=Progress.=

Progress is the law of life. When things animate cease to grow to betterment, decay begins. The store which stands still is dead. The good store of yesterday is commonplace today and out-of-date tomorrow. Eternal effort is the price of progress. To do better today the thing done well yesterday, to serve better today the public which we served well yesterday, is the day-by-day labor of this store.

Expect for Coming Season the Newest Things.

We will have the best the mill can make.

THE LEASE ON WINTER GOODS IS OUT.

They want new homes, we are treating them bad by cutting the price. They have been ordered out and must go. The prices will pay well for your hospitality.

All the goods are for sale get the prices, note the quality then you will buy and liberally.

UNION CARRIAGE WORKS ROBBED

One of the Employes Skips to Other Parts.

Thursday afternoon Sheriff Tucker's office, as well as the office of Justice C. D. Rountree, in the court house, had much the appearance that both gentlemen were about to engage in the carriage trimming business. There was a general lay out of broad cloth, oil cloth, leather, threads, needles, brads and all other materials used about trimming buggies and carriages.

An inquiry as to the whereabouts of such a display of goods in the hands of these custodians of the law developed these facts: From time to time recently such goods as are enumerated above were missed from the trimming department of the Union Carriage Works that does business on the corner of Fifth and Cotanch streets. The disappearance of the goods aroused the suspicion of B. F. Tyson, manager of the factory, and he obtained a search warrant in order to make an investigation. The warrant was not at once placed in the hands of an officer, but in some way it leaked out that a warrant had been issued, whereupon James Steagall, a trimmer in the factory, suddenly disappeared and left for parts unknown.

When search for the missing goods was instituted a quantity of them were found in the house of Mabel Lewis, a woman of ill repute, and a box filled with some of the articles was found in the depot addressed to a party in Oxford. The goods were taken in charge by officers and carried to the court house, where Mr. Tyson identified them as the property of the Union Carriage Works.

The Lewis woman was taken before Justice Rountree on the charge of concealing stolen goods. The evidence disclosed that the goods were left at her house by Steagall but she had no knowledge that they were stolen and she was discharged.

Officers are trying to locate the whereabouts of Steagall.

War to the Hilt

Washington, D. C., Feb. 23.—At the White House and at the state department, at the Russian, French, German, British and Italian embassies and the Japanese legation today were inquiries were made regarding the rumors of peace between Russia and Japan the most positive statements were made that if either of the belligerents were thinking of proposing peace it was a secret securely locked in the Foreign Office, at St. Petersburg or at Tokio. The president has heard absolutely nothing of an avowed intention on the part of Russia or Japan to sue for peace at this time, much less of an actual proposal. Secretary Hay today assured three ambassadors that while this government continued hopeful of an opportunity to be of assistance whenever assistance might be asked by the belligerents there were no indications here that the time for peace was near.

Blount Cassin, the Russian ambassador, said talk of peace was never more absurd than now. The ambassador has had positive information from the very highest officials in St. Petersburg that the war will be prosecuted with increasing vigor. It is expected that General Kurapatkin with the opening of the spring campaign will accomplish much in view of the reinforcements he has received. The Emperor has every confidence in his military ability. Count Cassin declared the peace talk was preparatory to an attempt to float another Japanese loan.

THE LEGISLATURE.

THURSDAY.

Among the new bills in the senate were: To prohibit public officials from using or riding on free passes, mileage books or tickets during their term of office; to incorporate the Methodist Protestant college of North Carolina; to amend the law relative to evidence of promises of agreement to work and receiving advances thereon.

Senator Fleming introduced three bills: To add to the limits of the stock law in Pitt county; for the betterment of public roads of Pitt county; to provide for turning into the general fund of the county one-third of the dispensary funds.

The bill to amend the charter of the town of Farmville passed third reading.

Among the new bills in the house were: To create a board of prison parole; to amend the law relating to the bureau of immigration; to amend the law relating to the conveyance of convicts; to prevent bird dogs from running at large during the nesting and raising seasons; to regulate the challenges of jurors when a special venire is drawn from the jury box; to amend the code relating to liability of counties for injuries on the public roads.

Miss Elizabeth Baskerville, of Clifton Forge, Va., is here visiting her sister, Mrs. E. G. Hartman. The latter has been quite sick several days but is now reported better.

Pythian Big Night.

All over North Carolina on the night of March 9th the Pythians will have what is known as "Pythian Big Night." At the last meeting of Far River lodge committees were appointed to prepare for a proper observance of the occasion. Every Pythian should make it a point to be present. Many things of interest to the order will be discussed.

Notice

I ask all persons who have so kindly given me their laundry in the past to hold it for me until Monday evening of every week. I will certainly call for it. No one shall be over looked. I thank all for their patronage in the past and wish continuance in the future. I will do all in my power to please you.

Yours to serve,

O. B. BOWLING.

Head in Bad Shape.

A negro named Bowling Tyson came here today from Farmville with his head badly beaten. A telegram ordering his arrest had preceded him the sheriff took the man in charge when he arrived. The man seemed too drunk to tell what trouble he had been in.

We expect new lot Art squares and rugs on today's boat. Taft & Vandyke.

A Sunny South Song

Talk about yer "Sunny South"—they think we're just in fun, With icicles a-bangin' where the lizards used to run; But we don't expect three hundred days and sixty five of sun, So we're singin' on the snow-hills o' the mornin'!

Is this the land, good brethren, where the roses burned in red, An' a mighty storm o' blossoms hid the shingles on the shed?—The Sun's forgot his contract—the stars have gone to bed, An' we're singin' on the snow-hills o' the mornin'!

But, pelt us with yer snowballs, an' trim with ice the lan', We're in the fields of Eden—the paradise of man! Three cheers! an' fling her hats up, an' "Dixie" by the ban', Singin' on the snow-hills o' the mornin'!

—E. L. Stanton, in Atlanta Constitution.

PERSONALS AND SOCIAL.

H. B. Phillips went to Suffolk today.

C. T. Mumford went to Kinston Thursday evening.

G. C. White left Thursday evening for Winston-Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Buck, of Ayden, were visitors in town today.

Mrs. H. A. Kenfrew and child left Thursday evening for New Bern.

Dr. D. I. James went to Kinston Thursday evening and returned this morning.

W. H. Ragsdale, superintendent of schools, went to Bethel today to deliver an address.

The condition of Mrs. D. J. Whichard, who has been sick several days, is somewhat improved.

AYDEN ITEMS.

AYDEN, N. C., Feb. 24, 1905.

The doctors are having a nice resting time. There is little sickness. Our people are extremely healthy just now.

The thief who stole the pistol from the office of J. A. Harrington is spotted and had better return property or he may expect a visit from Mr. Tucker at a very early day. His color won't save him.

Dr. Jos. Dixon, E. G. Cox, J. W. Quinerly and J. A. Harrington returned from Raleigh Wednesday where they had been before a legislative committee regarding a dispensary here. The committee has made a favorable report for an election and it is now with the house and senate.

Mrs. Lou Forrest spent Wednesday in Winterville.

Watt Quinerly has been to Greenville during the week.

That old ground hog has been in his hole so long he must be pretty badly moldered this wet weather. Wonder if he ain't got a cold and afraid to come out!

"Fence" or "no fence" dispensary" or "no dispensary" keeps things whizzing in the air. All lively, spirits are high and everything in a good humor. This is no dead town.

Charlie Dill, of Bridgeport, Conn., is here on a visit to friends.

W. L. McLawhorn went to Greenville yesterday.

Mrs. Redditt, of Kinston, came up yesterday to visit the family of her father, Elder C. C. Bland, the old hero of '61 and '65.

Witherington and Lilly have made satisfactory arrangements and opened up their store yesterday morning.

Lorenzo McLawhorn is building an office on West Railroad street for J. M. Blow. In about a week 'Squire Blow will be in it and glad to have his friends call and see him.

The city fathers have got a move on and busy working on and improving the streets and bridges.

C. F. Sumerell and wife are visiting relatives near Grifton.

Master Graham Jackson is out in the country visiting his grandmother.

We are glad to see W. C. Jackson able to be at his place of business.

Chris Moore and Walter Mewborn, of Centerville, came up Tuesday and left on the north bound train.

Mrs. Joe Long has returned from a visit to Kinston.

The farmers are badly behind in their work and complaints are general. Never mind, the sun will shine after awhile and the complaint may be on the other foot.

THE WEATHER

Fair tonight except rain in extreme western portion, warmer except in extreme western portion. Saturday rain and warmer.

GIVE US BETTER ROADS.

There is a bill pending before the legislature looking to the betterment of the country roads. If there is any matter that ought to have the prompt attention and undivided support of every member, it is this. There is more time and more money lost to the people from bad roads than any other one cause. The farmers suffer and the business men of the towns suffer. Just why there is not a coming together of all, in both town and country, looking to the improvement of the roads, is hard to understand.

Bringing the matter close home, Greenville has certainly suffered much lately from the terrible condition of the roads leading to the town. The few country people seen on the streets bears out this statement. A man who lives ten miles distant told us it took him three hours to get here, and he had a good horse too. Naturally he is not going to the trouble to come often under such conditions. A prominent farmer of another section said his neighbors were going to other towns with their tobacco because the roads near Greenville were so bad they could not get here. Hauling a load over these roads is out of the question. There are more instances like these.

The folks should wake up and let our legislators know that a law is wanted that will provide a means to better roads. We are living away behind the times trying to get along with the team-killing, business-hindering public roads that exist.

Those fellows who are making such a noise in the interest of distillers had as well make up their minds that the people are in earnest about this matter of temperance. They want the whiskey business stopped and are going to stop it.

Congressman John H. Small in a speech in a congress Wednesday strongly urged the advantages of the inland waterway, the project which he has been advocating for some time. His speech was effective and brought a round of applause from the members.

It is noticed that one of the bills introduced in the legislature is to protect foxes in a certain county. We thought if there was an animal that everybody wanted to get out of the way it was the fox.

North Carolina is about to violate her own laws. The statute says game shall not be killed after March 15th, but the state has ordered that a Partridge be killed April 6th.

Those Fayetteville bank officials are having visions of Cross and White, of Raleigh bank-wrecking fame, and they ought to be dressed in clothes of the same stripe.

The farmers are showing good sticking qualities as to holding their cotton, and these fellows who want it have got to come up with the price if they get it.

If some legislator would introduce a bill to require mosquitoes to close their business between 8, p. m., and 4, a. m., it would come in handy next summer.

The Pittsboro Record takes note of the fact that the usual bill to protect diamond back terrepins has not found a champion in the present legislature.

Mrs. Davis should consider Miles beneath her notice, and Miles should follow the example of the ground hog—go in his hole and stay there.

The announcement is made that Raleigh will have another fair next fall—Oct. 16th to 21st Christmas will come December 25th.

You don't have to wait at Selma now.

The Dakota Bond Suit.

The Wilmington Messenger says: Ex-Governor Jarvis is about the last man in the state any one would accuse of taking a position which he at heart thought hurtful to the state's interest. Every man, woman and child in the state knows what Thomas J. Jarvis has done for the state and what is his love for his state and that in his declining years this old veteran tar heel is still working and striving for the good and the glory of his state. Therefore what he says regarding a matter of importance to the state and the people's welfare is worth considering. A Raleigh special to The Charlotte Observer quotes Governor Jarvis as saying regarding the Dakota bond suit:

"I do not think this legislature should adjourn without providing for retiring the whole issue of bonds outstanding, of the character of the Schafer bonds. An act should be passed providing for prompt payment in the case of South Dakota, with judgment for interest and costs without a deduction of one penny and authorizing the governor and treasurer to issue new bonds in place of the outstanding Schafer bonds, upon such terms as may be agreed upon. A great state like North Carolina can not afford to stand in an attitude of repudiating an obligation which we admit to be legal, and we can not afford to allow the perfidy of Butler and Russell to stand in the way of the state's discharging her obligations."

That Tickling in the Throat

One minute after taking One Minute Cough Cure that tickling in the throat is gone. It acts in the throat—not the stomach. Harmless—good for children. A. L. Stafford, postmaster at Chester, Mich., says: "Our little girl was unconscious from strangulation during a sudden and terrible attack of croup. Three doses of One Minute Cough Cure half an hour apart speedily cured her. I cannot praise One Minute Cough Cure too much for what it has done in our family." It always gives relief. Sold by J. L. Wooten.

Mere Mention of Money.

You cannot eat it; it is not drinkable; clothing cannot be made of it and yet you toil and worry after it year after year.

What for?

Money to be sure.

All there is in the world would be a goodly fortune, but it is not worth its cost. That is for itself.

The great majority of people labor and save, and starve, and study deprivations, and go through life as an argument penetrates a fanatic, just to get something to jingle.

Money is a very good thing, but then it is not every one who knows how to use it.

There is happiness in it, if you know how to find it.

Be liberal, and not a skinflint. If you have a talent let it benefit some one. Give others the benefit of your light. Do not, if you are rich, allow your heart to become coated over with base metal. Help others and be happy. Dispense the favors of life as you go.—Durham Sun.

Give the children Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea this month. It makes them grow and gives them rosy cheeks. There is no medicine in the world so good for the children. 35 cents. Tea or Tablets.—Wooten's Drug Store.

The woman who phones for a two cent spool of cotton to be sent to her residence half a mile away may think she is promoting Christianity, but she is mistaken.—Greensboro Record.

Here is something of interest to State authorities at the present time. Justice Harlan, of the Supreme Court of the United States, has delivered the opinion in the case of Jacobson vs. the United States, involving the validity of the Massachusetts State law, giving authority to the health authorities of cities and towns in the State to impose compulsory vaccination regulations. He held the law to be constitutional on the ground that the protection of the health of a community may be exercised by the State as a police regulation. Compulsory vaccination is lawful and the health authorities have the Supreme Court to back them up.—Charlotte Chronicle.

THREE JURORS CURED

Of Cholera Morbus with One Small Bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Mr G. W. Foster of Hightower, Ala., relates an experience he had while serving on a petit jury in a murder case at Edwardsville, county seat of Cleburne county, Alabama. He says: "While there I ate some fresh meat and some souse meat and it gave me cholera morbus in a very severe form. I was never more sick in my life and sent to the drug store for a certain cholera mixture, but the druggist sent me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy instead, saying that he had what I sent for, but that this medicine was so much better he would rather send it to me in the fix I was in. I took one dose of it and was better in five minutes. The second dose cured me entirely. Two fellow jurors were afflicted in the same manner and one small bottle cured the three of us." For sale at Wooten's Drug Store.

The temperance people seem to have things mostly their own way of late. The Watts law closed up thousands of places where the ardent was produced and now the Ward bill comes along to close out a few more. The people have come to the conclusion that liquor is not worth much to anybody and many men who used to love liquor are now against it and do not touch it. The world is getting better.—Lexington Dispatch.

The Sunshine of Spring.

The salve that cures without a scar is DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Cuts, burns, boils, bruises and piles disappear before the use of this salve as snow before the sunshine of spring. Miss H. M. Middleton, Thebes, Ill., says: "I was seriously afflicted with a fever sore that was very painful. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me in less than a week." Get the genuine. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

Sour Stomach

When the quantity of food taken is too large or the quality too rich, our stomach is likely to follow, and especially so if the digestion has been weakened by constipation. Eat slowly and not too freely of easily digested food. Masticate the food thoroughly. Let five hours elapse between meals, and when you feel a fullness and weight in the region of the stomach after eating, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the sour stomach may be avoided. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville.

Deserved Popularity.

To cure Constipation and Liver troubles by gently moving the bowels and acting as a tonic to the liver, take Little Early Risers. These Famous Little Pills are mild, pleasant and harmless, but effective and sure. Their universal use for many years is a strong guarantee of their popularity and usefulness. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

Cured of Lame After 15 Years of Suffering

"I had been troubled with lame back for fifteen years and I found a complete recovery in the use of Chamberlain's Pain Balm," says John G. Bisher, Gilliam, Ind. This treatment is also without an equal for sprains and bruises. It is for sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville.

Babies skin will be soft, fair and smooth if you give them Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea this month. It regulates the stomach and bowels. It makes the little ones sleep and grow. 35 cents. Wooten's Drug Store.

Regulates the stomach and bowels, heals and soothes the little ones' stomachs and gives them a beautiful and natural sleep. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea is the children's benefactor. 35 cents. Wooten's Drug Store.

New Spring Goods

ARRIVING DAILY.

There is one thing that we do not claim in our business to do and that is to sell goods cheaper than they can be bought—neither do we want to create the impression that our store is full of shop worn, out of style goods nor by filling our store with show bills and sign boards will we try to impress false ideas in your mind that we are going out of business, but we do wish it understood that we are receiving daily shipments of the newest things in

RIBBONS, SILKS, EMBROIDERIES, LACES

The best store in town offers them to you on your cash purchases. Every dime you spend there will do extra service henceforth—service that will please and benefit you.

Since you must spend money spend it so that you get full returns. And unless each ten cents in cash put out brings a BROWN STAMP in, you are not getting full value for your money.

Brown Stamps are like compound interest. They accumulate without effort on your part, and the splendid premiums they bring will leave many a dollar free for pleasure or for saving. Just such things as you would otherwise have to buy are offered for Brown Stamps and it takes but 500 stamps to give you your free choice of whatever you can best use or most need.

WE GIVE YOU $1.00 WORTH, 10 STAMPS, FREE with each new book. Unless you already have one, call at our store and get it and the $1.00 worth of free stamps. That dollars worth rolls up like a snow ball down hill, and presto! almost before you know it you have $50.00 worth a book full. Just keep the ball rolling every time you spend cash; spend it where Brown Stamps are given; and ALWAYS ASK FOR BROWN STAMPS.

This store wants your trade—your steady trade—your Cash Trade. It offers low prices, splendid service and Brown Stamps in exchange. You cannot afford to accept less. Therefore you should deal here.

The Stamps do not apply on purchases of Groceries and Provisions.

PRICES

STILL LOW.

Our Nine Days Sale closed last Saturday and many Bargain Seekers were made happy over the Bargains, they got at the Sale.

Our sale was a success in every particular. Each day, our sales would foot larger than we anticipated.

OUR PRICES ARE STILL 1-4 OFF and on some numbers fully one-third on Clothing, Dress Goods Silks and Embroideries.

Our stock is too large and for the next thirty days we will continue to sell at Underselling Prices on the above lines in order to reduce our stock prior to arrival of Spring Goods.
