New Spring Goods ARRIVING DAILY.

There is one thing that we do not claim in our business to do and that is to sell goods cheaper than they can be bought—neither do we want to create the impression that our store is full of shop worn, out of style goods nor by filling our store with show bills and sign boards will we try to impress false ideas in your mind that we are going out of business, but we do wish it understood that we are receiving daily shipments of the newest things in and kindred materials so desirable with the woman folk of Greenville and Pitt county, and we do hope that you will at least favor us with a visit to see these many new things.

RIBBONS, SILKS, EMBROIDERIES, LACES

Over Twelve Million Ginned.

Washington, Feb. 7.—A report issued by the census bureau today shows the quantity of cotton ginned from the growth of 1904 to January 16, to be 12,767,690 counting round bales. These consist of 12,524,777 square bales, 289,425 round bales and 98,110 sea island. Counting the amount as running bales total is 12,912,312. This was ginned by 39,221 gineries, which were operated at some time this season prior to January 16. North Carolina reported 7,04,801 bales and 2,929 gineries.

Hard Rain.

There was a heavy rain Wednesday night. It settled the ground very well and we hope it may settle the bad weather for a time.

THE WEATHER

Partly cloudy tonight and Friday.

THE LEGISLATURE

WEDNESDAY.

Senator Webb introduced a bill to authorize a bond issue of $500,000 for the purpose of providing sufficient funds to erect the state hospitals for the insane.

Other new bills were to decrease the salary of brigadier generals; to increase the rank of quartermaster general; to relieve ex-Treasurer Worth of loss sustained by failure of a bank in Asheville; to enlarge the powers of the corporation commission.

Among the new bills in the house were these: To regulate fishing in Pamlico and Tar rivers; to amend the law regulating telephone companies; to amend the law concerning hunting by non-residents; to provide the same compensation for county commissioners at special meetings as at regular meetings; to secure accurate reports of cotton crops; to make obtaining goods by false pretense a felony.

Health Condition

The January bulletin of the State board of health says 95 counties now have superintendents of health. The report shows whooping cough in 25 counties, scarlatina in 17, diphtheria 29, but with no great number in any county; typhoid fever 26, this being very prevalent in Madison; influenza in 10, and pneumonia in 22 with a great many cases in Onslow. A case of hydrophobia is reported from Guilford, and one of lock-jaw from the same county. Smallpox is reported in 31 counties, Beaufort 20 cases; Bladen 14, Camden, an epidemic; Cherokee 25, Craven 17, Greene 35, Hertford 45, Lenoir 40, New Hanover, 25, Onslow many, Richmond 20, Sampson 15, Scotland many, Union 21, Wake 46, Wilkes 15. It will be seen that smallpox now prevails from the coast to the Tennessee line. Hog cholera is reported in Brunswick, Clay, Onslow and Sampson, and black-leg in Alleghany, and distemper in horses in Ashe. No diseases were reported in Alexander, Alleghany, Bertie, Rutherford, Chowan, Iredell, McDowell and Polk.

Russian Movement.

Tokio, Feb. 8.—Information from the Sha river indicates that the Russians are concentrating at Chitatisse and Eselishu, west of the Hun river, apparently in anticipation of a movement on the part of the Japanese threatening their lines of supply. Otherwise the situation is unchanged. A general battle is not imminent.

Mukden is crowded with Russian wounded and hospital accommodation is fearfully inadequate. There is also much confusion in the Russian camp. Naturally desertions are on the increase.

Military critics in Tokio consider that the centre of each army is so strongly fortified as to defy assault. The non-success of the Russians in mountain fighting renders it improbable that they will attempt to turn the flank of General Kuroki, who commands the right wing of the Japanese army. Accordingly, despite the defeat the Russians recently sustained, it is considered likely that the Hun valley will be the scene of the crucial struggle.

Prices Reduced.

"Maud Muller" that will be rendered in Masonic Temple opera house, next Monday night, is a high class play but by special arrangement the price has been made 50 cents for reserved seats and 25 cents for the gallery. These prices ought to insure a full house for such a good play.

END OF THE CENTURY BOOK CLUB.

Reported for Reflector

On Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 7th, a number of the ladies of the End of the Century Book Club gathered in the parlors of Hotel Macon, where they were graciously received by Mrs. D. E. House and made welcome as her guests.

It was the occasion of great regret to all the members of the club that the president, Mrs. R. R. Cotten, could not be present. In her absence, the meeting was presided over by the vice president, Mrs. F. G. Hartman.

One item of business under discussion at this meeting should be of interest to the reading public. The interest shown by the people of the town in the public library as indicated by the number of books taken out, is most gratifying. It is the desire of the ladies of the club that the library be kept open every day in the week, and in order to do this a regular librarian becomes a necessity. Plans to this end were discussed, but no definite arrangements can be made until funds are in sight for this purpose.

The literary program consisted of the reading, by Mrs. Artfurf, of an interesting selection from the "Queens of England," finishing the study of the life of Matilda of Flanders.

A number of the club members were detained on account of sickness in their homes, and their absence was noted with much regret.

It was our pleasure to have with us as guests the following ladies: Mesdames T. J. Jarvis, J. A. Ricks, Sam Parham, Haywood Dail, E. A. Tucker, B. W. Moseley and the charming president of the San Sauci club, Miss Pat Skinner.

Delightful refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. J. G. Moye and Mrs. E. B. Ficklen, after which the club adjourned to meet on Feb. 21st at the home of Mrs. F. C. Hardin.

ORMONDSVILLE ITEMS.

ORMONDSVILLE, Feb. 8, 1905.

Listen for more marriages, prospects are very good.

Rev. R. I. Corbitt and wife have just returned from Speights Bridge where they have been visiting his parents.

The snow and extremely cold weather prevented services at Little Creek Free Will Baptist church last Sunday.

Tonnage & Ormand sold about one hundred bales of cotton a few days ago, notwithstanding they paid a much higher price for it, than they received.

As soon as the spring opens a new and commodious building will be built at Little Creek church in place of the small one that has been used for years. This is one of the oldest churches of the Free Will Baptists. Its large membership and congregation demands a larger building.

STOP THE LATE GOING

It was once said of a man that he always went to church late or got up and left hurriedly just to attract attention. Possibly it is the same idea that prompts many people to never be at a place of public amusement on time—just want to be seen. They get seen all right, but the look given them is one of disgust rather than admiration from those in the audience who are annoyed by the late coming. The Greensboro Record says:

"A performance at a theatre might be scheduled to begin at 10 o'clock or even later, yet there would be scores of people to come in long after the curtain was rung up. The only way to stop it would be to close the doors as soon as the curtain is raised and permit no one to enter until the close of the first act. This is done in some places and it works like a charm."

Just why people will persist in annoying others by going late is hard to understand. It is a custom that ought to be stopped and the managers of play houses should make and enforce such rules as will put an end to it. Those who pay their money and go at the proper time to enjoy a play have a right to demand that they be not disturbed by late comers.

Whiskey has won one victory before this legislature. The legislature two years ago incorporated a little place called Advance, in Davie county, to allow a distillery to be located there. A bill was introduced at the present session to prohibit the sale of liquor at Advance and the house committee made an unfavorable report on the bill by a vote of 15 to 11. One remarkable thing about the petitions presented in opposition is that they declared that the order and morality of the town were better than before the distillery was established. A distillery fostering the morals of a community is something new.

High Point has fully demonstrated that there is at least one place that can pull off a successful banquet without having recourse to the cup which both cheers and inebriates—Charlotte Observer.

Durham once did the same thing. At the meeting of the North Carolina Press Association in that city in 1890 (we think that was the year) the editors were given an elegant banquet and not a drop of intoxicants was served.

Two new stars must be added to our national flag, congress having passed a bill to admit two new states. One of these is the state of Oklahoma and embraces Oklahoma and Indian Territory, and the other is the state of New Mexico. Arizona was left out, as that territory did not want to be admitted with New Mexico as one state under the latter name.

A Gaston county man rescued from a mill pond an escaped inmate of the county home, and presented to the county commissioners a bill for $25 for his heroism. The commissioners did not pay the bill.

Grafter Machen and some of his confederates in the postoffice scandals are now in the penitentiary. There are some of the unconvicted who also ought to be with them.

Unless something happens there will be a hanging in Virginia tomorrow with the body of McCue at one end of the rope.

Packages of seed from the congressmen are reminding the people that spring may come along after awhile.

Mrs. Duke has been given her liberty, and Mrs. Chadwick and Miss Patterson are longing for the same.

With the weather record it is making we can be thankful that February is a short month.

What cannot be cured must be endured. That is about the situation on the weather.

If the bill to tax dogs becomes a law there may be more sheep in the state in a few years.

No Moore Stomach Troubles

All Stomach trouble is removed by the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It gives the stomach perfect rest by digesting what you eat without the stomach's aid. The food builds up the body, the rest restores the stomach to health. You don't have to diet yourself when taking Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. J. D. Erskine, of Allenville, Mich., says, "I suffered Heartburn and Stomach trouble for some time. My sister-in-law has had the same trouble and was not able to eat for six weeks. She lived entirely on warm water. After taking two bottles of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure she was entirely cured. She now eats heartily and is in good health. I am glad to say Kodol gave me instant relief." Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

1894 And 1904 From A Political Standpoint.

The Nashville American prints some interesting figures in connection with the electoral vote to be canvassed on February 8th, and that reviewed by the Senate a hundred years ago. Of the 476 electoral votes cast in accordance with the election of last November, 336 were for Roosevelt and 140 for Parker. One hundred years ago, when the Senate canvassed the electoral vote, it found that Thomas Jefferson had received 162 votes, while the candidate of the Federalist party, Pinckney, of South Carolina, received only 14. Eight years before he had been defeated by John Adams by three votes, Adams having received 71 and Jefferson 68. In 1800 Jefferson defeated Adams by eight votes, Adams receiving 65 and Jefferson 73 votes. Commenting on the above disclosed situation, The American says:

"Jefferson's triumph in 1804 was a deathblow to the Federalist party. It never recovered from that defeat, and a few years later ceased to exist, even in name. Proportionately Jefferson's majority of electoral votes was greater than Roosevelt's. After an honorable and useful existence of one hundred years, the Democratic party meets defeat nearly as overwhelming as its triumph of a century ago. Let us hope that, unlike the Federalist party, it will survive such a defeat and gather in strength as it gathers in years."

It is to be hoped that our contemporary is not as despondent regarding the future of the Democratic party as its words imply. Things change a good deal faster nowadays than they did a hundred years ago, and therefore results are more pronounced. The Democratic party, from a national standpoint, has been practically put out of business, it is true, but it will ere long again come into power—just how or when this good fortune is to overtake the country is, however, a matter for future determination. Although its own folks have done all they could to scuttle the ship, it will float again.—Charlotte Observer.

Speedy Relief

A salve that heals without a scar is DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. No remedy effects such speedy relief. It draws out inflammation, soothes, cools and heals all cuts, burns and bruises. A sure cure for Piles and skin diseases. DeWitt's is the only genuine Witch Hazel Salve. Beware of counterfeits, they are dangerous. Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

President Roosevelt has sent to congress a special message recommending that the census bureau be authorized to collect statistics concerning marriage and divorce. The president says: "The hope is entertained that co-operation among the several states can be secured to the end that there may be enacted upon the subject of marriage and divorce uniform laws containing all possible safeguards for the security of the family." The president can accomplish his object by urging the other states to come to South Carolina's position in regard to divorce; otherwise his object can never be attained since South Carolina is not apt to adopt any other plan. "No divorce" is the surest safeguard for the family.—Columbia State

Saved From Terrible Death

The family of Mrs. M. L. Bobbitt of Bargerton, Tenn., saw her dying and were powerless to save her. The most skillful physicians and every remedy used, failed, and she lay on her deathbed, slowly but surely taking her life. In this hour Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption turned despair into joy. The first bottle brought immediate relief and its continued use completely cured her. It is the most certain cure in the world for all throat and lung troubles. Guaranteed Bottles 50c and $1. Trial bottles free at J. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

It is a surprise to learn that among many members of the legislature there is a demand for a wide open divorce law. We thought better of the legislature than that. It will miss a great opportunity to make the Democratic party popular with a very powerful element if it doesn't pass a stringent divorce law. The Democratic party has heeded the voice of the church people to its profit, and it could do so again with a like result.—Greensboro Telegram.

Tonic to The System.

For liver troubles and constipation there is nothing better than DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. They do not weaken the stomach. Their action upon the system is mild, pleasant and harmless. Bob Moore, of Lafayette, Ind., says, "No use talking, DeWitt's Little Early Risers do their work. All other pills I have used gripe and make me sick in the stomach and never cured me. DeWitt's Little Early Risers proved to be the long sought relief. They are simply perfect." Persons traveling find Little Early Risers the reliable remedy to carry with them. Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

Nine Sets of Triplets.

President Roosevelt in a few days will be introduced to a father and mother of 27 children.

George W. Dunville, the father is but 43 years old, and his wife is 38. They live at Yankton, S. D., and are on their way to visit Washington and the President.

The 27 children are nine sets of triplets, 24 of them are boys, and three are girls.

A Very Close Call

"I stuck to my engine, although every joint ached and every nerve was racked with pain," writes C. W. Bellamy, a locomotive fireman, of Burlington, Iowa. "I was weak and pale, without any appetite and all run down. As I was about to give up, I got a bottle of Electric Bitters, and after taking it, I felt as well as I ever did in my life." Weak, sickly, run down people always gain new life, strength and vigor from their use. Try them. Satisfaction guaranteed by J. L. Wooten. Price 50c.

The Lacy relief bill, it will be remembered, passed both Houses some time ago and thus became a law. Later the House rescinded its action and voted for repeal. Last week the Senate by a majority of only two voted against repeal. But on a joint vote a majority of the legislators are against the scheme, and it seems to us that a due sense of propriety would keep Mr. Lacy from taking the money.—Progressive Farmer.

Cures dizzy spells, tired feeling, stomach; kidney and liver troubles. Makes you well and keeps you well. That's what Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will do. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets, Wooten's Drug Store.

Up in Minnesota they are making a hero of a member of the state legislature who refused railroad passes. This may compensate for the man's awful sense of loneliness.—Atlanta Constitution.

CONDENSED STORIES.

When the Brakeman Clashed With His Superintendent.
Walter L. Rice, traveling freight agent of the New Haven road, is known all along the line as a good story teller, says the New York Times. The other day he and a friend who came in on a Shore Line train found a long New York express standing between them and the New Haven station. As they climbed over it Mr. Rice was re-

YOU'RE SMALL ENOUGH TO CRAWL UNDER.
minged of a little story of the days when he worked for the Central Vermont.
"The road used to receive frequent complaints," said he, "that our freight trains were in the habit of stopping on a certain grade crossing in Norwich, blocking travel for long periods. Our superintendent sent out orders several times to stop this blocking, but still the kicks came in. Finally the 'super' decided to investigate personally. He was a midget in size and very excitable. He went down to the crossing, and there, sure enough, in defiance of orders was a long freight anchored squarely across it. A big brakeman, who didn't know the superintendent, sat complacently on top of a car.
"Move that train on!" sputtered the little 'super' to the brakeman. "Get it off the crossing so people can pass! Move it on, I say!"
"The big brakeman surveyed the tempestuous little man from head to foot. 'You go to blazes, you little shrimp,' he replied. 'You're small enough to crawl under.'"

Tom Taggart's Postscript.
Some years ago Tom Taggart of the Democratic national committee had occasion to write to an active political worker in a distant part of Indiana, giving him timely directions concerning the campaign then in progress. Mr. Taggart's typewriter was absent, so he penned the letter in person, though well aware that his chirography belongs to the Horace Greeley school. He wrote carefully on this occasion, however, it being a very important communication, and thought there would be no difficulty. A week later his correspondent was in Indianapolis and called.
"Did you get my letter? Could you read it?" was Mr. Taggart's greeting.
"I got it all right," replied the man, "and didn't have any trouble with any of it except the postscript. That stuck me. Showed it to everybody in town; same result. They all read the letter, but fell down on the postscript."
The man drew the letter from his pocket and handed it to Mr. Taggart, who gave it one quick glance.
"Great guns," gasped Tom, "the postscript says, 'Don't let anybody see this letter!'"—Saturday Evening Post.

Question of Availability.
William L. Alden enjoys telling stories of the troubles experience of a friend who was running a weekly paper in the west. One day there entered the office of Mr. Alden's friend a man of the type common to every town—the individual who has suggestions to offer to the end that the periodical may be made a success.
"My friend," replied the editor, "I must thank you for those bits. They have served to good purpose. The fact is, I am holding them. Now and then I get to thinking that I am not providing the public with as good a paper as I ought to. At such times I look up your articles, which enables me to perceive how much worse the sheet might be. Then I become real cheerful again. Please don't take them from me." he added appealingly.—Denver Republican.

Looking Ahead.
Patience—Charlie is very anxious about his wife.
Patrice—Why, I didn't know he had a wife.
"He hasn't. That's what makes him anxious."—Yonkers Statesman.

THE "FLEA MAN'S" PASSION.

Charles Rothschild of London is known as the "flea man." With an ample fortune, his ambition is to get a complete collection of specimens of all the fleas in the world. His arctic expedition to collect fleas has just returned after a successful four years' cruise with many new varieties.
It was Rothschild who, when Arminius Vambery returned from his central Asian trip, asked him for some Bokhoriot and Turcoman fleas. Vambery had disposed of his; had seen quite enough of them. Perhaps his native servant could accommodate? No. He also was out of stock. Then Rothschild made his final proposal. Would Vambery permit fleas of familiar sorts to be pastured upon his Asiatic servant to see if they would become modified in size, color or structure by change of diet?
Talk of ignorant prejudice against science! Vambery refused.

Soap and Candles.
Candles burn better and more slowly if they have been stored in a dry place six or seven weeks before being used. Soap will go twice as far if well dried. It should be cut into small blocks and these arranged in tiers with spaces between to allow them to dry.

Pointer on Ironing.
Before ironing turn a bacon rimd flesh side up on a board and place a large clean cloth near it. Every time an iron is taken from the fire rub the bottom and edges on it and then on the cloth and there will never be a smut on the most delicate garment.

Whooping Cough Remedy.
For whooping cough make a palatable sirup by slicing onions fine and after sprinkling plentifully with brown sugar allow the onions to stand between hot plates under a press until all the juice is forced out.

Lime in the Jam Closet.
Lime sprinkled on the shelves will keep pickles and jams in the storeroom from becoming moldy. The lime must be renewed occasionally, as it loses its power.

Beef Soup For Invalids.
Take a pint of rich beef stock and stir into it while boiling the yolks of two eggs beaten with half a cupful of cream. Thicken with cooked pearl sago.

The board of aldermen and board of internal improvements will hold a joint meeting tonight to select a superintendent for the water and lights plants and transact other matters relative to the improvements.

The Meeting.

The continued inclemency of the weather is interfering in some measure with the series of meetings in progress in the Methodist church. Yesterday the congregations were small at both the services, but those who attended were greatly encouraged and edified by the discourses.

At the morning service Dr. Co-mann gave an interesting and helpful exposition of the 12th chapter of 1st Corinthians. At the evening service his text was selected from the Gospel by St. Matthew, 1:21. "And thou shalt call His name Jesus, (Saviour) for He shall save His people from their sins." For nearly an hour, and with great earnestness, the preacher expounded the truth of the Gospel as contained in this wonderful text, showing how Christ saves sinners from and not in their sins.

Services each day at 11, a. m., and 7:15, p. m. A cordial invitation is extended to the people of Greenville to attend these services.

Dear Sir: Will you be so goodly for selling adulterated paint to your store!

What is adulterated paint? Is clay paint? Is chalk paint? Is barytes paint? Is lime paint? Is benzine? Is water? Is soap? Is mud?

We know what is; what is not is the question. Apparently nothing is not; but we're only a paint-manufacturer, not a lawyer. Devotee is paint, all paint; and full measure; no whitewash; no nothing. We know what is; what is not is the question.
