

FAY STOCKINGS

TRADE WITH A STORE That you have faith in.

The ethics of retailing have changed vastly in recent years, despite the old methods. This store well remembers the first axiom of salesmanship expressed to him twelve year ago when it was being initiated into commercial life. The highest salesmanship in those days was expressed in these words:

"Any body can sell a customer what they want—the smart salesman can sell them what they don't want."

That day has passed; the modern store has reserved the old method; to-day the shrewd retailer follows the lines of least resistance. Instead of buying whatever merchandise offers, and depending on smart salesmanship to get rid of it, he follows the law that exists at

WILKINSON'S.

Have just the thing that people want. Our merchandise is the best and priced at prices that compel investigation. Everything is real. We are not disposed to waste good advertising money printing "stuff" you do not care for, and that we do not keep. Columns of talk and pages of prices fail to do justice to the import and magnitude of our pretty stock. We have the right kind of merchandise at the right price. We ask you to investigate.

THE REFLECTOR,
FOR FINE JOB PRINTING

END OF CENTURY CLUB BANQUET.

Reported for Reflector.

The End of Century Club had its annual banquet, complimentary to the husbands of its members, on Thursday evening at "Buckingham" the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Ficklen.

The guests were informally received by Mr. and Mrs. Ficklen, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Cotten and Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Arthur. They were delightfully entertained with musical selections by several young ladies present.

At nine o'clock the folding doors into the dining room were thrown open and the guests invited in. The long banqueting tables were decorated in the club colors, red and white, and this with the lighted candles, the snowy linen, silver and brilliant holly, presented a dazzlingly beautiful appearance.

Mrs. R. R. Cotten, the president of the club, acted as toastmistress in her own wasome, graceful way.

Instead of the usual centerpiece of flowers, the scheme last evening was something like a Jack Horner pie, only the guests did not "put in a thumb and take out a plum." There were red ribbons tied to the place cards and extending out the ends of them disappeared into a silver dish in the center of the table. When the guests were seated the toastmistress asked that the dishes be uncovered and requested each guest to draw from the "pie" whatever was attached to his ribbon. The pie proved to be filled with questions. The answers were called for and caused great amusement and merriment.

The toasts were responded to by the ladies this year.

Mrs. Mark Quinley gave the future needs of Greenville.

Mrs. L. C. Arthur responded to the toast, "Has Mrs. Wiggs a Monopoly on Cheerful Contentment?"

Mrs. J. B. Cherry "Men as Housekeepers."

Mrs. Harry Skinner gave "The Club Hodge Podge."

The Club Hodge Podge was so appropos that at the request of the members it will be published.

The toasts were all felicitously rendered and thoroughly enjoyed. The menu for the banquet was served by seven charming young ladies and of course a this tended to enhance the pleasure of the occasion.

The guests made a reluctant departure at midnight, hoping that the next annual banquet would be as delightful as this one and that they all would be there to enjoy it.

Letters That no Mail Clerk Will Tamper With.

"I send money by mail every week to my mother in Ohio," said the business man. "I don't send it by money order or by check, or even by registered post. I just put the bills in an envelope along with my letter and send the whole thing by regular mail."

"But," urged the same friend, "you take big risks of having your letter opened somewhere between New York and Ohio and the money pinched."

"On the contrary, I take no risk at all."

"But hardly a week passes that I don't read of letters being opened by dishonest mail clerks somewhere in the United States and cash stolen."

"Not letters sent the way I send mine, I put the money in the letter, seal the envelope and address it. Then I write in the lower left hand corner in red ink 'This envelope contains $20 in $10 bills numbered — and —.' Not a mail clerk on earth dares to open that envelope. They all like it for a 'trap,' and the letter and money are as safe as if their trip was escorted by a regiment of infantry."

TEACHER'S ASSOCIATION.

Great Interest in the Work.

The teachers of the county were up against inclement weather again today, nevertheless they showed their courage and earnestness by a large number being present at the monthly meeting of the association. It must be said to the credit of the teachers that they take great interest in their work, and the result of coming together monthly to study improved methods is manifest in more efficiency in the school room.

The devotional exercises of today's session were conducted by Rev. F. G. Hartman.

After calling roll and reading minutes of last meeting programs of North Carolina day exercises were distributed.

A model recitation on literature and language was conducted by Miss Eloise Coulling.

Miss Eula Cox, with a class, gave a model recitation in arithmetic.

Miss Mary Hodges gave a paper—an illustration on nature study.

Miss Eugenia Har is read a paper suggestions on geography.

The distribution and explanation of the "Course of Study" sent out by the state superintendent was next in order.

There were criticisms and suggestions on the day's work, led by J. H. McIyer.

Every feature of the program was exceedingly interesting and reflected great credit upon the teachers.

TO THE COTTON FARMERS AND HOLDERS OF COTTON.

If there ever was a time in the history of cotton, that the farmers who have control of the land had control of the situation, it is right now.

There is a need for every bale of cotton, that is reported by the government bureau, to have been made this year; and it is badly needed. The spinners have been short a long time. Manufactured goods are needed. The farmers need 12 1/2 cents for the cotton. They are in better condition to hold their cotton than at any time since the war, and if every farmer will say in plain unmistakable language I will not sell for less than 12 1/2 and stick to it, the price will be forth coming. It is time for the holders of spot cotton to rise to the manhood of men, and act manfully and courageously, and cotton is greater king than ever before.

It is up to the holders of the spots to save the price. If the holders of the spot cotton will authorize one man, whose integrity and judgment can be implicitly trusted, and furnish him with a sum equivalent to 50 cents per bale of the spot holdings at the present time, and let that man go on the exchange of the markets and buy March, May and July cotton and will not sell their spots until he shall indicate to them to sell, they can realize $20 per bale more for their cotton than the present price will net them. Farmers and business men, if there ever was a time when you should stand firmly together it is upon you now. Will you throw away the best opportunity! I am not a paid hireling to offer opinions one day and change about face for my own advantage. This is a reasonable proposition and every one can see it who will think I suggest the name of Mr. W. P. Brown of New Orleans as a most proper person that the spot holders could, safely rely upon and who is peculiarly fitted to manage such a movement.

ISAAC A. SUGG

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

Adopted by Greenville Graded School.

We, the teachers and pupils of the Greenville graded school of which Clifford Tyson was a member, feeling that in his death there has gone from us one whose manly bearing, cheerful spirit, and devotion to duty had so impressed us with whom he came into intimate and daily contact, that it is but fitting and proper that we should bear this public testimony to the high esteem in which he was held, do, therefore commend, at their true worth, the many noble traits of Christian character which he displayed.

While we shall often sigh for the touch of his vanished hand and the sound of his voice that is still, yet in his death we can but rejoice that we are assured that he has been removed to a higher and better school where he shall sit continually in the sunshine at a Savior's feet and learn of the Master Himself the great lessons of Life Eternal.

AYDEN ITEMS.

AYDEN, N. C., Dec. 9, 1904.

Our return trip home from Greenville last Monday was just magnificent. Boarding the freight at 4:15 p. m. in a down pour in company with about 75 other unfortunate one third of whom were under the influence of old king alk, all of us wet and chilly, exposed to language of the billings-gate variety interspersed by expressive language that could not have been rated themselves on the privacy of Napoleon while on the isle of St. Helena nor marred the serenity of Robinson Crusoe during his calm repose, the occasion proved not only hilarious to the few chosen, but exceedingly demoralizing to the greater number during that 8 hours ride before we could bid adieu to the left behind and seek the quietude of home where things more congenial would fall to our lot. All good things come to an end and so did this.—Amen.

W. E. Hoos had the misfortune to have his horse run away Tuesday and throw him out of the buggy breaking his left arm and painfully bruising him otherwise. The horse and buggy was not injured. Mr. Hoos is able to be out and attend to business we are pleased to learn.

Grover McLanahan has accepted a position on the mail train as assistant to the express agent.

Watt Quinerly went to Greenville Wednesday.

Hon. B. F. Sugg, of Washington and F. C. Harding of Greenville, were here Tuesday.

Barnes Summerell and family are visiting in Beaufort county.

Preston Mumford spent from Saturday until Monday out at his grandpa's in the country and on his return informed us he had seen a whole drove of birds flying backwards. Perhaps this is another advance on civilization, a kind of a fore and aft affair.

G. A. Kittrell was here Wednesday.

R. H. Hunsucker of Winterville, came over yesterday on business.

W. J. Mumford killed a fine porker Wednesday which tipped the scales at 450 pounds.

Mrs. A. D. Williams and child ren left yesterday to spend Christmas with friends near Keely.

J. R. Smith & Bro., would esteem it a special favor if the parties who last borrowed their pump auger would return it at once as they are very much in need of it. They do not wish to offend anyone, but as a matter of necessity they feel compelled to make this request.

Mrs. R. C. Canton and Miss Roberta Worthington spent yesterday shopping in Greenville.

Our friend Postmaster E. V. Cox has on exhibition two boll weevils sent him from Texas by a friend. They are curious looking little bugs and are said to be the most destructive insect to cotton known.

Floyd, the little 7-year old son of J. F. Dixon, is truly a smart little fellow. An invalid being confined to the house for the past twelve months, still he is not idle. His crocheting is beautiful, shawls, rugs, &c. of his handiwork will compare most favorably with those of more mature age. In fact the goods in this line will not come up to his. He can sew rapidly on the machine. A quilt he pieced for Dr. Dixon and presented to him is really beautiful. Floyd is a bright boy and a good little fellow. We hope soon to see him entirely well and able to play out of doors with his other little fellows.

SPECIAL EXCURSION TO HAVANA, CUBA.

Do not miss this opportunity to visit beautiful and attractive island, as it will afford, not only the opportunity for you to make a delightful trip but, to the manufacturer of the South, will offer the additional opportunity to investigate the possibilities of Cuba with the view of developing their business in that country.

A personally conducted, special excursion to Havana, Cuba, January 4th, 1905, from Washington, D. C. Richmond and Norfolk, Va., and intermediate points in the states of Virginia, North and South Carolina, will connect with the Peninsula and Occidental Steamship Company's steamer leaving Port Tampa, Fla., on the night of January 5th, 1905.

The party will be limited to 150 persons, therefore reservations should be made promptly, in order to secure proper accommodations on the Steamship "Olivette," the most commodious ship of the Peninsula and Occidental Steamship Company, which will convey the party to Havana.

Tickets will be limited for return passage on any steamer leaving Havana until January 19th, 1905, with privilege of stopovers at any point in the State of Florida, south of Jacksonville, within final limit of ticket, which will be January 22nd, 1905.

The rate, $48.25 from Greenville, N. C., for the round trip includes meals and staterooms on the steamer.

Mr. A. W. Fritot will meet the party in Jacksonville and accompany them to Havana. Mr. Fritot speaks Spanish fluently and will place himself at the disposal of the party, furnishing any information desired.

Trans for which tickets for this excursion will be sold will leave Greenville, N. C., 8:30, a. m., Jan. 4th, 1905.

Make up your party and go and should you desire any other information, books, pamphlets etc., on Cuba, or "What to say in Spanish and how to say it," address:

BENSONIZER LUNG CURE

NO MORE EXILE FOR CONSUMPTIVES.

A Cure at Last Obtained. After a Searching Investigation, by St. Louis Inter-etc.

A few months ago the attention of a few scientific and philanthropic gentlemen of St. Louis was directed to an entirely new method of combating that most dreadful of all diseases, tuberculosis, commonly called consumption. Out of 115 cases, 77 were completely cured and 28 have shown such improvement that their ultimate recovery is but a question of a few weeks.

So astonishing have been the results and absolute cures in cases pronounced incurable by all old methods that a company has been formed and is now prepared to furnish at a normal cost this cure to all sufferers of the "White Plague." One of its chief features is that patients can remain at home, surrounded by friends and relatives, and in a great many instances, especially the incipient or early stages of the disease, pursue their daily vocations and still become completely cured.

Patients receiving the same treatment here in St. Louis have completely recovered as rapidly as those in Colorado, New Mexico and Texas. Wonderful results in question have been accomplished by the Bensonizer, and the company which controls this marvelous medical device have located their main office at 417 North Seventh street, St. Louis. They have also located a factory on Easton avenue and a laboratory has been built at Hillside, Mo. The cure will be known as the Bensonizer Lung Cure, and Mr. C. P. Benson, the discoverer of the fluid inhalants which are used, will personally have charge of the affairs of the company. Mr. Benson will personally meet all who call at the office of the company on Seventh street, and will answer all communications from sufferers who are unable to make a personal call.—From the St. Louis Globe Democrat.

ABOUT RAIN COATS AND OVERCOATS.

The very height of fashion, according to whispered rumors from good tailors—for, to be honest, the good tailors set the Fashion—is just a little bit of Brown, or a big bit of brown, according to how much a man can stand.

Here are the "Rosenwald & Weil" Mackinette coats some almost brown—others just flannelled brown and speckled with combinations of blue and grey and red invisible plaids.

Perfectly stunning patterns yet not "loud" either.

Just Conspicuously Swell.

"Griffon" Overcoats in all patterns are here, with or without belts, loose or close fitters just as you prefer.

And now is the time to make your purchase.

Our sizes are not broken. We fit others, we can fit you. We suit others, we can suit you.

C. S. FORBES,
THE MAN'S OUTFITTER.
