

The Greatest SALE OF SEASONABLE MERCHANDISE

There is one great object in all sales, and that is to sell goods. Just how successful a sale of this kind can be made depends entirely upon the honesty of purpose, at the back of it depends upon the seasonableness of the Merchandise and the price reductions.

We have planned to make this sale an overwhelming success, planned intelligently.

We have taken into due consideration the great loss of profit which such a sale as this means; we take the loss cheerfully, wisely, believing it to be the very best kind of business sense to clean up all winter surplus stock at a great sacrifice, and to it now while the weaving season is at its height. As we said above we believe this to be the greatest money saving sale of the season, and we want you to believe it also. If you will compare the printed offerings with the actual merchandise, you are bound to believe it. The loss is ours, the saving yours; we have explained the way of it, now we invite you to come and look and investigate the merchandise offered. Come and buy as liberally as you wish. You can make no mistake.

Governor Glenn sent a message to both houses. He recommended adding a wing to the capitol or erecting a new building for use of some of the state officers who do not have sufficient quarters.

Among the new bills in the senate were these: To protect deer, squirrels and birds from certain dates. To repeal merchants tax. To release the agricultural department from contributing to the current expenses of the A. & M. college. To provide for a building for hall of records. To provide a hall in each county for veteran meetings.

GRAND JURY REPORT.

Some Timely Recommendations.

The grand jury for this term of court made a report that contains some timely suggestions.

North Carolina-Pitt County. To His Honor, W. R. Allen, Judge Presiding.

We the grand jury for the January term, 1905, of Pitt Superior court, beg leave to report:

That we have visited and examined the county home for the aged and infirm and find the inmates well cared for so far as clothing, fuel, bedding and provisions. We find some of the buildings in very bad condition and would recommend repairs immediately. With this exception everything is in good order.

We have examined the jail and find it in as good condition as circumstances will permit. The prisoners all seem to be well cared for.

We have examined the office of the clerk of the Superior court, register of deeds and sheriff and find them all right and the records well preserved. We recommend the clerks office to have cross index to administrators, guardians, executors, trustees, etc.

We recommend that Jack Teel, now living in the house with Mollie Wilson, a woman of ill repute, be bound to Mr. Calvin Mills. Also recommend that Eimerline Moye's child be taken from her and bound to some suitable person.

We also recommend the magistrates of the county bind over less witnesses and be sure they are state witnesses.

All of which we respectfully submit and we further ask to be discharged.

D. G. BERRY, Foreman Grand Jury.

Mrs. Duke Arrested.

New York, Jan. 24.—Mrs. Alice Webb-Duke, wife of Brodie L. Duke, was arrested at an office in Broad street, this city, today on requisition papers issued by the Texas authorities. Mrs. Duke had been indicted by the grand jury at Macogdoches, Texas on the charge that she and Charles L. Taylor, of Chicago, had made false statements in an instrument on the strength of which a stockholder in one of the national banks in that place was induced to endorse their notes for $20,000.

When Mrs. Duke was notified that she was under arrest, she became hysterical and screamed and wept. She declared: "I'm the wife of Brodie L. Duke. His family are trying to hurt me. I have done nothing." She insisted upon making a call in the building as she had intended, but the detective would not permit it, and took her to the district attorney's office in a cab. She sat weeping in that office until her counsel arrived.

Polk Miller Friday Night

On hearing Polk Miller and his quartette in one of our neighboring towns not long ago, one of the most able and best beloved Baptist ministers in North Carolina after the entertainment was concluded, approached Mr. Miller and in a voice full of genuine emotion, said: Mr. Miller such a man as you ought to never die. A man thrilling in every fiber with so much of humanity and goodness, whose presence always brings sunshine and gladness, and banishes sorrows and sadness, is in the best meaning of the word a beneficiary to his race, a benediction to his country. The people of Greenville will have opportunity of seeing and hearing him at the opera house Friday night, the 27th. Don't miss it. Tickets on sale Thursday morning.

Splendid Entertainment

The entertainment by Kieth's Moving Picture Co., in the opera house, Tuesday night, was splendid. The cornet playing by Prof. Lindell was marvelous, and the pictures were almost as real as life. "Baby Dot" was troubled with a cold and could not sing, but assisted by another little girl dressed as a boy she gave an interesting cake walk. The attendance was large and everybody enjoyed it. The company expect to return to Greenville sometime in April, when with the aid of electric lights the pictures will be even better than with calcium lights.

Rev. G. A. Oglesby Killed.

In a wreck that occurred Tuesday at Troy on the A-hoboro & Aberdeen railroad, Rev. G. A. Oglesby, pastor of the Methodist church at Aberdeen, was killed. Several others were seriously injured and a number slightly hurt. Two cars fell down an embankment and were demolished. Rev. Mr. Oglesby was once presiding elder of this district and made his home in Greenville at that time. The news of his sad death brings regret to many friends here.

WEDNESDAY, JAN. 25, 1905.

The Kinston Free Press has put in a type setting machine. It is a progressive paper and always pushes forward.

A Concord boy was cut in two and his body mangled almost beyond recognition by a freight car under which he fell while trying to get on it. Notwithstanding accidents like this occur, there is hardly a town through which a railroad passes but what boys can be seen jumping on and off trains.

The "unloaded" gun claims another victim. This time it happened near Lincolnton. A boy and a girl were playing with a gun, the girl pointed it at the boy and pulled the trigger and a large portion of his face was torn off. When people learn to stop playing with such danderous things there will be fewer of these accidents.

It is a pleasure to learn that C. H. Poe, editor of the Progressive Farmer, who recently went to New York to confer with the publishers of a new magazine relative to a position they had offered, has decided to remain at his post in North Carolina. The offer he declined was editor-in-chief of the new magazine at a salary of $3,000 a year and later on a share in the profits of the magazine.

The Raleigh News and Observer shows up the traitorous action of ex-Governor D. L. Russell in connection with the bonds for which the state of South Dakota is suing the state of North Carolina. At a time when the bonds belonged to a man in New York they were sent to the treasurer of the state to be compromised and cancelled in accordance with a previous statute of the state. Russell was governor at the time, and having received an inside tip from his partner he held up the compromise of the bonds and they were recalled by the owner. Later when he was no longer governor he appears as counsel against his state to force payment of the bonds. A shady transaction, to say the least of it, and a shameful disgrace to the man guilty of it. South Dakota shows very little state pride and honor in being a party to such a matter.

The longer a man studies women the less he knows about them.

Some men spend a lot of time wondering why other men work.

Wise is the girl who can tell when a man is making his usual proposal.

A man may be able to read a woman like a book, but he can't shut her up.

The railroads do not care who introduces the bills, so long as their attorneys write them.—Durham Sun.

Before a single dollar is appropriated for any other cause enough money should be appropriated to take every insane person out of jail and make certain that no more shall be incarcerated. Everything else is of secondary importance.—Raleigh News and Observer.

HIS COLLECTION OF ORCHIDS.

One of the stories John Burroughs, the aged naturalist, loves to tell has to do with a friend of his named Orr. On one of his trips Mr. Burroughs happened to be in the town where Mr. Orr lives. Meeting him in the street, Mr. Burroughs insisted that his friend should accompany him to the hotel for lunch. As they were eating Mr. Burroughs inquired if his friend was not interested in any specialty. "I think," said the naturalist, "every man ought to have a collection of some kind. It adds zest to life." "Oh, yes," said his friend, "I have quite a collection. I am interested in flowers. Come home with me, and I'll show them to you." As they approached the Orr home six fine, healthy children, playing on the lawn, ran to meet their father. "These," said Mr. Orr, with a twinkle in his eye, "form my collection of orchids. Ain't they grand specimens?"

Modernization of Egypt.

With a trolley towing plant established on the banks of the Nile to draw dahabeahs to and fro, the modernization of Egypt may be considered as tolerably complete. The forty centuries which, as Napoleon told his soldiers, stood on the summit of the pyramid looking at them as they marched past are no doubt still there, keeping their long vigil, but whatever may have gone by beneath them they have never looked forth on an electric trolley and towing apparatus to multiply from ten to thirty times or more the flotillas and commerce of the Nile, exceeding all the efforts of Amenhotep or Psammetichus. The apparatus may not be so spectacular as the pyramids, but it promises to be much more useful to Egypt.

For Beating Eggs.

A wire spoon whisk is best for eggs when they are beaten separately. A revolving beater is best when the yolks and whites are whipped together.
