HORNADAY-JONES.

A Beautiful Marriage of a Popular Couple.

BEAUFORT, N. C. Dec. 30, 1904. Professor C. L. Hornaday, of Trinity Park School, Durham, N. C., and Miss Bessie Jones, of this city, were married at 8 o'clock last evening. The wedding took place in Ann street Methodist church, Rev. J. A. Hornaday, father of the groom and former pastor of this church officiating, assisted by the pastor, Rev. H. M. Eure.

The main auditorium and the Sunday school room of the large church, which was handsomely decorated with evergreens and potted plants, were filled with relatives and friends who had come to witness the ceremony.

Promptly at 8 o'clock, the hour appointed, the ceremony began by a solo by Miss Lottie C. Frey, of Beaufort. Then the strains of Lobeugrin's wedding march pealed from the large organ at which Mrs. Frank Howland, of Durham, presided. As the measured music filled the church, from the pastor's study came the first of the bridal party.

These were Mr. Paul Webb, of Morehead City and Prof. Raymond Browning, of Durham. Next came two of the bridesmaids. These were Misses Sunye Sanders, of Beaufort and Dora Hornaday, of Greenville. These were followed by Messrs Tom W. Lindsay, Jr., of New Bern and Leslie Davis, of Morehead City, Misses Pauline Sheep, of Elizabeth City and Mary McMullen, of the same place.

Then came two little flower girls, Misses Annie Neal Jones and Lucy Forlaw, who preceded the bride, who came in leaning upon the arm of Miss Bessie Howland, of Beaufort. Last came the groom with his brother, Mr. F. M. Hornaday, of Greenville.

The bride wore white Jap. silk and a long white bridal veil, and carried a large bouquet of brides roses, which were tied with smilax.

The bride's maids wore white silk mail, and carried bouquets of holly tied with red satin ribbon.

Rev. J. A. Hornaday, of Greenville Station, performed the ceremony in a brief but solemn manner, observing the presentation of the wedding ring.

After the ceremony the bridal party went to the home of the bride's parents, where a reception was given the numerous friends who had come to witness the marriage.

This morning the happy couple left on the early train for Greenville, where they will spend a few days with the groom's parents before going to their home in Durham, N. C.

The bride and groom were the recipients of many valuable presents.

FAREWELL; OLD YEAR.

Farewell, Old Year; I bow my head And close my eyes, and hear The muffled tread of by-gone days March back into the past

The past—great tomb of aims and hopes. Ideals and fond ambitions— Enshrines with mist, and buries from the sight, The shattered realisms born of day dreams: Nourished oft by visions of the night.

Farewell, Old Year; Thy numbered cycles—days and nights— Accentuated here and there by sunrise, Zenith, sunset deepening twilight; Then a plunge into the deeper darkness of the night: Sun, moon and stars eclipsed at times

By clouds and shadows, cast allward the stellar space, As onward swings the earth "Twixt orbs of night and day.

Farewell, Old Year; We will not mourn thy going As we do when friends of earth depart:

They sleep, and speak not when we call;

But Thou! Wilt not Thou speak From out of the past? Sometimes in whispers, then in dulcet tones?

Will not the sunrise, zenith, sunset, Of the coming days, Touch the vibrant chord of memory's Magic note, and let us Hear again the voices of the past?

Farewell, Old Year; march on, away: Thou art the past, and soon will ancient be;

While we, God's greatest handiwork, Shall live, and taste the sweets Of His eternal NOW.

We live TO-DAY; and from the future grasp By faith, the joys to neutralize The sorrows of the past, and make The PRESENT strike the middle note

Of sweet and holy calm.

—H. H. MOORE.

RING OUT. RING IN.

Written for REFLECTOR. How cold and crisp the midnight air, The frosty earth, the stars so fair, The distant fog—a hazy hue: Ring out the old, ring in the new.

Ring in our hops, ring out our woes, The new has come, the old must go; And ere we see the morning sun, A year gone past, a year begun.

Ring out the secret lives of men, The gambling booth, the harlot's den; Ring out the clash of business strife, Ring in a nobler, sweeter life.

Ring out the fops, the petty dude, Whose character is ne'er made rude, For honest folk a sneer, a scuff; Whose income no one knows thereof.

Ring out the strength of fighting Mars, Ring out the trend of church bazaars, Ring out the evil thoughts of men, Ring in the Star of Bethlehem.

Ring out Society's foul name, Ring out the life of pomp and shame; Ring in the true—our lives to bless, Ring in a life of usefulness.

At the Christian Church.

The usual services will be held tomorrow at the Christian church. Sunday school 10 a. m. Preaching 11 a. m. Subject "A New Year Resolution." 7 p. m. The fourth of a series on the Footsteps of Jesus; Subject, "The Pathway to Victory."

When the Lord created woman he didn't use a magazine fashion plate for a pattern.

A woman can't make a monkey of every man she meets; sometimes she's too late.

CHRISTMAS ENTERTAINMENT.

Delightful Time With Methodist Sunday School.

The old opera house was transformed into a jolly, happy scene Friday night. It was the occasion of the Christmas tree and party by the Methodist Sunday school and a happier, merrier assembly seldom seen. The children with their parents and friends began arriving early and for an hour or more the little folks made the hall ring with the merry music of their games.

A little past 8 o'clock they were called to order to listen to two songs by the school and splendid recitations by Gordon Congleton, Leslie Hornaday, Wilford Congleton and Miss Bernice Hornaday.

Following this ex-Gov. T. J. Jarvis came out on the stage and in behalf of the Sunday school presented a silver pickle fork to L. H. Pender, retiring superintendent of the school, and a set of silver spoons to Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Hornaday. He also presented a picture to Wiley Brown in behalf of the latter's class.

Then the curtain arose and a gorgeous scene was brought to view. On the stage stood a beautiful Christmas tree magnificent with its splendid lights and rich decorations. The roll of the school was called and as each one went for ward bags of confections and fruits were handed out by Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Claus, the former being represented by R. L. Hamber and the latter by C. M. Jones.

In addition to the school fruits and confections were served to everybody present.

Bell for Graded School.

H. L. Carr has received a large bell for the graded school and it will be put up in a few days. The bell has a splendid tone.

A woman always wants some one to help her keep a secret.

Another year is fast drawing to a close with its sunlight and shadows—its withered leaves and fragrant flowers. Joyous time. Happy hearts. Cheerful homes made brighter by the glorious anticipations of expected pleasures.

Kind hearts—loving remembrances—tender recollections of "Home sweet home." It's Christmas time. Let every heart be merry.

ACCEPT OUR "MERRY CHRISTMAS"

as a personal one from friend to friend, and our earnest and heartfelt thanks for the liberal patronage extended to us during the past year.

We certainly feel that we have every reason to wish all our friends

A VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS

SATURDAY, DEC. 31, 1904.

GREENVILLE IN 1904.

The year 1904 has been a good one in the growth and progress of Greenville. The town does not go forward in spasmodic jumps, but moves along quietly, yet steadily and surely, which is the most substantial kind of growth. During the year several new buildings have been erected. The most notable event in the way of buildings was the completion of our handsome Masonic temple embracing offices, lodge rooms and a modern opera house. In various sections of the town new dwelling houses have gone up, while others have been remodelled and improved. A number of desirable families have moved in to swell the population, and upon the whole Greenville has cause to feel gratified at her growth this year.

The beginning of both electric lights and water works systems and work on these getting well advanced, marks another achievement for the town in the year 1904.

Progress has also been made this year along fraternal, religious, educational and moral lines. The lodges have grown rapidly, the churches have shown good increase in membership, and the schools have improved in attendance and equipment. The closing of barrooms has shown marked improvement in the morals of the town. The opening of a public library that is well patronized speaks more forcibly than words of the advancement in culture and taste for good literature.

From a business standpoint the town has done well. Notwithstanding the low price of cotton and the short crop of tobacco the merchants and banks have done a fair business. Not an assignment has occurred in the town during the year.

Greenville has also been a fortunate town and greatly favored by Providence this year. Not a building has been destroyed by fire. No disaster has befallen us. No violent deaths have occurred. Even though there was an outbreak of smallpox, control of the situation was promptly taken and the threatened epidemic quickly checked. How greatly blessed we are as a town and people, and how devoutly thankful we should be to Almighty God for His goodness and favor.

There is cause, abundant cause, for congratulation on Greenville's record for 1904, and The Reflector congratulates our corps of excellent business men and noble citizenship upon the part they have taken individually and collectively in the progress and upbuilding of the town. It is our earnest wish that to each and every one the new year into which we are entering may be one of abundant prosperity and happiness.

Farewell to the old year! In a few hours it will be gone, and its joys and sorrows, its success and failures, will be things of the past. In looking back over its record let us cherish the memory of that which was good and forget that which was bad. The record speaks for itself and cannot be changed now, but let us profit by the experiences of the past and turn with renewed hope and energy to the future, determined to make the new year the best in our lives. All hail the glad new year!

THE REFLECTOR has had a very good year during 1904, and wishes here to make due acknowledgement to its patrons for their liberal support. The business men have been especially generous and given the paper the best advertising patronage of any year in its history. While we have endeavored to give them full value for every dollar invested, we none the less appreciate their patronage. It shows their faith in their home paper and that they believe an advertisement in it is a good investment. THE REFLECTOR is proud of its patrons and proud that its home is among such excellent business men. To every advertiser and every subscriber we return thanks, and wish for all a happy and prosperous new year.

The latest report is that a plea of insanity will be made in defense of Mrs. Chadwick. Absurd! We would sooner believe the bankers she got the money from were crazy.

The holidays seem to have been rampant with crime. The papers are filled with accounts of murders and robberies.

Georgia is some when it comes to burning. They have negroes and cotton bolls to burn down there.

Whatever else may be said about it, the old year certainly had a pretty end.

The cotton prospect grows more gloomy.

Turn over your new leaf tonight and do not soil it in the morning.

Beware of Counterfeits.

"DeWitt's is the only genuine Witch Hazel Salve" writes J. L. Tucker, of Centre, Ala. "I have used it in my family for Piles, Cuts and Burns for years and can recommend it to be the best Salve on the market. Every family should keep it, as is an invaluable household remedy, and should always be kept on hand for immediate use." Mrs. Samuel Gage, of North Bush, N. Y., says: "I had a fever sore on my ankle for twelve years that the doctors could not cure. All salves and blood remedies proved worthless. I could not walk for over two years. Finally I was persuaded to try DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, which has completely cured me. It is a wonderful relief." DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures without a scar. Sold by J. L. Wooten.

The Legislature soon to meet is expected to improve and strengthen the Watts Act of the last Legislature. There is a strong demand from many sections of the State that the sale of whiskey except in dispensaries be prohibited in all towns of less than 2000 or 2500 inhabitants. An amendment of this kind should become a law. The people demand it. Cross roads bar rooms are a curse to the country. If whiskey is to be sold outside of the cities having ample police protection it should be sold in dispensaries and all the profits go to the school fund and to the betterment of the public roads. Apply the profits in this manner and fewer places will ask for dispensaries. We do not think the time has arrived to enact an anti jug law. Such a law would be a failure in operation; the demand for it is not strong enough to justify the Legislature in making such a law. It would hurt the temperance cause to go ahead of public sentiment in matters of this kind.—Rich Square Times.

Revolution Imminent

A sure sign of approaching revolt and serious trouble in your system is nervousness, sleeplessness or stomach upsets. Electric Bitters will quickly dismember the troublesome causes. It never fails to tone the stomach, regulate the Kidneys and Bowels, stimulate the Liver, and clarify the blood. Run down systems benefit particularly and all the usual attending aches vanish under its searching and thorough effectiveness. Electric Bitters is only 50c, and that is returned if it don't give perfect satisfaction. Guaranteed by J. L. Wooten, Druggist.

Will you want a new ledger for next year? Reflector Book Store can supply you.

No More Suffering.

If you are troubled with indigestion get a bottle of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and see how quickly it will cure you. Gen. A. Thomson, of Spencer, La., says: "Have had Dyspepsia for twenty years. My case was almost hopeless. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure was recommended and I used a few bottles of it and it is the only thing that has relieved me. Would not be without it." Have doctored with local physicians and also at Chicago, and even went to Norway with hopes of getting some relief, but Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is the only remedy that has done me any good, and I heartily recommend it. Every person suffering with indigestion or Dyspepsia should use it." Sold by J. L. Wooten, druggist.

An exchange asks the question "Is the hog degenerating?" We think not. He is very much in evidence on the street cars, at public gatherings, and in the distribution of gifts by charity.—Durham Sun

Fight Will Be Bitter.

Those who will persist in closing their ears against the continual recommendation of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, will have a long and bitter fight with their troubles, if not ended earlier by fatal termination. Read what T. R. B. all of Beal, Miss., has to say: "Last fall my wife had every symptom of consumption. She took Dr. King's New Discovery after everything else had failed. Improvement came at once and four bottles entirely cured her. Guaranteed by J. L. Wooten, Druggist. Price 50c, and $1.00. Trial bottles free. * t t s d i s w

A Pleasant Pill.

No Pill is as pleasant and positive as DeWitt's Little Early Risers. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are so mild and effective that children, delicate ladies and weak people enjoy their cleansing effect, while strong people say they are the best liver pills sold. Sold by J. L. Wooten, druggist.

A Frightful Horse.

Running like mad down the street dumping the occupants, or a hundred other accidents, are every day occurrences. It behooves everybody to have a reliable Salve handy and there's none as good as Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Burns, Cuts, Sores, Eczema and Piles, disappear quickly under its soothing effect. 25c, at J. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

I, Richard Williams, clerk ex-officio of the Board of Commissioners for the aforesaid county, hereby certify that the foregoing is a correct statement as doth appear of record in my office. Given under my hand and seal, this November 22nd, 1904
R. WILLIAMS,
Clerk B'd com for Pitt Co

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA, } In the Superior Court of } Pitt County, } before the Clerk.

E. D. Higgs, J. W. Higgs and J. S. Higgs, trading as Greenville Supply Company, vs. J. B. Smith and E. O. Smith, trading as J. B. Smith and Son - Notice of execution sale.

By virtue of an execution directed to the undersigned from the superior court of Pitt county in the above entitled action, I will on Monday the 10th day of January, 1905, at 2 o'clock P. M. at the court house door of said county sell the highest bidder for cash to satisfy said execution all the right title and interest which the said J. B. Smith defendant has in the following described real estate to-wit:

A certain tract or parcel of land lying and being in the county of Pitt and state of North Carolina in Swift creek township in Clay Foot Neck on the south side of the Greenville road being the same land upon which the said J. B. Smith and wife live adjoining the lands of W. A. Smith, Elizabeth Clark, John Moore and the Matthew James heirs containing Eighty-five acres more or less, less the homestead of the said J. B. Smith which has been set apart to him and described as follows: Beginning in the main road leading to Greenville and running with the lines between Matthew James lands a westerly course to J. J. Moore's line, thence South with said Moore's line down the creek to W. Calvin James corner, thence with said W. C. James line an easterly course to the main road, containing by estimation about sixty acres.

This 13th day of December, 1904.

BENSONIZER LUNG CURE

NO MORE EXILE FOR CONSUMPTIVES.

A Cure at Last Obtained, After a Searching Investigation, by St. Louis Interests.

A few months ago the attention of a few scientific and philanthropic gentlemen of St. Louis was directed to an entirely new method of combating that most dreadful of all diseases, tuberculosis, commonly called consumption. Out of 115 test cases, 77 were completely cured and 28 have shown such improvement that their ultimate recovery is but a question of a few weeks.

So astonishing have been the results and absolute cures in cases pronounced incurable by all old methods that a company has been formed and is now prepared to furnish at a nominal cost this cure to all sufferers of the "White Plague." One of its chief features is that patients can remain at home, surrounded by friends and relatives, and in a great many instances, especially the incident or early stages of the disease, pursue their daily vocations and still become completely cured.

Patients receiving the same treatment here in St. Louis have completely recovered as rapidly as those in Colorado, New Mexico and Texas. The wonderful results in question have been accomplished by the Bensonizer, and the company which controls this marvelous medical device have located the firm office at 417 North Seventh street, St. Louis. They have also located a factory on Easton avenue and a laboratory has been built at Hillside, Mo. The cure will be known as the Bensonizer Lung cure, and Mr. C. P. Benson, the discoverer of the fluid inhalants which are used, will personally have charge of the affairs of the company. Mr. Benson will personally meet all who call at the office of the company on Seventh street, and will answer all communications from sufferers who are unable to make a personal call.—From the St. Louis Globe Democrat.

MILLER-WORSLEY.

The marriage of Miss Nora E. Miller and John I. Worsley, which was celebrated Sunday evening at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Miller, No. 4 Jefferson Drive, was an unusually picturesque nuptial event. The ceremony was performed beneath a wedding bell of mistletoe amidst an effective Christmas setting of holly, mistletoe, cut flowers, spruce, ferns, cedar and various evergreens. The bride was gowned in cream silk mull, with lace to match, and carried bride's roses. Rev. A. T. Bell, pastor of the Haywood street Methodist church, was the officiating clergyman. 37N

Following the ceremony, a supper was served for the bridal party and a few invited guests. A variety of beautiful presents were received by Mr. and Mrs. Worsley. They will reside in Asheville.—Asheville Citizen.

Mr. Worsley once lived in Greenville and left here when a boy for Asheville.

Have You Hated Yourself During the Past Year?

How have you hated yourself during the past year for doing the mean, contemptible, questionable things? Yet you have tried to console yourself with the great good you could do with the money you made by it. It is astonishing how men will play with the poison of dishonesty, which is so insidious at first, which intoxicates and stimulates one, but paralyzes and kills later. If every youth were only taught that to be successful a man must be greater than his occupation; that his character must not be for sale at any price; that he will always be rich so long as he retains it, and just in proportion to its strength and integrity, and weak and unhappy and a failure no matter how much money he may have, just in proportion to the weakness of his character; if he only started out with the conviction that only one real failure is possible, and that is the loss of self-respect, the barter of one's character, either for pleasure or for money; if the youth were only taught that he cannot afford to deceive even a little bit in the quality of goods he is selling, or in the quality of the service he is giving, what a revolution would come to our civilization!—Ex.

He who says he never made a mistake in his life is probably mistaken.

Child Dies of Hydrophobia.

Greensboro, N. C. Dec. 30.—John Reeves, the seven-year old son of New Reeves, died this morning at his home at White Oak Mills of hydrophobia. Nine weeks ago the boy was bitten on the finger by a small yellow dog in play, it was thought. Last Wednesday the boy became strangely afflicted, having convulsions and chokings.
