THE REFLECTOR,

"I HAVE MARRIED A WIFE."

The Scriptural Excuse Holds Good.

"I have married a wife and therefore I cannot come." was an excuse given in Holy writ nearly two thousand years ago, and an incident in court Tuesday recalled that parable and shows that the same excuse holds good until now.

A case came on for hearing and Solicitor Moore announced the names of the witnesses which were taken up in order by Crier Lawrence and called. One witness failed to answer. "Call him out, Mr. Crier," ordered the Solicitor. "Oh, yes! Oh, yes! Oh, yes!" began the crier to the usual form of "calling out," but just before the priest of entering a fine for non attendance was reached the solicitor for the night of something that had been overlooked for the moment and addressed the court:

"May it please your Honor, I had overlooked the fact that this witness was married a few days ago and is on a bridal tour from which he has not yet returned."

"All right," responded Judge Allen with a smile. I guess we will have to admit that excuse and overlook the absence of the witness for the time being."

Advantages of Country Over Town Life

"Wood is an expensive item in Charlotte," said a man from that city the other day. "I can very easily carry 25 cents worth in my arms," he added. Wages are higher and money is more plentiful in a big manufacturing city if it were not so people couldn't stay there and make a living. The contrast between city and country life is in favor of the latter. Get rich-quick schemes do not revolve in the farmer's heads and they are not bothered with "sassy" functions and other ways of fast living.

In the rural districts there is that natural simplicity among people that goes with a plain, simple and honest life, there's a better opportunity to develop a nature free from "putting on airs" and deceptive ways. It's true the farmers have to feed and clothe the world and furnish the means to make big corporations, speculators and monopolies rich, but they generally have enough left to get along with and during these long winter nights they can build on a good fire of wood without wondering where the next will come from and those who make the farm self-sustaining at home are about as independent as it is possible for men of moderate means to be.—Marshville Home.

The grand jury returned true bills for murder against Alfred Wiggins for killing Jack Edwards, and against Ben Dudley for killing Pattie Lingley.

THE LEGISLATURE.

TUESDAY.

In the senate among the new bills offered was one for the relief of ex-Confederate soldiers; one for the better government of North Carolina institutions for the deaf, dumb and blind; and one to prevent the manufacture and sale of liquor in Scotland Neck.

In the house Representative Woodard introduced a bill to amend the law relative to seduction under promise of marriage.

There were a number of new bills in both branches but of a local nature and little interest to the general public.

While the farmers of this section are looking for something to raise this year instead of raising cotton they might turn their attention to the matter of raising sheep. The county auditor tells us that there are over three times as many dogs in the county as there are sheep and goats together. That is a bad state of affairs in a section of country so well adapted to the raising of sheep as this is. There is money in wool and there is a saving and a comfort to be gotten from this industry. If the farmers of this section would take this occasion to look for something new that could be done with profit they will lose nothing by the low prices of cotton.—Florence Times.

The Coming Law Ridden.

It's plain that this is to be the most complete law-ridden country upon the face of the earth. This will be so of necessity, because of the manner in which our laws are enacted. In England, for instance the same law making power is unchanged from year to year. While in this country legislators are, for the most part, new men at each session of the legislatures, and each one of these feels that the existence of the country depends upon his contribution to the statute books. And so the subjects upon which legislation is proposed are growing year by year.—Raleigh Times.

Climbing Up.

The water-works standpipe is so close to the court house that work on it has to suspend during the hours that court is sitting because of the noise made by hammering on the rivets. But the pipe keeps climbing up and is now higher than the Masonic temple.

The Murray trial at Durham was halted temporarily by sickness of two of the jurors.

At Apex the postoffice, three stores and the Apex News office were destroyed by fire.

We Beat the World on OVERCOATS.

Overcoats, like men, have character. Some, after they've come out into the world awhile, look out at the elbows.

Some deceive by their appearance, and prove false to their trust.

Some look jaunty, but won't wear. If we couldn't bond our Overcoats for character with the guarantee of "Money Back If You Want It," there would be nothing remarkable about our coats.

We have absolute confidence in our Overcoats and so we bond them.

Come here and select your Winter Overcoat. Our price won't keep you from buying.

THE DAILY REFLECTOR.

EVERY AFTERNOON EXCEPT SUNDAY.

D. J. WHICHARD, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

Entered at the post office at Greenville, N. C., as second class matter.

Subscription rates: One Year, $3.00; One Month, 25 cents; One Week, 10c. Delivered in town by carriers without extra cost.

Advertising rates reasonable and can be had on application to the editor or at the office.

WEDNESDAY, JAN. 18, 1905.

Congressman John H. Small has been invited to deliver an address on the inland waterway before the Merchants and Manufacturers Association of Baltimore.

The legislature is moving slowly, but there is time enough yet to do something before the per diem ceases. Perhaps, after all, the least done the better it will be for the state.

That matrimonial complication of Brodie Duke's at New York brings on more talk about "Duke's Mixture" - Wilmington Star. They ought to send Major Bernard a pound for the above good advertisement.

How glad we would be to read the announcement that a charter had been issued for the organization of a building and loan association in Greenville. It is one of the town's greatest needs and we hope the near future will bring it.

We see that the residence of Editor J. G. Boylin, of the Wadesboro Messenger-Intelligencer, has been burglarized. The burglar must have mistaken the editor for a millionaire. He did find some money and got away with it, but it is not said how much.

In the United States Senate on Monday Senator F. M. Simmons, of North Carolina, made a two hours speech in opposition to the proposed union of Arizona and New Mexico admitting them to statehood as one state. Senator Simmons argued that Arizona would suffer from such a union.

North Carolina continues to lose her best, the outside world looking upon this state as a good field to draw from. Clarence H. Poe, the talented editor of the Progressive Farmer, has been offered a prominent position on a new magazine in New York, and has gone there to have a conference with the publishers. It is an honor to Mr. Poe to have such a position and he will do the right thing for himself to accept it, but we very much regret for North Carolina to lose him.

It has been only a short while since THE REFLECTOR printed an article stating that an account of a marriage sent the paper could not be published because the name of the writer did not accompany the article, yet we are in receipt of another such item without any name coming with it. As many times as this matter has been referred to in print it does look like people would learn that papers do not print articles unless they know who sends them. The name need not be published with the article, but the editor must know who sends it.

Sour Stomach

When the quantity of food taken is too large or the quality too rich, sour stomach is likely to follow, and especially so if the digestion has been weakened by constipation. Eat slowly and not too freely of easily digested food. Masturate the food thoroughly. Let five hours elapse between meals, and when you feel a fullness and weight in the region of the stomach after eating, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the sour stomach may be avoided. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville.

Which is Better?

The English and American people are the greatest whiskey drinkers on earth.

They have more trouble to enforce temperance measures than do any other countries in the world.

England has hung and banished thousands of people in the last hundred years for dealing in blockade Scotch whiskey, the best article whiskey now on the market. And our prisons are constantly being replenished by men who have violated our internal revenue laws.

In England the government levies a tax of $2.00 on the gallon of whiskey. In this country the tax used to be $2.00 on the gallon but was reduced, by politicians, to $1.10, the present tax.

So there are two great incentives in these two countries for the blockader to deal in whiskey. First, in England he has $2.00 profit to start with, and in this country $1.10. And, secondly, as before stated, the blockader has no trouble in disposing of his stock, for his customers love it.

Russia has little in her laws, her religion, or her social organism, to attract. And yet she manages her temperance interests better than either of the above nations, which are recognized to be in the world's first rank. Russia says my people will drink whiskey. And since they will, the government shall make it and dispense it here, in a limited quantity to each individual. Compare the two systems of dealing with this troublesome question, and decide which is the freer from objection. Raleigh Times.

THREE JURORS CURED

Of Cholera Morbus With One Small Bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy

Mr. G. W. Foster of Hightower, Ala., relates an experience he had while serving on a petit jury in a murder case at Edwardsville, county seat of Cleburne county, Alabama. He says: "While there I ate some fresh meat and some some meat and it gave me cholera morbus in a very severe form. I was never more sick in my life and sent to the drug store for certain cholera mixture, but the druggist sent me a bottle of Chamberlain's Cholera, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy instead, saying that he had what I felt for, and that this medicine was so much better he would rather send it to me in the fix it was in. I took one dose of it and was better in five minutes. The second dose cured me entirely. Two fellow jurors were afflicted in this same manner and one small bottle cured the three of us." For sale at Wooten's Drug Store.

The Durham Herald remarks: "The Virginia courts have refused to grant Mayor Metcalf a new trial and he will hang unless the governor interferes. It certainly looks bad for McCue, yet it is hard to believe that a man of this former position and influence will not find a way out of it. He would fare better in North Carolina." The last sentence may have been penned in levity, but there is a good deal of solemn truth in it, as could be proved by some recent murder cases. But it brings out a thought we had in mind about Virginia. Influence and position do not carry much weight with the dispensing of justice in that state. The Cluverius and the McCue cases are living witnesses to that fact - Charlotte Chronicle.

Tonic to The System.

For liver troubles and constipation there is nothing better than Dr. Witt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. They do not weaken the stomach. Their action upon the system is mild, pleasant and harmless. Bob Moore, of Lafayette, Ind., says, "No use talking, Dr. Witt's Little Early Risers do their work. At other pills I have used gripe and make me sick in the stomach and never cured me. Dr. Witt's Little Early Risers proved to be the long sought relief. They are simply perfect." Persons traveling find Little Early Risers the reliable remedy to carry with them. Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

It is now claimed that if Southern farmers can hold for sixty days something will come to pass, and certainly they can manage to tide over this period. - Durham Herald. I'll brave the storms of Chilcot Pass. I'll cross the plains of frozen glass, I'll leave my wife and cross the sea, Rather than be without Rocky Mountain Tea. Wooten's Drug Store.

Grammatical.

President McCosh of Princeton university had a reputation among his students for good English, which was only equaled by his renown as a theologian.

Once several students were enjoying a little spread very quietly after the prescribed hours. A student who was not in the feast thought to give the revelers a scare and, shuffling down the hall, knocked at the locked door in the good old doctor's well known manner.

"Who's there?" demanded a student as the light went out and the lunch went under the bed.

"It's me, Dr. McCosh," said the would be intruder, with all the Scotch gruffness that he could muster.

"You're a liar," came as quick as a flash from one of the company. "If it were Dr. McCosh he would say, 'It is I.'" - Philadelphia Ledger.

How the Wheel of Fortune Worked. "Well, well, how are you?" blurted a liberally bearded wight as he grasped Comedian Ezra Kendall's hand on State street recently and, as the actor looked nonplused, added: "Don't you remember me? I ran the Hotel de Jay in Sioux City when you were there ten years ago." "Oh, yes," replied the comedian. "I recall now. You had a big wheel of fortune in the office. I remember several of the boys paying their respects to the wheel, but I do not recall the wheel paying anything to the boys." - Chicago Record-Herald.

No More Stomach Troubles

All Stomach trouble is removed by the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It gives the stomach perfect rest by digesting what you eat without the stomach's aid. The food builds up the body, the rest restores the stomach to health. You don't have to diet yourself when taking Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. J. D. Eskine, of Allentown, Mich., says, "I suffered heartburn and stomach trouble for some time. My sister-in-law had had the same trouble and was not able to eat for six weeks. She lived entirely on warm water. After taking two bottles of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure she was entirely cured. She now eats heartily and is in good health. I am glad to say Kodol gave me instant relief." Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

North Carolinians do not want office so very badly after all. Gov. Glenn has the appointment of eight directors on the North Carolina Railroad, and he has only 1,740 applications for the position. The emoluments consist chiefly in a free pass over the Southern Railway. It would be interesting to know just how many of these applicants care a cent about the place over and above the free transportation it carries. - Greensboro Record.

A sure cure for Piles and skin diseases. De Witt's is the only genuine Witch Hazel Salve. Beware of counterfeits, they are dangerous. Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

It was thought at first that Harry Skinner's hurried trip to Washington had something to do with the proposed attack of the department of justice on the American Tobacco Company, but now it is hinted that it was because his scalp was in danger. - Wilmington Messenger.

BENSONIZER LUNG CURE NO MORE EXPIRE FOR CONSUMPTIVES.

A Cure at Last Obtained, After a Searching Investigation, by St. Louis Interests.

A few months ago the attention of a few scientific and philanthropic gentlemen of St. Louis was directed to an entirely new method of combating that most dreadful of all diseases, tuberculosis, commonly called consumption. Out of 115 test cases, 77 were completely cured and 28 have shown such improvement that their ultimate recovery is but a question of a few weeks.

So astonishing have been the results and absolute cures in cases pronounced incurable by all old methods that a company has been formed and is now prepared to furnish at a normal cost this cure to all sufferers of the "White Plague." One of its chief features is that patients can remain at home, surrounded by friends and relatives, and in a great many instances, especially the incipient or early stages of the disease, pursue their daily vocations and still become completely cured.

Patients receiving the same treatment here in St. Louis have completely recovered as rapidly as those in Colorado, New Mexico and Texas. The wonderful results in question have been accomplished by the Bensonizer, and the company which controls this marvelous medical device have located their main office at 417 North Seventh street, St. Louis. They have also located a factory on Easton avenue and a laboratory has been built at Hillside, Mo. The cure will be known as the Bensonizer Lung Cure, and Mr. C. P. Benson, the discoverer of the fluid inhalants which are used, will personally have charge of the affairs of the company. Mr. Benson will personally meet all who call at the office of the company on Seventh street, and will answer all communications from sufferers who are unable to make a personal call. - From the St. Louis Globe Democrat.

Indispensable is The Review of Reviews

"Indispensable." "The one magazine I feel I must take." "The world under a field-glass." "An education in public affairs and current literature." - these are some of the phrases one hears from noted people who read the Review of Reviews. The more magazines there are, the more necessary is the Review of Reviews, because it brings together the best that is in all the most important monthlies of the world. Such is the flood of periodical literature that nowadays people say that the only way to keep up with it is to read the Review of Reviews. Entirely over and above this reviewing section, it has more original matter and illustrations than most magazines, and the most timely and important articles printed in any monthly. Probably the most useful section of all is Dr. Albert Shaw's illustrated "Progress of the World," where public events and issues are authoritatively and lucidly explained in every issue. Many a subscriber writes, "This department alone is worth more than the price of the magazine." The unique cartoon department, depicting current history in caricature, is another favorite. The Review of Reviews covers five continents, and yet is American, first and foremost. Men in public life, the members of Congress, professional men, and the great captains of industry who must keep "up with the times," intelligent men and women all over America, have decided that it is "indispensable."
