New Spring Goods

ARRIVING DAILY.

There is one thing that we do not claim in our business to do and that is to sell goods cheaper than they can be bought—neither do we want to create the impression that our store is full of shop worn, out of style goods nor by filling our store with show bills and sign boards will we try to impress false ideas in your mind that we are going out of business, but we do wish it understood that we are receiving daily shipments of the newest things in and kindred materials so desirable with the women folk of Greenville and Pitt county, and we do hope that you will at least favor us with a visit to see these many new things.

THE LEGISLATURE.

FRIDAY.

After a stormy debate on the Ward bill, which is an amendment to the Watts law, that measure passed its second reading in the senate by a vote of 25 to 16. Senator Fleming made a fight for his substitute but found that sentiment was against him and withdrew it.

Mr. Fleming said in advocating his substitute that he was in favor of police regulation for the sale and manufacture of whiskey, and was in favor of the Watts law, and its interpretation by the Democratic platform, and is in favor of abolishing every town that does not carry out the provisions of the Watts act. He declared he was opposed to the Ward bill, saying it was in violation to the principles of the Democratic party, and against the temperance people, and he therefore offered his substitute, not offending the temperance people, but showing them the true temper of the temperance cause. He declared the Ward bill was a fraud upon its face.

Mr. Ward, author of the bill, owing to physical disabilities, said he was unable to speak as he wished but said when Mr. Fleming posed as the champion of the temperance forces and the advocate of the Democratic party and the spokesman of the senate, he was mistaken and self-deluded. His own bill had been pending a great many days, and every newspaper in the State had favored it, not one word had been spoken in opposition to it.

The Fleming substitute is a miserable failure, and it was introduced to kill the Ward bill. But if Mr. Fleming has made promises to the distilleries of Pitt county, he has performed his duty well, and Mr. Fleming has used intemperate language with all his intellectual and physical power.

A large number of new bills were introduced in the house, but they were all of a local nature. Representative Laughinghouse offered a bill to protect wood and timber lands from fire.

MONDAY EVENING FEB. 13.

The Great Maud Muller Company Supporting Miss Beulah Thompson.

The beautiful pastoral play "Maud Muller", which will be presented at Masonic Temple Opera House Monday night, will no doubt prove to be the banner attraction of the season. Every school boy or girl has read Whittier's beautiful poem on which the play is founded.

Miss Beulah Thompson, the popular little actress, who will appear with the "Maud Muller Company" in the title role of "Maud", is said to be a great beauty and accomplished little actress. She will render some choice up-to-date songs during the play. She was especially engaged for the part of "Maud Muller" several months ago.

There will be special scenery, etc. The costuming is said to be magnificent. Miss Thompson will be supported by a strong company.

THE MEETING.

Interest Deepens With Each Service—Business Houses Close for Evening Service.

The congregations yesterday at the Methodist church were larger than they had been since the series of meetings began. Those who hear Dr. Comann once are anxious to hear him again. In all his discourses he sticks close to the Word of God. He realizes his dependence upon the Spirit of God for real power; and God honors his simple faith and gives to the messages he delivers an unction that is not of earth.

His text yesterday morning was St. John, 7:17, "If any man will do His will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself." The discourse based upon this text was exceedingly helpful to all who heard it. He emphasized the important truth that God communicates special illumination to those who yield themselves entirely to His will, and to them only.

At night he selected his text from the Gospel by St. John, 3:5, "Jesus answered, verily, verily, I say unto thee, except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the Kingdom of God." Based upon this text, and supported by numerous passages quoted from other parts of the Old and New Testament, Dr. Comann delivered one of the most powerful sermons ever heard in Greenville, and the close attention paid to every word of the discourse by the large congregation, testified to the fact that they realized that the speaker was saying something worthy of their attention.

From now on to the close of the meeting all the business houses in town will close for the evening services. The ladies will hold a prayer service at 3:30, p. m., each day, and we expect gracious results from the services to follow.

Tomorrow Dr. Comann will preach at 11 a. m. and at 7:30 p. m. At 3:30 p. m. he will deliver a special sermon, or address, to the Sunday school and Epworth League. Let every member of both the Sunday school and the league be present if possible.

HOW HICKS STOOD.

His Predictions for February Weather and How They Turned Out

The weather predictions of the Rev. I. R. Hicks are backed on all over the country. One thing most people do not notice in his forecast—he never predicts good weather; he is always betting on the devil and high water; he seldom finds anything good, if he does he says nothing about it. What he predicted for February is that there will be five storm periods. The first will strike the east about February 3rd or 5th; the second about the 9th or 10th; third will be February 15th or 18th; the fourth on the 19th to 21st, and the fifth on the 26th to 28th.

Of these the fourth, he declares, will be the most violent, and will comprise two storms. One of these will originate on the gulf, and he was all concerned to take due notice. Many coasts will be exposed to the gales and violent tidal waves will around.

Continuing, he says: "The barometer will drop to low readings over most parts of the country, and general rain and snow will visit the country within six hours of 8 p. m. on the 19th. High gales and a sweeping blizzard out of and over the north west should be counted imminent probabilities, all followed by high barometer and far reaching cold wave."

The man who is always predicting will hit it sometimes; he cannot miss everything. This is Hicks.—Greensboro Record.

TEACHERS' MEETING.

They Enjoy the Class Work—Prizes Awarded.

There was a large attendance today at the monthly meeting of the teachers association. The exercises were varied from former meetings and the work today was by classes in arithmetic, reading, geography and other studies. It was exactly like a model school and all present received much enjoyment as well as benefit from the work. The teachers of Pitt county are certainly up with the times in their methods and they are placing the schools of the county in the front rank.

Before the meeting closed the winners of the prizes for best essays on North Carolina history was announced. The first prize, the Mary Octavia Grimes medal, was awarded to Miss Lala Chapman and was presented in an eloquent speech by Solicitor L. I. Moore. The second prize, a gold pen, was awarded to Miss Novella Bunting and was presented in a timely speech by Prof. T. H. King, president of the teachers association.

These annual prizes are stimulating much interest in history on the part of the school children. THE REFLECTOR hopes to publish the two winning essays that our readers may have the benefit of them.

WINTERVILLE ITEMS

WINTERVILLE, N. C. Feb. 11, 1905

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Fair and Miss Julia Bready, of Ayden and Mrs. John A. Cox, of Louisburg, W. Virginia and Miss Ida Bready, of Adamstown, Md., were visitors of our town Wednesday.

Mrs. J. H. Smith went to Grindool Friday to see her daughter, Mrs. G. L. Moore, who is quite sick.

Another new student at the dormitory. She is a Miss Lineberry and Prof. Lineberry is all smiles.

The no fence law is being agitated here again. The only objection we can see to the boundary lines is that its friends are trying to please everybody. Let it go slow, gentlemen, or you may end up by pleasing nobody and thus defeat a good thing.

For the past few days Winterville and the surrounding country has had all kinds of weather.

Josephus Cox and G. R. Dixon went to Greenville Thursday.

Fernando Tucker, our new constable, seems to have plenty to do. Miss Lallah Chapman, daughter of Mayor R. G. Chapman and a student of the W. H. S. has won the Bryan Grimes medal for best essay on N. C. history.

Misses Helen Galloway, Mrytie Proctor, Arlie and Bertha Moore left for Home.

Misses Mollie Bryan, Hulda Cox, Lallah Chapman, Leila Roach, Bonnor Kittrell, Bessie Pugh, Clyde Harrison, Josie St. Clair, Rennie Peele went to Greenville today.

At the Christian Church.

At the Christian church tomorrow services will be held as usual. Sunday school at 10 a. m. preaching by the pastor 11 a. m. subject, Duty vs. Inclination.

Christian Endeavor at 6:15 p. m. led by J. G. Latham, and preaching by the pastor at 7:15, subject, Profit and Loss. All are cordially invited. H. H. Moore, pastor.

Miss Carrie Wray, who has been one of the teachers in the graded school, left this morning for her home in Shelby.

Rev. W. E. Cox went to Grifton Friday evening.

Overcoats Ordered Out of the House.

Here's the first "toot" of our OVERCOAT Special.

Time's Up and the Coats Must Go

If you want a Coat step lively, please. If you knew that we were giving away $5 bills you would come in for your share, wouldn't you? Well it's just what we're doing, and sometimes we give away even more. We are closing out our Overcoats. We won't carry them over. It certainly isn't good business to do so. Our overcoat prices are cut to the cost and often less.

Now is the Time to Buy an Overcoat.

Here are a few of our cut prices in order to give you an idea of what's doing here. There are others.

As to Railroad Fare.

The present law requires railroads to sell first and second class fares. The railroads wish to change and to have a single fare of three cents a mile, which would reduce the first class fare from 3-14 cents and increase the second class fare from 2-3-4 cents, thus imposing an increase of a quarter of a cent a mile on the poorest people who travel. Mr. Laughinghouse, of Pittsboro, has introduced a bill, permitting the abolition of two classes, and making the straight passenger fare two and one half cents. Pending the consideration of that, a bill has been introduced striking out the provision in the present laws making a requirement that railroads shall sell first and second class tickets, with no provision for reducing the rate of fare.

That is not the way to handle this important matter. The Legislature ought either to pass the Laughinghouse bill or refer the entire matter to the Corporation Commission with power to act.—Raleigh News and Observer.

No Moore Stomach Troubles

All Stomach trouble is removed by the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It gives the stomach perfect rest by digesting what you eat without the stomach's aid. The food builds up the body, the rest restores the stomach to health. You don't have to diet yourself when taking Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. J. D. Erskine, of Allenville, Mich., says, "I suffered Heartburn and Stomach trouble for some time. My sister-in-law had the same trouble and was not able to eat for six weeks. She lived entirely on warm water. After taking two bottles of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure she was entirely cured. She now eats heartily and is in good health. I am glad to say Kodol gave me instant relief." Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

If there be one demand the people of North Carolina have made upon the present legislature more than any other, it is to revise the divorce laws. Every religious organization in the state has formally asked for it; the press of the state has been continually crying out for it; and in other ways the wishes of the people have become known unmistakably. Yet for some reason or other, the legislature has done nothing and they do not seem much inclined to do anything. On the other hand, in certain quarters, it seems that there is a desire to make divorce easier instead of harder. The senate judiciary committee has actually recommended two additional causes for divorce to be embodied in the law. It is scarcely to be believed that this can pass, but it is more conceivable how the judiciary committee in the face of the demands coming from almost every quarter could have made the recommendation.—Charlotte News.

A Very Close Call

"I stuck to my engine, although every joint ached and every nerve was racked with pain," writes C. W. Bellamy, a locomotive fireman of Burlington, Iowa. "I was weak and pale, without any appetite and all run down. As I was about to give up, I got a bottle of Electric Bitters, and after taking it, I felt as well as I ever did in my life." Weak, sickly, run down people always gain new life, strength and vigor from their use. Try them. Satisfaction guaranteed by J. L. Wooten. Price 50c.

You scarcely move in your berth as the train rattles over the switches but out in the cold somebody is alert and awake and almost freezing, but attending to his duty every instant.

How would you like to be a track walker, with the thermometer touching 8 below and the arctic breeze howling? He is covering lonely miles, scanning every foot of the way, for your safety, and he doesn't know that he is a hero, because that is his job.

And there are the men who test wheels and brakes, and those who handle the coal, and the crews of the long freight trains and hundreds more who are forced to work under conditions that would make cowards of men less strong.

They haven't asked for any medals. They do not expect them. They are content to belong to the uniformed army.

But they are heroes, and if the world that is so often too busy for sentiment will only stop to think, it will raise its hat in recognition of their courage and their fidelity to duty.—Atlanta Journal.

There is a chance for some North Carolina legislator to become famous by introducing a bill to prohibit tipping; somewhat similar to the one which was adopted by the Missouri Legislature soon after the close of the great fair at St. Louis. An anti-tipping bill has been introduced in the New York Legislature, which not only prohibits the acceptance of small gifts by servants but also imposes a fine on all who so attempt to influence servants employed in hotels, on railroads and in other public places. The time may never come when the tipping custom is wiped out but the country is in need of urgent reform along this line and legislation of the nature suggested above would no doubt have a tendency to lessen the tipping nuisance.—Wilmington Dispatch.

Tonic to The System.

For liver troubles and constipation there is nothing better than DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. They do not weaken the stomach. Their action upon the system is mild, pleasant and harmless. Bob Moore, of Lafayette, Ind., says, "No use talking, DeWitt's Little Early Risers do their work. All other pills I have used gripe and make me sick in the stomach and never cured me. DeWitt's Little Early Risers proved to be the long sought relief. They are simply perfect." Persons traveling find Little Early Risers the reliable remedy to carry with them. Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

That vagrancy law is one of the best measures that has been introduced in the Legislature this session. We need a stringent law that will put worthless negroes and no-account white people to work or on the county chain gang.—Mt. Olive Tribune.

Saved From Terrible Death

The family of Mrs. M. L. Bobbitt of Bargerton, Tenn., saw her dying and were powerless to save her. The most skillful physicians and every remedy used, failed, while consumption was slowly but surely taking her life. In this terrible hour Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption turned despair into joy. The first bottle brought immediate relief and its continued use completely cured her. It's the most certain cure in the world for all throat and lung troubles. Guaranteed Bottles 50c and $1. Trial bottles free at J. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

Speedy Relief

A salve that heals without a scar is DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. No remedy effects such speedy relief. It draws out inflammation, soothes, cools and heals all cuts, burns and bruises. A sure cure for Piles and skin diseases. DeWitt's is the only genuine Witch Hazel Salve. Beware of counterfeits, they are dangerous. Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

Wonderful Nerve

Is displayed by many a man enduring pains of accidental Cuts, Wounds, Bruises, Burns, Scalds, Sore feet or stiff joints. But there's no need for it. Bucklen's Arnica Salve will kill the pain and cure the trouble. It's the best salve on earth for Piles, too. 25c at J. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

Coughs And Colds

All coughs, colds and pulmonary complaints that are curable are quickly cured by One Minute Cough Cure. Clears the phlegm, draws out inflammation and heals and soothes the affected parts, strengthens the lungs, wards off pneumonia. Harmless and pleasant to take. Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

Report of Terrible Explosion.

Birmingham, Ala., Feb. 9.—A terrific explosion at a dynamite plant at Boyles, five miles north of Birmingham, tonight wrecked the plant and broke windows and extinguished all lights within a radius of two miles, but so far as learned no one was killed. The shock was felt for twenty-five miles. Every avenue for obtaining details is cut off tonight.

Down this way we thought it was very bad weather, and so it was. But it was mild to what struck the central and western portions of the state.

The Legislature has passed the halfway post, and now pray tell us what it has done?—Wilmington Dispatch.

Drawn its pay.

The town of Littleton wants to close its dispensary and have prohibition. That is the goal that all dispensaries should be the stepping stone to.

The Louisburg Times has entered its 35th year, and J. A. Thomas has edited it for twenty-eight years. It is one of the oldest weekly papers in the state and ranks with the best.

A business that has to be hedged about and legislated about as much as the liquor traffic is a bad business. The whole country would be better off by stopping the business entirely.

John Tharpe, a white man who is an old offender, was before the mayor for being drunk and disorderly. He faithfully promised Mayor Springer that if he would suspend judgment on him he would leave the city at once. The mayor thought the best thing for the community would be to accept Tharpe's proposition, so he was told to get out of town at once and he would escape the punishment he would otherwise receive, in all probability a term on the roads.—Wilmington Messenger.

That was a poor way to dispose of an offender, if he had committed deeds that deserved punishment, he should have been punished in accordance with his offence. Suspending judgment on condition that he leave town was only sending him away to be a menace to some other town. This method of disposing of bad men should be stopped.

THE UNNOTICED HEROES.

Yes, the world is full of heroes, and some of the bravest—the men whose names seldom find a place in print—are the fellows who simply do their duty, day by day, and do not even realize that humanity owes them recognition.

The policeman saves a life, the fireman enters a burning building to rescue a child. There are thrills in those things. They are spectacular. There is a bit of the red fire of the stage about them.

But did you ever stop to think of that army that operates the railroads in these days and nights when the killing frost squeaks under foot and it is so cold that you can scarcely breathe?

There is the engineer, on his ice and snow covered engine, who knows the chance of disaster and who pounds along in the darkness, a mile a minute, for the schedule must be maintained and the weather obstacles are not allowed to count.

CONDENSED STORIES.

Why Kernell's Understudy Did Not Report For Duty.

Charley Davis, the theatrical manager, has had many peculiar experiences during his long and varied career, says the St. Louis Globe-Democrat. One of them occurred while he was acting as manager for the late John Kernell, the well known Irish comedian. Kernell had many lovable traits; but, like some other "good fellows," he was often his worst enemy and would go on a rack-et just when he was needed to go upon the stage. While the company was in an eastern city Manager Davis ran across a very bright young man, who was engaged as the understudy for Kernell. In less than a week after that, just as the curtain was about to be rung up, the manager cried out, "Where is Kernell?"

"ALL RIGHT. WHERE IS HIS UNDERSTUDY?"

A member of the company, who was standing near by, said, "I'm afraid that John has gone out to paint the town red."

Quick as a flash Davis cried out: "All right. Where is his understudy?"

The man looked up in a melancholy way and said:

"I am sorry to say that Mr. Kernell's understudy has gone out with him to assist in painting the town."

Davis was furious, and he exclaimed hotly:

"Well, I suppose that hereafter when we engage an understudy it will also be necessary to hire an understudy for the understudy."

No Use Dodging.

Lute Morse tells a story about a green recruit from the old sod who was walking with his brother through a railroad cut on a pleasant Sunday afternoon. When a train came up behind them and whistled the experienced Irishman clambered up the bank, while his brother struck off down the track as hard as he could run, only to be overtaken and tossed forty rods by the cowcatcher. The brother rushed to his side and shouted:

"Moike, are ye hurted?"

"Sure! I'm killed entirely."

"Why didn't ye climb the bank?"

"Well, if I couldn't bate it on the level," snorted the wounded Irishman, "how the divil could I bate it climbing hills?"—Nebraska State Journal.

Appropriate.

Once during his second term Cleveland was asked to speak at a function in a certain town, and when he arrived at the depot the wind was blowing a gale, sleet was driving and hailstones nearly as large as marbles were fiercely falling. Of course the inevitable brass band was there, and at the sight of the president the performers struck up with all the strenuousness at their command.

"That is the most realistic music I ever heard," remarked Cleveland. "What are they trying to play?" asked Secretary Olney, who accompanied him.

"Hail to the Chief!" replied the president, with a cheerful smile.—Philadelphia Ledger.

The Difference.

Commissioner Woodbury of the New York department of street cleaning tells this anecdote of a friend of his who was walking through Central park one day. Being in somewhat of a hurry, he started to cut across the grass at one place, but was stopped by a park policeman, who remonstrated with him.

"What difference does it make?" asked the New Yorker. "The grass is half dead anyway."

"Sure, an' what if it is?" responded the indignant guardian of the peace. "Sure, an' if yez had a sick friend would yez be takin' a walk on his stomach?"—New York Times.

Bathing Baby.

If baby shows a tendency to take cold on the slightest provocation, follow its daily bath with an alcoholic rub. Many mothers can testify that children treated this way are absolutely free from colds.

AN ANTITOXIN FOR FATIGUE.

Should the development of the study of toxins and antitoxins render possible the production of an antibody capable of neutralizing the results of muscular fatigue the consequences could hardly be predicted. Yet a German investigator seriously claims to have taken more than one step in this direction already and publishes results that are at least surprising.

Weichardt (Munchener Medizinische Wochenschrift, Nov. 29, 1904) says he has obtained a stable antitoxin which when taken by the mouth in moderate doses permits the output of an increased amount of muscular energy without fatigue and when taken continuously causes a sense of general bien eire and augments the capacity for work. He commends his preparation to clinicians as a promising analeptic for convalescents, neurasthenics, etc. This fatigue antitoxin is obtained from horses by injecting them with fatigue toxin produced in the muscles of animals that have been subjected to extreme muscular exhaustion.—Medical Record.

Not Worth the Price.

A messenger boy who takes very literally the statement in our Declaration of Independence that all men are born free and equal walked into Senator Depew's presence the other day with a note, which he threw down before the senator with scant ceremony. Mr. Depew looked a little surprised, but he said nothing.

However, when the boy proceeded to drum upon the desk and hum an air from "Woodland" Mr. Depew looked up with a frown and asked sternly:

"Young man, do you think this is a music hall?"

The boy looked about the room contemptuously. "I guess not," he said. "I wouldn't pay a quarter to come in here."—New York Press.

Roosevelt and a Policeman.

Jacob Riis has been telling about some of Theodore Roosevelt's experiences as police commissioner in New York. On one occasion an officer was charged with drunkenness while on duty. He appeared before the commissioner with eleven children, all dressed up for the occasion. When asked what he had to say for himself the man replied: "Mr. Roosevelt, these are my children. They have no mother. That is all I have to say, sir." He was sent back to duty with a caution. Later Mr. Roosevelt learned that the officer was not even married, but had borrowed the children. But the experience did him good, for he is now a captain and rated as among the most efficient officers on the force.

The Sinews of War.

Major General Corbin tells the following with reference to a member of the militia of a northern state taking part in the army maneuvers at Manassas: The guardsman was one day making heroic efforts to get away with his first ration of army beef. A fellow soldier walking near him stopped to watch, with some amusement, the attempt of the northerner to masticate the meat. "What's the matter, Bill?" asked he. "Oh, nothin' much," was the sullen reply. Then, disgustfully regarding a piece of the beef that he held in his hand, the Yankee added, "Now I know what people mean when they talk about the sinews of war."

A Striking Simile.

"The originality of some of your expressions is very, very refreshing," said John Morley, the visiting Englishman, in speaking of his observations. "As I was standing at one of the entrances to your new subway in New York a man passed me who apparently had gone through the demoralizing experience of being part of a jostling, energetic crowd. His companion asked him, 'Well, how do you feel now after going through the tunnel?' 'I feel as the porker must feel,' answered the man, pushing a few dents out of his hat, 'who has just been forced through a sausage skin.'"

Relics of President Kruger.

Among the articles of "movable property" left by President Kruger when he died were inventoried: One bottle of snuff, one tall silk hat, one black ear tube, various palm books, a large Bible, six smaller Bibles, eight button decorations, a purse containing one Transvaal sovereign, one Transvaal half sovereign, one Transvaal shilling and one straw hat.

Potato Soup.

Wash, pare and cut four medium sized potatoes into small pieces, cover with cold water, add a teaspoonful of salt and cook until done. Have ready a pint of milk scalded in a double boiler, together with a teaspoonful of chopped onion and a little celery or celery seed. Take the potatoes from the fire, turn off the water, mash, pour the hot milk on them and mix well. Season to taste, thicken with a tablespoonful of butter melted with a tablespoonful of flour, add a tablespoonful of minced parsley and serve with crackers or croûtons.

ALL OVER THE HOUSE.

To Wash Flannels Without Injuring the Wool Fibers.

The secret of washing flannels so that they will outlast several seasons lies in keeping the fiber of the wool uninjured.

It must not have the natural oil boiled out of it, nor must the fibers be broken by hard twisting when being wrung by hand. There is no reason why woolen undergarments should not be washed as often as any others, but they must not be left in water or in a wet state any longer than is necessary, for it is wetting that shrinks them. So flannels must never be boiled or put into boiling water. Neither must they be soaked before washing.

The less they are rubbed the better. Rubbing wool knots the hairs and hardens the surface. They must not be dried very near the fire nor in very fierce sunshine. This shrinks them.

Woolens should be washed and hung out to dry as quickly as possible. Leaving them lying about in wet heaps shrinks them.

Four ounces of a pure soap to a gallon of water will produce a strong cleansing solution. Shred the soap thinly into a tub and pour the boiling water over it. Do not put in the flannels until the soap has dissolved and the mixture is cool enough to bear the hand comfortably.

Then thoroughly shake each article free from dust, put them into the tub and sluice and squeeze them in the water till they are clean.

Culinary Lore.

Olive oil should be put into a dark corner.

New bread may be cut as easily as stale if the knife be heated in hot water.

Hot milk added to potatoes when mashing them will keep them from being soggy or heavy.

Before boiling milk or making any sauce with milk always rinse out the saucepan in cold water. Celery should lie at least an hour in cold water or upon ice before being served in order to be firm and crisp.

For Falling Hair.

Castor oil, one dram; hydrochlorate of quinine, half a dram; tincture of cantharides, one dram; alcohol, two ounces; rose water to fill up to four ounces. Shake before rubbing into the roots of the hair every other evening. Part the hair and rub into the parting with a small square of linen; make second parting three-fourths of an inch from the first and rub into that, and so on until the entire scalp has been treated.

Glycerin For Indigestion.

Glycerin is a really valuable remedy for indigestion, and in the course of a few days or at most of a fortnight a sufferer may expect to be cured. Mix a small teaspoonful of pure glycerin with water and take it with or immediately after each meal. Of course the patient should also use discretion in the selection and in the amount of food, for if the diet be at fault it is folly to expect health.

OUR GREAT 1905 OFFER

We have purchased a number of annual subscriptions to the Southern Agriculturist, and, as long as they last, we will give one, free of charge, to every subscriber who pays for The Eastern Reflector a full year IN ADVANCE. If you are in arrears, pay up and for a year ahead, and get this valuable present. If you are not already a subscriber, send in your order at once, before this great offer is withdrawn.

SOUTHERN AGRICULTURIST

Is published at Nashville, Tenn. It is issued 24 times a year, and the subscription price is 50 cents. It contains more reading matter than most dollar papers and is edited by Southern men who know the needs of Southern farmers. Every issue is like a big experience meeting, the farmers' questions being answered by such men as Maj. Thos. J. Key, former Assistant Commissioner of Agriculture of Alabama, and Prof. Andrew M. Soule, Director of the Virginia Experiment Station. The Home Department is conducted by Aunt Anne, whom all readers soon learn to love.

WE OFFER $1.50 IN VALUE FOR $1.00

DEPARTMENT STORE.

BROWN STAMPS

Have Come to Greenville.

The best store in town offers them to you on your cash purchases. Every dime you spend there will do extra service henceforth—service that will please and benefit you.

Since you must spend money spend it so that you get full returns. And unless each ten cents in cash put out brings a BROWN STAMP in, you are not getting full value for your money.

Brown Stamps are like compound interest. They accumulate without effort on your part, and the splendid premiums they bring will leave many a dollar free for pleasure or for saving. Just such things as you would otherwise have to buy are offered for Brown Stamps and it takes but 500 stamps to give you your free choice of whatever you can best use or most need.

WE GIVE YOU $1.00 WORTH, 10 STAMPS, FREE with each new book. Unless you already have one, call at our store and get it and the $1.00 worth of free stamps. That dollars worth rolls up like a snow ball down hill, and presto! almost before you know it you have $50.00 worth a book full. Just keep the ball rolling every time you spend cash; spend it where Brown Stamps are given; and ALWAYS ASK FOR BROWN STAMPS.

This store wants your trade—your steady trade—your Cash Trade. It offers low prices, splendid service and Brown Stamps in exchange. You cannot afford to accept less. Therefore you should deal here.

The Stamps do not apply on purchases of Groceries and Provisions.
