THE REFLECTOR, FOR FINE JOB PRINTING

EVIDENCE NEARLY ALL IN. Prosecution Has Practically Rested in the Patterson Trial—Defense May Intro- duce No Witnesses.

New York, December 15.—At the conclusion of the examination of Mrs. Young, widow of Caesar Young, who was called to the witness stand twice today Assistant District Attorney Rand practically rested the case of the prosecution against Nan Patterson. Mr. Rand announced he would call only two more witnesses, whose testimony would be comparatively unimportant.

Mrs. Young took the stand and verified for the records her testimony of yesterday regarding the intercepted letter written to Young by Miss Patterson's sister, Julia Smith. Mrs. Smith in the letter asked Young to call and see her at once. She wrote among other things "I would like to get the thing straightened out because of Nan's perturbed condition. I understand what is the matter. We will be at home at noon tomorrow. Nan is about frantic. See me first and if you don't, I cannot answer for what might happen. You know how Nan loves you and as she is now nearly wild, her condition breaks my heart. I expect to see you as soon as possible."

Again in the afternoon Mrs. Young was recalled and told of the arrangement for her proposed trip to Europe with Young. She said that after her husband had retired early in the morning of June 4th, she searched his pockets and was certain that he had no revolver. She said also that he never carried a revolver.

John Mellen, Young's racing partner was also a witness today. He told of efforts Young had made to break off his relations with Miss Patterson while in Los Angeles in March last.

He said that he purchased a ticket for her and gave her $800 of Young's money when it was decided that she should leave him. At the conclusion of today's session of the court, counsel for Miss Patterson held a conference to decide whether to offer evidence in her defense, but their decision will not be announced until tomorrow.—Wilmington Messenger.

WILL HOLD FOR 10 CENTS.

And Reduce Acreage 25 Percent.

Though the weather was most disagreeable, there was a large meeting of farmers here today in the interest of the movement to hold cotton and not sell until the price is higher.

G. T. Tyson was made chairman of the meeting and H. T. King secretary.

Enthusiastic speeches were made by I. A. Sugg, Alston Grimes, A. A. Forbes and G. T. Tyson. The following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we will not sell any cotton within the next 30 days unless we get 10¢ per pound, and we pledge ourselves to exert all our influence to keep our neighbor from doing so.

Further we resolve that we will reduce our cotton acreage next year 25 per cent.

That we meet again in convention on the third Saturday in January at 11 o'clock.

Services at the Christian Church.

There will be preaching at the Christian Church tomorrow at 11 a. m., and 7 p. m. The subject for the morning sermon will be "Sinner's Denial." The evening sermon will be third of a series on "The Footsteps of Jesus," subject, "The Test for Service." All are cordially invited. H. H. MOORE, Pastor.

STATE NEWS.

More than $1,060,000 of the increase is in the deposits.

Her Reply.

The poet wrote his love a rhyme, Impassioned rhyme and sweet, Invited her to come with him Where waves might wash her feet.

She sent his poem back to him, And it made his pulse stir To read this postscript: "Wash your own!" Mine don't need it, sir!"

Uncle Sam is considering the adding of more stars in his crown. Oklahoma, Indian Territory, Arizona and New Mexico are applying for statehood.

She may not think so, but there are plenty more people who could have put Carnegie's money to much better use than Mrs. Chadwick seems to have done.

Nan Patterson the actress, who has been on trial for some time in New York charged with the murder of Caesar Young, a wealthy book-maker, is accompanied by some gruesome scenes.

The North Carolina legislature will assemble on Jan. 4th. There will be in the senate 43 Democrats and 6 Republicans. In the lower house there will be 98 Democrats and 23 Republicans.

John D. Rockefeller will make a Christmas gift to the value of $3,000,000 to Chicago University. Lookout for another advance in the price of oil, as the public will pay this little bill to keep John D. from getting any poorer.

The Washington correspondent of the Raleigh Post says there is absolutely no hope that the Appalachian park bill will pass congress, and the indications are that it will never become law so long as the Republicans control the machinery of legislation. The proposed location of the park being in the South the measure finds no favor with the present administration.

WHAT THE BROTHERS SAY.

The Greenville REFLECTOR has celebrated its tenth anniversary by an enlargement from six to seven columns. We congratulate our neighbor upon this sign of prosperity, and hope that its sphere of usefulness may continue to grow as the years go by.—Kinston Free Press

The Greenville Daily REFLECTOR has been enlarged to a seven column folio and is much improved. It is published in a small city but the fact that Editor Whichard has become an expansionist shows that his efforts are appreciated. The fact is, THE REFLECTOR most admirably fills the bill for the demand for a home daily, considering the circumscribed field from which he gets his patronage. Good luck to him and his bright paper.—Wilmington Star.

Reader, if you have not accomplished as much this year as you think you ought to have accomplished, do not become disheartened or faint-hearted, but make up your mind to do more next year. It will never do to give up. There is no need to cry over "spilt milk," but do your best to keep from spilling any more.—Louisburg Times.

Opposed to Wilcox's Pardon.

New York, Dec. 14.—Friends of E. Wilcox, who is serving a 30 years term in the State prison at Raleigh, N. C., for the murder of Nellie Cropsey, are making an effort to procure his pardon from the newly elected Governor of the State, and the girl's relatives in this city are aroused. That Wilcox's family has strong political influence causes the Cropseys to fear the young murderer may be freed.

Andrew C. Cropsey, a lawyer of this city, and uncle of the murdered girl is about to go to North Carolina and do all he can to keep the murderer of his beautiful niece in prison. "The mere thought," said Mr. Cropsey to-day, "that Jim Wilcox may get out of jail when he has put in only one year of the 30 he was sentenced to serve, is enough to drive me distracted. If ever a man deserved to be hung it was that fellow. That he killed Nellie was proved twice. Now Jim Wilcox's friends are working hard to get him pardoned. I will appeal to Mr. Glenn's sense of right and justice and if necessary we will get up a petition containing thousands of names of people living in the vicinity of Elizabeth City protesting against the release of the murderer. If Jim Wilcox serves one day less than 30 years for his crime there is no such thing as justice."

Do not leave the farm for the city unless you know there is a place waiting for you, which you can fill. Rewards for labor on the farm may not be brilliant, but failure will not be ruinous. The labor question will be settled when each man learns to use his power to the best advantage. However, no one succeeds in city or country unless he does his work well. Resolve to do something useful and honorable and do it with a good will. Repel the thought that you can live without labor. The most pitiable object in life is the person who is content to do nothing and is, therefore, nothing. What a miserable career it is to be a drone, with no purpose in life, with no helping hand to give and no effort to put forth to right the wrong. Make up your mind to some line of action—indecision squanders much time. It is not often people succeed by chance; the wheels of fortune are often turned by luck; it requires confidence in our ability and hard work to accomplish anything. Some people remain useless through life because they cannot make up their minds to do one certain thing and stick to it. One must have a definite object in view, and work, dare and sacrifice in order to gain even a fire fly glow.—Durham Sun.

Cotton continues to go down in price. Those who advise the farmers to hold their crops now see the folly of attempting to know everything about it. Nine times out of ten the best thing a farmer can do is to pick out his crops early, gin a few bales at once and sell; pay his accounts and put the balance in his pocket. This course pays in the long run. The talk however, of a twelve million bale crop seems out of reason. Windsor Ledger.

There is a great stir among journalists over President Roosevelt's recommendation of a whipping post for wife beaters. Will any editor have the hardihood to advocate a return to the old rule of the common law that a man could moderately chastise his better half, provided the switch was no larger than the little finger? For ourselves we do not think the whipping post too bad for a brute who would beat his wife.—Charlotte News

Beware of Counterfeits.

"DeWitt's is the only genuine Witch Hazel Salve" writes J. L. Tucker, of Centre, Ala. "I have used it in my family for Piles, Cuts and Burns for years and can recommend it to be the best Salve on the market. Every family should keep it, as is an invaluable household remedy, and should always be kept on hand for immediate use." Mrs. Samuel Gage, of North Bush, N. Y., says: "I had a fever sore on my ankle for twelve years that the doctors could not cure. All salves and blood remedies proved worthless. I could not walk for over two years. Finally I was persuaded to try DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, which has completely cured me. It is a wonderful relief." DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures without a scar. Sold by J. L. Wooten.

No More Suffering.

If you are troubled with indigestion get a bottle of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and see how quickly it will cure you. Geo. A. Thomson, of Spencer, Ia., says: "Have had Dyspepsia for twenty years. My case was almost hopeless. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure was recommended and I used a few bottles of it and it is the only thing that has relieved me. Would not be without it. Have doctored with local physicians and also at Chicago, and even went to Norway with hopes of getting some relief, but Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is the only remedy that has done me any good, and I heartily recommend it. Every person suffering with Indigestion or Dyspepsia should use it." Sold by J. L. Wooten, druggist.

While it is true that it is more blessed to give than to receive it is hard to make the fellow who has nothing to give believe it.—Raleigh Post.

Fight Will Be Bitter.

Those who will persist in closing their ears against the continuing recommendation of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, will have a long and bitter fight with their troubles, if not ended earlier by fatal termination. Read what T. K. Beall of Beal, Miss., has to say: "Last fall my wife had every symptom of consumption. She took Dr. King's New Discovery after everything else had failed. Improvement came at once and four bottles entirely cured her. Guaranteed by J. L. Wooten, Druggist. Price 50c, and $1.00. Trial bottles free. * t t e d i s w.

A LITTLE NONSENSE.

He Had the Laugh on the Well Dressed Lover.

As the two rivals faced each other while waiting for the beautiful girl who was to choose between them the one in the gray morning suit laughed a short, sharp laugh.

"It would have been well for you," he observed, "if at such an important interview you had at least made yourself presentable. Your hands are those of a mechanic's, your clothes are covered with oil spots, your face is grimy, your—"

At this instant the girl burst into the room and threw herself into the arms of the man in overalls.

"Darling," she murmured, "I have just heard that you fixed papa's crank shaft and brought him home in time for dinner, while this man here passed by without even blowing his horn."

It was then that the hero of a hundred breakdowns, as he toyed lightly with the golden hair that was hanging down his back, sneered pleasantly at the man who was too well dressed.

"My dear boy," he observed, "clothes don't make the man. Next time learn to repair your own auto."—Life.

His Revenge.

Algy—The chump! He has sent her flowers! But I will have revenge. I'll send her chocolates!
Cholly—Ah! Then your revenge will be sweet.

Over the Kitchen Sink.

Every woman who has to keep her hands in dishwater a good deal of the time knows how soon they get rough in cold weather. If she will keep a cup of Indian meal by the sink and after she has finished her dishwashing wash her hands and while still damp rub them in Indian meal she will be delighted to find how soft and white she can keep them.

Substitute For Cream.

Boil three-fourths of a pint of milk, beat the yolk of one egg and a level teaspoonful of flour with sugar enough to make the cream very sweet. When the milk boils stir this into it and let it cool; flavor to taste. For puddings in which eggs are used this is almost as good as rich cream and preferable to thin cream.

The Umbrella.

BENSONIZER LUNG CURE NO SCARCITY

NO MORE EXILE FOR CONSUMPTIVES.

A Cure at Last Obtained, After a Searching Investigation, by St. Louis Interests.

A few months ago the attention of a few scientific and philanthropic gentlemen of St. Louis was directed to an entirely new method of combating that most dreadful of all diseases, tuberculosis, commonly called consumption. Out of 115 test cases, 77 were completely cured and 28 have shown such improvement that their ultimate recovery is but a question of a few weeks.

So astonishing have been the results and absolute cures in cases pronounced incurable by all old methods that a company has been formed and is now prepared to furnish at a normal cost this cure to all sufferers of the "White Plague." One of its chief features is that patients can remain at home, surrounded by friends and relatives, and in a great many instances, especially the incipient or early stages of the disease, pursue their daily vocations and still become completely cured.
