New Spring Goods

ARRIVING DAILY.

There is one thing that we do not claim in our business to do and that is to sell goods cheaper than they can be bought, neither do we want to create the impression that our store is full of shop worn, out of style goods nor by filling our store with show bills and sign boards will we try to impress false ideas in your mind that we are going out of business, but we do wish it understood that we are receiving daily shipments of the newest things in and kindred materials so desirable with the women folk of Greenville and Pitt county, and we do hope that you will at least favor us with a visit to see these many new things.

RIBBONS, SILKS, EMBROIDERIES, LACES

LITERARY MEETING.

Epworth League Entertained With Interesting Program.

Reported for Reflector

The regular monthly literary meeting of the Epworth League of Greenville was held Friday night at the home of Mrs. E. A. Moye, Jr. A large number of the Leaguers were present, and a delightful program was rendered. A guessing contest was held, after which refreshments were served.

The literary department, which is under the management of the third vice president, Mrs. D. D. Overton, is in a flourishing condition, and the themes and essays written by different members of the league for these occasions are of an especially high order. Much progress has been made in the study of Methodism and its founders, and much good has been accomplished.

The program was both instructive and entertaining, and was rendered in a most charming manner. The first of the program was music by Miss Glenn Forbes, after which Mrs. H. C. Hooker read a very interesting and instructive paper on John Wesley. Each of the following leaguers then read a hymn by Charles Wesley, and gave the history of each hymn; Mrs. H. L. Carr, Misses Mary Smith, Lollie Waite, Nellie Pender, Dora Hornaday and Jennie Congleton, and C. M. Jones.

The prize for the guessing contest was given by Wiley Brown, and consisted of a nice book. A large bottle had been filled with peas, and all present were allowed to guess at the number of peas in the bottle. Each having registered a guess, the peas were counted, being fourteen hundred and thirty-nine. Rev. J. A. Hornaday, who guessed fourteen hundred, received the prize.

During the guessing lemonade and other refreshments were served, after which many kinds of delicious fruits were greatly enjoyed. The occasion was indeed an enjoyable one, and everyone feels grateful to Mrs. Overton for the excellent program and to Mrs. Moye for the delightful manner in which she entertained.

JUDGE HOWARD DEAD

Prominent Citizen of Tarboro Passes Away

Tarboro, N. C., Feb. 25.—A host of friends throughout the state and elsewhere will receive with profound sorrow the intelligence of the sudden death of Judge George Howard, which occurred here yesterday after a brief illness of two days. Judge Howard was stricken with strangulation hernia Wednesday afternoon and an operation was considered necessary to save his life. He was taken to the Pittman sanitarium Thursday morning where a very successful operation was performed by Dr. Johnson, an eminent surgeon of Richmond, assisted by local physicians. The distinguished patient survived and it was thought his chances were very favorable. He rested well until noon when the life of this noble Christian man began to ebb, and at 3 o'clock he breathed his last.

Judge Howard was 75 years old. He was one of Tarboro's most public spirited men and had contributed very materially to the growth and advancement of the town. The funeral will be held at 10 o'clock Sunday morning.

PERSONALS AND SOCIAL.

J. W. Allen went to Smithfield today.

Joe Rawles left this morning for Tarboro.

P. B. Bowie left this morning for Pactolus.

TRIED TO RUN AWAY.

A colored man drove a horse and buggy out of the Savage stables below Five Points, this afternoon, and just as the street was reached the horse began cutting up all kinds of antics in an effort to run away. He pulled the buggy up on the sidewalk and into the pile of brick where the Hardee store was burned, then twisted across to the hotel corner and tangled in with the sidewalk over there. The man kept his seat and held the horse down, and finding out he could not run the animal quieted down and walked off calm enough.

STREET LAMP SMASHED.

A colored man was driving a pair of mules to a wagon up the street this afternoon, and when near the post-office one of the reins broke. The mules wanted to keep going, and the man trying to stop them with one rein caused them to go around a circle in the street. In the gyrations of the wagon the street lamp on the corner was knocked down and smashed.

HEAD CUT WITH AXE.

Arthur and Alfred Kennedy, two little boys of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Kennedy, were together about the wood pile this morning, when Arthur accidentally struck Alfred on the head with an axe and gave him quite a severe cut. Both these boys are carriers for THE REFLECTOR, and the little fellow whose head is cut sent word that he would be on his route this afternoon even if his head is disfigured.

If Russia is determined to fight to the end we hope the end will not be long coming.

If the senate will do as well on the divorce matter as the house has done there will be less ground for complaint at this evil.

If the republicans do not have plenty of campaign thunder next time it will be no fault of the democrats.—Durham Herald.

But their thunder will give them a chance to rain (reign) in North Carolina.

There is nothing like the legislators doing something to fill in time. One member introduced a bill to require the railroads to furnish passes to state officers, while another member introduced a bill prohibiting the officers from accepting or using passes.

The citizens of Morehead City do not want whiskey sold at the Atlantic Hotel there during the summer, and the legislature should comply with their wishes in the matter. Morehead City is a prohibition town, and for the state to grant a special whiskey selling privilege there is not right.

Where the Farmers Lose.

Some of the farmers who have been holding their cotton will not profit very much by it, we fear. They have been "holding" it in the wrong way. Instead of putting it in the warehouse, barn or even under porch roof, they have permitted it to lay on the ground about the gins exposed to the weather. In ordinary seasons not a great deal of damage would result to a bale of cotton by allowing it to remain "out doors," but this has been a particularly disastrous season for out of doors cotton. Since the first of January it has been snow, sleet and rain almost incessantly. The few days of sunshine that have ensued were not enough to dry out a clothes line, much less a water-soaked bale of cotton. There has been snow on the ground for five weeks. An observant man who took a trip out on the Southern road the first of the year, noticed a number of bales of cotton dumped on the ground at Harrisburg depot. A group of about eight bales was sheltered by a plank covering. The others had no shelter at all, either from the damp earth or the elements. He has since made the trip several times and has noticed the cotton piled about on the ground as he first saw it, with this difference—that at first the bales looked bright and new, now the cotton looks dark and muddy and the bagging rotten. Of course it is nobody's business but the owners of the cotton, but the Harrisburg incident is perhaps duplicated all over the country and it is a pity to see such a waste of good material for want of a "little care."—Charlotte Chronicle.

"Is the world growing better or worse?" asks a magazine writer. It is the same old question and its answer will depend largely upon the man who is answering it. If he is inclined toward pessimism he is likely to think that things are getting to a pretty bad point nowadays. If on the other hand, optimism has a large part in his nature it will be different. So there you are. The well balanced man, who is able at all times to observe tendencies and signs and to interpret them correctly, will probably answer that the world is really growing better in most respects.—Winston Sentinel.

A McCue Story.

Following the legal hanging of negroes in the South, the colored population has often been stirred by reports that the negro was not "hung dead," but was alive and going about among them. Now Capt. William Baker, for many years a Richmond policeman and detective, has arrived in Salisbury to make what place his home, and he lets the people of that town know it by means of a McCue story, which he gives out. He tells The Post reporter that "many Richmond people are tremendously stirred over a report which has obtained circulation and gained much credence in that city. The day following the execution of ex-Mayor Samuel McCue, of Charlottesville, the report was circulated that the mayor was really never executed. The report had it that under the robe which he wore when he went to the scaffold was a mechanical contrivance to which the noose was adjusted and that the condemned man suffered only slight inconvenience as he was suspended in the air." Capt. Baker says that this story is actually taken as a fact by a great number of people, "chiefly women." A few days ago, the mayor of Richmond issued an order forbidding the use of artificial legs for the display of hostility in store windows. This coupled with the McCue story leads us to ask, what is the matter with Richmond, anyway?—Charlotte Chronicle.

A Sunday Meditation.

The ringing bells call me to thy house, O Lord, on this day set apart for thy worship. All days are thine, O Lord, and in all thy ways of life and in all places, I may truly adore thee. But on this day, and thy house, where thy people assemble in thy name to honor thee and to hear thy Word, there are treasures of grace and strength and peace for all the other days and for all the other duties of life. Therefore, O Lord, hear thy servant, who now goes forth for this blessed season of public devotion and instruction. I surrender myself to thee; I leave behind me all worldly cares and studies; I go to thy house to join with thy people in loving devotion, and as we shall together praise thy name, hear thy Word, plead thy promises, and consecrate ourselves to thy constant service, do thou pour out upon us, O Holy Father, thy blessed Holy Spirit, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.—Bishop Vincent.

The Senate of the Pennsylvania legislature has passed a bill authorizing a codification of the state's divorce laws and creating a commission to co-operate with similar commissions from other states for the purpose of endeavoring to arrive at uniformity in marriage and divorce laws in the several states. The bill authorizes the governor of Pennsylvania to communicate with the governors of the other states and invite them to send delegations to a meeting to be held in Washington at some time in the future for the purpose of discussing the matter. This movement is one that should have the friendly consideration of every governor in the country.—Savannah News.

That Tickling in the Throat

One miserable fellow taking One Minute Cough Cure that tickling in the throat is gone. It acts in the throat—not the stomach. Harmless—good for children. A. J. Stahl, postmaster at Chester, Mich., says: "Our little girl was unconscious from strangulation during a sudden and terrible attack of croup. Three doses of One Minute Cough Cure half an hour apart speedily cured her. I cannot praise One Minute Cough Cure too much for what it has done in our family." It always gives relief. Sold by J. L. Wooten.

More credence would be given to the cry that "it will hurt the party" if those who want to help had any place to go. With the negro out of it the republican party in this state is more disreputable than ever. The party in this state does not want to stir the thing desired is a republican national administration, they can get an office. Fact is a respectable republican party would put a lot of men out of a job.—Greensboro Record.

If great lobby legislators would discard the idea that their chance of re-election depends largely upon the number of bills they introduce the general assembly would have much less business to transact and the interests of all concerned would be better subserved. A repeal of some laws now in existence is of as much importance as the passage of new ones.—Winston Sentinel.

Give Your Stomach a Rest.

Your food must be properly digested and assimilated to be of any value to you. If your stomach is weak or diseased take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat and gives the stomach a rest, enabling it to recuperate, take on new life and grow strong again. Kodol cures our stomach, gas, bloating, heart palpitation and all digestive disorders. H. A. Soper, of Little Rock, Ky., writes us: "We feel that Kodol Dyspepsia Cure deserves all the recommendations that can be given it, as it saved the life of our little girl who was six years of age. She is now six and we have kept it for her constantly, but of course she only takes it now when anything disagrees with her." Sold by J. L. Wooten.

The Sunshine of Spring.

The advice that comes without a scar is DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Cuts, lacerations, bruises and pines disappear before the use of this salve as soon before the sunshine of spring. Mrs. H. M. Middleton, Indiana, Ill., says: "I was seriously afflicted with a fever sore that was very painful. Dr. Witt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me in less than a week." Get the genuine. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

There is nothing that adds so much to any community as good roads. Good roads make living in the country the ideal life. Good roads make it easier on the horses as well as on men. The fact is, there are a thousand reasons why the roads should be improved, while there is not one reason for not improving them.—Lexington Dispatch.

Deserved Popularity.

To cure Constipation and Liver troubles by gently moving the bowels and acting as a tonic to the liver, take Little Early Bitters. These Famous Little Bitters are mild, pleasant and harmless, but effective and sure. Their universal use for many years is a strong guarantee of their popularity and usefulness. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

The ground hog says he is really sorry, but that he cannot possibly help it. He added that he might have been more lenient had it not been for the abuse heaped on him. The little rascal is as vindictive as Nero, who fiddled while Rome burned.—Greensboro Record.

Give the children Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea this month. It makes them grow and gives them rosy cheeks. There is no medicine in the world so good for the children. 35 cents. Tea or Tablets.—Wooten's Drug Store.

The bill to put the state records in the penitentiary for safe keeping was probably not intended as a reflection on the state officials, having them in charge.—Raleigh Post.

Having skin will be soft, fair and smooth if you give them Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea this month. It regulates the stomach and bowels. It makes the little ones sleep and grow. 35 cents. Wooten's Drug Store.

An Iowa woman says she can feed a man properly on nine cents a day. Almost any woman could afford a husband at that price.—Durham Sun.

Regulates the stomach and bowels, heals and soothes the little ones' stomachs and gives them a healthy and natural sleep. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea is the children's best friend. 35 cents. Wooten's Drug Store.

How to Make a Happy Home

Learn to govern yourself, and to be gentle and patient.

Guard your temper, especially in seasons of ill-health, irritation and trouble, and soften them by prayer and a sense of your own shortcomings and errors.

Remember that, valuable as is the gift of speech, silence is often more valuable.

Do not expect too much from others, but remember that we should forbear and forgive as we often desire forbearance and forgiveness ourselves.

Never reply with a sharp or angry word. It is the second word that makes the quarrel.

Beware of the firm disagreement. Learn to speak in a gentle tone of voice.

Learn to say kind and pleasant things whenever opportunity offers.

Study the character of each member of the household and sympathize with all in their troubles, no everlast!

Avoid moods, peevishness and fits of sulksiness.

Learn to deny yourself.

Beware of needles and tale bearers.

Never conceive a bad motive if a good one is conceivable.

Be gentle and firm with children.

Do not allow your children to be away from home at night without knowing where they are.

Do not say anything in their hearing which you do not wish them to report.

Beware of correcting them in a petulant or angry manner.

Sour Stomach

No appetite, loss of strength, nervousness, headache, constipation, bad breath, general debility, sour risings, and catarrh of the stomach are all due to indigestion. Kodol cures indigestion. This new discovery reproduces the natural juices of digestion as they exist in a healthy stomach, combined with the greatest known tonic and reconstructive properties. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does not only cure indigestion and dyspepsia, but this famous remedy cures all stomach troubles by cleansing, purifying, sweetening and strengthening the mucous membranes lining the stomach.

WHY?

There is no need asking the question. It is plain enough that the enterprising business man uses the columns of

The Reflector

for making his announcements to the trading public because IT BRINGS—

Satisfactory Returns

THE REFLECTOR IS Read By Everybody in reach, and it reaches people who have money to pay for what they want. If you have what they want advertise it and you are sure to get a part of their money.

TWO EDITIONS

THE DAILY REFLECTOR,

EVERY AFTERNOON, (EXCEPT SUNDAY).
At $3 a Year 25 cents a Month.

THE EASTERN REFLECTOR,

TWICE A-WEEK, (Tuesday and Friday),
At $1 a Year.

You are the loser if you fail to read one of these.

FREE TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS.

OUR GREAT 1905 OFFER

We have purchased a number of annual subscriptions to the Southern Agriculturist, and, as long as they last, we will give one, free of charge, to every subscriber who pays for The Eastern Reflector a full year IN ADVANCE. If you are in arrears, pay up and for a year ahead, and get this valuable present. If you are not already a subscriber, send in your order at once, before this great offer is withdrawn.

SOUTHERN AGRICULTURIST

Is published at Nashville, Tenn. It is issued 24 times a year and the subscription price is 50 cents. It contains more reading matter than most dollar papers and is edited by Southern men who know the needs of Southern farmers. Every issue is like a big experience meeting, the farmers' questions being answered by such men as Maj. Thos. J. Key, former Assistant Commissioner of Agriculture of Alabama, and Prof. Andrew M. Soule, Director of the Virginia Experiment Station. The Home Department is conducted by Aunt Anne, whom all readers soon learn to love.

WE OFFER $1.50 IN VALUE FOR $1.00

But you must hurry. This proposition will not be held open indefinitely.

THE EASTERN REFLECTOR.

Sample copies of Southern Agriculturist free at our office.

Job Printing

The Reflector was never better prepared than now to nice Job Printing. New presses, new type and plenty of Stock recently added. Our work is done right and prices are right.

Send The Reflector Your Order.

The Reflector Book Store.

WOOD'S SEEDS WATER MELON SEED

GROWN IN THE SUNNY SOUTH.

"Green rind, red meat, full of juice and so sweet."

If you want quality, sweetness, and the best melons that it is possible to grow, plant our southern-grown melon seed. Northern or western-grown melon seed doesn't begin to compare, when you consider the quality and product of the fruit produced.

Three Cures—Three Best Varieties—Trilled for 25c.

Wood's descriptive Seed Catalogue tells about the best southern melons, and all their uses and growing season. It's mailed free for the asking. Write for Catalogue.

Suspicion Versus Superstition.

"Is this all de collection?" asked the colored parson of the deacon who handed him the basket.

"Yes, sah," replied the deacon.

"Is you shure, sah?"

"Quite shure, parson."

"Did you put any money in yourself?"

"Yes, parson; I put in a nickel."

"And you shure dis is all dere was contributed?"

"We-we-well, parson," hesitated the deacon, "you see, to be exact, dere was just one dollar an' thirteen cents in de basket, but as I am a little superstitious I just took out dat thirteen cents!"—Yonkers Statesman.

Pat's Valor.

Seeing no other way of earning a livelihood, Pat took to highway robbery. He bought a pistol and, meeting a traveler, stopped him with the correct formula, "I er money or yer life!" Seeing Pat was "green," the traveler said, "I'll let you what I'll do. I'll give you all my money for that pistol." "Agreed!" replied Pat, who forthwith handed over the pistol and received the money in exchange. "Now," said the traveler, "hand back dat money or I'll blow your brain out!" "That's my, my heavy!" responded the Irishman. "Never a hair's powder there's in it!"—Minneapolis Journal.

GREENVILLE'S

Great

DEPARTMENT STORE.

BROWN STAMPS

Have Come to Greenville.

The best store in town offers them to you on your cash purchases. Every dime you spend there will do extra service henceforth—service that will please and benefit you.

Since you must spend money spend it so that you get full returns. And unless each ten cents in cash put out brings a BROWN STAMP in, you are not getting full value for your money.

Brown Stamps are like compound interest. They accumulate without effort on your part, and the splendid premiums they bring will leave many a dollar free for pleasure or for saving. Just such things as you would otherwise have to buy are offered for Brown Stamps and it takes but 500 stamps to give you your free choice of whatever you can best use or most need.

WE GIVE YOU $1.00 WORTH, 10 STAMPS, FREE with each new book. Unless you already have one, call at our store and get it and the $1.00 worth of free stamps. That dollars worth rolls up like a snow ball down hill, and presto! almost before you know it you have $50.00 worth a book full. Just keep the ball rolling every time you spend cash; spend it where Brown Stamps are given; and

ALWAYS ASK FOR BROWN STAMPS.

This store wants your trade—your steady trade—your Cash Trade. It offers low prices, splendid service and Brown Stamps in exchange. You cannot afford to accept less. Therefore you should deal here.

The Stamps do not apply on purchases of Groceries and Provisions.

PRICES

STILL LOW.

Our Nine Days Sale closed last Saturday and many Bargain Seekers were made happy over the Bargains, they got at the Sale.

Our sale was a success in every particular. Each day, our sales would foot larger than we anticipated.

OUR PRICES ARE STILL 1-4 OFF and on some numbers fully one-third on Clothing, Dress Goods Silks and Embroideries.

Our stock is too large and for the next thirty days we will continue to sell at Underselling Prices on the above lines in order to reduce our stock prior to arrival of Spring Goods.

C. S. FORBES,

THE MAN'S OUTFITTER.
