THE NEW YEAR.

At this season, the close of the Old and opening of the New Year, wise and prudent men take account of their assets and liabilities. In taking account of our assets and liabilities we find our most valuable assets to be the good will of our many patrons and friends.

In like manner, we find our greatest liabilities, are those we owe our friends for the kindly and substantial interest they have manifested in this store.

This good will we heartily reciprocate and trust our mutually relations will not only continue, but will show a marked increase for 1905. To realize this trust, community of interest will bind us together in indissoluble golden bonds.

We feel that the growth of our business is due to the loyalty of our friends, and we now thank them heartily for their contribution to our success.

In conclusion we shall ask you to expect better things from this store for the year 1905. With the season's greetings and our best wishes for your success and prosperity we are

THE REFLECTOR,

THE LEGISLATURE.

SATURDAY.

Senator Wright introduced a bill to impose a penalty on telegraph companies for the non delivery of messages.

This bill provides that it shall be the duty of each telegraph company doing business in this State to receive and promptly transmit and deliver to the addressee or sender all messages for which it has accepted pay or had payment of same guaranteed by the sender and upon a failure to promptly transmit or deliver the same it shall be liable to a penalty to the addressee of $200 and to the sender of $100, recoverable in an action in the court of a justice of the peace.

In the house Representative Laughinghouse introduced a bill to exempt the town of Fountain from the act prohibiting the sale of liquor in one mile of Lang's school house. The purpose of this bill is to allow Fountain to have a dispensary.

Representative Little introduced a bill providing for the expenditure of $25,000 to make permanent improvements to the institution for the blind.

MONDAY.

This was a day of little doing again. The senate was in session less than half an hour and only one bill introduced. There was a petition from the Western North Carolina Conference asking for legislation against anti-scriptural divorce laws.

The house had everything cleaned up and was ready to adjourn inside an hour after meeting. A committee was appointed to investigate and report on the number of clerks, pages, laborers and other employees of the house with daily pay roll for same, and to indicate how many in their opinion had nothing to do.

A bill was introduced providing that a civil case shall stand for trial the first term if the summons and a verified complaint is issued and served thirty days prior to the term.

Another bill was offered to increase the pay of jurors in magistrates courts from 25 cents to 50 cents per day.

Other matters were of merely local nature.

Wreck on Coast Line.

Tarboro, N. C. Jan. 17.—Passenger train No. 64 from Rocky Mount bound for Plymouth and due to arrive at Tarboro at 4:30 p. m., was wrecked at Waldo station, a few miles north of here, yesterday afternoon. Conductor Dove was reported to have been knocked into insensibility and some of the passengers slightly injured.

A coal car on the siding at Waldo ran out on the main line directly in front of the passenger train which was steaming along at a lively rate, and caused a collision. The coal car was knocked from the track and demolished. The engine of the passenger train was badly damaged and the baggage and mail coaches slightly damaged.

The Washington train went up from Parmele and took passengers, baggage and mail on. The track was cleared by 9 p. m. Engineer Cambell and his firemen escaped serious injury, if not almost sudden death, by jumping.

Their next meeting is to be held with Miss Martha Lee Cowell on Friday evening Jan. 20th.

AYDEN ITEMS.

AYDEN N. C., Jan. 17, 1905.

Late Sunday evening Louis Braxton while cutting wood had the misfortune to split his foot from the end of the toes up to the leg. The wound is a very serious one and the physician cannot yet determine as to what the result may prove.

Last Sunday morning Rev. T. H. King held services in the Methodist-Baptist church and in the afternoon Rev. Mr. Shields, of Goldsboro, an evangelist of the Presbyterian church, preached a most excellent sermon. Mr. Shields will continue a protracted meeting throughout the week, holding services every morning and evening. At the Disciple church Rev. Mr. Davis preached in the morning and Mr. Shields at night. In the Methodist church Rev. Mr. Standfield conducted services, being his regular appointment.

J. T. Smith, Sr., has been appointed police of the town in place of Jos. McLawhorn resigned.

When the rich begin to suicide what in the name of heaven are we poor devils to do? They seem to want it all.

E. S. Edwards and J. W. Moore went to Kingston Friday and returned Saturday.

Mrs. Lou Forest is visiting relatives in Winterville.

Prof. T. H. King and Miss Ella W. Edwards attended the teachers meeting in Greenville Saturday.

At a recent meeting of the city fathers it was decided that in the future no wooden structures should be erected or placed on East or West Avenue streets. Ayden is now a pretty town and we move it a good policy to keep it so. A pretty town with plenty of pretty girls, such as we have, is a delightful place to live in. At least we find it so. We have no hankering for a change.

New Firm.

In Monday's paper in speaking of the new firm that had purchased the business of A. H. Taft & Co., it was printed Taft & Vaughan when it should have been Taft & Vandeker. The new firm is composed of E. H. Taft and Z. P. Vandeker, and they will continue the business at the old A. H. Taft & Co. stand in the Phoenix building.

E. H. Shelburne has opened a commission office in one of the Jarvis stores, next door to his old stand.

We Beat the World on OVERCOATS.

Overcoats, like men, have character. Some, after they've gone out into the world awhile, look out at the elbows. Some deceive by their appearance, and prove false to their trust. Some look jaunty, but won't wear. If we couldn't bond our Overcoats for character with the guarantee of "Money Back If You Want It," there would be nothing remarkable about our coats. We have absolute confidence in our Overcoats and so we bond them. Come here and select your Winter Overcoat. Our price won't keep you from buying.

AN UNREASONABLE LAW.

Every time a legislature meets there are some laws that get on the statute books that appear useless and unreasonable. One of these that was passed by a former legislature was a law that imposes a $10 license tax on hunters from other states who come into North Carolina to spend a few days hunting. If one of these men comes to spend a few days with relatives or as the guest of a friend, or even if they own land in the state and come to hunt upon their own premises, the law applies to them also. This strikes us as being a very unjust law, and it is really proving a loss to the state, rather than a benefit, by keeping many men from coming within our borders. The money these men leave in the state when they come is many fold greater than the value of the little game they kill.

It is all right to prevent "pot hunters" from slaughtering game by wholesale for market, but that is not the purpose of the gentlemen who come to the state merely for a few days sport and recreation. The license tax imposed in these cases goes to the Audubon Society and the state gets no benefit whatever from it. If the tax should be used for the propagation of game in the state so as to make the sport better for the hunters when they come it would look more reasonable.

Congress gets some speed on when it comes to passing pension bills. They went through Saturday at the rate of four a minute, or to be exact 450 bills passed in 108 minutes. It will not take long to exhaust the surplus with a few turns like that.

Is Kingsboro getting to be the Hatteras for the Atlantic Coast Line?

No Moore Stomach Troubles

All Stomach trouble is removed by the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It gives the stomach perfect rest by digesting what you eat without the stomach's aid. The food builds up the body, the rest restores the stomach to health. Put don't have to diet yourself when taking Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. J. D. Eskine, of Alliance, Mich., says, "I suffered Heartburn and Stomach trouble for some time. My sister-in-law had the same trouble and was not able to eat for six weeks. She lived entirely on warm water. After taking two bottles of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure she was entirely cured. She now eats heartily and is in good health. I am glad to say Kodol gave me just the relief." Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

The five textile unions involved in the strike at Fall River, by which thirty or forty thousand people have been idle for six months or more, have conferred upon the textile council full power to settle the trouble. This doubtless means the end of the contest and another failure of a costly demonstration against a reduction of wages. The strike is a notable one from the number of people engaged and the unusual unanimity of their action.—Charlotte Observer.

A Very Close Call

"I stuck to my engine, although every joint ached and every nerve was racked with pain," writes C. W. Bellamy, a locomotive fireman of Burlington, Iowa. "I was weak and pale, without any appetite and all run down. As I was about to give up, I got a bottle of Electric Bitters, and after taking it, I felt as well as I ever did in my life." Weak, sickly, run down people always gain new life, strength and vigor from their use. Try them. Satisfaction guaranteed by J. L. Wooten. Price 50c.

Just About Right.

Sam Jones is not only a preacher and reformer, but he has some exceedingly good ideas on farming as noted from the following quotation: "There is no use kicking, gentlemen, unless you kick yourselves. The South can get more money for a ten million bale crop at much less cost than she can get for a thirteen million bale crop. Now the question comes up, 'What will you do about it brother farmer?' I take the position and hold my ground that to play the fool and then cuss somebody else about your misfortunes is a mighty poor business. I heard many a Southern man say last year: 'No more six and seven cent cotton in the United States.' At least they said for many years to come, and here we are mired down in the South's business interest almost paralyzed by the calamity overtaking us in less than twelve months. When you raise too many potatoes you will sell them at 25 cents per bushel. When you raise too few you get a dollar a bushel for them. The cold snap yesterday put wheat up, just because they say the supply might be cut off. Here's one Southern farmer that ain't going to raise a bale of cotton next year. Put in corn, peas, sow grain, improve your land, act like men of sense, quit acting the fool and then raising sand with the balance of the world because you played the fool. Let the South cut the cotton crop one third and I will guarantee you twelve or fifteen cents a pound for your cotton. Put in as much acreage next year as this and I will guarantee you six cents, and no more, so to speak. I know that every fellow is some sort of a fool, my wife's husband included, but to keep on acting the fool about the same thing will soon get a fellow to be all sorts of a fool, and then they will look you up. I say these short, brief remarks in the interest of and for the benefit of the farmer. Don't abuse me gentlemen, but listen to a fellow who wishes you well.

Tonic to The System.

For liver troubles and constipation there is nothing better than Dr. DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. They do not weaken the stomach. Their action upon the system is mild, pleasant and business. For more, of Lafayette, Ind., says, "No use taking Dr. DeWitt's Little Early Risers do their work. At other pills I have used gripe and make me sick in the stomach and never cured me. Dr. DeWitt's Little Early Risers proved to be the long sought relief. They are simply perfect. Persons traveling find Little Early Risers the reliable remedy to carry with them." Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

According to the report in yesterday's paper these are two of the bills introduced in the Legislature yesterday.

"To require churches and other houses in Pitt county to be enclosed so as to prevent hogs, etc., from going under them. Referred to the committee on education."

"To prevent riding bicycles on sidewalks in Roper. Referred to committee on propositions and grievances."

And is it to such matters as these that a dignified legislature must give its attention and on which it and its committees must spend their time? Why don't the trustees of the churches of Pitt county fence out the hogs? And why don't the aldermen or commissioners of Roper—wherever that is—wrestle with the bicycle riders?—Charlotte Observer.

Saved From Terrible Death

The family of Mrs. M. L. Bobbitt of Bartons, Tenn., saw her dying and were powerless to save her. The most skillful physicians and every remedy used, failed, while consumption was slowly but surely taking her life. In this terrible hour Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption turned despair into joy. The first bottle brought immediate relief and its continued use completely cured her. It's the most certain cure in the world for all throat and lung troubles. Guaranteed Bottles 50c and $1. Trial bottles free at J. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

To Enclose Houses.

A bill to be entitled, an act to require the churches, school houses, barns and pack-houses of certain territory in Pitt county to be enclosed so as to prevent hogs and other stock from going and resting under them.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. The owners of all barns, pack-houses, tenant houses, and the like, and the trustees of all churches, and the school committees in charge of all school houses, situate inside the stock range in that portion of Greenville township, Pitt county, lying on the North side of Tar river, shall be and are hereby required to enclose said barns, pack-houses, tenant houses and said churches and school houses so as to prevent hogs and other stock from going or resting under them.

Section 2. Any person or persons failing to comply with the provisions of the above section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not exceeding $50, or imprisonment not exceeding thirty days.

Section 3. All laws and clauses of laws in conflict with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed.

Section 4. This Act shall be in force and effect from and after the 1st day of March, 1905.

The foregoing is a copy of a bill that has been introduced in the senate by Senator J. L. Fleming. If there is opposition to it by any person in the territory affected the persons having these objections should write our senators and representatives.

A LITTLE NONSENSE.

The Story of a Remarkable Baby as Slowkins Told It.

Slowkins is never invited to a dinner party, because he is personally desirable, but because it is frequently necessary to invite him in order to secure the presence of Mrs. Slowkins, whose beauty and wit are particularly desirable. Slowkins can talk on only one subject—leather. He was brought up in that semi-submerged district of City Hall square called "the Swamp," and he knows the leather business from A to Z. But leather is hardly an adaptable subject for the dinner table, and, besides, if the topic is once touched upon, Slowkins wants to do all the talking. Mrs. Slowkins, with consummate tact, has dropped sundry "guides to conversation" around the house where her husband was bound to see them. All he said was: "So this is where you get your chatter!"

Still, on occasions Slowkins is apt to say something that leads the other guests to believe his customary stupidity is merely play acting—a sort of foil to his wife's cleverness. At the Braceups' dinner party last week Hoister, who is a crank on the subject of foods, was expatiating on the small value of milk as a nutriment.

"Nonsense!" interrupted Slowkins. "I know of a baby that gained eleven pounds in one week by a liberal diet of cow's milk."

"Whose baby was it?" asked Hoister sarcastically.

"The cow's," replied Slowkins.—New York Press.

Proof Positive. Mrs. Swellington—Your brother Jack seems to be a level headed, sensible fellow. Mr. Swellington—Undoubtedly, my dear. He is still a bachelor.

Robos. Tonight again the prophet besought them to have their ascension robes ready, and again the mysterious woman rose to speak.

But now at last she was able to frame in words the thought which had hitherto baffled her power of expression.

"Should they be long, like a riding habit, or short, like a walking skirt?" she asked, and in that vast congregation hundreds bent forward eagerly to hear the answer.—Puck.

Too Precocious.

"Now, then, Charlie, don't you admire my new silk dress?" asked the fond mamma of her little boy. "Yes, mamma," replied Charlie. "It is beautiful."

"And, Charlie, all the silk is provided for us by a poor worm."

"Do you mean dad?" asked Charlie.—Philadelphia Ledger.

The Vow in Prussia.

The Prussian authorities are taking steps to prevent the unlawful use of the prefix "von." The police have been ordered to send in lists of all persons who prefix "von" to their names. These will be carefully gone over by the heralds, and all persons found using this highly prized addition, but not entitled to do so, will be informed that unless they discontinue its use they will be punished.

THE AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEW OF REVIEWS

The more Magazines there are, the more Indispensable is The Review of Reviews. "Indispensable." "The one magazine I feel I must take." "The world under a field-glass." "An education in public affairs and current literature."—these are some of the phrases one hears from noted people who read The Review of Reviews. The more magazines there are, the more necessary is The Review of Reviews, because it brings together the best that is in all the most important monthlies of the world. Such is the flood of periodical literature that nowadays people say that the only way to keep up with it is to read The Review of Reviews. Entirely over and above this reviewing section, it has more original matter and illustrations than most magazines, and the most timely and important articles printed in any monthly. Probably the most useful section of all is Dr. Albert Shaw's illustrated "Progress of the World," where public events and issues are authoritatively and lucidly explained in every issue. Many a subscriber writes, "This department alone is worth more than the price of the magazine." The unique cartoon department, depicting current history in caricature, is another favorite. The Review of Reviews covers five continents, and yet is American, first and foremost. Men in public life, the members of Congress, professional men, and the great captains of industry who must keep "up with the times," intelligent men and women all over America, have decided that it is "indispensable."
