THE NEW YEAR.

At this season, the close of the Old and opening of the New Year, wise and prudent men take account of their assets and liabilities. In taking account of our assets and liabilities we find our most valuable assets to be the good will of our many patrons and friends.

In like manner, we find our greatest liabilities, are those we owe our friends for the kindly and substantial interest they have manifested in this store.

This good will we heartily reciprocate and trust our mutually relations will not only continue, but will show a marked increase for 1905. To realize this trust, community of interest will bind us together in indissoluble golden bonds.

We feel that the growth of our business is due to the loyalty of our friends, and we now thank them heartily for their contribution to our success.

In conclusion we shall ask you to expect better things from this store for the year 1905. With the season's greetings and our best wishes for your success and prosperity we are

Your Friends

THE REFLECTOR,

TUCKER'S BIG SALE.

People Thronging His Store After the Bargains.

The sensation of the town is the ten day cut price sale that has been inaugurated at the store of A. E. Tucker. His entire stock has been placed in the hands of L. Kirstein & Co., special sale conductors, and an astonishing cut in prices has been made for this sale. The interior of the store has been rearranged and there are banners and placards everywhere telling the prices of the goods. Just inside the door a graphophone entertains the throng of people as they pass in and out.

The store was thrown open to the public for this sale Saturday morning and the rush began at once, giving the army of clerks all they could do to wait on the purchasers. The genuineness of the bargains is seen at a glance and all day long the store is crowded with eager buyers. Remember this special sale is for only ten days.

$10,000 From J. P. Morgan

It was stated on good authority last night that J. Pierpont Morgan has donated $10,000 to the Catholic University of America, and that he may make an additional gift to the institution in the near future. United States Senator Aldrich is also said to have presented $2,500 to the university within the past few days, and it was stated that a similar amount had been received from Hon. Stephen B. Ekins, Senator from West Virginia.

A rumor has gained general circulation that Mr. Morgan has offered to lend the university $1,000,000 or assist its interests by purchasing the Woodley tract of the estate of Thomas E. Waggaman, whose affairs are being adjusted in the bankruptcy court. The Catholic University claims to be secured by a deed of trust on the Woodley property, executed to secure the institution for the money due it from Mr. Waggaman as its treasurer. The rumor could not be confirmed yesterday, the university officials declining either to affirm or deny it. Mr. O'Connell, rector of the university, had heard the story, but declined to discuss it.

Cardinal Gibbons is quoted as saying that he has heard the rumor and hopes that it may prove true. So far as could be learned, the authorities of the university are not aware that Mr. Morgan contemplates the course suggested by the rumors, but they consider that the report, if true, is good news. — Washington Post.

McCue's Counsel Busy.

Richmond, Va., Jan. 14.—Counsel for J. Samuel McCue, former mayor of Charlottesville, sentenced to be hanged January 20th for the murder of his wife, announces that they will ask Governor Montague for a short respite in order that the condemned man may settle certain affairs in which several persons are interested. It is understood that Mr. McCue's counsel will take advantage of the respite if granted to prepare papers asking the governor for a commutation of sentence or a pardon.

Judge Fred Philips Dead.

On Saturday last at Tarboro, at 8 o'clock ex-Judge Fred Philips passed away. He was surrounded in his last moments by his devoted wife and children. Judge Philips was a victim of dropsy and heart affliction and had been in feeble health for some time.

SUPERIOR COURT.

January Term in Session.

The January term of Pitt Superior court for the trial of both criminal and civil cases, Judge W. R. Allen, of Goldsboro, presiding and Solicitor L. I. Moore representing the state, began this morning.

In calling the jury list six were excused. The grand jury drawn was as follows: D. G. Barry, foreman, W. A. Hyman, B. F. Patrick, J. H. Barnhill, A. B. Congleton, Howell Cobb, D. B. Carrington, C. O. Brown, W. T. Keel, Calvin Mills, H. H. Craft, New some Worseley, W. W. Matthews, W. B. Higson, Ashley Whichard, W. O. Bilbro, E. L. Brown, J. A. Moye.

W. H. Smith is officer of the grand jury and L. W. Lawrence court crier.

The weather being cold and uncomfortable to the jurors, Judge Allen did not deliver a long charge to the grand jury, but what he said was clear and practical. While the criminal law generally was briefly touched, certain offenses were emphasized.

Judge Allen made strong point touching the duties of the grand jury when he said they should not return a true bill unless after examination of the state's witnesses they are fully satisfied of the guilt of the person against whom the bill is drawn. He has known of grand juries who took the position that it made no difference if a true bill was found, as the petit juror could correct any error if one had been made. But, said the judge, it does make a difference, for its reflection on a man for the grand jury to return a true bill against him and they should not do so unless fully satisfied of his guilt.

In speaking of gambling Judge Allen said one of the worst features of this is the prevalent gambling in futures, but he thought the law against it was defective, and for that reason he did not charge grand juries upon it. He thought the law should be amended so as to reach gamblers in futures.

Violations against the provisions of the Watts law, he said, should have their attention. It matters not what the jury may think of the law nor what the judge may think of the law (though for himself he thought it a good law) the fact that it is a law is sufficient and violations under it should not be overlooked.

In referring to the duty of the grand jury to examine the county officers he said they should be careful to see that guardians, administrators and executors file their reports promptly with the Superior court clerk. He also urged a thorough inspection of the county home, pointing out that the inmates of that institution were unfortunates, not criminals, and entitled to as good attention as the county could afford to give them.

Mrs. Dicey Jones Dies Suddenly.

Mr. Dicey Jones was found dead in bed Sunday morning at the King house where he lived with her grandchildren. She was 79 years old, but had appeared in usual health and there was no warning that the end was near. She did not get up at her usual time Sunday and some one went to call her for breakfast when it was found that she was dead. Her appearance showed that she had passed away peacefully, simply falling asleep never to awake in this world.

Mrs. Jones was grandmother of Mrs. H. B. Harris, Mr. J. F. King and Misses Lena and Mamie King, all of Greenville. She had many friends who regret her death.

The remains were taken to Farmville today for interment in the family burying ground there.

MEETING OF BOOK CLUB.

Reported for Reflector.

One of the most delightful meetings of the End of the Century Book Club was held Tuesday afternoon, January the tenth, at the home of its first vice-president, Mrs. F. G. Hartman, the president, Mrs. R. R. Cotten presiding. There was a large number of members and visitors present to enjoy the hospitality of the charming hostess. After the usual routine of business the most important feature of the program was a reading of a history of Greenville by the president, who is the author of this interesting sketch. Under the title of "Greenville on the Tar." It is to be published and will be very interesting to all who live or have lived in Greenville. Throughout the whole runs a vein of humor, for which the author is noted, and it is well illustrated with pictures taken by herself.

After this delightful refreshment were served by the hostess, and the club adjourned to meet with Mrs. F. G. James, Tuesday, January 24th.

S. S. M. Society.

For Reflector

Sunday afternoon the regular monthly meeting of the S. S. Missionary Society of the M. E. Church. An interesting program had been arranged by Mrs. H. L. Carr, president of the society and fourth vice president of the Epworth League.

The program was called by Supt. Geo. S. Prichard, as follows:

Prayer by Wiley Brown. Recitations and readings by Wilfred Congleton, Miss Maud Hooker, Edward Hearne, Miss Julia Harris, Miss Evira Brown and Miss Lillian Carr. All interspersed with singing.

Every part of the program was well rendered, and it was an unusually interesting and helpful meeting.

The last item in the program was the call of the S. S. classes for their reports. Class No. 14 taught by Miss Dora Hornaday, reported the largest amount of money raised for missions, and was declared the "Banner" class for the month.

WILEY BROWN, JR., Sec.

Getting in New Press.

W. J. Turbage, the transfer man, is a good one when it comes to moving heavy freight. He is well equipped for handling anything that comes along, it matters not how bulky it may be. He has transferred THE REFLECTOR's new press from the depot and delivered it up in the printing room with not a mishap. The press came knocked down and securely boxed, yet the packages were very heavy, the largest box weighing nearly a ton. The job of putting the press together is the next thing, and as it is our purpose not to miss an issue of the paper while this is in progress it may take all the week to get it ready for work.

Try The Daily Reflector

Several hundred extra copies of THE REFLECTOR are sent out today. They will fall in the hands of many people who are not subscribers, and we request them to examine the paper carefully and see if they do not think it worth more than the subscription price. The rural mail routes make it convenient for people to get daily papers now who did not formerly enjoy these advantages. Send us your name and try the paper.

Notice to Trustees Graded School

There will be a meeting of the trustees of the graded schools at Jarvis & Blow's office Tuesday night, Jan. 17th 1905, at 7:30 o'clock. THOS. J. JARVIS, Pres. Board.

We Beat the World on OVERCOATS.

Overcoats, like men, have character. Some, after they've gone out into the world awhile, look out at the elbows. Some deceive by their appearance, and prove false to their trust. Some look jaunty, but won't wear. If we couldn't bond our Overcoats for character with the guarantee of "Money Back If You Want It," there would be nothing remarkable about our coats. We have absolute confidence in our Overcoats and so we bond them. Come here and select your Winter Overcoat. Our price won't keep you from buying.

Our inventory shows up too large and if you are interested in a Suit, Overcoat, Rain Coat or anything in the clothing line now is the accepted time to make your purchases. We have reduced every garment in this store fully 25 per cent. and a great many numbers 33 1/2 per cent. We must make room for Spring goods and in order to do so, we are making this sacrifice. We have never reduced other lines in proportion but space forbids to quote you prices. Don't wait one day longer

WE FIT OTHERS WE CAN FIT YOU
WE SUIT OTHERS, WE CAN SUIT YOU.

C. S. FORBES,

THE MAN'S OUTFITTER.
