New Spring Goods

ARRIVING DAILY.

There is one thing that we do not claim in our business to do and that is to sell goods cheaper than they can be bought—neither do we want to create the impression that our store is full of shop worn, out of style goods nor by filling our store with show bills and sign boards will we try to impress false ideas in your mind that we are going out of business, but we do wish it understood that we are receiving daily shipments of the newest things in

RIBBONS, SILKS, EMBROIDERIES, LACES

and kindred materials so desirable with the women folk of Greenville and Pitt county, and we do hope that you will at least favor us with a visit to see these many new things.

Dreamed That he Was Robbed

Washington, N. C., Feb. 7.—A queer but true story emanates from Aurora, Washington's prosperous neighbor.

Mr. F. F. Cherry, one of the leading merchants there, dreamed recently that his store was broken into and robbed. The dream was a very realistic one, even the identity of the thief being discovered to him. The morning after he went to the store with the spell of the dream still strong on him and to his utter amazement found his dream a realization. A number of articles had been taken, including several watches and a suit of clothes. So strongly impressed was he by the vision that he got out a search warrant which was served on the man of whom he had dreamed. The suspect protested but his trunk was searched and therein were found the stolen articles.

This unusual story is properly vouched for.—Raleigh News and Observer.

The Depot is Consumed.

Asheville, N. C., Feb. 7.—The passenger and freight depot at Waynesville was destroyed by fire at 1 o'clock this morning. The buildings together with the contents were a total loss of nearly $10,000. It is believed that the fire was incendiary origin and that the persons who fired the structure first committed robbery.

New Type.

THE REFLECTOR has just put in a lot of new job type which puts us in better shape than ever to turn out nice job printing. Send us your orders and they will receive prompt attention.

"MAUD MULLER."

The Beautiful Pastoral Play Coming Soon

"Maud Muller, on a summer's day, Raked the meadow sweet with hay,"

"The Judge rode slowly down the lane."

"Drew his bridle in the shade Of the apple trees to greet the maid."

All this is true of the comedy, "Maud Muller" as well as of Whittier's poem. But this is not what happened in the play. "He wedded a wife of richest dower, who liked for fashion." Nor does the hero upon the stage "Sigh, with a secret pain, 'Ah that I were free again.'" Nor did either grave Judge or innocent haymaker have to take up their "Burden of life again, Saying only it might have been."

Maud Muller with its pleasing heart story and its hearty humor, will come to Greenville Monday, February 13th.

Miss Beulah Thompson the popular young actress will appear in title role of "Maud" supported by an excellent company of players with special scenery and magnificent costumes.

Meeting in Methodist Church.

Interest in the series of meetings in progress in the Methodist church increases with each service. Congregations were larger yesterday than they have been since the meetings began. At the morning service, Dr. Comann read and commented on Christ's prayer, recorded in the 17th chapter of the gospel by St. John. At night he delivered an intensely interesting discourse on David and Goliath, 1 Sam, 17th chapter, using David's zeal for God's honor and glory, his faith in God, and his courage borne of that faith and zeal, the preacher made an earnest and powerful appeal to Christians to follow the example of David as recorded in this contest.

At the close of the sermon an invitation to the Christian people to come forward, and by so doing indicate their purpose to pray and work for the success of the efforts now being made in Greenville for the salvation of souls. Quite a number of persons promptly and gladly responded to the proposition, and from their prayers and efforts we expect immediate and glorious results.

Services each day at 11 a. m. and 7:15 p. m. The people of Greenville, regardless of denominational lines, or any other sort of dividing lines, are cordially invited to attend these services. The object in view is, and the only object, God's glory and the salvation of souls.

Adrift and Helpless

Norfolk, Va., Feb. 7.—The United States gunboat Newport is adrift and helpless somewhere off the Virginia coast and her propeller lies at the bottom of the sea.

This report came from the coast to the navy yard today and the naval tug Wahneta was at once dispatched to tow the disabled boat in. The Wahneta returned tonight and reported that the Newport could not be located in a radius of seventy-five miles from the capes and tomorrow the gunboat Hornet will go out to search for the vessel.

The Newport is attached to the Caribbean Squadron and was en route South from Boston under command of Commander Albert Mertz.

TUESDAY, FEB. 7, 1905.

Just as was expected, Gen. Miles' explanation did not explain.

The legislature has passed half its allotted time and the state can soon breathe easier.

There are those who say they know where blind tigers exist, but they lack the backbone to swear to it.

Durham is wishing for the perfection of the flying machine so her people may find a way of reaching the new depot.

Henry Berry Lowry, the notorious outlaw of Robeson county who has long been a fugitive in Mexico, wants to be forgiven and come back home. Strikes us he had better stay where he is. North Carolina has had enough of him.

You will hear something now around legislative quarters. Representative Winborne has introduced a bill to put a tax of $1 per head on dogs. He will be cussed from one end of the state to the other (by dog owners only) but is able to bear it. He is on the right trail and if he trees his bill there ought to be a monument erected to his honor.

When the bill introduced by Representative J. J. Laughinghouse to prohibit the use of Dutch nets in Pamlico river was defeated in the legislature, the Washington Gazette-Messenger said there was much rejoicing in that section. F. H. Von Eberstein writes a strong letter to that paper in which he says the rejoicing is not so general as might be supposed. He declares that the Dutch nets have built up a monopoly as bad as the beef trust, and are depriving many people on the tributaries of the Pamlico of a means of livelihood. The Laughinghouse bill ought to have become law.

Mr. Metcalf, the secretary of Commerce and Labor of the United States, was a guest at the banquet given by the manufacturers' club of High Point, Monday night, and in a speech delivered on that occasion said that North Carolina had made more wonderful progress along certain lines during the past decade than any other state in the union. He gave figures to bear out the assertion. This is a high compliment to the state, and that it has been accomplished by the efforts, the push, the energy of her own people is all the more credit for such achievement. North Carolina is indeed a great state and possesses the possibilities of becoming the leading manufacturing state of the union.

White Horses For Summer.

"Judging a horse," said the city man, "does color play any part?" "There is this thing about color," answered the farmer, "white is best for summer, black is worse." "What is that?" "Well, a white horse stands the heat best," said the farmer. "On an August day, when the sun blazes like a conflagration, when paint blisters, when barefoot children limp because the baked earth burns their feet, and when men and animals fall prostrated, the white horse, amid the pandemonium, is calm, cool, energetic. He neither sweats nor pants. He could hardly be more comfortable were the month November.

"A college professor tells me that there is a reason for this. He says that white throws off the heat rays, the same as a duck's feathers throw off the water. Hence a white horse, in the midst of heat, remains cool. You can get more work out of a white horse in hot weather than out of two of any other color.

"Black, on the other hand, absorbs the heat rays like a sponge. And hence, in July or August, you will, if you are wise, avoid black horses. They are apt to get sun-struck, and at their best they are weak and nervous when it is very warm.

"This idea holds good in human dress. They who wear white in the summer are the most comfortable. They who wear black are the hottest and the most wretched."

THREE JURORS CURED

Of Cholera Morbus with One Small Bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Mr. G. W. Fowler of Hightower, Ala., relates on experience he had while serving on a petit jury in a murder case at Edwardsville, county seat of Cleburne county, Alabama. He says: "While there I ate some fresh meat and some souse meat and it gave me cholera morbus in a very severe form. I was never more sick in my life and sent to the drug store for a certain cholera mixture, but the druggist sent me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy instead, saying that he had what I sent for, but that this medicine was so much better he would rather send it to me in the box I was in. I took one dose of it and was better in five minutes. The second dose cured me entirely. Two fellow jurors were afflicted in the same manner and one small bottle cured the three of us." For sale at Wooten's Drug Store.

Cost Of Producing Cotton.

A short time ago a Northern newspaper printed that Capt. C. N. Allen a leading cotton farmer of Wake county and member of the State Board of Agriculture, had given it as his opinion that he could raise cotton at a cost of five cents a pound. Upon the basis of that statement the paper had a great deal to say about the one hundred per cent profit cotton farmers make when they receive ten cents a pound for cotton.

What are the facts? Capt. Allen interviewed about the matter, said that more than ten years ago when labor, mules, supplies of all kinds were much lower than now, he had made cotton at a cost of a little less than five cents a pound. "But cotton that could be made at five cents then when labor was plentiful and cheap cannot now be made at anything like that price. It costs fifty per cent more now to make it than ten or twelve years ago."

As a matter of fact, some farmers make cotton more cheaply than others, but when you go to get the item of cost from those who say they make it at five cents, in nearly every instance you find that they do not count their own labor or the labor of their children in the total cost. The farmer who sells his cotton at less than eight cents is living on the border line of working for nothing and boarding himself.—Raleigh News and Observer.

No Moore Stomach Troubles

All Stomach trouble is removed by the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It gives the stomach perfect rest by digesting what you eat without the stomach's aid. The food builds up the body, the rest restores the stomach to health. You don't have to diet yourself when taking Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. J. D. Erskine, of Allenville, Mich., says, "I suffered Heartburn and Stomach trouble for some time. My sister-in-law had the same trouble and was not able to eat for six weeks. She lived entirely on warm water. After taking two bottles of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure she was entirely cured. She now eats heartily and is in good health. I am glad to say Kodol gave me instant relief." Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

Cured of Lame After 15 Years of Suffering

"I had been troubled with lame back for fifteen years and I found a complete recovery in the use of Chamberlain's Pain Balm," says John G. Bisher, Gilliam, Ind. This liniment is also without an equal for sprains and bruises. It is for sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville.

The Burdens of the Hour.

God broke our lives to hours and days,
That, hour by hour, day by day,
Just going on a little way,
We might be able all along,
To keep quite strong.

Should all the weights of life
Be laid across our shoulders, and the future, rife

With wars and troubles, meet us face to face

At just one place,
We could not go;

Our feet would stop, and so
God lays a little on us every day.

And never, I believe, in all the way,
Will burdens bear so deep

Or pathway lie so steep
But we can go, if by God's power

We only bear the burdens of the hour.
—Selected.

Tonic to The System.

For liver troubles and constipation there is nothing better than DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. They do not weaken the stomach. Their action upon the system is mild, pleasant and harmless. Bob Moore, of Lafayette, Ind., says, "No use talking, DeWitt's Little Early Risers do their work. All other pills I have used gripe and make me sick in the stomach and never cured me. DeWitt's Little Early Risers proved to be the long sought relief. They are simply perfect." Persons traveling find Little Early Risers the reliable remedy to carry with them. Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

Her First Railroad Ride.

An old lady from Beaver county took her first railroad trip last week. She noticed the bell cord overhead, and, turning to a boy, she said: "Sonny, what's that for?" "That, marm," he said with a mischievous twinkle in his eye, "is to ring the bell when you want something to eat." Shortly afterward the old lady reached her umbrella up to the cord and gave it a vigorous pull. The whistle sounded, the breaks were pulled on, the train began to slacken its speed, windows were thrown up, questions asked and confusion reigned among the passengers. The old lady sat calmly through it all, little dreaming that she was the cause of the excitement. Presently the conductor came through the train and asked: "Who pulled the bell?" "I did," replied the old lady meekly. "What do you want?" asked the conductor, impatiently. "Well, said the old lady, meditatively, "you may bring me some ham sandwiches and a cup of tea, if you will."—Kansas City Journal.

Sour Stomach

When the quantity of food taken is too large or the quality too rich, sour stomach is likely to follow, and especially so if the digestion has been weakened by constipation. Eat slowly and not too freely of easily digested food. Masticate the food thoroughly. Let five hours elapse between meals, and when you feel a fullness and weight in the region of the stomach after eating, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the sour stomach may be avoided. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville.

Worse Things Might Happen.

There is a good deal of wrangling in the Legislature and out over the wisdom of this or that, but it is comforting to reflect that, whatever happens, North Carolina will be quite enduring as a State to live in. Thomas W. Lawson was recently reminded that his fierce attacks on the "system" might result in his losing every cent of his fortune. "Oh, well," said he, "there are worse things than losing one's fortune." So there are. There are worse things for Glenn Williams than to have the distillery town of Williams out of business. The State is full of opportunities for men of brains and the ability to make big enterprises go. For Mr. Williams and all the rest who may not find things going just as they like there is much left to feel satisfied about.—Greensboro Telegram.

An Elephant's Strength.

The elephant is great as a traction power. Experiments have shown that a horse pulls about one-sixth of its own weight, whereas an elephant can pull its entire weight.

An "Established" Business.

When a "long established business" is spoken of, fifty or a hundred years are considered a very respectable continuity in this country.

African Lakes.

In 1859 some distance southeast of Lake Nyassa, in central Africa, Livingstone discovered Lake Shirwa, a body of water about thirty miles long and fifteen miles wide.

Germany's Women Soldiers.

The only European monarch who can boast of having a woman's regiment raised in his honor is the German emperor. Some years ago when the kaiser was hunting in Prussia 800 Lithuanian girls, tall and strong, formed themselves into a mounted bodyguard and offered their services as his escort.

BOSTON'S BLANK BALLOTS.

The ballot law of Massachusetts has been recommended for adoption in other states because it compels the voter to express a preference for each candidate and thus in theory favors "split ticket" voting.

Parker, for president had 10,609 plurality in Boston, but about 6,000 ballots cast were not marked for this office at all. Douglas' plurality was 33,078 in the largest vote cast, but even for governor there were 4,615 blanks.

Evidently the Boston problem is not to get the voters to the polls, but to make them take the trouble to vote right through the "bill of fare" when they are there.

A syndicate of English capitalists is engaged in an endeavor to promote a market in this country for tie silks made chiefly from wood pulp. This product is principally obtained in South America, Paraguay furnishing a large supply.

Electricity and Agriculture.

The application of electricity to general agriculture has been successfully made in southern France and has been followed in Germany on an even greater scale. Power is provided from a central plant, and motors for thrashing grain, grinding flour, pumping water, etc., are rented to proprietors, who find that the work can be more quickly and cheaply done than by the use of horses.

A LITTLE NONSENSE.

The Kind of a Cat That Little Helen Liked Best.

Little Helen while on a visit to her grandmother became rather troublesome in her attentions to the household pet.

As these attentions were not always of the gentlest nature, there was a continued protest from the various members of the family. Grandma would say, "Child, don't maul that cat so!" while the next minute a maiden aunt would call in answer to a piteous meow, "Helen, you really must not tease the cat!"

One day grandma came home from a neighborly visit and announced the interesting fact that the Smiths had a large family of Maltese kittens and ended with, "Helen, dear, they say you can have one of them when they are older if you like."

"What kind of kittens did you say, grandma?" "Maltese. I think they are all Maltese."

"Oh, yes, I'd like one of that kind. Then I can maul and tease it all I want to. Can't I, grandma?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

Too Bad. Mr. De Style—Don't you think bamboo easels pretty?

Mrs. De Style—Yes; they are so light and airy and delicate and so suggestive of nature in its pristine purity. I think they are lovely, but they're disgustingly cheap.—New York Weekly.

Chicken Broth for an Invalid. Remove the skin and fat from half a young fowl, wash and cut into small pieces, put them into a stewpan with one quart of water, bring slowly to the boiling point, skim carefully, then place on the back of the range, where it will simmer for three hours. Strain and season with salt to suit the taste.

Time Table for Boiling Meats. Mutton, per pound, 15 minutes; potted beef, per pound, 30 to 35 minutes; corned beef, per pound, 30 minutes; ham, per pound, 18 to 20 minutes; turkey, per pound, 15 minutes; chicken, per pound, 15 minutes; fowl, per pound, 20 to 30 minutes.

Dusting Furniture. When dusting use a slightly damp cloth, for it will gather up and hold the dust far better than a dry one. This plan, however, should not be followed in the case of black polished furniture, as the damp cloth frequently gives it a smeared appearance.

Disinfect Invalids' Linen. A common cause for the spreading of disease is the fact that invalids' bedclothing is washed with the common laundry. It should always be dipped in a disinfectant before being sent to the laundry.

A Blood Purifier. The simplest blood purifier is a sliced lemon, two tablespoonfuls of black currant preserve and ten red sage leaves to a quart of boiling water. Sweeten to taste and it is not disagreeable.

Speedy Relief

A salve that heals without a scar is DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. No remedy effects such speedy relief. It draws out inflammation, soothes, cools and heals all cuts, burns and bruises. A sure cure for Piles and skin diseases. DeWitt's is the only genuine Witch Hazel Salve. Beware of counterfeits, they are dangerous. Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

Cures dizzy spells, tired feeling, stomach; kidney and liver troubles. Makes you well and keeps you well. That's what Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will do. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets.

When you feel a sense of weight and oppression after meals it means indigestion. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea positively cures indigestion, constipation and stomach troubles. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets.—Wooten's Drug Store.

Mr. Knox—For woman there is. She always speaks before she thinks.

The Trouble With Him.

"I refuse to talk to you, sir!" roared the indignant old father. "If you will come around when you are sober to ask me for my daughter I may consider the matter."

"When I'm sober?" That's all right, old man—think all right. Glad to do it. Only I never seem to want her when I'm sober."—Chicago Record-Herald.

All Fixed.

"Pa," said Miss Strong, "I wish you would stay in this evening. Mr. Tardey will want to speak to you."

"So he has really proposed at last, eh?"

"No," replied the daughter, with an air of determination, "but he will tonight."—Catholic Standard and Times.

A Treat.

"Going gunning, are you? I'll bet you couldn't hit a barn door."

"Mebbe not, but I think I could hit a darn bore, and if you don't run away I'll be tempted to do it."—Philadelphia Ledger.
