has been stolen, wrongful means employed by the agent to recover it are not impliedly sanctioned or authorized by the principal.

To render the corporation liable for the malicious and wrought acts of its agent in prosecuting one for stealing property of the corporation, it must appear either that the corporation expressly authorized the agent's acts or that it subsequently ratified them.

The agent of a railway company has no implied authority of the company to procure the arrest and prosecution of one supposed to have stolen the company's money.

The commission by a servant of acts which he is not employed to commit, does not render the master liable, even though it is shown that the acts were done to benefit or serve the master. The master's liability does not depend on the nature of the servant's act, but whether the act was performed in the line of the servant's duty and within the scope of authority conferred by the master.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, DECEMBER 7, 1904.

A RECORD OF HONOR.

THE REFLECTOR believes that every one of its readers in the county will heartily concur in the resolutions, published elsewhere in this paper, adopted by the county board of education relative to Mr. J. B. Cherry, retiring treasurer. Mr. Cherry has been treasurer of Pitt county for twenty four years, and retired from the office last Monday with an honorable record behind him, a record that reflects highest credit upon himself and one that any man could point to with just pride.

Mr. Cherry was first elected treasurer of the county in 1874 and served eighteen consecutive years when he asked not to be re-nominated. Six years later when the effort was made to throw off the yoke of fusion that had become fastened upon the county, his party naturally turned to him as the strongest man for treasurer, and after much solicitation he consented to the use of his name and was again nominated and elected, serving six years more. Doubtless he could have served longer, but at his own urgent request was not nominated in the last campaign.

Mr. Cherry served as treasurer through some of the county's most trying and perilous years. Time and time again when the county had no funds in the treasury he drew largely on his own resources so that people holding county orders could be paid promptly. Though having large business interests of his own, he was never found so busy with customers in his store but what he would ask them to excuse him for the time being if persons came in with orders to be cashed or on other matters pertaining to his office. He was ever courteous and obliging to every one. His reports and accounts were always models of correctness, never the slightest discrepancy occurring, utmost care being exercised in every detail of his official duties.

Mr. Cherry retires from office with the esteem of every one, and the people of the county are under lasting obligation to him for the faithful service he rendered through a quarter of a century.

Some boys have been seen picking up whiskey bottles that were thrown away and drinking the remnant of liquor left in them. A little diligence on the part of parents might be timely in this connection. Boys can easily cultivate a taste for whiskey that will be hard to overcome.

A rather unusual state of affairs exists at High Point. The board of aldermen, it is said, is seriously considering the advisability of selling the electric light plant belonging to the town. The statement is made that the town cannot operate the lights at a profit but is losing money on them every year.

The travelers Protective Association is considering the matter of passing resolutions against the custom of tipping Pullman car porters. Ought to have been done long ago.

Parker Fountain Pen for Christmas. Reflector Book Store.

The second trial of Nan Patterson is in progress. In the selection of the jury she expressed a desire that no old man be accepted.

Carnegie averred that he knew nothing about it, but all the same notes bearing his name have been found.

Parker's majority in North Carolina as found by the state canvassing board is 41,682.

The Japanese-Russian war seems about as uncertain as the price of cotton.

IMPROVING RURAL MAIL SERVICE.

Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow, in his annual report, recommends a new rate of postage on rural free delivery routes. Its purpose is to increase the revenues and add to the efficiency of the rural service. With the establishment of rural mail delivery and the increasing extension of rural telephone service by private interests, there has grown up a demand by patrons of rural routes for the delivery of small packages of merchandise on an order to the local merchant by postal card, telephone or otherwise. The value of these packages of merchandise is usually small, and the present rate of postage of one cent per ounce is practically prohibitive. The Fourth Assistant suggests a rate of three cents per pound to cover packages or books or merchandise not exceeding five pounds in weight, mailed at the distribution point of any rural free delivery route for delivery to any patron on such route.

It is to be hoped that the recommendation will be favorably acted upon. The rural delivery service has grown to great proportions during its brief existence and it is giving a service which is benefitting the rural population all over the country. The future holds out wonderful possibilities along this line of the postal service.—Wilmington Dispatch.

THREE JURORS CURED

of Cholera Morbus with One Small Bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Mr. G. W. Fowler of Hightower, Ala., relates an experience he had while serving on a petit jury in a murder case at Edwardsville, county seat of Cleburne county, Alabama. He says: "While there I ate some fresh meat and some souse meat and it gave me cholera morbus in a very severe form. I was never more sick in my life and sent to the drug store for a certain cholera mixture, but the druggist sent me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy instead, saying that he had what I sent for, but that this medicine was so much better he would rather send it to me in the fix I was in. I took one dose of it and was better in five minutes. The second dose cured me entirely. Two fellow jurors were afflicted in the same manner and one small bottle cured the three of us." No More Suffering.

If you are troubled with indigestion get a bottle of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and see how quickly it will cure you. Geo. A. Thomson, of Spenser, Ia., says: "Have had Dyspepsia for twenty years. My case was almost hopeless. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure was recommended and I used a few bottles of it and it is the only thing that has relieved me. Would not be without it. Have doctored with local physicians and also at Chicago, and even went to Norway with hopes of getting some relief, but Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is the only remedy that has done me any good, and I heartily recommend it. Every person suffering with Indigestion or Dyspepsia should use it." Sold by J. L. Wooten, druggist.

Ralston Health for Men, Price $4.

Modern fine shoe making is a combination of Science, Art and Organization. Many shoe makers understand the principles of good shoe making, they know how a durable and stylish shoe ought to be made, but lack the necessary organization to carry out their ideals. Only by combining these three qualifications can you get perfect shoes. Our Fine Shoe Lines, the Dorothy Dodd and Ralston Health, represent the very acme of scientific shoe making combined with style and finish.

Remember the place—at the Old Opera House, next week.

ABOUT

RAIN COATS AND OVERCOATS.

The very height of fashion, according to whispered rumors from good tailors—for, to be honest, the good tailors set the fashion—is just a little bit of brown, or a big bit of brown, according to how much a man can stand.

Here are the "Rosenwald & Wolf" Mackinette coats some almost brown—others just flakkered brown and speckled with combinations of blue and grey and red invisible plaids.

Perfectly stunning patterns yet not "loud" either.

Just Conspicuously Swell.

"Griffon" Overcoats in all patterns are here, with or without belts, loose or close fitters just as you prefer.

And now is the time to make your purchase.

Our sizes are not broken. We fit others, we can fit you. We suit others, we can suit you.

C. S. FORBES,

THE MAN'S OUTFITTER.
