THE REFLECTOR, FOR FINE JOB PRINTING

Organizing the Cotton Crop.

Fort Worth, Tex., Dec. 21.—At a meeting of the Executive committee of the National Cotton Association here today plans were adopted for the organization of the National Cotton Association under the resolutions adopted by the convention at Shreveport December 15. Oswald Wilson, of Fort Worth, Texas, was unanimously elected secretary of the executive committee: J. W. Spencer, president of the Farmers and Mechanics National bank, Fort Worth, national treasurer and George N. Aldridge, Dallas, was added to the executive committee.

The work of the association was divided among five different committees as follows:

For national legislation, E. H. Peters, Calvert, Texas, chairman; pipes and railroads, Stanley H. Watson, Houston, Texas, chairman; co-operation, O. H. Pyle, Mineola, Texas, chairman; organization, Oswald Wilson, Fort Worth, Texas, chairman; state legislation, J. H. Connell, for Texas, Dallas, P. M. Potts for Louisiana, Natchitoches, La.

Each chairman is to name his committee at the earliest moment.

The secretary was instructed to send to the State chairman the plan of organization of the executive committee so each state may be organized on the same lines.

The objects of the organization are: To urge on every farmer in the Southern States the absolute necessity of the diversification and rotation of crop and the cultural system of growing cotton.

To secure legislation in all of the cotton states for the protection of insectivorous birds and to destroy systematically the cotton stalks as soon as the cotton is picked.

To secure these results steps will be taken systematically to organize the entire cotton country.—News and Observer.

Port Arthur Fleet Done Up.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 21.—While declining to give details, the admiralty admits that Russian advisers from Port Arthur sent by General Stoessel substantially confirmed the Japanese advice of the partial wrecking of the Russian ships in the harbor and the censor has been instructed to permit the publication of the dispatches. It is claimed that several of the large ships and a respectable number of torpedo boat destroyers are still seaworthy, but they are not being considered as a factor in the coming fight between Admiral Togo's ships and the Russian Second Pacific Squadron. If the fortress is relieved it is believed that most of the ships will be raised and saved.

Expect to Catch Dewey.

Austin, Texas, Dec. 20.—Governor Lanham today received a telegram from Governor Charles B. Aycock of North Carolina, saying he had been advised that Thomas W. Dewey, alias Thomas von Weber, was in San Antonio and asking that Governor Lanham order his arrest and have him held pending the arrival of extradition papers.

Governor Aycock's telegram says that Dewey is wanted in North Carolina for embezzling the funds of a bank, a very large amount, and that there is a reward of $400 for him. Governor Lanham wired Sheriff John Tobin, at San Antonio, to arrest and hold Dewey.

For the Poor

The graphophone concert given by the Ladies Wednesday afternoon netted some over $5 to be added to the Christmas fund for the poor. One of the King's Daughters tells of some generous contributions of revisions and fruits have also been made. Nothing can be more Christlike than to help the poor get some enjoyment at this season when all hearts should be made happy.

THE SEASON'S QUERY.

"Whatchy goin' t' gimme?" says the youngest boy to pa;

"Whatchy goin' t' gimme?" says the youngest girl to ma;

"Whatchy goin' t' gimme?" says the maiden to her beau; Everywhere the answer is: "O' sumpin', I dunno."

"Whatchy goin' t' gimme?" asks the little boy at school— His just-fore-Christmas goodness makes him mindful of each rule;

"Whatchy goin' t' gimme?" sings the gamin on the street;

"Whatchy goin' t' gimme?" on our every hand we meet.

"Whatchy goin' t' gimme?" asks the yawning mone box; Meant to catch the coin to feed the hungry folks in flocks;

"Whatchy goin' t' gimme?" ask the wretched and the poor; Living in their penury a stone's throw from your door.

"Whatchy goin' t' gimme?" asks the great big world of you; "Life time full of usefulness, heart sincere and true?"

"Whatchy goin' t' gimme?" Hear it everywhere you go— Always comes the answer, "O' just sumpin', I dunno."

STATE NEWS.

The trolley line between Winston and High Point is assumed and the work is to begin at once. A first-class road is promised and the subscription asked for is pledged. The road will be a great advantage to the towns of High Point and Winston Salem.

In East Durham Tuesday A. M. Scott, met an awful death. He went to the Durham Lumber Company for the purpose of making some sausage. He was in the act of putting on a belt when some of his clothing was caught around the shafting. He was rapidly wound around, his head and feet coming in contact with the fl of the body was awfully mangled one leg and arm being torn from his body.

Killed and Hurt.

The annual report of the interstate commerce commission, shows that the past fiscal year was unusually prolific in fatal railroad accidents.

There were 43,266 employees injured and 3,367 employees killed during the year. There were 8,077 passengers injured, and 321 killed. There were ten unusually disastrous accidents.

The commission urges, with emphasis the uniform adoption of the block system. The report contains an exhaustive discussion of the rate question, the burden of which is that laws making effective the acts of the commission are imperative. The statistics compiled by the commission show that the gross earnings of railroads for the year were $1,966,633,821.—Kinston Free Press.

Bryan's Son Suspended.

Because of his refusal to apologize to his instructor, William J. Bryan, Jr., has been suspended from his class and has ceased his study of chemistry in Lincoln Academy; a preparatory institution for the state university.

The instructor warned the boy that he could not attend class unless he apologized for some offense. The son of the former presidential candidate preferred suspension, maintaining that he had nothing to apologize for. Neither the academy authorities nor young Bryan will discuss the matter.—Rx

John Thompson Was Good

A very small audience was at the opera house, Wednesday night, to witness John Thompson's interesting entertainment. The program was not cut at all, but he went right through with it just like there had been a full house, and it was one of the best entertainments that has been this way. Greenville people have some peculiarities—they skip over the really meritorious things in the opera house but almost tumble over each other to get seats to the poor shows. Thompson ought to have had a large audience.

The state has authorized an increase of the capital stock of the A. G. Cox Manufacturing Company, of Wingersville, from $20,000 to $100,000. This company is a credit to Pitt county. There is not a factory anywhere conducted by better men. The equal of A. G. Cox is seldom found.

See if you can send a ray of Christmas joy into some home where sadness hovers.

It would be cruel for some scientist to jump up with the declaration of germs in Christmas gifts.

As cotton and tobacco are both so uncertain, the farmers of this section might turn their attention to trucking.

Don't hold all your money for your own Christmas, pay the other fellow some and let him enjoy Christmas too.

The boys in continuing to shoot popcrackers contrary to the ordinances of the town show very little appreciation of the action of the aldermen in suspending the ordinance at Christmas. It would be a just rebuke of their want of appreciation if no suspension of the ordinance be permitted hereafter, and both the sale or bringing into town of fireworks be strictly prohibited. If such a thing happens the boys can only blame themselves for it.

A big fire occurred in Minneapolis a week ago. One of the brick walls left standing was blown down Tuesday morning by a strong wind and fell over on a hotel adjoining. The hotel was a three-story frame structure and was crushed like so much paper. Fifty guests were in the building, several of whom were killed and others seriously injured. This horrible disaster is due to the neglect of the city authorities in allowing the dangerous wall to remain standing after the fire. It is hardly less than criminal.

"There is life in the old land yet." That is especially true of North Carolina, the "good old North State." Charlotte, Greensboro, Durham, Raleigh and Goldsboro are growing rapidly, and Greenville, the county seat of Pitt county, on Tar river, in the center of the best cotton and tobacco lands in the South, has caught the spirit of enterprise, and is putting in a complete public water plant, and electric lighting plant. What Greenville needs, and will soon have, are tobacco manufacturing plants in competition with Durham and Lynchburg, and cotton spinning mills, to spin the cotton and manufacture the tobacco so abundantly grown in Eastern North Carolina.—Freeport, Ills. Journal.

North Carolina Forging to the Front in Baltimore.

Monday's Baltimore Sun says that Rev. Dr. M. V. McDuffie, the pastor of the New Seventh-Baptist church, of that city, announced Sunday that a new church building would soon be commenced. It will be on the corner of North Avenue and St. Paul street and is to be completed by next October. The design is to be executed in Beaver Dam Marble. Mr. McDuffie is a brother of Mr. N. J. McDuffie, of this city. He has written a brief history of the congregation and this together with a cut of Dr. McDuffie is published in connection with this article in the Sun.

This Year's Immigration

Once more Uncle Sam's immigration station at Ellis Island has been swamped by the inflow of newcomers from the Old World. At one time last week the detention quarters of the station were crowded with more than 5,000 immigrants, while two great steamships, laden with several thousand more, were held in the bay until room could be made for the latest arrivals on the island. And still the stream rolls in! It is a threatening torrent, and one that presents problems of the gravest moment for the future of the republic.

The rate war between the great Atlantic transport companies which was in progress during a considerable portion of the year which is nearing its close had its natural effect upon immigration into this country. The big steamship lines cut their steeerage rates to a merely nominal figure, and their agents scoured the continent to crowd the westward-bound liners with immigrants at these reduced rates. Steamship companies are not deeply interested in the future of the United States, and money is of far more importance to them than quality of immigration into this country. Their agents traveling over the continent offered all sorts of promises to prospective immigrants—cheap rates and a wonderful land across the seas; where golden apples grow on trees and license is not distinguished by law from liberty. As a result of the endeavors of the steamship companies, the immigration into the United States during the past eleven months has not only been great in volume, but in quality. Some of the immigrants who come to America under such circumstances do well; others are disappointed and go back to their own countries; a third element probably the most numerous of the lot—are disappointed, but remain, crowding the great cities and swelling the list of the discontented.

America is playing with fate in allowing more than a million immigrants from the countries of Southeastern Europe to land on her shores every year. This country's power of assimilation has been great in the past. This remarkable power was never tested by the excellent Irish and German immigration of the nineteenth century, however, as it will be tested during the twentieth by questionable immigration from Southeastern Europe.—Cincinnati Times-Star.

The Greenville Daily REFLECTOR is ten years old and as it grows in years it grows in usefulness. It has recently enlarged to a seven column paper. There is no paper in the State that stands more firmly for right and no paper is more zealous for the interest and progress of its town and community. We extend congratulations both to the paper and its patrons.—Scotland Neck Commonwealth.

The report of the tax commission shows that State properties are increasing in value at a rapid rate, being $151,963,223 in excess of the assessment of 1899. This is rather a remarkable showing and indicates that the Old North State is not now, if she ever was, the Rip Van Winkle of the South. Manufacturers are mainly responsible for the increase.—Charlotte Chronicle.

A New Jersey man who has been blind for 42 years has regained his sight without treatment and can see as well as he ever could. The case is regarded little short of a miracle. He is a little behind on seeing but we'll bet he will now make up for lost time by rubber necking from the best stand on the corner.—Wilmington Star.

In Connecticut a legislative candidate who wishes to be courteous to his opponent cast his vote for him. His opponent was elected by just one vote. Had he voted for himself he would have been a self-made man.—Wilmington Star.

We don't know which deserves the most sympathy about Christmas time, the child without a mother, or the mother without a child.—Kinston Free Press.

Beware of Counterfeits.

"DeWitt's is the only genuine Witch Hazel Salve" writes J. L. Tucker, of Centre, Ala. "I have used it in my family for Piles, Cuts and Burs for years and can recommend it to be the best Salve on the market. Every family should keep it, as is an invaluable household remedy, and should always be kept on hand for immediate use." Mrs. Samuel Gage, of North Bush, N. Y., says: "I had a fever sore on my ankle for twelve years that the doctors could not cure. All salves and blood remedies proved worthless. I could not walk for over two years. Finally I was persuaded to try DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, which has completely cured me. It is a wonderful relief." DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures without a scar. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

A convincing orator is one who has sense enough to shut up before his audience acquires that tired feeling.

No More Suffering.

If you are troubled with indigestion get a bottle of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and see how quickly it will cure you. Gen. A. Thomson, of Spencer, Ia., says: "Have had Dyspepsia for twenty years. My case was almost hopeless. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure was recommended and I used a few bottles of it and it is the only thing that has relieved me. Would not be without it. Have doctored with local physicians and also at Chicago, and even went to Norway with hopes of getting some relief, but Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is the only remedy that has done me any good, and I heartily recommend it. Every person suffering with indigestion or Dyspepsia should use it." Sold by J. L. Wooten, druggist.

Instead of spending his money for accessories the rich man can invest it in bonds and live on luxuries.

Run down systems benefit particularly and all the usual attending ailments vanish under its searching and thorough effectiveness. Electric Bitters is only 50c, and that is returned if it don't give perfect satisfaction. Guaranteed by J. L. Wooten, Druggist.

A woman may be able to saw wood but when it comes to saying nothing-well, that's another story.

Fight Will Be Bitter.

Those who will persist in closing their ears against the continual recommendation of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, will have a long and bitter fight with their troubles, if not ended earlier by fatal termination. Read what T. R. B. all of Beal, Miss., has to say: "Last fall my wife had every symptom of consumption. She took Dr. King's New Discovery after everything else had failed. Improvement came at once and four bottles entirely cured her. Guaranteed by J. L. Wooten, Druggist. Price 50c, and $1.00. Trial bottles free. U.S.D. & W."

When a man's friends hear he has had an attack of insanity they hope for later intelligence.

Thanks.
She came into the crowded car
And looked divinely sweet.
A man got up, politely bowed
And offered her a seat.

She squeezed into the little space
And straightway sat her down.
No single word escaped her lips,
Her face it wore a frown.

"I did not thank you, sir," she said,
"When you gave up your seat."
"But I will thank you now, kind sir,
If you'll get off my feet!"

To Keep Mice From Bureaus.
The common wire mosquito netting cut to fit the bureau drawer cavity and securely tacked in place will keep out mice. The same tacked over the bottom of bureaus and dressers will have the same effect.

BENSONIZER LUNG CURE
NO MORE EXPLE FOR CONSUMPTIVES.

A Cure at Last Obtained, After a Searching Investigation, by St. Louis Interests.

A few months ago the attention of a few scientific and philanthropic gentlemen of St. Louis was directed to an entirely new method of combating that dreadful of all diseases, tuberculosis, commonly called consumption. Out of 115 test cases, 77 were completely cured and 28 have shown such improvement that their ultimate recovery is but a question of a few weeks.

So astonishing have been the results and absolute cures in cases pronounced incurable by all old methods that a company has been formed and is now prepared to furnish at a normal cost this cure to all sufferers of the "White Plague." One of its chief features is that patients can remain at home, surrounded by friends and relatives, and in a great many instances, especially the incident or early stages of the disease, pursue their daily vocations and still become completely cured.

Patients receiving the same treatment here in St. Louis have completely recovered as rapidly as those in Colorado, New Mexico and Texas. The wonderful results in question have been accomplished by the Bensonizer, and the company which controls this marvelous medical device have located their main office at 417 North Seventh Street, St. Louis. They have also located a factory on Easton Avenue and a laboratory has been built at Hillside, Mo. The cure will be known as the Bensonizer Lung Cure, and Mr. C. P. Benson, the discoverer of the "White Plague," will personally meet all who call at the office of the company on Seventh Street, and will answer all communications from sufferers who are unable to make a personal call.—From the St. Louis Globe Democrat.
