THE JOSEY PERRY MARRIAGE.

Popular Couple Wed. this Morning at Mrs. J. Frank Brinkley's.

A pretty home marriage was solemnized in West Greenville this morning, Jan. 31st, 1905, at 8 o'clock at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Brinkley, the latter being a sister of the bride.

The contracting parties were Mr. Robert Carey Josey, one of Scotland Neck's most successful and prosperous business men, and Miss Sadie Teltair Perry, professor of latin in the Baptist University for Women, Raleigh, N. C., and one of North Carolina's loveliest and most accomplished daughters. The officiating clergyman was Dr. R. T. Vann, president of the Baptist University for Women, Raleigh, N. C., who in his graceful and impressive style pronounced them man and wife.

The bride was gowned in green broad cloth with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of La France roses.

Miss Elise Vincent presided at the piano, and as the strains of the beautiful old Mendelssohn's wedding march pealed forth the bridal party entered the handsomely decorated parlors in the following order:

Misses Katie Tunstall and Mamie Brinkley, Helen Perry, of Raleigh, sister of the bride and Kathryn Brinkley.

The bride was preceded by two little flower girls, Madeline Higgs and Ruth Brinkley.

The parlors were beautifully and tastefully decorated with cut flowers and ferns, the color scheme being green and white.

The out of town guests were Mr. Jesse A. Perry, father of the bride; Messrs. U. B. Josey, brother of the groom; J. Y. Savage and W. P. Darden, all of Scotland Neck.

The many and handsome presents attest the popularity of the bride and groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Josey left on the 8:30 train for Florida and other Southern points.

Keeping Your Word

A middle-aged man who has succeeded in establishing a lucrative business, one in which he deals with many persons and often comes in contact with them, says that the strongest feature of his success that he can acclaim is that he made it a point to always keep his word. When he began business in a modest way he determined to do that, for he believed that it was better than any minor strategy often employed by men in dealing with their fellows.

Often in the beginning it would have been much more profitable and much easier to resort to subterfuge, but he was looking toward future rather than present results. By and by, as time passed, his reputation for keeping his word with customers grew and this very circumstance acted as a safeguard to integrity. There was no longer danger that "tricks of the trade" would be substituted for candor. On this basis the business grew to large proportions, and the public came to recognize the value of the treatment emanates from the dwelling place of such a principle. "Keep your word, no matter at what cost," is the advice of this man to aspirant for a successful career.—New York Commercial.

High May Wheat

The speculators must have a corner on May wheat. Today quotations for that month went above $1.17 while for July it was a little below $1.

THE WEATHER

Partly cloudy tonight, rain on the coast, warmer except in extreme Western portion. Wednesday partly cloudy.

THE LEGISLATURE.

MONDAY.

The senate almost unanimously tabled the joint resolution to authorize an investigation of the South Dakota claim against North Carolina. More petitions for repeal of the merchants tax were presented. Only a few new bills were introduced, none of them of special importance.

In the house Representative Little presented a petition from citizens of Bethel asking the repeal of the act of 1903 prohibiting sale of liquor in two miles of a church in Bethel. A bill to the same effect was introduced.

No new bills of importance were introduced. The bill to amend the homestead law was discussed but went over to another day.

The Industrial Battles of the World Test the Steel in the Man.

A Boston business man, conspicuous among the successful men in the commercial world, said:

"The grain must not remain in the elevator nor the coal in the pit."

The expression translated means that something must be doing in world all the time. The purpose of the world is to keep moving. The more we can do in the general tumult of pushing it along the greater our success in life, the nearer we have come to achieving our divine destiny. It does not follow that we must make a deal of noise and bluster about it. Our names may never blindly seek us from the midst of a waiting throng yet we can ably do our portion in the world's work.

The point to remember is that the world is destined to move and that each of us as individuals must find his certain work to do, so that in the end it can be counted in as a necessary and valuable portion of the whole. The best lives are the most active. The world is not a great resting place. The best men, the most successful and those that accomplish anything, everlastingly keep at it. They never let go except to recuperate for a new start and more vigorous. A good way to consider it is that there will be plenty of time to rest and idle when we are no longer able to work and to do for the great pleasure there is in achievement.

Wars and conquests claim few; it is in industrial battles where most of us are required to test our steel. And he who best equips himself for the fray and continues unceasingly is most often elaimed for the greatest victories. "The grain must not remain in the elevator nor the coal in the pit."—New York Commercial.

Favors Early Adjournment.

A letter from Senator J. L. Fleming to THE REFLECTOR states that he favors an early adjournment of the legislature, and that those in this section having any special legislation they wish considered should send the bills in as early as possible. Do not neglect this and then blame your senator and representatives if any matter you send late cannot be acted upon. The closing days of the legislature are usually too crowded for matters to receive proper consideration, and this is due to the lateness of sending in bills.

A Word to The Wise is Sufficient.

Court is now over and your taxes are still due. If you wish to save cost you must pay up immediately or take the consequences. Jan 27 1905, C. D. Rountree, dtf City tax collector.

Mattings and rugs arriving daily. 1-24 1st av Taft & Vandyke.

AYDEN ITEMS.

AYDEN N. C., Jan. 31 1905.

Joe Smith, of Rochdale, has been visiting J. T. Smith, Jr.

Miss Mary Overton, a young lady in the millinery business here, left Monday to visit relatives at Ahsokie.

C. L. Tisor and a portion of his family spent Sunday up near Farmville.

Mrs. R. W. Smith and children are spending the week in Kinston.

Saturday is the time fixed by law for the supervisors and public road overseers to meet in Ayden. Come out brethren, a jolly good time is in store.

Mrs. Florence Horne, wife of Commissioner W. R. Horne, of Farmville, spent a day or so with Mrs. J. J. Edwards here last week and is now on a visit to friends in Kinston.

The infant child of Jesse Broadway died Sunday and was carried to Fort Barnwell yesterday for burial.

Charles Smith, of Washington, has been here.

Misses Broadway and Mumford came up on the train yesterday from a visit down the road.

Dr. Pat Burruss left Monday to visit relatives in Richmond.

Miss Evelyn Sutton, a charming young lady of Winterville, is here on a visit to friends.

Miss Perthia Rouse, of Kinston, while en-route from a visit to Smithtown, spent a short while with friends here Friday.

Sebron Cox has just about completed a beautiful eight room residence on West Railroad street and the outbuildings with which he has surrounded it are all in keeping with the nice appearance of the town. Last Thursday evening one of his small boys went into the barn where a lot of hay, cotton, &c., was stored, to enjoy the pleasant delights of a cigarette smoke. In a few moments there was a great big smoke and had it not been for the timely assistance of the students at the seminary Mr. Cox would have been minus a lovely home and a little boy, too.

Mrs. Thos. Lee and two little children, of Kinston, are spending the week with her father, Elder C. C. Bland.

There were 17 bales of cotton sold on the market here Saturday, the first for several days. The farmers seem in earnest about waiting for better prices.

Elmer Gardner has returned home.

Mrs. Cherry, of Bellefield, Va., after a very pleasant visit here to friends left for her home last Saturday.

TUESDAY, JAN. 31, 1905.

Mr. Duke's side of the muddle has been given. Mrs. Duke's is yet to come.

Mrs. Chadwick says it will take months to tell her side of the story. Please don't start, then.

The recent cold extended so far South that much damage was done to fruit crops in both Georgia and Florida.

The way temperance sentiment continues to grow throughout the state the saloons ought to be able to see their finish.

Governor Glenn is being pressed with invitations for commencement exercises. He is willing, but should not be worked over time.

Booker T. has had another social interview with Teddy R. But nothing is said as to the lunch table being spread this time.

The farmers can make just as big a mistake in planting too much tobacco this year as they did on their cotton crop last year.

It looks like the legislature is going to ignore the numerous petitions asking the repeal of the obnoxious divorce law existing in this state, and it will be a bad day for them if they do.

A Two And A Half Cent Rate.

The bill of Representative Laughinghouse, of Pitt, to make a single rate of two and a half cents on all railroads in North Carolina except short independent lines, is one that ought to pass. For some years the railroads have wished to do away with two fares and two sets of cars, and the public will approve an act permitting the abolition of the second class car provided it does not involve increasing the fare charged to poorer people who travel. But they will not permit the increase of the rate from 2 3-4 cents to 3 cents per mile, even if some other States permit railroads to dictate a single passenger rate of three cents.

The time has come when the traveling public should have a reduction in passenger rates. Ten years ago the income of the railroads after deducting operating expenses was $2,125,222.48 on 3,582 miles of road. In 1904 the income after deducting operating expenses, had grown to $7,539,011 on 3,803 miles of road. With an increased net income of over $5,000,000 in ten years, is it not clear that the passenger fare should be reduced. It will leave the railroads large profits. The increase in travel is steady and would grow under a reduction of the rate.

The people of North Carolina believe that railroad rates should be so regulated as to give a fair return on the money invested, but when the income of the roads more than doubles in ten years with an inconsiderable increase in the mileage and investment, there is every reason for a reduction in passenger rates.

Pass Mr. Laughinghouse's bill!—News and Observer.

The general directors of the Cotton Association will meet at New Orleans, February 4th to consider plans for carrying over 2,000,000 bales of the unsold portion of the cotton crop of 1904 until January, February and March, 1906, and to perfect plans for organizing a permanent cotton warehouse system.

While the country has been engaged in a discussion of President Roosevelt's recommendation that wife-beaters in the District of Columbia should be dealt with at the whipping post, Judge Gage, of South Carolina, comes to the front with a somewhat more severe sentence. According to a special to the Columbia State from Monck's Corner, S. C., ten years at hard labor in the penitentiary was the sentence imposed upon Joe Wade, who was tried and convicted upon the charge of wife beating. In passing sentence upon Wade Judge Gage took occasion to say that he was sorry the law did not provide proper punishment for one who beat his wife, that he ought to be hanged instead of serving a penitentiary sentence, but he would do the best he could by giving the prisoner ten years at hard labor. His honor had the courage of his conviction, to say the least, and there was nothing mild about either, as there doubtless was not in Wade's chastisement of his wife—Charlotte Observer.

Saved From Terrible Death

The family of Mrs. M. L. Bobbitt of Bargerton, Tenn., saw her dying and were powerless to save her. The most skillful physicians and every remedy used, failed, while consumption was slowly but surely taking her life. In this terrible hour Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption turned despair into joy. The first bottle brought immediate relief and its continued use completely cured her. It's the most certain cure in the world for all throat and lung troubles. Guaranteed Bottles 50c and $1. Trial bottles free at J. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

It is the day of the child. The Legislature is knitting its brows trying to better the condition of the children of the poor. The reformatory, the child labor law, and the improving of the public school system, are among the biggest things in the budget; and the churches are straining every nerve to help bless and brighten the lives of the unfortunate and the outcast. Happy the man who lends his aid in a work so worthy. Is he not right in line with the teaching and spirit of Jesus, who loved the children so?—Charity and Children.

Speedy Relief

A salve that heals without a scar is DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. No remedy effects such speedy relief. It draws out inflammation, soothes, cools and heals all cuts, burns and bruises. A sure cure for Piles and skin diseases. DeWitt's is the only genuine Witch Hazel Salve. Beware of counterfeits, they are dangerous. Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

The first year of the Russo-Japanese war, culminating in the surrender of Port Arthur, is the subject of an editorial survey in the Review of Reviews for February; the same magazine treats of Russia's internal troubles, which led up to the massacre of citizens by soldiers in the streets of St. Petersburg on January 22. There is also an article by Prof. Amos S. Hershey, entitled "What Justifies Intervention in War?" and a brief sketch of the career of General Stoessel, the Russian defender of Port Arthur.

Wonderful Nerve

Is displayed by many a man enduring pains of accidental cuts, Wounds, Bruises, Burns, Scalds, Sore feet or stiff joints. But there is no need for it. Bucklen's Arnica Salve will kill the pain and cure the trouble. It's the best salve on earth for Piles, too. 25c at J. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

The General Assembly of North Carolina have adopted a joint resolution asking the representatives of the state in Congress to vote for the passage of the Hepburn-Deliver bill, prohibiting interstate shipping of whiskey into prohibition territory. This will do more to make prohibition prohibit than all else.

Baseball enthusiasts in Greensboro are beginning to talk about the formation of a Virginia-Carolina league, to be composed of teams from Greensboro, Winston-Salem, Durham, Raleigh, Danville and Lynchburg.

If the legislature should make a mistake and include brokerage of fees in the bucket shop bill it would do the state no particular harm.—Durham Herald.

- FOR THE LITTLE ONES.

Whistle Buff is a Merry Game to Play at a Party.

Whistle buff is a sort of modified blind man's buff, played, however, without a bandage over the eyes and without the rousing element which sometimes makes the well known game objectionable. A small whistle is suspended from the coat collar or dress of one of the party by a piece of twine or thread about half a yard long, which hangs down between the shoulders. The "knight" or the "lady" of the whistle, as the case may be, then stands in the center or walks slowly round the circle of the company. Some one, watching an opportunity, seizes the whistle and blows it shrilly, when the knight immediately turns to detect the offender, and if he hits upon the right person the latter must take his place. As the player turns to find out one whistler another gives a blow, and thus the game proceeds merrily until some one less dexterous than the rest is caught.

Puzzling Figures and a Joke.

Put down the year you were born; add 4.

Then add your age at your next birthday, provided it comes before Jan. 1; otherwise your last birthday.

Multiply the result by 1,000. From this subtract 694,423. Substitute for the resulting figures the corresponding letters of the alphabet—A for 1, B for 2, C for 3, etc.

The result will give the name by which you are popularly known. This trick is given to suit the year 1905.

For 1906 and for every year after that add an additional 1,000 to the amount to be subtracted—viz, for 1906 make it 695,423, and so on.

Try this trick and see how it works.

Stubborn Paper Wad.

Did you ever see a paper wad that is so stubborn that it will fly in the face of one who tries to compel it to go into the neck of a bottle? The more you try to blow it in the more it leaves the bottle.

You can try this with any large bottle and a paper wad or cork small enough to fit very loosely in its neck. Holding the bottle so that it points directly at your mouth and placing the cork in the neck, the harder you blow on the cork for the purpose of driving it into the bottle the more forcibly will the cork rush from its place in the neck.

Try this stunt and see if you can discover what causes the peculiar action of the paper wad.

The Dutch Wedding.

First the ones who are selected to be bride and groom sit down on the floor together, and then the groom chooses some girl to sit in front of him, and the bride chooses some boy to sit in front of her, and so on, the girl choosing a boy to sit in front of her and the boy choosing a girl until all the couples in the room are seated on the floor.

Then every couple has to do whatever the bride and groom do—for instance, if the groom makes faces at the bride or says anything to her, so must every couple do. It is bushes of fun if the bride and groom play their part well.

Cat and Mouse.

The children sit in two rows opposite each other, with a space between. One child takes the place of "cat," being blindfolded, and one takes the place of "mouse" and is also blindfolded, the cat standing at one end of the row and the mouse at the opposite end. They start in opposite directions, guiding themselves by the chairs, the cat trying to catch the mouse. When the mouse is caught it is made the cat, and one of the company takes the place of the mouse.

What Kitty mouse Feared.

It makes no difference how many medicines have failed to cure you, if you are troubled with headache, constipation, kidney or liver troubles, Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will make you well.

When Kitty mouse went out to skip, "Oh, dear," she cried, "if I should slip And bump my nose against the court, 'Twould break my whiskers off right short!"

Father—Cooking schools are of some use after all. This cake is delicious.

Daughter—Is it? I thought it would be a terrible failure.

"Why?"

"I told the cook exactly how to make it, and she went and made it some other way."

The Most Ancient Letter.

What is probably the most ancient letter in the world has been discovered in some excavations being made in the province of Attica, Greece. M. Wilhelms, secretary of the Austrian Archaeological institute there, who has succeeded in deciphering it, asserts that it was written four centuries before Christ. It is engraved on a leaden leaf, folded in two, and it bears on the outside the following address: "To the porter of the market at Potis, to be delivered either to Nausias or to Thrasicos or to their sons." The text of the letter is as follows: "Mnesiengos sends his greetings to those in the house and informs them that he is in good health. Please send me a blanket or some sheepskins, if possible of the ordinary kind, without ornaments. As soon as the occasion offers I shall return them."

No Moore Stomach Troubles

All Stomach trouble is removed by the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It gives the stomach perfect rest by digesting what you eat without the stomach's aid. The food builds up the body, the rest restores the stomach to health. You don't have to diet yourself when taking Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. J. D. Eskine, of Allenville, Mich., says, "I suffered Heartburn and Stomach trouble for some time. My sister-in-law has had the same trouble and was not able to eat for six weeks. She lived entirely on warm water. After taking two bottles of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure she was entirely cured. She now eats heartily and is in good health. I am glad to say Kodol gave me instant relief." Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

Tonic to The System.

For liver troubles and constipation there is nothing better than De Witt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. They do not weaken the stomach. Their action upon the system is mild, pleasant and harmless. Bob Moore, of Lafayette, Ind., says, "No use talking, De Witt's Little Early Risers do their work. All other pills I have used gripe and make me sick in the stomach and never cured me. De Witt's Little Early Risers proved to be the long sought relief. They are simply perfect." Persons traveling find Little Early Risers the reliable remedy to carry with them. Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

A Very Close Call

"I stuck to my engine, although every joint ached and every nerve was racked with pain," writes C. W. Bellamy, a locomotive fireman of Burlington, Iowa. "I was weak and pale, without any appetite and all run down. As I was about to give up, I got a bottle of Electric Bitters, and after taking it, I felt as well as I ever did in my life." Weak, sickly, run down people always gain new life, strength and vigor from their use. Try them. Satisfaction guaranteed by J. L. Wooten. Price 50c.

THE AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEW OF REVIEWS

The more Magazines there are, the more Indispensable is The Review of Reviews

"Indispensable." "The one magazine I feel I must take." "The world under a field-glass." "An education in public affairs and current literature."—these are some of the phrases one hears from noted people who read The Review of Reviews. The more magazines there are, the more necessary is the Review of Reviews, because it brings together the best that is in all the most important monthlies of the world. Such is the flood of periodical literature that nowadays people say that the only way to keep up with it is to read The Review of Reviews. Entirely over and above this reviewing section, it has more original matter and illustrations than most magazines, and the most timely and important articles printed in any month.

Probably the most valuable section of all is Dr. Allen C. How's illustrated "Progress of the World," which in its events and issues are so ably and lucidly explained in every issue. Many a subscriber writes, "The department alone is worth more than the price of the magazine." The magazine department, depicting current history in caricature, is also a favorite. The Review of Reviews covers the world's news and public opinion, first and foremost. Men in public life, the members of Congress, professional men, and the great captains of industry, are all there, and they tell you the intelligent men and women all over America have decided that it was "indispensable."

Jumbo's Toddy.
Tody Hamilton tells this story of the late P. T. Barnum, with whom he was associated for many years. The great showman in his declining years was advised by his physicians to abstain from all spirituous liquors. He became zealous upon the subject of total abstinence, lecturing to many audiences upon this subject. A woman who had heard him lecture afterward met him one day at his home in Bridgeport. "Why do you preach total abstinence to humanity," she asked, "when it is well known that you allow your trainers to feed Jumbo four gallons of whisky a day and ten pounds of tobacco?" "Never thought of that," said Mr. Barnum, and he almost ran to the telephone, calling up the winter quarters of the show, and in his squeaky voice gave the order, "Give Jumbo no more tobacco or whisky." Next day he got the following message from the trainer: "Please build a padded cell for Jumbo and send down at once 5,000 grains of bromide. He's got D. T.'s on account of P. T. and has got the delusion that he is performing in Kentucky." Jumbo got his regular four gallons after that.

Holiday Customs.
At the saturnalia, the heathen prototype of Christmas, it was the Roman custom to decorate the house with evergreens. This was done to give the woodland spirits refuge from the cold. In Atlanta, Ga., it is the Christmas custom to let free all prisoners whose only offense has been against the city ordinances.

The holly and mistletoe that we use for Christmas decorations show the survival of the customs of the Druids. In Russia branches of fir trees are used for decoration. In most parts of southern Europe evergreen trees are used, while in India the English churches are decorated at Christmas-tide with all kinds of flowers, palms and berries.

Mistletoe.
The eastern mistletoe is parasitic on deciduous trees as far north as New Jersey. It grows in great bunches from one to three feet across and soon disfigures a tree. The people of Atlanta, Ga., have free mistletoe. The city authorities cut it out of the shade trees that line the streets, and any one may take it away by the wagon load. The plant is in no danger of extermination, as we are satisfied with a comparatively small amount, despite its unique associations, which ought to make it in universal demand. The trade is supposed to handle about 10,000 pounds.—Country Life in America.

Oratory at a Discount.
There is no legislative body where oratory is at a smaller premium than in the senate of our time. In the house the few men who control business gained their mastery in the first instance in open debate. But in the senate the influence of speech-making is at its lowest mark. The proceedings of the chamber are largely a show. Most of the real business is transacted in the committee rooms, in the cloakrooms and across the dinner table.—Boston Globe.

Dissolving Flowerpots.
Amateur gardeners may be interested to learn of a dissolving flowerpot to use for transplanting. According to the descriptions that have been given, this flowerpot can be transplanted with the cutting or seedling in it, and it will dissolve and become a fertilizer within thirty-six hours. The pot is made of a composition of garden soil and a small proportion of barnyard manure. It is claimed that it has no offensive odor when dry.

We repeat that the history of North Carolina is deserving of more attention. Of course this thing of glorying in the past achievements of a State can be carried so far as to become disgusting but the other extreme is equally as bad.—Winston Sentinel.
