BANK HONOR ROLL.

High Rank of The Bank of Greenville. The Financier, of New York, is compiling an honor roll of the State banks throughout the United States. This roll will contain a list of the banks whose surplus exceeds the capital stock, and will also give the rank of each of these banks in the United States and in the city and state in which it is located. From an advance proof sheet of this honor roll which THE REFLECTOR has seen we find that the Bank of Greenville takes a high rank, being one among the 347 banks in the entire United States that is entitled to this honor. The bank of Greenville is ranked at 277th in the United States, while in North Carolina it ranks 3rd. That there are only two banks in North Carolina showing a higher per cent of surplus over capital is something our home institution may well feel proud of. It is an honor to Greenville as well as to the bank and its officers.

"Stonewall" Sure Enough.

That Stonewall Jackson Christian asks no favors and will not have a preferment to his classmates—a trait prominent in the character of his distinguished grandfather—was plainly and pronouncedly shown yesterday just before the Georgia Military academy cadets left for Washington to attend the funeral of President Roosevelt. The entire company, says the Atlanta Constitution, after reaching the city marched to the Seaboard Air Line office on Peachtree, where tickets had been prepared for the cadets. The tickets called for the ride, but no sleeper. After the tickets had been distributed Mr. Christian called his son behind the counter and handed him passes on a Pullman. When he had explained to his son the young man looked his father straight in the eye, saying: "But I don't want them, father." "Why not?" asked the father, somewhat surprised, at the same time placing a hand upon his son's shoulder.

"Why not?" repeated the young lieutenant. Why not? Why the other boys are going to ride in a day coach and I don't intend to desert them. I want just what they get and no more. No, thanks for your kindness. But I'm a Democrat. What the boys have is just what I want. It suits me better. I want nothing more than my comrades get. Just the same, father, I'm obliged to you for your thoughtfulness." And the young soldier handed the Pullman back to his father with a happy, pleasant smile wreathing his face. That's the kind of stuff of which his grandfather never slept on a feather bed when his men were sleeping on the ground.—Raleigh News and Observer.

THE LEGISLATURE.

FRIDAY.

No new bills were introduced in either branch owing to the nearness of the end of the session. Both the senate and house put in a full day at work passing and ratifying bills.

The bill to establish a dispensary at Falkland passed.

Pythian Big Night.

The Pythians will have a big time at their "Big Night" exercises on the 9th. The program is completed and provides for interesting talks by several members of the order. All members and visiting Pythians should be present to enjoy the meeting and help make it a success.

THE WEATHER.

Fair, colder tonight, Sunday fair colder in eastern portion.

THE MEETING.

A Multitude Seeking God and Life Eternal

"What means this eager, anxious throng, which moves with busy haste along—these wondrous gatherings day by day? What means this strange commotion, pray? In accents hush'd the throng reply: 'Jesus of Nazareth passeth by.' Who is this Jesus? Why should He the city move so mightily? A passing stranger, has He skill to move the multitude at will?"

Men and women are saying during the meeting now in progress at the Presbyterian church, "Sirs, we would see Jesus." Christ has been preached. He is offered as the sinner's Friend and Savior. Men are asking "Sirs, what must we do to be saved?"

Friends, you business men, lawyers, doctors, clerks in the stores, you mothers, sisters, wives in the homes—have you seen Jesus, the son of God, as he comes to Greenville with power to save? "Seek ye the Lord while He may be found."

Remember that Sunday the 5th is the last day that Dr. Black can remain to preach Christ in Greenville. He has other engagements.

Make Sunday a decision day for Christ.

She Waited in Vain.

Bluefield, W. Va., March 2.—Silas Morro, of Buchanan, Ky., who has been visiting his son, Engineer O. P. Morro, of this place, was killed while stepping out of the way of one train in front of another. It was eight hours before any one could identify who he was.

His wife, who is visiting here with him, and his son, were anxiously waiting for him to come to his supper. He did not arrive, and young Morro went to look for him, and when hearing of some one being killed, he went to the undertaker's shop, where he found his father terribly mangled. He will be taken to his home in Kentucky for burial.

At the Christian Church.

Tomorrow there will be but one preaching service. The night meeting being set aside on account of Dr. Black's meeting at the Presbyterian church.

Sunday school at 10 a. m. Preaching by the pastor at 11 a. m. Subject: Foreign Missions.

This is the day set apart for the annual offering for foreign missions. The Y. P. S. C. E. will meet as usual at 6:30 p. m. and conclude in time to allow those who desire to attend the revival meeting. Miss Alice Lang will lead the Endeavor meeting. H. H. Moore, pastor.

Services for Methodist Church, March 5th.

Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. Preaching by the pastor at 11 a. m. after which the sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered. The devotional exercises of the Epworth League will be held at 3:30 p. m.

There will be no services at night.

Are You Losing?

Those absenting themselves from the meetings in the Presbyterian church are not only missing Dr. Black's excellent sermons but also some delightful singing led by Mr. Burr. Attend the services tonight and tomorrow, and go praying for a blessing.

Sermon to Men.

At 3:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon in the Masonic temple opera house Dr. William Black will preach a sermon to men and boys over 16 years of age. There will be good music.

SHELMERDINE ITEMS.

SHELMERDINE, N. C. Mar. 4, 1905.

Jas. and Sammy Alford received a telegram Wednesday that their father was dead. They left for their home the following morning.

W. A. Stilly, of Goldsboro, spent Thursday night in Shelmerdine.

Mrs. Harper and little son, of Greenville, are visiting Mrs. F. G. Whaley.

Shade Bland had the misfortune of having his hand shot off Friday. Dr. Ricks was called to dress the wound.

Mrs. D. C. Lassiter and Miss Early, were the guests of Mrs. J. O. Bobbitt Friday.

We regret to say that Mrs. Richard Robins is worse.

J. L. Kuter, of Halifax, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. J. T. Whitfield, who is quite sick.

Rev. Mr. King, of A. den, is expected to preach here at 10 o'clock Sunday.

The aldermen of our town met Tuesday night and offered a reward of $50 for the arrest of Ben Peoples.

Billie Smith in trying to slaughter a hog, shot him nine times—six times with a 22 Winchester rifle and three times with a Johnson pistol—every ball striking the head in a place the size of a silver dollar. Neither ball fractured the skull. He at last resorted to a club axe and succeeded in killing the hog.

WINTERVILLE ITEMS.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Mar. 4.

Mrs. McG. Bryaa is very sick.

Mrs. C. D. Rountree and C. D. Rountree, of Greenville and Miss Addie Johnston, of Kinston, who have been visiting the family of J. R. Johnston, have returned to their homes.

Miss Mollie Bryan's school has closed, and she is home again.

J. R. Corey and Bert Albritton, of Greenville, were here Thursday.

"The Vance Literary Society" of the Winterville High school will on March the 17th debate the query: Resolved, that the negroes of the United States should be colonized. On the affirmative F. F. Cox, O. C. Edmondson and Major Manning; the negative G. C. Buck, J. S. Cox and T. F. Taylor. C. S. Smith went to Clay Root Saturday.

Trading in Rabbits.

Ex-Governor Aycock, some years ago had considerable fun with attorney, W. D. Siler, of Siler City, declaring that the practice of law in Chatham county had grown so poor that Mr. Siler had abandoned it and gone to trading in rabbits. Today the young attorney was sitting in the bar of Guilford Superior court. Judge Peebles looked up and saw him.

"Hello, Siler!" he said, "what are you doing here? Bring up a load of rabbits?" at which the entire bar laughed heartily. Mr. Siler disclaimed having anything to do with Chatham's favorite food product, but he was taken rather by surprise.—Greensboro Record, 15th. ult.

Teachers' Association, Saturday, March 11th, 1905.

At the next meeting of the Teachers' Association there will be no set program. The work done in the five grades at the last meeting will be thoroughly discussed and any other question which any may desire to hear. Let all be ready to take part in the exercises. A full meeting is desired. The new registers are here and will be distributed and explained at this meeting. No teacher can use them satisfactorily without a proper understanding of them.

County commissioners will meet Monday.

COME AND SEE.

WE GUARANTEE TO FIT YOU.

THOSE who failed to visit my store while the representative of Schloss Bros., was here, can still have the opportunity of seeing the samples by calling, as the full line will be kept on hand, measures taken and fit guaranteed.

I will go North in a few days and any special orders desired will have my personal attention.

New Spring Goods

ARRIVING DAILY.

There is one thing that we do not claim in our business to do and that is to sell goods cheaper than they can be bought—neither do we want to create the impression that our store is full of shop worn, out of style goods nor by filling our store with show bills and sign boards will we try to impress false ideas in your mind that we are going out of business, but we do wish it understood that we are receiving daily shipments of the newest things in and kindred materials so desirable with the women folk of Greenville and Pitt county, and we do hope that you will at least favor us with a visit to see these many new things.

RIBBONS, SILKS, EMBROIDERIES, LACES

SATURDAY, MAR. 4, 1905.

This is Teddy's day.

We'll guarantee it was pulled off in great shape.

It has been a session of striving over little things and leaving the greater undone.

The Democratic party will still be doing business when those who think it is killed have long been forgotten.

Roosevelt's crusade on the trusts will make it mighty hard on the next National chairman in securing campaign funds.

The legislators will soon be moving homeward to tell the dear people what great things they have done. And most of them can tell it all in less than two minutes.

The average jury may possibly be uncertain, but we prefer the quality of justice it gives to that the United States senate gave in the Judge Swayne impeachment trial.

Russia is still looking for trouble and from all indications she is going to find a big batch of it at Mukden. Whatever happens, Russia will, no doubt, get the worst end of it.

The legislature in Indiana has passed an anti-pass law. There is a great deal of difference in passing a law and enforcing it. We have a number of laws that are never enforced that should be.

Roosevelt says the negro must depend upon himself. Well, he may have to do this up North but down here it will be different; here he will have an army of white people to depend and impose upon.

Any legislator who accepts a railroad pass as a "courtesy" would get highly indignant if the same railroad offered to pay his expenses during the sitting of a general assembly. But there are people who manage to find a difference between a "courtesy" and a "bribe."

An exchange says that "the president of the United States has as hard a job as anybody living." And yet, he seems to be well pleased with the job, and when he takes a rest, and he will, there will be plenty others quite willing to take his place. It is not the hard jobs that commands the best pay. It is usually the "soft snaps."

War is ruinous to any country. When any two countries are forced into a war what is the result? Men of the highest standard of physical manhood are the ones to march out; men who are depended upon to rear a struggling posterity. The weaklings are not wanted, only men who are strong and can endure and stand the hardships that war makes possible. The grave responsibilities are thrown upon the wives and mothers. These strong men march out. Some never to return and those who do are crippled and physical wrecks, simply burdens on their families and their states.

Subscribe to the Semi-weekly Reflector and Southern Agriculturist you get both for one dollar.

Strength of the Welsh Revival Movement

The vast congregations were as soberly sane, as orderly, and at least as reverent as any congregation I ever saw beneath the dome of St. Paul's. But it was aflame with a passionate religious enthusiasm, the like of which I have never seen in St. Paul's. Tier above tier from the crowned aisle to the loftiest gallery sat or stood, as necessity dictated, eager hundreds of serious men and thoughtful women, their eyes riveted upon the platform or upon whatever other part of the building was the storm center of the meeting.

There was absolutely nothing wild, violent, hysterical, unless it be hysterical for the laboring breast to heave with sobbing that cannot be repressed, and the throat to choke with emotion as a sense of the awful horror and shame of a wasted life suddenly bursts upon the soul. On all sides there was the solemn gladness of men and women upon whose eyes has dawned the splendor of a new day, the foretaste of whose glories they are enjoying in the quickened sense of human fellowship and a keen glad zest added to their own lives.

Employers tell me that the quality of the work the miners are putting in has improved. Waste is less, men go to their daily toil with a new spirit of gladness in their labor. In the long dim galleries of the mine, where once the hauliers swore at their ponies in Welshified English terms of blasphemy, there is now but to be heard the haunting melody of the revival music. The pit ponies, like the American mules, have been driven by oaths and curses since they first bore the yoke, are being restrained to do their work without the incentive of profanity. There is less drinking, less idleness, less gambling. Men record with almost incredulous amazement, how one football player after another has fore-sworn cards and drink and the gladiatorial games, and is living a sober and godly life, putting his energy into the revival.

More wonderful still, and almost incredible to those who know how journalism lives and thrives upon gambling, and how Toryism is broad-based upon the drinking habits of the people, the Tory daily paper of South Wales has devoted its columns day after day to reporting and defending the movement which declares war to the death against both gambling and drink.—From "The Great Religious Revival in Wales," by William F. Stead, in the American Monthly Review of Reviews for March.

A Dinner Invitation

After a hearty meal a dose of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will prevent an attack of indigestion. Kodol is a thorough digestant and a guaranteed cure for indigestion, dyspepsia, gas on the stomach, sour rising, bad breath and all stomach troubles. N. Watkins, Lebus, Ky., says: "I can testify to the efficacy of Kodol in the cure of Stomach Trouble. I was afflicted with Stomach Trouble for fifteen years and have taken six bottles of your Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, which entirely cured me. The six bottles were worth $1,000 to me." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will digest any quantity of all the wholesome food you want to eat while your stomach takes rest—recuperates and grows strong. This wonderful preparation is justly entitled to all of its many remarkable cures. Sold by J. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

In some instances where men apply for pardons, judges and jurymen sign the petition, their reason being that there was doubt about the man's guilt in the first place. It seems to us that there should not be occasion for the advancing of such a reason. If a man is guilty he should be punished. If there is doubt as to his guilt he should not be compelled to suffer for somebody else's misdeeds and the jury and judges should see to it that he does not.—Winston Sentinel.

Pleasant and Harmless

Don't drug the stomach to cure a cough. One Minute Cough Cure cuts the mucus, draws the inflammation out of the throat, lungs and bronchial tubes, heals, soothes and cures. A quick cure for Croup and Whooping Cough. One Minute Cough Cure relieves a cough in one minute because it acts first on the mucous membrane right where the cough troubles—in the throat or deep-seated on the lungs. Sold by J. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

Let Us Not Be Deceived

There is not a doubt but that the idleness of our own people is the greatest drawback to the prosperity of this country. It is perfectly natural for people to look outside of themselves to find all hindering causes. "The woman gave it to me and I did eat" remains a plank in the modern platform. "The miserable, sorry negroes, I can get nothing out of them." "I can trust them for nothing," we hear on all sides. But how about William, Robert, James and John, and Mary and Susan and Sallie? What are they doing? Do they in any particular way demonstrate their interest and their obligations to be helpful to their father on his farm and to their mother in her household duties? Millions of dollars are lost to this country each year on account of the idleness of our own children.

We not only lose the value of their labor, but these habits which fasten themselves upon them, make their lives as men and women of wretched account. Idleness among negroes and the lower classes is bad enough, but when it takes up in our homes, it means the poisoning of the fountain source which, after all, contains the world's hope for all that is good.

Idleness in the vicious is to be deplored, but idleness practiced by the best families is worse, because it's a bad example set by good people.

Instead of swearing at the negroes who are here and trying to pull into our midst a lot of unworthy and sorry people, let us turn our eyes inward and teach our own children what is meant by an honest day's work. Cigarettes, whisky, gossiping and tattling originate and thrive in the plant bed of idleness. Let us not be deceived.—Raleigh Times.

A Destructive Fire

To draw the fire out of a burn, or heal a cut without leaving a scar, use De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve. A specific for piles. Get the genuine. J. L. Tucker, editor of the Harmondizer, Centre, Ala., writes: "I have used De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve in my family for piles, cuts and burns. It is the best salve on the market. Every family should keep it on hand." Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

The further extension of the rural free delivery system is much to be desired. There is no movement in connection with our national government that promises more for the education and prosperity of the people in the rural districts than does this and it is encouraging that many more routes are to be established in North Carolina.—Winston Sentinel.

By the Tonic Route

The pills that acts as a tonic, and not as a drastic purge, are De Witt's Little Early Risers. They cure Headache, Constipation, Biliousness, etc. Early Risers are small, easy to take and easy to act—a safe pill. Mack Hamilton, hotel clerk at Valley City, N. D., says: "Two bottles cured me of chronic constipation." Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

Since North Carolina booze artists have to send out of the State for their liquor, still houses in this part of Virginia ought to do a flourishing business. It may be that some of our blind tigers will open branch establishments down in the Old North State.—Danville, Va., Bee.

PAPOOSE POPCORN

A New Seed Discovery for FORAGE, POULTRY, POPPING

A subscriber to the Southern Agriculturist secured the original seed from an old Indian in Northwest Texas. After experimenting with it for several years he wrote that popper which good ground and care will make from 50 to 100 bushels to the acre, and plant it and out with it and all it will do more food and better feed than anything I ever saw. The old Indian seed popper that I would never have the chance to have but that a good friend of mine since I have been in the States also popper. I have an article through the Southern Agriculturist for seed and only a few bushels are left. $1.00 for a 3 bushel trial subscription to Southern Agriculturist, 32 C. P. O. WHY?

There is no need asking the question. It is plain enough that the enterprising business man uses the columns of

The Reflector

for making his announcements to the trading public because IT Brings—

Satisfactory Returns

THE REFLECTOR Is Read By Everybody in reach, and it reaches people who have money to pay for what they want. If you have what they want advertise it and you are sure to get a part of their money.

TWO EDITIONS THE DAILY REFLECTOR,

EVERY AFTERNOON, (EXCEPT SUNDAY), At $3 a Year 25 cents a Month.

THE EASTERN REFLECTOR,

TWICE A-WEEK, (Tuesday and Friday), At $1 a Year.

You are the loser if you fail to read one of these.

FREE TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS.

OUR GREAT 1905 OFFER

We have purchased a number of annual subscriptions to the Southern Agriculturist, and, as long as they last, we will give one, free of charge, to every subscriber who pays for The Eastern Reflector a full year IN ADVANCE. If you are in arrears, pay up and for a year ahead, and get this valuable present. If you are not already a subscriber, send in your order at once, before this great offer is withdrawn.

SOUTHERN AGRICULTURIST

Is published at Nashville, Tenn. It is issued 24 times a year and the subscription price is 50 cents. It contains more reading matter than most dollar papers and is edited by Southern men who know the needs of Southern farmers. Every issue is like a big experience meeting, the farmers' questions being answered by such men as Maj. Thos. J. Key, former Assistant Commissioner of Agriculture of Alabama, and Prof. Andrew M. Soule, Director of the Virginia Experiment Station. The Home Department is conducted by Aunt Anne, whom all readers soon learn to love.

WE OFFER $1.50 IN VALUE FOR $1.00

But you must hurry. This proposition will not be held open indefinitely. THE EASTERN REFLECTOR.

Sample copies of Southern Agriculturist free at our office.

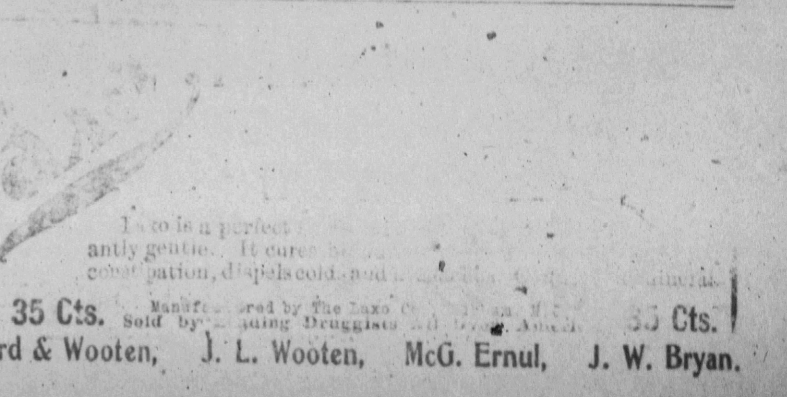

Job Printing

The Reflector was never better prepared than now to nice Job Printing. New presses, new type and plenty of Stock recently added. Our work is done right and prices are right. Send The Reflector Your Order.

GREENVILLE'S

Great

DEPARTMENT STORE.

BROWN STAMPS

Have Come to Greenville.

The best store in town offers them to you on your cash purchases. Every dime you spend there will do extra service henceforth—service that will please and benefit you.

Since you must spend money spend it so that you get full returns. And unless each ten cents in cash put out brings a BROWN STAMP in, you are not getting full value for your money.

Brown Stamps are like compound interest. They accumulate without effort on your part, and the splendid premiums they bring will leave many a dollar free for pleasure or for saving. Just such things as you would otherwise have to buy are offered for Brown Stamps and it takes but 500 stamps to give you your free choice of whatever you can best use or most need.

WE GIVE YOU $1.00 WORTH, 10 STAMPS, FREE with each new book. Unless you already have one, call at our store and get it and the $1.00 worth of free stamps. That dollars worth rolls up like a snow ball down hill, and presto! almost before you know it you have $50.00 worth a book full. Just keep the ball rolling every time you spend cash; spend it where Brown Stamps are given; and ALWAYS ASK FOR BROWN STAMPS.

This store wants your trade—your steady trade—your Cash Trade. It offers low prices, splendid service and Brown Stamps in exchange. You cannot afford to accept less. Therefore you should deal here.

The Stamps do not apply on purchases of Groceries and Provisions.

Is it Right.

Is it right that a property-owner should lose $4.20 to let a dealer make 50 cents? A dealer makes 50 cents more on fourteen gallons of ready for use paint, at $1.50 per gallon, than our agent does on eight gallons of L. & M. paint and six gallons of linseed oil, which make fourteen gallons of the best paint in the world, at $1.20 per gallon; the property-owner loses just $4.20. Is it right?

It only requires 4 gallons of L. & M. and 3 gallons linseed oil to paint a moderate sized house.

Ten thousand churches painted with Longman & Martinez L. & M. paint.

Liberal quantity given to churches when bought from H. L. Carr.

Letters from Women

Cured by the use of Kodol are received daily. Their troubles nearly all begin with indigestion or other stomach disorder.

If the food you eat fails to give strength to your body, it is because the juices secreted by the stomach and digestive organs are inadequate to transform the nutrient properties of the food into blood. That is indigestion. The system is deprived of the amount of nourishment required to keep up the strength, and the result is that one or more of the delicate organs gradually grows weak, and then weaker, until finally it is diseased. Here a great mistake is made. That of treating the diseased organ. The best doctors in the land make this very mistake. Why should they? It is so easy to see that the trouble is not there.

Kodol Cures

This famous remedy puts the stomach and digestive organs in a healthy condition so that rich, red blood is sent coursing through the veins and arteries of every muscle, tissue and fiber throughout every organ of the entire body, and by Nature's law of health, full strength and vigor is soon restored to each.

Kodol cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach disorders.
I have taken Kodol for nearly two months after each meal and it is the only remedy that gave relief from the terrible pains I endured. After a time I would take it but once a day, and now, while I keep a bottle handy, I seldom need it, as it has cured me.

Correct Styles.

==FOR==

SPRING & SUMMER

In selecting material, choose something that will harmonize with your make-up. Big checks don't look well on stout men and stripes should not be worn by men of a tall, slim build. Be careful, also as to color. Pale complexioned men should be careful of drabs, or a material with a touch of green in them. Browns are better. Blue looks well on most people, but men with reddish hair should not select a shad that is too bright. A little care in this direction goes a long way in improving a man's looks.

Over 500 styles to show you. Brown serges to will take the place of Blues this season. See our $17.50 and $20 line.
