=Progress.=

Progress is the law of life. When things animate cease to grow to betterment, decay begins. The store which stands still is dead. The good store of yesterday is commonplace today and out-of-date tomorrow. Eternal effort is the price of progress. To do better today the thing done well yesterday, to serve better today the public which we served well yesterday, is the day-by-day labor of this store.

Expect for Coming Season the Newest Things.

We will have the best the mill can make.

THE LEASE ON WINTER GOODS IS OUT.

They want new homes, we are treating them bad by cutting the price. They have been ordered out and must go. The prices will pay well for your hospitality.

THE LEGISLATURE.

THURSDAY.

The senate passed the scales bill for the establishment of a reformatory for criminal youths. The bill carries with it an appropriation of $50,000.

No new bills of importance were introduced. Quite a number of bills passed third reading.

There were a number of new bills in the house, but they were as void of general interest as were the senate bills.

Representative Laughinghouse offered a bill to establish a stock law around Winterville.

STATE NEWS.

An 8 year-old son of State Senator Beasley, of Pasquotank county, mysteriously disappeared from home last Monday and has not yet been found.

In Wilson Thursday evening R. O. Pickard, superintendent of the cotton mills, was killed by Wiley House and Charles Norton. The murderers were captured.

Nathan Bullard, of Sampson county, working at his saw mill, was killed by the saw catching a large splinter and driving it into his brain through an eye.

Extra Session Likely.

Washington, Thursday, 16.—If the senate does not pass the Townsend rate bill at this session the president will surely call an extra session of congress in the fall to wrestle with the problem. This announcement was made today by Senator Townsend after he had a talk with President Roosevelt about the bill.

"The Senate committee on Interstate Commerce is about equally divided on the matter," said Senator Townsend, "but if we can get it reported to the whole body it will pass without any doubt."

Explosion on a Boat.

Queenstown, Thursday, 16.—An explosion occurred this morning on the British submarine boat known as Five, which was in this harbor. It is reported that six of those aboard were killed.

The explosion occurred while the officers were filling a gasoline tank. A second explosion occurred as the party of eleven rescuers were bringing up the dead and injured from the hold. The original crew of the submarine boat numbered ten. The total casualties, including those among the rescuers, is said to be twenty.

Cotton Growers Convention.

The rail roads will give a rate of one fare plus twenty-five cents to persons attending the cotton growers and business men's convention to be held in Raleigh the 21st inst. Tickets will be put on sale the 20th and 21st, to reach Raleigh not later than noon on the 21st; good to return on any train up to and including the 23rd. This will be an important convention and should be attended by good delegations from each cotton growing county in the State.

Two Papers For Price of One.

Some of our readers who have taken advantage of the offer to get the American Agriculturist free by paying a year's subscription to THE REFLECTOR in advance, have expressed themselves as well pleased with the premium. The Agriculturist is of special value to the farmer, and all who want it should not delay, as supply to be given free is limited.

Fire at Lewiston.

In a fire that occurred at Lewiston, last night or this morning, every store there was destroyed but G. W. Baker's. A telegram stating this was received here from Mr. Baker today, but no particulars of the fire were given.

PERSONALS AND SOCIAL.

Jesse Speight went to Washington today.

W. H. Hackney went to Kingston Thursday evening.

Miss Sudie Joyner came in Thursday evening from Hassell.

The condition of J. B. Cherry, Sr., is not so favorable today as yesterday.

Little Miss Lucile Randolph is visiting her aunt, Mrs. L. B. Randolph, in South Greenville.

C. G. Joyner, of Baltimore, who has been visiting his sister, Mrs. J. A. Lang, left this morning.

Mrs. F. M. Smith and daughter, Miss Dora, returned Thursday evening from a visit to Norfolk.

Misses Iva Winstead, of Rocky Mount and Rosa Wells, of Wilson, are visiting their grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. King.

O. W. Patterson and B. S. Sheppard, of Rocky Mount, spent Thursday here. They will establish an insurance office in Greenville.

Truckers and Gardeners Should Plant Largely of Early Peas.

The severe weather which we have experienced during February, and which has extended far down into Florida, is going to make a considerable shortage in early green vegetables, and on this account our markets will be very bare of green vegetables until late in the season. Indications are that the earliest crops of green vegetables will sell at good prices, both in home markets and in the large cities North.

The opportunity presented to our Southern truckers and gardeners to make money out of peas and other early truck crops is one that they should not fail to take advantage of. Early peas are one of the first crops to come in and can be safely planted just as soon as the ground can be gotten ready.

Telephone Directory.

We have received from General Manager F. C. Toepelman a new and complete directory of the Eastern Carolina and Virginia exchange and toll stations of the Home, Carolina, Inter State and Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Companies showing connection with the long distance lines of the American and the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Companies. The many points reached shows the rapid development of the telephone system throughout this Eastern section.

Hawkes.

The celebrated Atlanta optician will be at Coward & Wooten's drug store for 3 days only beginning Feb. 25.

He is maker of Hawkes crystalized lenses and will test your eyes free. You can also secure a pair of glasses at same time. Come and bring your friends.
2-17 1st COWARD & WOOTEN.

Scalded His Foot.

Ola Forbes has been confined at home several days with a scalded foot. He had been out hunting and returned home with a chill. He started to get some hot water and spilled a vessel of it on his foot, scalding it very painfully.

There are so many sick people in town that THE REFLECTOR could not undertake to report the names. There are few houses in which there is not somebody sick.

There was just a little bit more snow early this morning.

THE WEATHER.

Partly cloudy tonight and Saturday.

AYDEN ITEMS.

AYDEN, N. C., Feb. 17, 1905.

Jerry Worthington, while on a drunken spree out at the cross roads east of here, got into a difficulty last Sunday with some negroes and was severely cut on the neck and side of the face. How seriously we have not been able to learn. The attention of a physician was called to him.

We regret very much to learn our young friend, Osborne Lyoe, is suffering from another attack of appendicitis and a second operation is being seriously considered. His many friends hope for him a speedy recovery.

Our people are listening with open ears and beating hearts for news from the capitol. When the news arrives we expect a mighty shout from the winning side. Well, we shall see what we shall see, so don't let us get mad. We are all friends, even if we do differ sometimes.

We verily believe nice weather has come and now the song of the ploughman will be heard and the whistling of the wood chopper will make the welkin ring. The old bachelor will crawl out of his hole to meet the smiles of the blushing maiden and the old maid will cast her wiles around the innocent youth, while all earth will rejoice in its glory. What a beautiful world!

The dispensary for Ayden has received its knock out blow. The legislature refused to take any action.

Tuesday evening at the beautiful home of R. W. Smith on Main street, Miss Annie Joyner gave a delightful entertainment complimentary to her friend, Miss Jean Morrison. It was indeed a pleasant occasion, one of the most agreeable ever given in our town. Splendid music was furnished by C. A. Fair on his phonograph and the ladies performing on the piano, guitars, &c. Those who graced the occasion with their presence were: Misses Ida W. Edwards, Annie Lee Perry, Georgia Joyner, Lillian Munn, Mary Hodges, Jean Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. Staniel Hodges and R. F. Johnson, G. D. Stephenson and Mr. Woolard. Refreshments were served and all vote. Miss Joyner many thanks for a pleasant evening.

The discussion on the dispensary at Raleigh for Ayden was heated and sensational, yet we believe very little ill feeling has been engendered among our citizens which is right and just as it should be. We are all friends and in the name of Heaven let us remain so. Miss Lizzie McGowan, of Greenville, after a very pleasant visit to Mrs. Ben Nunn has returned to her home.

Mrs. T. B. Carley came up from Kingston Tuesday morning. Mrs. O. C. Nobles and children are visiting relatives near Oak City.

Miss Jean Morrison left Wednesday to spend a short while at her old home.

J. A. Hatton and family have come home from a recent visit over the river.

Mr. John A. Cox, of Louisburg, W. Va., and Miss Eva Bready, of Adamstown, Md, left for their respective homes yesterday, after spending a couple of weeks here with their sisters, Mrs. C. A. Fair and Miss Julia Bready.

Taken to Raleigh.

The remains of Mr. Sallie A. Moseley, who died here Thursday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. T. Lipscomb, were taken to Raleigh today for interment in Oakwood cemetery in that city. The remains were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Moseley, T. B. Moseley and H. W. Whedbee.

Ice will be in as much demand a few months hence as fuel is now.

There is no need of the weather man showing too much ground hog-gishness. We are all willing for him to call it off.

Mrs. S. S. Smith, of Charlotte, was burned to death Wednesday, her dress catching on fire while she was sitting in front of a grate. She was 73 years old.

The fellow who made out a bill against the Y. M. C. A. for $5,000, 000 for the discovery of a new heaven and a new earth, ought to have been able to locate them before presenting his bill.

Our neighbor town, Kinston, got on the government list for an appropriation for a public building. Free mail delivery has already been established there. We like to see Eastern North Carolina pushing ahead.

A lot of Berkshire pigs was sold at Vanderbilt's Biltmore farm, near Asheville, a few days ago, and the average price paid for them was $106 per head. No doubt it was the name more than the value that brought the price.

Gen. Lew Wallace died Wednesday night at his home in Crawfordville, Ind. He was prominent as an author, "Ben Hur" being his most noted production. He once represented this country at the court of Turkey, and was a veteran of both the Mexican and civil wars.

The country has witnessed another spectacle of a rope breaking at a hanging. A man was about to be hanged at Bridgeton, N. J. When the trap dropped the rope broke and let the victim fall. In the fall his head struck a beam that broke his neck, so the hanging did not have to be repeated.

Electric Light Globe as Heater.

A man who had arrived from Fort Mill was telling here yesterday how Mr. Thomas Spratt, of that prosperous town, made head against the cold. It was a most severe night when he let himself into his bedroom, and, when he had disrobed, his feet were as ice. The only warm things at hand were his heart and the electric light. Mr. Spratt scratched his head thoughtfully, then rose, tucked the light globe under the covers, hopped into bed, jammed his feet down against the grateful heat, and surrendered himself to dreams and visions. How long he slept he, of course, is not qualified to testify; but at length his dreams became so fierce that he snatched his feet from where he had deposited them, and waked. He smelt an odor of broiling flesh and felt aggrieved in his feet. The fact that the bed was on fire. The wire had been so burned as to cut off the current. Mr. Spratt could not operate effectively in the dark. He was put to it to rub his way downstairs after a lamp, by the assistance of which he extinguished the fire. He then cast his bed linen into order, disposed his alabaster limbs about the bed, and resigned himself once more, without any of the modern appointments, to dreams of June and green grass.—Charlotte Observer.

See our new lace curtain, 50c to $5.00. Taft & Vandyke.

There is one thing in connection with the personnel of the present General Assembly which puzzles us. We do not understand how men who fear not God nor regard men can come session after session to the Legislature, and that, too, through the votes of Christian people. These men seem to take advantage of their stay in Raleigh to flaunt their cold, defiant impiety in the face of the whole State. We imagine, however, that in the next election they will show a different side of their nature on the stump. And our Christian voters have such short memories. And political sentiment is so tyrannical. This explains it. One very prominent member of the House, the other day, threw out a strange tid-bit in the form of the statement that he was happy to testify to the good character of a distiller and his whiskey. Just think of it, men and brethren.—Raleigh Christian Advocate.

THREE JURORS CURED

Of Cholera Morbus with One Small Bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Mr. G. W. Fowler of Hightower, Ala., relates an experience he had while serving on a petit jury in a murder case at Edwardsville, county seat of Cleburne county, Alabama. He says: "While there I ate some fresh meat and some souse meat and it gave me cholera morbus in a very severe form. I was never more sick in my life and sent to the drug store for a certain cholera mixture, but the druggist sent me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy instead, saying that he had what I sent for, but that this medicine was so much better he would rather send it to me in the fix I was in. I took one dose of it and was better in five minutes. The second dose cured me entirely. Two fellow jurors were afflicted in the same manner and one small bottle cured the three of us." For sale at Wooten's Drug Store.

Soon to be a Billionaire

John D. Rockefeller is said to be approaching the time when he will be a billionaire. It is said that his income now is six million dollars a month. At that rate he accumulates seventy-two millions a year. Then all these millions make their accumulation; so if he lives a few years longer he may become a billionaire. But so far as he is personally concerned the bulk of his great possessions is no more to him than old junk or a last year's bird's nest. He can only eat so much, and we believe it has been stated he has to live on milk and crackers, or some such simple diet; he can only wear so much; and so for that matter, many, many thousands of poor men in the world are far and away happier than Rockefeller. But almost any of these poor fellows would like to change places with him.—Scotland Neck Commonwealth.

Tonic to The System.

For liver troubles and constipation there is nothing better than DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. They do not weaken the stomach. Their action upon the system is mild, pleasant and harmless. Bob Moore, of Lafayette, Ind., says, "No use talking, DeWitt's Little Early Risers do their work. All other pills I have used gripe and make me sick in the stomach and never cured me. DeWitt's Little Early Risers proved to be the long sought relief. They are simply perfect." Persons traveling find Little Early Risers the reliable remedy to carry with them. Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

A Bountiful Harvest Follows Bad Winter.

There is an old adage that a bountiful harvest follows a winter of ice and snow. Let's see how that is. The crops in 1889 were a complete failure. The winter before was not unusually mild. The winter of 1889-1890 was one of the mildest on record, people worked all the winter and many remarked how fortunate it was after such a disastrous crop year. Yet the crop in 1890, following the mild winter, was one of the best and all farmers say it was the easiest to cultivate. There was scarcely any grass or weeds and we were told that year by large farmers that they could easily have cultivated a largely increased acreage if they had only known how it was going to be. So it is not always a safe and a sure rule that abundant crops follow unusually hard and severe winters.—Exchange.

A very interesting little statement was made today about the Norfolk & Western Railway and the Atlantic & North Carolina Railway. The Norfolk & Western has a line to Durham and it is said will build to Apex. It is added that it controls or will control the road from Apex to Dunn, which the Dukes built and that it will build from Dunn to Goldsboro, there connecting with the Atlantic & North Carolina road, with which it has secured traffic arrangements of some kind. Such was the story as told by a very prominent North Carolinian and it was given for what it was worth.—Raleigh Cor., Charlotte Observer.

No Moore Stomach Troubles

All Stomach trouble is removed by the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It gives the stomach perfect rest by digesting what you eat without the stomach's aid. The food builds up the body, the rest restores the stomach to health. You don't have to diet yourself when taking Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. J. D. Eskine, of Alleenville, Mich., says, "I suffered Heartburn and Stomach trouble for some time. My sister-in-law has had the same trouble and was not able to eat for six weeks. She lived entirely on warm water. After taking two bottles of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure she was entirely cured. She now eats heartily and is in good health. I am glad to say Kodol gave me instant relief." Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

A confusion of freight packages yesterday carried to the Kinston dispensary a barrel of batteries for the telephone office in lieu of a barrel of "spence," which was returned carried to the telephone office. It was only a slight mistake after all, as both are lightning.—Kinston Free Press.

Sour Stomach

When the quantity of food taken is too large or the quality too rich, sour stomach is likely to follow, and especially so if the digestion has been weakened by constipation. Eat slowly and not too freely of easily digested food. Masticate the food thoroughly. Let five hours elapse between meals, and when you feel a fullness and weight in the region of the stomach after eating, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the sour stomach may be avoided. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville.

In Massachusetts a man who earns only $12 a week has been ordered by the courts to pay $20 a week alimony. The like of that ought to have a clogging effect on the divorce mills.—Raleigh Post.

Heroic Work of the Crew at Cape Look Out

Washington, Feb. 11.—Information is received at the life-saving bureau, that after a desperate twenty-eight hour battle, Thursday and Friday, the Cape Look, N. C., life-saving crew conquered a heavy sea piling over the shoals and succeeding in taking ashore from the standard four-masted schooner, Sarah Derossen, her captain and five of her crew. One man was washed overboard Wednesday and drowned.

Speedy Relief

A salve that heals without a scar is DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. No remedy effects such speedy relief. It draws out inflammation, soothes, cools and heals all cuts, burns and bruises. A sure cure for Piles and skin diseases. DeWitt's is the only genuine Witch Hazel Salve. Beware of counterfeits, they are dangerous. Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

HER SAFE DEPOSITS.

What Amazed the Young Only Tired the Elderly Benedict.

"Have you ever noticed," began the bridegroom, "what astonishing places a woman chooses for hiding things?"

"I ceased noticing and ceased being astonished at anything years ago," replied the elderly Benedict wearily.

"Well, the other night," went on the bridegroom, "there was a small fire in the apartment below us. Somebody upset a lamp, and while they were putting it out my wife and I were gathering our valuables together and preparing to flee. For five minutes we rushed about like mad people. The first thing I did was to open my wife's bureau drawer and feel for her jewel box.

"Oh, it isn't there!" she called out. "It's in the refrigerator under the lowest pan."

"What?" I exclaimed.

"Well," she replied, "that's the only place where a burglar wouldn't think of looking for them."

"What are you trying to take down that oil painting for?" I asked excitedly.

"Grandfather's will is behind it, tacked to the wall, and I can't budge it," she answered, with tears in her voice.

"No, don't come to help me," she went on. "Run into the parlor and get the deed to the Brooklyn property. It's pinned in the top of the lace curtains. And—bring me that hat with the white feather on it. No, not my best one; the other. It's got my marriage certificate and the contract for your book and your first love letter sewed in the crown. And, oh, John, do look in that box under the bathtub and find the manuscript of your play and your diamond sleeve links. Yes, that's the one I mean—that old cracker box. Well, I chose it because it did not look the least bit suspicious. Who would ever think of looking under the bathtub in an old cracker box for diamond sleeve buttons? Now come on. We've got everything."

"No, we haven't," I replied. "Where's that hundred dollar bill I gave you to deposit yesterday and the check from Bradley and all the money?"

"Oh, they're all safe," she replied nonchalantly, pulling me out of the door. "The hundred dollar bill is in my stocking and the check is pinned under my back hair."

"Now, what do you think of that?"

"The patent to those hiding places expired ages ago," said the elderly Benedict, yawning.—New York Press.

Success Prolongs Life.

It is now well known that increased complexity of life with increased expenditure distinctly aids longevity. Luxury, "the fertile parent of a whole family of diseases," modifies it greatly, of course, but this is a manageable factor. We have only to recall personal experience to realize the force of intellectual stimulation. The interest of sport will sustain men without fatigue for distances they otherwise could not traverse. The excitement of strife will often mask the presence of wounds. Self forgetfulness in all the walks of life under the stress of love, chivalry or accepted duty doubles human endurance. Success gives new vitality, new powers, and this is another name for new life.—New York World.

His Varied Industries.

"He's interested in many industries, I believe?"

"He is."

"Is he in the shoe business?"

"Yes; he has quite a foothold there."

"How about the glove business?"

"He recently took a hand in it."

"And the selling of canes?"

"He carries them."

"And hats?"

"He has them on his mind too."

"What else?"

"He puts up umbrellas and turns out lamps."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Utilizing the Camera.

Tess—Mr. Saphed gave you a camera for your birthday, didn't he?

Jess—Yes, and we took it with us on our stroll through the country yesterday. Oh, what do you think? He proposed to me; actually flopped down on his knees and—

Tess—What did you say?

Jess—Why, I said, "Look pleasant, please," and I do hope the picture will turn out well.

Cheerful.

Youth (to landlady)—Your terms are high.

Landlady—But consider the cheerful view, sir.

Youth—Cheerful view? Why, there's a cemetery right opposite. I don't call that very cheerful.

Landlady—Oh, yes, sir. Reflect how comfortin' and cheerin' it will be when you gaze out to think that you're not there.

A Country Named For Christmas.

South Africa was discovered by the Portuguese, who were searching for an ocean road to India. Bartholomew Diaz was the commander of the two little ships that formed the expedition in 1486. Eleven years later, Da Gama took another Portuguese fleet south. He discovered Natal on Christmas day and thus named it in consequence.

WILD DOGS OF INDIA.

They Are Very Shy, Very Cunning and Very Seldom Shot.

Mrs. Nora Gardner describes an experience while hunting big game in the central provinces of India as follows: "We had been shooting for some months and up to a certain date had had very good luck. Tigers and other beasts were all plentiful, and our bag was a good one. Suddenly our luck changed. Blank day followed blank day, not because we had missed easy shots or had to reproach ourselves for losing wounded beasts, but simply that we had seen nothing in the shape of a wild animal to shoot. Pachmark, the hot weather station of these parts, was just above us, so my husband and I, with a few servants and baggage coolies, started to climb up the hill. He and I were riding a little in front when he drew my attention to a number of kites and vultures circling in the air just ahead. Here this, of course, meant carrion or a dying beast of some kind, and we went on a 'suee' to see what it was. The man came creeping back on all fours. 'Wild dog, sahib! Wild dog!' he said.

"My husband got his rifle as quickly as possible. He crept forward and suddenly came in the pack, making off nearly 300 yards away. He took a hurried shot at the last in the pack and missed. The rest galloped off to the right, the one he had aimed at going to the left. While we were bemoaning our luck the 'suee' touched my husband. 'Look, sahib! He comes back!' And, sure enough, away to the right we saw the dog going back to join the pack. How he crossed the track without our seeing him is a mystery. He was already 200 yards off. My husband made a most brilliant shot and 'got' the dog just as it was crossing the bank to the river.

"Wild dogs are not only very shy, but very cunning, and very seldom shot. They do an immense amount of damage. As soon as a pack takes possession of a jungle everything else leaves it. Even a tiger will go if he smells wild dog. This accounted for our recent bad luck and the little game we had seen lately. The one we got was a young dog, rather like a fox, but with longer legs and ears. There were six in the pack, and they were devouring a young buck they had just pulled down."

Why Does the Earth Revolve?

That the earth "do move" is a fact that has been demonstrated in a variety of ways, but exactly why it does so is not so easy to explain. The astronomers are not agreed upon this question, and "when doctors disagree" where are the common people to look for explanations, answers and solutions to such queries? One school of these star wise men claim that the original initial centrifugal force given the globe was directed in a line slightly to one side of the center, which would, of course, cause the great globe to rotate on its axis, and by what is known as the "law of inertia" it would "continue to so revolve at a uniform rate of speed until arrested by some outside forces." Others claim that the motion of daily rotation is a compound resultant of the general motion of the earth in its orbit and the attraction of the sun.

What She Was Taking.

He came with the best of recommendations as a butler. He had the flowing suavity of the plantation house servant, fortified by that impressive air that is associated with the English flunky.

"Henry," said his mistress, "if any one calls I am not at home. I am going upstairs to take my massage treatment, and then I shall rest for at least three hours."

A caller came, and this is what Henry told her:

"Ah'm sorry, mum, but Mrs. Dodson is not at home. She's busy taking hah Masonic treatment."—New York Press.

All Was Not Well.

A naval officer told of a German, a recruit in the naval service, who during a certain watch was, in accordance with the regulations, calling the hours.

"Seven bells, and all iss vell!" called the German correctly enough. "Those who heard the next call were much astonished by this amusing variation:

"Eight bells, and all iss not vell. I had droppit my hat overboard."—Collier's Weekly.

PAPOOSE POPCORN

A New Seed Discovery for FORAGE, POULTRY, FOPPING

A subscriber to the Southern Agriculturist secured the original seed from an old Indian in Northwest Texas. After experimenting with it seven years he wrote that paper: "With good ground and care it will make from 50 to 100 bushels to the acre, and planted thick and cut stalk and all it will make more feed and better feed than anything I ever saw. The old Indian said poultry fed on it would never have the cholera. I have not lost a fowl with cholera since I have been raising it. It also pops beautifully." This article brought hundreds of requests for seed, and now only a few bushels are left. Send 10c for a 3 months' trial subscription to Southern Agriculturist, 39 C. P. Bldg., Nashville, Tenn., and you will get 100 seed by return mail, also details of $50 prize seed-growing contest.

Our stock is too large and for the next thirty days we will continue to sell at Underselling Prices on the above lines in order to reduce our stock prior to arrival of Spring Goods.
