FIRE IN D. W. HARDEE BUILDING

HALF OF IT DESTROYED--SEVERAL NEIGHBORING STOCKS DAMAGED.

Fire Could Have Been Put out, But Steam Engine Would Not Work.

About 9 o'clock Tuesday night fire broke out in the upper story of the D. W. Hardee building on Five Points and destroyed half of the building before the flames could be checked.

This building was a two story brick structure containing two stores and an office on the first floor. The corner store was occupied by W. S. Moye & Co., the other store by D. W. Hardee and the office by Jesse Speight and J. B. Higgs. Over the latter store and office is a lodge room occupied by the Red Men and the Junior Order of American Mechanics. Over the corner store were several small rooms. One of these was used as a bed room by J. F. Smith, a clerk for Mr. Hardee, another as a bed room by E. L. Weathington and his brother. Between these two was a room used by Mr. Hardee in which to store empty boxes and barrels. It was in this latter room that the fire started, but how it originated cannot be explained.

Mr. Smith had closed the store and gone up to his room, and started back to the store to do some writing. The Weathingtons were also in their room and he stopped to talk with them on his way down stairs. While talking they heard something roaring and Smith went back to his room to investigate. He found his room dark as he had left it, but as he was returning by the storage room saw a light over the transome and gave the alarm.

As soon as the door of the storage room was broken open the flames burst out across the passage making it impossible to get the contents of the room out. As soon as the alarm was given the firemen and hundreds of citizens responded. The steam engine was taken to the cistern a block away and had steam up in a reasonable time and a line of hose run to the burning building, but when the effort was made to turn a stream on it was found that the engine from some unaccountable cause would not pump water. Every effort was made to get the engine to work but failed.

The colored firemen also took their hand engine to the cistern and soon had a stream on the fire. They worked faithfully and it is due largely to their efforts that the fire was confined to one section of the building. There was a brick wall between the two stores, but a door through this wall on the upper floor gave entrance to the lodge quarters. Keeping the fire from passing this door was good work. If the other section of the Hardee building had burned, much adjoining property would have been destroyed with no guessing where the fire would have stopped. It looked for a time like many buildings in that section would be lost, and many occupants moved out.

It is hard to correctly estimate the losses in a fire of this kind where much of it results from removal and by water.

D. W. Hardee's loss on building is fully $2,500. He had insurance for $2,500 on the entire building. The damage to his stock is about $800.

W. S. Moye & Co., are damaged about $500 which is insured.

J. F. Smith lost all the furniture and clothing in his room and had no insurance.

The Red Men and Jr. order both suffered damage to their lodge outfits.

C. C. Parkerson, E. L. Weathington, E. M. McGowan, T. H. Bateman, Jesse Speight, J. B. Higgs, Savage & Co., and Greenville Livery Co. all sustained damage in moving but most of them, if not all, had insurance.

Mr. Hardee will rebuild as soon as the loss can be adjusted.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Reported for REFLECTOR.

The social and literary meeting of the Epworth League, held at the residence of A. B. Ellington on Monday night of this week, was a most delightful success in every sense of the word.

About forty members of the League were present, and the bright winsome faces, and merry laughter of the sweet girls and fortunate boys bore eloquent testimony to the fact that all present richly enjoyed the occasion.

Mrs. D. D. Overton had prepared quite an interesting program, consisting of music, readings, recitations, etc. The following persons read papers they had themselves prepared: John Hornaday, on Samuel Wesley, Miss Martha Lee Cowell, on the "Holy Club", Wiley J. Brown, on Susannah Wesley. These papers were interesting and instructive, helpful alike to those who prepared and read them, and those who heard them read.

Miss Bernice Hornaday and Miss Jennie Congleton recited twice each, to the delight of all present.

Mrs. Overton read an interesting selection in her most charming style.

An interesting item in the program was a series of questions propounded by Mrs. Overton, answers to which were to be written by each one present. Mrs. H. L. Carr, Miss Mary James and Miss Lillian Carr answered correctly ten each of the thirteen questions propounded. This narrowed the contest down to three. It was finally decided in favor of Miss Lillian Carr, and the prize was awarded to her.

At the close of the exercises refreshments were served, after which the merry throng dispersed, all loud in their praise of the host and hostess for the large contribution made by them to the success of the occasion. WILEY BROWN.

Altar Workers.

On Tuesday evening at Mrs. Bert Moye's the young ladies of the Methodist church gathered and organized a society for the purpose of buying the altar for the new Methodist church known as the "Altar Workers." There were a goodly number of earnest, enthusiastic workers present and we want all who will to come over and help us.

Our officers are as follows: Mrs. Bert Moye, president; Miss Nina James, vice president; Miss Lillie Wilson, secretary; Miss Alice Smith, treasurer. The meeting adjourned to meet with the president Feb. 14th.

MRS. MOYE, Pres.
MISS LILLIE WILSON

Tobacco Sales.

C. W. Haryey, secretary of the tobacco board of trade, gives 631,346 pounds as the sales of leaf tobacco on the Greenville market for the month of January, the average price being $7.81 per hundred. The total sales from August 1st to February 1st amount to 7,426,155 pounds.

THE LEGISLATURE.

TUESDAY.

Long sessions of both the senate and house were held. Among the new important bills in the senate were these: To require fireproof repositories for county records; to repeal laws of 1901 relative to indictment of election officers in Federal courts; to define what shall constitute evidence of premeditation in murder cases.

Among the new bills in the house were to provide for allotting homesteads for lands held in common; to allow register of deeds to administer oaths on accounts; to regulate the hours of labor in manufacturing establishments; to promote the use of school books in public schools relating to North Carolina history.

WINTERVILLE ITEMS.

WINTERVILLE, N. C. Feb. 1, 1905.

Mayor R. G. Chapman is on the sick list.

Edward, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Nelson, who was badly burned by fire popping in his cradle about a week ago, is getting along nicely.

Prof. Lineberry went to Greenville Monday night. J. R. Smith, of Ayden, was here Tuesday.

Charlie James, spent Saturday and Sunday with H. M. Stokes.

On Feb. 22, 1905, Winterville Council No. 37, Jr. O. U. A. M. will present a flag and Bible to the Ayden graded school. Good speakers will be there.

Miss Huldah Cox, who has been teaching school near Blak Jack is home. She had to close on account of a smallpox scare.

Rev. A. A. Tyson, of Black Mountain, was here Saturday.

W. H. Elliott, of Norfolk, spent Tuesday and Wednesday here.

J. S. Gresham and D. L. Gores are in town.

W. H. Hooten, of Kinston and J. C. Hooten, of Grafton, spent the Sabbath with J. W. Sparks.

SHELMERDINE ITEMS

SHELMERDINE, N. C., Feb. 1, 1905.

Miss Lizzie Jones, who has been visiting Mrs. Frank Whaley for several days, returned Monday to her home in Greenville.

E. G. Cox, of Ayden, was in town Monday.

Mr. Janette, of Winston-Salem, visited our town this week.

Mr. Latham, of Washington, visited Shelmerdine Monday.

Miss Coy Hoyle, of Vanceboro, is visiting Miss Fannie Laughinghouse.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Stanley spent Sunday with H. H. Stanley.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Jackson of Grimesland, spent Sunday with friends here.

E. A. Stanley had quite a successful hunt around here Saturday. He made three shots and killed twelve partridges.

Miss Isabel Oakley visited Miss Mabel Savage Monday.

Miss Lula Sexton spent Sunday with Mrs. N. T. Cox.

Mr. Munford Thankful.

When it looked so threatening in the vicinity of the fire Tuesday night, the residents in that section began packing up preparatory to moving. C. T. Munford was one of these, and requests us to return his sincere thanks to all who helped him. He says his furniture was packed up so nicely that it could have been shipped, which shows the extreme care of those who went in his home to help him.

THE WEATHER

ADVERTISES GREENVILLE.

There is no questioning the fact that THE REFLECTOR and the business men of the town are doing some good advertising for Greenville, and it is attracting attention to the town from far and near. The large advertisers here shows that the town has progressive business men. Their liberal use of printer's ink not only draws trade from quite a distance, but also arouses the interest and admiration of business men in other towns. Nor does it stop there, for even a number of wholesale houses and manufacturers in Northern and Western cities who do business with the merchants of Greenville have written for copies of THE REFLECTOR that they might get a better idea of the progressive spirit among our business men.

The statement made in THE REFLECTOR of Saturday, January, 21st, that it had twenty-two columns of home advertisements that day, was commented upon by papers in some of the neighboring towns. One of these, the Williamston Enterprise, called attention to the fact that the issue in question had even two columns more advertising than we claimed. This was due to more advertisements coming in after the article was written. The Enterprise added:

"We congratulate THE REFLECTOR upon having good hustling merchants to deal with, men who realize that advertising not only brings dollars to their pockets, but brings business and prosperity to the town. Men who believe a thing and back their judgment with the dollars."

In another article written with a view of awakening an advertising interest among the merchants of Williamston, the Enterprise said:

"The Greenville merchants are in the same boat with the Williamston merchants, but they are not idle. Instead of cutting out their ads from the papers they are using twice and quadruple the space knowing that their advertisements are their best salesmen. Williamston merchants are losing dollars every day that they let Greenville merchants invade their territory with these elaborate advertisements and not meet them in the battle for trade."

It may be added in passing that on Thursday, 26th, THE REFLECTOR had twenty-eight columns of advertising, the highest record of any regular edition of the paper. This shows that the business men of Greenville are surpassed in no town and they are making a reputation which can be pointed to with pride. They realize the value of advertising.

It would be all right to have a larger and handsomer state capitol, but with so many of the insane not provided for and other pressing needs upon the state for funds the legislature may come to the conclusion that the present capitol is sufficient for the time being.

The Atlanta Constitution is fixing to give telephone exchanges plenty of applicants for operators. That paper says that "the soft voice at central is a winning thing," and that 20 percent of the telephone girls get married every year.

You do not catch the Japs napping every time, as Kurapatkin's fail in attempting to flank them shows.

The question of how much cotton he will plant this spring is a more important one with the farmer than how long he will hold his last year's crop. Cutting down the next crop will be the lever to raise prices.

All the invitations have come to naught, except that they gave a little notoriety to the towns making them. The president has given it out that he cannot come South this year.

The Chicago man arrested in New York for bigamy, having the charge against him of marrying twenty times, will have his hands full if he has to face all the women at one trial.

By the way, what has become of that Baltic fleet?

The South Does Not Want It.

We note at the end of two years experience with an immigration bureau the Columbia State had to draw its keen damascus blade in order to defend it and perpetuate its further existence in the State. It's a sort of thing that Southern people do not like, and they will not tolerate it for any considerable time. If people want to come to this country on their own volition, let them come, but we do not want them in car lots and unassorted at that. We have before stated that the individual slated for this position is the only man to be benefited, while the best interests of the State are to suffer.

And the question to determine about this immigrant agent will be is he an assistant passenger agent for some railroad, some land agent and speculator, or an immigrant agent? Which is he, or is he all?—Raleigh Times.

Tonic to The System.

For liver troubles and constipation there is nothing better than DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. They do not weaken the stomach. Their action upon the system is mild, pleasant and harmless. Bob Moore, of LaFayette, Ind., says, "No use talking, DeWitt's Little Early Risers do their work. All other pills I have used gripe and make me sick in the stomach and never cured me. DeWitt's Little Early Risers proved to be the long sought relief. They are simply perfect." Persons traveling find Little Early Risers the reliable remedy to carry with them. Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

He Congratulates Terrell.

New Orleans, Jan 30.—Governor Vardaman this evening sent the following telegram to Governor Terrell, of Georgia:

"Permit me to congratulate the white people of Georgia upon the character of their chief executive and to commend you, my dear sir, most heartily for your conduct in refusing to allow the State of Georgia to be dishonored by being represented at the inauguration of the President by the negro military company. I thank God that a few of the faithful old guard are with us still, Southern gentlemen in authority who can not be bribed with Federal patronage or debauched with Presidential flattery."

Speedy Relief

A salve that heals without a scar is DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. No remedy effects such speedy relief. It draws out inflammation, soothes, cools and heals all cuts, burns and bruises. A sure cure for Piles and skin diseases. DeWitt's is the only genuine Witch Hazel Salve. Beware of counterfeits, they are dangerous. Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

The State's First Son.

It is always gratifying to note that a special honor has been paid a Confederate soldier, as was the case in Raleigh yesterday when the General Assembly invited General R. E. Hoke to meet the body. There is too great a tendency to forget the services of the men who wore the grey—Greensboro Telegram.

It is stated that a Kansas man who had been convicted of manslaughter and sentenced to 20 years in the penitentiary, appealed, got a new trial, was convicted of murder and was sentenced to be hung. Some folks never know when to let well enough alone.—Wilmington Star.

SOUTHERN AGRICULTURIST

Is published at Nashville, Tenn. It is issued 24 times a year and the subscription price is 50 cents. It contains more reading matter than most dollar papers and is edited by Southern men who know the needs of Southern farmers. Every issue is like a big experience meeting, the farmers' questions being answered by such men as Maj. Thos. J. Key, former Assistant Commissioner of Agriculture of Alabama, and Prof. Andrew M. Soule, Director of the Virginia Experiment Station. The Home Department is conducted by Aunt Anne, whom all readers soon learn to love.

A LITTLE NONSENSE.

Why the Short, Stout Man Grieved For the Thin One.

He was a short, stout man and was all but out of breath as he rushed up to a policeman on the corner and gasped:

"Say, did you see a tall, thin man, wearing a brown suit of clothes, around here a few minutes ago?"

"I saw fifty such men as you have described," replied the officer.

"But this man was in great trouble, I hear. Case of loss of memory. He had even forgotten his own name."

"Did he wear a full beard and have a large nose?" asked the policeman.

"Yes. That's the man. You saw him then?"

"I did, sir. He came up to me about half an hour ago and said he didn't know where he was or who he was."

"Great Scott! Then it's true! Where is he now?"

"I sent him to the hospital, just around the corner, and you had better hustle around there if you know him. Is he your brother?"

"No—no relation of mine," said the fat man as he mopped his perspiring brow and looked to be on the verge of tears.

"But you seem to take the affair very much to heart."

"Oh, it's a terrible thing to happen to my poor friend—terrible! Just think of it! His memory may be a blank for years and years, and—"

"And he may never remember that he borrowed a five spot from me yesterday!" groaned the fat man as he mopped his brow again and started for the hospital. — A. B. Lewis in Philadelphia Caricature.

She Knew the Symptoms.

He—If I had never been in love before, how would I have known what ailed me?

She—I would have told you.

No Expense.

Eva—Your father doesn't object to that young man coming up and sitting every other evening, does he?

Edna—I should say not. He sent up a ton of coal and always brings a pocket electric lamp that sufficiently lights the parlor without gas.—Chicago News.

His Trouble.

"Ah," sighed Mr. Klumsay, "dancing is certainly the poetry of motion!"

"Sometimes," replied his fair partner wittingly, "but when the feet get twisted it's worse than doggerel."—Philadelphia Press.

An Explanation.

Younger Sister—What is stoicism?

Elder Sister—Stoicism is the ability to congratulate the fiancée of the man you wanted to marry without showing any disappointment.—New York Press.

Professional Courtesy.

"I manage to keep my boarders longer than you do," said the first landlady.

"Oh, I don't know," rejoined the other. "You keep them so thin they look longer than they really are."—Boston Globe.

Easily Pleased Then.

Nell—So their engagement is off? Belle—Yes. She says he was too hard to please.

Nell—That's funny. He must have changed since he proposed to her.—Baltimore News.

The Seedy Poet.

"Yes," said Rimer, with a self-satisfied air, "the poet is born, not made."

"Yes?" replied the practical man. "What a pity his income isn't too!"—San Francisco Examiner.

Up Against Him.

"I could have married Miss Roxley, but her father—"

"Ah! He put his foot down, eh?"

"No. He put his foot up good and hard. That's what hurt."

Pretty Bad.

Foot Light—Did you call him her leading man?

Sue Brette—No; I called him her accomplice.—Yonkers Statesman.

Wash For the Eyes.

An excellent wash for tired, weak or inflamed eyes, a wash approved by leading oculists, is composed of one pint of boiled water, one teaspoonful of refined borax and fifteen drops of spirits of camphor. Flush the eyes with this three times daily.

THREE JURORS CURED

Of Cholera Morbus with One Small Bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy

Mr. G. W. Fowler of Hightower, Ala., relates on experience he had while serving on a petit jury in a murder case at Edwardsville, county seat of Claiborne county, Alabama. He says: "While there I ate some fresh meat and some souse meat and it gave me cholera morbus in a very severe form. I was never more sick in my life and sent to the drug store for a certain cholera mixture, but the druggist sent me a bottle of Chamberlain's Cholera, Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy instead, saying that he had what I sent for, but that this medicine was so much better. I would rather send it to me in the fix I was in. I took one dose of it and was better in five minutes. The second dose cured me entirely. Two fellow jurors were afflicted in the same manner and one small bottle cured the three of us." For sale at Wooten's Drug Store.

No Moore Stomach Troubles

All Stomach trouble is removed by the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It gives the stomach perfect rest by digesting what you eat without the stomach's aid. The food builds up the body, the rest restores the stomach to health. You don't have to diet yourself when taking Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. J. D. Eskine, of Allenville, Mich., says, "I suffered Heartburn and Stomach trouble for some time. My sister-in-law had the same trouble and was not able to eat for six weeks. She lived entirely on warm water. After taking two bottles of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure she was entirely cured. She now eats heartily and is in good health. I am glad to say Kodol gave me instant relief." Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

Sour Stomach

When the quantity of food taken is too large or the quality too rich, sour stomach is likely to follow, and especially so if the digestion has been weakened by constipation. Eat slowly and not too freely of easily digested food. Masticate the food thoroughly. Let five hours elapse between meals, and when you feel a fullness and weight in the region of the stomach after eating, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the sour stomach may be avoided. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville.

Coughs And Colds

All coughs, colds and pulmonary complaints that are curable are quickly cured by One Minute Cough Cure. Clears the phlegm, draws out inflammation and heals and soothes the affected parts, strengthens the lungs, wards off pneumonia. Harmless and pleasant to take. Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

Cured of Lame After 15 Years of Suffering

"I had been troubled with lame back for fifteen years and I found a complete recovery in the use of Chamberlain's Pain Balm," says John G. Bisher, Gilliam, Ind. This liniment is also without an equal for sprains and bruises. It is for sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville.

THE AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEW OF REVIEWS

The more Magazines there are, the more Indispensable is The Review of Reviews

"Indispensable." "The one magazine I feel I must take." "The world under a field-glass." "An education in public affairs and current literature."—these are some of the phrases one hears from noted people who read The Review of Reviews. The more magazines there are, the more necessary is The Review of Reviews, because it brings together the best that is in all the most important monthlies of the world. Such is the flood of periodical literature that nowadays people say that the only way to keep up with it is to read The Review of Reviews. Entirely over and above this reviewing section, it has more original matter and illustrations than most magazines, and the most timely and important articles printed in any monthly.

Probably the most useful section of all is Dr. Albert Shaw's illustrated "Progress of the World," where public events and issues are authoritatively and lucidly explained in every issue. Many a subscriber writes, "This department alone is worth more than the price of the magazine." The unique cartoon department, depicting current history in caricature, is another favorite. The Review of Reviews covers five continents, and yet is American, first and foremost. Men in public life, the members of Congress, professional men, and the great captains of industry who must keep "up with the times," intelligent men and women all over America, have decided that it is "indispensable."

Sulphur an Efficacious and Simple Cure For Diphtheria.

Sulphur is one of the most efficacious and simple cures for diphtheria. All that is needed is flour of sulphur and a quill, and with these, it is said, one celebrated physician cured every patient without exception. He put a teaspoonful of flour of sulphur into a wineglass of water and stirred it with his finger instead of a spoon, the sulphur not readily amalgamating with water. When the sulphur was well mixed, the physician gave it as a gargle, and in ten minutes the patient was out of danger. Sulphur kills every species of fungus in a man, beast and plant in a few minutes. Instead of spitting out the gargle the swallowing of it is recommended. In extreme cases in which the above specialist had been called in the nick of time, when the fungus was too nearly closing to allow the gargling, he blew the sulphur through a quill into the throat and after the fungus had shrunk to allow of it then gave the gargle.

Simple Disinfectants.

Those who object to odors of many of the disinfectants used at the present day will find charcoal unobjectionable on this account, and it is said to absorb gases in a surprising way. Pieces can be laid on plates and put out of sight in a sickroom. The following is another refreshing disinfectant for a sickroom or any room that has an unpleasant aroma pervading it: Put some fresh ground coffee in a saucer, and in the center place a small piece of camphor gum, which light with a match. As the gum burns allow sufficient coffee to consume with it. The perfume is very pleasant and healthful.

Breadcrumbs.

Fried breadcrumbs make a most attractive garnish when scattered over a rib roast or fried fish. To have them as they should be—crisp, golden brown and absolutely free from grease—the crumbs should be thoroughly dried, then rolled and sifted through a coarse sieve, to remove the finer ones, that may be saved for breading or other purposes. Melt a tablespoonful of butter in the spider or use the same amount of olive oil, and when smoking hot put in the crumbs that remain in the sieve. Stir and shake continually over the fire, and as soon as they color take them up.

Hot Slaw.

This is a good way to cook cabbage when a change is needed: Cut a firm, medium sized cabbage in half and cut half of it into thin strips, using a very sharp knife if you have not a regular slicer. Season it with salt and pepper and sprinkle lightly with flour. Put half a tablespoonful each of butter and bacon fat into a saucepan, put in the cabbage and cook for ten minutes, stirring constantly to prevent burning. When done, remove to the back of the range, break in an egg and beat it well. Add vinegar to taste and serve very hot.

Mending Broken China.

Here is a recipe for mending china which has stood the test of long time. The House Beautiful resurrects it. To the article to be mended firmly together and boil in skim milk for an hour. The finest china, being hard throughout, will not join, but the softer pastes will mend perfectly. Dishes so mended may be washed in hot water.

Saved From Terrible Death

The family of Mrs. M. L. Bobbitt of Bargeton, Tenn., saw her dying and were powerless to save her. The most skillful physicians and every remedy used, failed, while consumption was slowly but surely taking her life. In this terrible hour Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption turned despair into joy. The first bottle brought immediate relief and its continued use completely cured her. It's the most certain cure in the world for all throat and lung troubles. Guaranteed Bottles 50c and $1. Trial bottles free at J. L. Wooten's Drug Store.
